

Domestic Relations Forms

Stage One (1) Divorce Forms

4A-100. Domestic relations forms; instructions and cautions regarding use of forms.

A. Short title. These forms, compiled as Forms 4A-100 through 4A-403 NMRA, shall be known as the Domestic Relations Forms and shall be cited by their New Mexico Rules Annotated set and form number, as in “Form 4A-____ NMRA.”

B. Mandatory acceptance of forms by district court. The New Mexico Supreme Court has approved these Domestic Relations Forms for use in domestic relations actions by self-represented litigants and attorneys appearing in the district courts. As provided by Rule 1-120 NMRA, these forms supersede conflicting local district court domestic relations forms and shall be accepted by the district courts.

C. Responsibility of self-represented parties. A self-represented person shall abide by the same rules of procedure and rules of evidence as lawyers. It is the responsibility of a self-represented person to determine what needs to be done and to take the necessary action. A self-represented person involved in a divorce proceeding may need the advice of an attorney or other appropriate professional during the process and is responsible for finding an attorney or other appropriate professional for advice or representation.

(1) All notices from the court will be mailed to you at the last address on file with the court. If you move, you must file a Notice of Change of Address so that you receive your mail from the court.

(2) Rule 1-005 NMRA requires that you provide a copy of anything you file in court to the other party on the same day you file it. This is what the Certificate of Service confirms.

D. Definitions. The following definitions apply to the terms used in the Domestic Relations Forms:

(1) “contested divorce proceeding” means a divorce proceeding in which the parties cannot reach an agreement on one or more decisions that must be made to finalize a divorce, including but not limited to the division of property, debts, spousal support, child custody, time sharing, visitation, or child support, and therefore are unable to file all of the required forms at the same time;

(2) “creditor” means a person, agency, bank, or business to whom a debt is owed;

(3) “custody plan” means Form 4A-302 NMRA, which sets forth the type of legal custody and includes a parenting plan, when required by law;

(4) “debt” means separate or community debt as defined in Section 40-3-9 NMSA 1978. Debt is an amount of money owed to a creditor that may include, but is not limited to: loans (signature, car, school, payday), mortgages, credit card balances, balances owed on bills (utilities, phone, cell phone, cable television), and federal and state tax bills. The party whose name is on the debt may not be the only party responsible for payment of the debt;

(5) “default” means the process to get relief from the court in the form of an order when a party fails to respond or defend a case (either party is subject to a default judgment for failure to respond). See Rule 1-055 NMRA for more information;

(6) “dissolution of marriage” means a divorce;

(7) “divorce proceeding” means the judicial process used to get a divorce;

(8) “minor child” means a child who is under eighteen (18) years of age and who is the child of both parties to a divorce. For the purposes of support only, a child who is under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school full time may be considered a minor child;

(9) “parenting plan” means a plan as defined by Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978, setting forth the responsibilities of each parent individually and the parents jointly in a joint custody arrangement. For an example of a parenting plan, see Form 4A-302(II)(B) NMRA;

(10) “party” means a spouse named in a divorce proceeding;

(11) “petition for dissolution of marriage” means the document that requests a divorce;

(12) “petitioner” means the first party named on a petition for dissolution of marriage. This person is referred to as a “petitioner” solely for purposes of identifying the parties in the court system;

(13) “property” means the types of property the parties to a divorce may own, including community, separate, or quasi-community as defined in Section 40-3-8 NMSA 1978. Property includes, but is not limited to: homes, land, livestock, cars/vehicles, furniture, savings and checking accounts, retirement accounts, jewelry, inheritances, tools, and art. The name of the party on the title to the property may not be the sole owner of the property. Questions about whether property is separate or community should be referred to a private attorney or the court, as appropriate;

(14) “respondent” means the second party named on a petition in a domestic relations proceeding;

(15) “service” or “service of process” means having a person eighteen (18) years or older, who is not a party to the action, give papers to a named party in a case by personally handing the paperwork to the person, or having the papers delivered to a named party in a case by some other way as described in Rule 1-004 NMRA;

(16) “summons” means a notice to the respondent that a lawsuit has started. The summons notifies the respondent to respond to the divorce petition within the specified deadline.

