MEMORANDUM OPINION

VIGIL, Chief Judge.

{1} Defendant Adelina Baca appeals from the district court's affirmance of her conviction after a bench trial in metropolitan court for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. This Court issued a notice of proposed disposition, proposing to agree with and adopt the district court's memorandum opinion and affirm Defendant's conviction. Defendant filed a notice that she will not file a memorandum in opposition. Accordingly, for the reasons stated in our notice of proposed disposition and herein, and for the reasons articulated in the memorandum opinion of the district court, we affirm Defendant's conviction.

{2} IT IS SO ORDERED.

MICHAEL E. VIGIL, Chief Judge
