

13-1205. Right-of-way not absolute.

A person having the right-of-way must nevertheless use ordinary care in exercising the right-of-way so as to avoid injury to [himself] [herself] or to others.

USE NOTES

This instruction is to be used when UJI 13-1204 is given and there is an issue concerning the exercise of ordinary care by the party on the right.
[As amended, effective January 1, 1987; November 1, 1991.]