The summons is a two-part form. On the first part, the summons has information about the court, names and addresses of the parties, the deadline for a response, and notice that a default may happen for failure to respond. The second part of the summons is the return. The summons is served on the respondent. Once the respondent is served, the return must be filled out by the person who did the service of process and signed by that person with a notarized signature. When the original summons, including the return, is completely filled out and signed, the petitioner is responsible for filing it with the district court. The summons form is Form 4-206 NMRA. Filing the completed summons and return lets the court know that the respondent has been served;

(17) “summons packet” means a copy of the summons (Form 4-206 NMRA), petition for dissolution of marriage (Form 4A-102 or 4A-103 NMRA), temporary domestic order (Form 4A-201 NMRA), and a blank copy of the Domestic Relations Information Sheet (Form 4A-101 NMRA). See Paragraph E below for more information. The summons packet is served on the respondent;

(18) “temporary domestic order” means an order issued by the court when a divorce proceeding is filed that instructs the parties on how to conduct themselves regarding interactions with each other, finances, children, and property until the divorce is final. The temporary domestic order is Form 4A-201 NMRA;

(19) “time sharing and order for support and care of children” means one or more orders of the court to include a parenting plan as defined in Paragraph L of Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978 containing the duties of the parents of minor children relating to child custody, time sharing, visitation, and support, including support of a child under nineteen (19) years of age who is attending high school;

(20) “uncontested divorce proceeding” means a divorce proceeding in which the parties are in complete agreement as to all the decisions that must be made to finalize a divorce, including but not limited to decisions regarding the division of property, debts, spousal support, child custody, timesharing, visitation, and child support, and present the following required forms, completed and signed by both parties, for filing at the same time:

(a) Without children. If the parties do not have minor children, the following forms must be filed in an uncontested divorce proceeding:

- (i) Domestic relations information sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA
- (ii) Petition for dissolution of marriage (without minor children), Form 4A-102 NMRA;
- (iii) Marital settlement agreement, Form 4A-301 NMRA; and
- (iv) Final decree of dissolution of marriage (without minor children), Form 4A-305 NMRA.

(b) With children. If the parties have minor children, the following forms must be filed in an uncontested divorce proceeding:

- (i) Domestic relations information sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA;
- (ii) Petition for dissolution of marriage (with minor children), Form 4A-103 NMRA;
- (iii) Marital settlement agreement, Form 4A-301 NMRA;
- (iv) Custody plan and order, Form 4A-302 NMRA;
- (v) Child support obligation and order, Form 4A-303 NMRA, with attached child support worksheet as described in Section 40-4-11.1 NMSA 1978; and
- (vi) Final decree of dissolution of marriage (with minor children), Form 4A-306 NMRA; and

(21) “wage withholding order” means an order that requires child support to be withheld from the wages of the named parent.

E. STARTING THE DIVORCE PROCESS; CONTESTED. These are the first forms that must be filed with the court. When starting this process, each spouse must be named as a party on the forms. One spouse is the petitioner and the other is the respondent. The spouse starting the lawsuit is the named petitioner. The other spouse is the respondent. The claims or rights of either party are not determined on the basis of being named as the petitioner or respondent. See Paragraph F of this rule for instructions on completing forms and next steps after these forms are filled out. In a divorce proceeding, the case is started by filing the following completed forms with the court:

(1) Domestic Relations Information Sheet. Form 4A-101 NMRA shall be submitted to the court in all cases. This form is used to provide the court with essential information about the parties to the divorce proceeding, such as addresses, social security numbers, dates of birth, and the names and ages of the children of the parties. Although this form is required to be turned into the court, it is not a public record and is not part of the court file; and

(2) Divorce Petition (Petition for Dissolution of Marriage). Depending on whether there are minor children of both parties, one of the following two forms are used to request a divorce:

(a) Form 4A-102 NMRA is used if the parties do not have any minor children together; or

(b) Form 4A-103 NMRA is used if the parties have minor children together.

