

13-805. Offer; definition.

An offer is a communication of a willingness to enter into a contract. The communication must satisfy four conditions:

First, the communication must have included a proposal by _____ (name of offeror) showing _____'s (name of offeror) willingness to contract;

Second, the material terms of that proposal must have been reasonably certain;

Third, the terms must have been communicated to _____ (name of offeree); and

Fourth, by the communication _____ (name of offeror) must have intended to give _____ (name of offeree) the power to create a contract by accepting the terms.

In this case, the parties agree that: [include here the conditions which are not in dispute]. What is in dispute is: [include here the conditions that are in dispute].