(3) Summons. The Summons Form is Form 4-206 NMRA. The petitioner must complete this form. When the petitioner completes the contact information, the court will fill in additional information to complete the summons and return the original summons to the petitioner. A copy of the summons shall be served on the respondent as part of the Summons Packet. See Paragraph J of this rule for serving the Summons Packet. It is the responsibility of the petitioner to file the original summons with a completed return with the court.

(4) Temporary Domestic Order (TDO). The TDO is Form 4A-201 NMRA. Each judicial district has different procedures about who provides the standard form and how a TDO is issued. Some courts provide the form when the lawsuit is filed and others require the party starting the lawsuit to complete the form. Check with the court where you are filing your lawsuit to find out if you need to bring a TDO form with you. The contents of the TDO form shall not be changed by any person. The form requires only the completion of the court caption on the first page. If the court where you are filing your lawsuit does not issue its own TDO, bring additional copies of the TDO with you when filing your lawsuit.

F. Completion of forms. When filling out any forms, please do the following:

(1) Type or print. You must type or print all of the information required to be completed on forms filed with the court. If there is not enough room on the form to provide all of the information required, add a separate page for the information and include the page with the rest of the form before making copies and filing the form with the court. Your handwriting should be clear and easy to read.

(2) Signing the forms and other papers. Your signature on a form or other paper filed with the court means the following:

(a) you have read and understand the form or paperwork;

(b) the information provided by you on the form is factually correct to the best of your knowledge; and

(c) the information in the paperwork is accurate and true. Some forms may need to be signed in front of a notary public and notarized.

G. Required number of copies to file with the court. After completing and signing any required forms, take the original and two copies of each form to the court clerk for filing. The clerk will file the originals and return stamped copies to you. One copy is for you, and you must provide the other copy to the other party.

H. Pay the filing fee. A filing fee must be paid to the court clerk in cash or money order at the time the divorce case is opened. A divorce case is opened by filing a domestic relations information sheet, divorce petition, and summons. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you may ask the court to allow you to file for free or a reduced rate by filing an application for free process. The application for free process is Form 4-222 NMRA.

I. Filing the first forms with the court. After completing the Summons Packet, take the original and two (2) copies of each completed form to file in the district court. The court clerk will sign and stamp the original summons and give the original and two (2) copies of it back to you with a copy of your filed divorce petition so that a copy of the summons can be served on the respondent. The clerk may also give you two (2) copies of the TDO or will endorse (stamp) copies of a TDO provided by you. One copy of the temporary domestic order must be served on your spouse as part of the summons packet.

J. Serving the summons packet.

(1) After a divorce petition and summons and TDO are filed with the court, copies of all papers must be served on the respondent. This is known as service of process.

(2) The summons packet and any other documents the clerk instructs you to serve may be served on the respondent by hand-delivery by a person who is over the age of eighteen (18) and is not a party to the divorce proceeding. The petitioner cannot be the person who serves the respondent. Have someone deliver the summons packet to the respondent as required by Rule 1-004(F) NMRA. It is the sole responsibility of the petitioner to have the summons packet served on the respondent and to provide proof that the service was completed. The court is not responsible for serving documents on any party.

(a) If you and respondent are not living together and you know the respondent's current mailing address, the summons packet may also be served by certified mail, return receipt requested. If served by certified mail, the respondent must sign a receipt indicating that he or she received the summons packet for service to be completed. The return receipt from the certified mailing must be filed with the district court.

(b) There are other ways of serving the summons packet on the respondent. Read Rule 1-004 NMRA to learn more about those methods.

(c) Service of process may be done by a private process server, law enforcement, or any other person who is over eighteen (18) and not a party to the lawsuit. You may have to pay a fee to someone to do the service of process for you. Check with your local law enforcement or look in the phone book for resources for service of process.

(3) If you cannot find the respondent after reasonable attempts to find him or her to serve the summons packet, you may file a motion with the court asking permission to serve the summons packet by publication in a newspaper. If you need to serve the summons packet by publication in a newspaper, use Forms 4-209 and 4-209A NMRA.

(4) After successful service on the respondent, the petitioner is responsible for making sure that the original summons with the completed return is filed with the court to prove that the respondent was served.

K. Responding to the petition. In a contested divorce proceeding, the respondent must file a written response to the divorce petition. Form 4A-104 NMRA may be used to respond to the divorce petition. The response must be filed with the court and a copy mailed to the petitioner within thirty (30) days after the summons packet was served on the respondent. Failure to file a response to the divorce petition within the thirty (30) days can result in serious consequences, including entry of a default judgment against the respondent.

L. Issues not addressed by the forms. The Domestic Relations Forms may not address all domestic relations issues relevant to you. The forms address only the most common divorce issues. If there are issues that are not addressed in the forms, you are responsible for bringing those issues to the attention of the court or you should seek the assistance of an attorney. You may need to get other forms that are not provided in these rules to finish the transfer of property, businesses, etc. For example, the forms do not include the following:

(1) federal and state tax treatment of income, expenses, and deductions both before and after a divorce, or as a result of a child support order, for claiming children as dependents, or for paying or receiving alimony;

(2) how to transfer title to property or assets;

(3) how to divide a business or retirement income;

- (4) how to divide or transfer other complicated assets; or
- (5) how to divide or transfer debts.

M. Keeping Records. Any party to an action should make copies of all documents, paperwork, or forms filed with the court for his or her own records.

N. Paying Creditors. These forms, including the final decree of dissolution of marriage, do not change the legal responsibility of the parties to pay their creditors.

O. Role of judge, clerk, and court. Court clerks can only help you with filing forms with the court; they cannot help you complete them. The judge makes decisions in your case, but neither the judge nor the judge's staff can give advice to either party, including how to fill out the forms. If you need assistance or have questions about how to complete the forms, you may seek help from an attorney. The court clerks may give you information about resources for legal assistance. See Rule 23-113 NMRA, which provides more guidance on what information and assistance court staff may give to self-represented litigants. You may also want to use your local library to get information about the forms or legal citations in these rules, which may include internet searches of New Mexico court websites (www.nmcourts.gov) and the New Mexico compilation commission (www.nmcompcomm.us).

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No.14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, required the parties to notify the court when they change their address; required a party to provide the opposing party with copies of all documents filed with the court; added and modified definitions of terms; and clarified the use of the form. The amendment rewrote the rule to the extent that a detailed comparison was impracticable.

Compiler's note. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, a new 4A-100 NMRA was adopted effective May 31, 2013.

Withdrawals. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, former 4A-100 NMRA, relating to the purpose and use of domestic relations forms, was withdrawn effective May 31, 2013.

D. Request to limit access to information.

(Optional – complete only if applicable)

[] The [petitioner] [respondent] has reason to fear domestic violence or child abuse. For this reason, please limit access to information about the [petitioner] [respondent] in the Child Support & Paternity Case Registry to the extent possible.⁴ The [petitioner] [respondent] realizes that this request may make it more difficult to assist in collecting child support. The [petitioner] [respondent] understands that the other party and the public might still view information about this case under some circumstances.

I affirm that this request is legitimately made and not designed to harass or intimidate the other party or mislead the court.

END OF INFORMATION SHEET

USE NOTES

1. The Domestic Relations Information Sheet is not required in domestic violence, commitment, guardianship, probate, or adoption actions; or if you are filing a pleading that does not change or add to the first pleading.

In uncontested domestic relations matters, the parties may submit one Information Sheet with the initial pleading, and the documents need not be served.

In all other contested domestic relations cases each attorney representing a petitioner, or the petitioner proceeding pro se, in a contested case must submit the Information Sheet and serve a blank copy of the Information Sheet on the respondent. Respondents must submit the completed Information Sheet with their first responsive pleading.

The information submitted on these forms does not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers required by law. These forms, approved by the Supreme Court of New Mexico, are required to initiate domestic relations cases and are used by the courts for case management.

Forms are available from the court clerks and the NMRA. Electronic copies may be obtained from the Supreme Court's internet site (www.supremecourt.nm.org) and New Mexico Law on Disc. If re-keying the form it must appear substantially in the same format as the Supreme Court approved form. Type or print only. If using a word processing system, please print your answers in bold.

2. Unless there are more than four children, the Information Sheet is to be submitted on a single page. The clerk will key-enter the information on the Information Sheet. The Information Sheet will not be filed in the court file.

3. If the party has more than one social security number, please include it. Pursuant to Sections 27-1-10 and 27-1-11 NMSA 1978 and federal law, each party must submit the social security number of each party as well as the name, date of birth and social security number for each minor child. This information will be provided to the State Case Registry and, upon request, to child support enforcement agencies. The parties' addresses and social security numbers are also used to accurately identify and track court users, obtain feedback from court users on a periodic basis and to issue process in contempt proceedings. Addresses provided on this page will not be made a part of the public record unless that party is or becomes self represented.

4. The Child Support & Paternity Case Registry is a required, nationwide database of child support and paternity orders. Access to registry information is strictly limited to court and child support administrative personnel. Requesting that your registry information be "nondisclosed" does not prevent authorized parties from reviewing the information. Rather, it alerts courts and child support administrative personnel to act with caution when viewing your information. However, be aware that requesting "nondisclosure" of registry information does not limit access to your official district court case file which is a public record. If you are concerned about such access, ask your lawyer, or the court clerk if you do not have a lawyer, about ways in which the court may restrict access to your court file.

[Provisionally approved as 4-211 NMRA, effective November 1, 1999 until November 1, 2000; approved, as amended, effective November 1, 2000; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all cases filed on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, converted the form from a cover sheet to an information sheet; in the title of the rule, changed "cover" to "information"; in the title of the form, after the word "RELATIONS", deleted "COVER" and added "INFORMATION" and added the second line "NOTES TO CLERK"; deleted the former section for official use, for the court clerk's use and for the judge's use; deleted the former instruction to the court clerk to file the cover sheet in the court file; at the beginning of the information sheet, deleted the former statement that the information on the information sheet is required by New Mexico and federal law for child support enforcement and to identify and monitor the case; added Paragraph A; in Paragraph C, deleted the former questions about orders for child support and changes in child support; at the end of the information sheet, deleted the claims for relief for each primary case type, including dissolution with minor children, dissolution with no minor child, establish custody or visitation, enforce or modify custody, visitation or support, property division, and establish parentage or paternity; and in the Use Note, in Paragraph 1, in the first paragraph, deleted “Cover Sheet and the Domestic Relations”, and in the second paragraph, deleted “both the cover sheet and”; deleted former Paragraph 2 which provided that the information in the “official use only” section of the cover sheet would be filed with the court clerk and that the court clerk would fill in the case number and assigned judge information sheet; deleted former Paragraph 3 which provided that the identification of the case type, primary and other claims for relief were for court data keeping purposes and not binding for any purpose and instructions for selecting the code for the primary case type; deleted former Paragraph 4 which provided instructions for selecting codes for other claims for relief; in renumbered Paragraph 2, deleted the former first sentence which instructed that the cover sheet is be submitted to the clerk on one page, deleted the former third sentence which instructed the clerk to key-enter the information on the cover sheet and place it in the court file, and deleted the former fourth sentence which provided that only the cover sheet was to be filed; and deleted former Paragraph 6 which required that the “notes” on the form were to be submitted to the court clerk.

The 2013 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective May 31, 2013, made minor formatting changes.

The 2000 amendment, effective November 1, 2000 added Item 3 at the end of the Information Sheet and added Use Note 8.

Stage Two (2) Divorce Forms

4A-200. Domestic relations forms; instructions for stage two (2) forms.

A. Temporary orders. After your petition for dissolution of marriage has been filed but before the court issues a final decree, you may request assistance on a temporary basis using Form 4A-202 NMRA. The court may provide such assistance by issuing one of the following temporary orders:

(1) Temporary domestic order. See Subparagraphs (D)(18) and (E)(4) of Form 4A-100 NMRA for an explanation of when to request a temporary domestic order from the court. For the temporary domestic order, see Form 4A-201 NMRA;

(2) Temporary division of property. You may request this relief when you need assistance from the court with access to property such as a home (e.g., a house, apartment) or a vehicle;

(3) Temporary division of income and debts. You may request this relief when you cannot agree about how bills will be paid, or you are having trouble paying the bills with only your income. This relief will include child support if you and your spouse have minor children together;

(4) Temporary custody of minor children. You may request this relief when you cannot agree on important decisions about the children, including decisions about medical treatment and where the children will go to school. For more information about child custody, see Section 40-4-9.1 NMSA 1978;

(5) Temporary order establishing timesharing or visitation schedule. You may request this relief when you cannot agree on a schedule of how much time each parent will spend with the child and when the child will be with each parent;

(6) Temporary child support and request for wage withholding. If you have not already requested a temporary division of property and debts as provided in Paragraph (A)(3) of this rule, you may request this relief when you cannot agree on the amount of money that one party should pay the other party to help support the children. If the court grants a temporary child support order, the child support payment may be taken from the paying party's paycheck pursuant to a wage withholding order. For more information about a wage withholding order, see Form 4A-300(D)(2)(b) NMRA. For the wage withholding order, see Form 4A-304 NMRA; and

(7) Temporary allocation of community resources to permit both parties to hire an attorney. You may request this relief when you need money to hire an attorney and there is money or credit available from either or both of the parties.

B. Motion to modify temporary order. You may file this motion (Form 4A-203 NMRA) if you have a temporary order and you want to change it. In your motion, you must state specific reasons why the temporary order should be changed.

C. Motion for referral to mediation (child custody, timesharing, or visitation). You may file this motion (Form 4A-204 NMRA) when you believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that you will be able to reach an agreement about child custody or visitation with the assistance of a mediator. Requesting a referral for mediation on child custody does not require the issue of child support to be resolved at the same time. To mediate child support, the parties must have exchanged all documentation required by Rule 1-123 NMRA, as provided by Paragraph D of this rule.

D. Motion for referral to mediation (child support or other financial issues).

You may file this motion (Form 4A-205 NMRA) only if each of the following circumstances has been met:

(1) the parties have exchanged all documentation required by Rule 1-123 NMRA (see the appendix to this Rule for more information);

(2) you believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that you can reach a final agreement on some or all of the matters in your divorce other than child custody or visitation, such as child support, division of income and debt, or division of a retirement account. See Form 4A-202 NMRA (Motion for temporary order) for other matters that may be mediated; and

(3) the judicial district that you are filing in has a mediation program for this purpose, or the parties have funds available to pay for a private mediator.

E. Motion to enforce order. You may file a motion to enforce order (Form 4A-209 NMRA) when you want to ask the court for help because you believe the other party is not following a court order. You should be very specific when completing the motion; tell the court what the court order says and what the other person is doing or not doing that is violating the order. State only serious violations and be as complete as possible. Bring a copy of the order with you to the hearing. If you do not have a copy of the order, you may obtain one from the clerk's office. Standard copying fees may apply.

F. General instructions for filing motions.

(1) Either party may file a motion seeking help from the court. When you file a motion, it must be filed with the Court Clerk's Office. You must fill out and bring a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA) to the court to be filed at the same time as your motion. You may be required to bring an original, completed Notice of Hearing (Form 4A-207 NMRA) with self-addressed stamped envelopes for both parties. The court will send each party a Notice of Hearing that will include your assigned hearing date and time in the self-addressed stamped envelopes you provided. WARNING: Generally, this rule must be followed when filing a motion; however, many courts have special rules when the parties need a hearing. You should inquire at the Court Clerk's Office to determine if special rules apply when you request a hearing.

(2) If the motion relates to money (see Subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), (6) and (7) of Paragraph A, above), you must take the steps required by Rule 1-123 NMRA and file a Notice of Compliance with Rule 1-123 NMRA (Form 4A-208 NMRA), with the Court Clerk's Office. For further information on Rule 1-123 NMRA, please refer to the appendix to this rule.

(3) There may be other motions that you want to file. You should follow these general instructions with all motions. Any response to a motion should be served on the other party as set forth in Form 4A-100(J) NMRA.

(4) WARNING: All forms include a verification of service which tells the court that you gave a copy of your motion to the other party. Your motion cannot be heard by the court unless you have properly served a copy on the other party.

G. Hearings. You will receive a notice of hearing from the court mailed to you in the self-addressed stamped envelope that you or your spouse provided to the court when filing the motion. See the appendix to this rule for instructions about how to prepare for the hearing. If someone you need to be your witness does not want to go to the hearing, you will need to request a subpoena from the court before the hearing. If a subpoena is issued by the court, the person will be ordered to appear at the court at the date, time, and place of your hearing. You are responsible for getting the subpoena served on the witness and for filing the return of service with the Clerk of the Court. For further information about subpoenas, see Rule 1-045 NMRA.

H. Hearing officers. From time to time, the judge may appoint a hearing officer to preside over your hearing. The hearing officer is required to prepare a Hearing Officer Report within thirty (30) days after your hearing, which contains findings of fact and recommendations to the judge on how the court should rule. The court will mail each party a copy of the Hearing Officer Report and a Notice of Filing. If you do not agree with the hearing officer's recommendations, you must complete and file written objections within ten (10) days after service of the recommendations using Form 4A-211 NMRA. You must send a copy of the written objections to the other party. If no written objections are received by the district court, then the recommendations of the hearing officer may be adopted by the court without further notice to you. If the court receives written objections to the recommendations, the court will decide whether to set a hearing or to enter its own order. The court will notify you of the action it has taken. For further information about hearing officers in domestic relations actions, see Rule 1-053.2 NMRA.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2017.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective December 31, 2017, removed the instruction related to filing a motion for an order to show cause why a party is not following a court order and added an instruction related to filing a motion to enforce a court order; added a new Paragraph E and redesignated former Paragraph E as Paragraph F; and deleted former Paragraph F, which related to special instructions for filing a motion for order to show cause when the other party is not following a court order.

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, clarified the language of the instructions and changed “should” to “may” throughout; in Paragraph A (4), deleted “where the children should live and which parent should have the authority to make”, and after “decisions about the children”, added the remainder of the sentence; and in Paragraph A (6), in the second sentence, after “wage withholding order”, deleted “unless there is good cause not to do so”; in Paragraph D, in the introductory sentence, after “only if”, added “each of the following circumstances has been met”; in Paragraph E (1), in the third sentence, after “You”, deleted “must also” and added “may be required”; in Paragraph E (4), deleted the former first sentence which provided that the motion could not be heard unless it is served on the other party, in the current first sentence, after “include a”, deleted “certificate” and added “verification”, and after “verification of service”, added the remainder of the sentence, and added the second sentence; in Paragraph F, in the first paragraph, after “you want to”, deleted “tell the court that the other person is not following an existing court order and to”, and after “ask the court for help”, added the remainder of the sentence, and added the fourth sentence; in the second paragraph, added the second sentence; in the third paragraph, in the first sentence, added “If the court grants the motion, you”, and after “Cause”, deleted “sent to you from the court, or it may be available to be picked up from the court”, added the second sentence, in the third sentence, added “The order or notice”; in the fourth paragraph, in the first sentence, deleted “You are responsible for serving a copy of the” and after “Cause”, added “must be personally served”, deleted the former third sentence which provided that the court might help if the papers could not be served on the other party, deleted the former fourth sentence which instructed the party to keep one copy of the affidavit of service, and added the fifth sentence; and in Paragraph G, in the third sentence, after “request a subpoena”, added “from the court before the hearing”.

4A-200 APPENDIX. Supplement to the notice of hearing and mandatory compliance with Rule 1-123.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE NOTICE OF HEARING AND MANDATORY COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 1-123

If your case involves a pending dissolution of marriage with a division of property, income, and/or debt

Complete Rule 1-123 discovery forms and file your certificate of compliance with this rule in the District Court. With the other party, exchange a list of your community property and debts (using Form 4A-214 NMRA) and a list of separate property and debts (using Form 4A-215 NMRA) and include all supporting documents. Bring copies of the lists and supporting documents to the court for your hearing. DO NOT FILE THE LISTS WITH THE COURT.

If either party is seeking interim division of income and expenses , then the parties should complete the interim monthly income and expenses statement (Form 4A-212 NMRA) and provide the form and all supporting documentation to the other party before the hearing. DO NOT FILE THE FORM WITH THE COURT. Bring copies of any supporting documents (e.g., pay stubs, tax returns, mortgage statements, credit card statements, utility bills, etc.) and forms to the hearing. Each party must file a notice of compliance with Rule 1-123 (Form 4A-208 NMRA) before a hearing on interim division of income and expenses.

The parties can obtain copies of the court-approved Marital Settlement Agreement (Form 4A-301 NMRA) from the court where your case is filed or from www.nmcourts.gov. The parties should exchange drafts of the Marital Settlement Agreement before the hearing. Bring a copy of your draft Marital Settlement Agreement and of the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 NMRA) to your hearing.

If your case involves establishing, modifying, or enforcing child support

Employed by a company or individual	Self employed
Exchange with the other party and bring to the court copies of current year-to-date earnings statement or pay stubs.	Exchange with the other party and bring to the court copies of Profit & Loss Statements with supporting documents.
Exchange tax returns, including your W-2 & 1099 Statements with all schedules for the prior two years.	Business tax returns with supporting documents and verification of income and expenses for the prior two years.

Exchange and bring to the court receipts for current daycare expenses.

Exchange and bring to the court documentation of health insurance costs for the child(ren). Most Human Resources Offices can provide you with payroll deduction information for "employee"/"employee plus one" or "employee plus family" coverage.

Bring proof of payment of child support (i.e. canceled checks, money orders or receipts) to the hearing.

If you are seeking a wage withholding order (Form 4A-303 NMRA) or child support enforcement services, contact CSED at 1-800-288-7207 to apply for services and obtain a CSED case number. If CSED has an interest in the case, the parties are responsible for notifying CSED of the hearing.

If your case involves child custody, timesharing, or visitation issues

Obtain a copy of the court-approved Custody Plan (Form 4A-302) at www.nmcourts.gov. Each party should develop a proposed temporary, age appropriate timesharing or visitation plan and exchange the proposal with the other party prior to the hearing.

Bring a copy of your proposed Custody Plan to the hearing.

If your case involves spousal support or alimony

Bring documentation of your income and the income of the other party (e.g., pay stubs, personal and business tax returns, along with supporting documentation such as bank records, business expenses, etc.). In addition you should bring documentation of monthly recurring expenses such as rent, mortgage, vehicle costs, insurance, utilities, credit card statements, payments, loans, health insurance, and/or medical care costs to the hearing.

If your case involves an issue not addressed above, bring copies of any proposed document to support your case to any hearing scheduled or hearing that you are requesting.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, in the first box, added “DO NOT FILE THE LISTS WITH THE COURT”; and in the second box, added “DO NOT FILE THE FORM WITH THE COURT”.

TEMPORARY DOMESTIC ORDER¹

This order is issued pursuant to Rule 1-121 NMRA. This is not an order of protection under federal or state law. It is otherwise fully enforceable. It applies to both parties. This order will continue in effect until modified. The procedure for modification of this order is described below.

THE COURT ORDERS THE PARTIES AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Do not injure or physically or mentally abuse, molest, intimidate, threaten or harass the other party or any child of either party.

(2) Do not interfere with the relationship of your spouse with any child of either party. If you are living apart, you shall each continue to have frequent contact and communication with any minor child of both parties, personally and by telephone. A party shall notify the other party of any change of address or telephone number within twenty-four (24) hours of the change.

(3) Do not change a child's school, religion, child care, doctor, dentist, physical or mental treatment or recreational activities in which the child has been participating.

(4) Do not remove, cause or permit the removal of any minor child of both parties from the State of New Mexico without court order or written consent of the other party.

(5) Do not make the other party leave the family home, whether it be community or separate property, without court order. You should attempt to resolve the question of who leaves the home in a fair manner. If you cannot agree, you must ask the court to decide.

(a) Whoever moves from the family home may return to pick up personal belongings at a reasonable time as you may agree. Personal belongings do not include furniture unless you agree or the court permits. If an order prohibiting domestic violence has been entered, you must arrange to have a law enforcement officer present to monitor the removal of personal belongings. The party moving out of the residence is not prejudiced by reason of the move in any way with respect to custody of any minor child, with respect to a claim of any interest in the family residence or the personal property in or on the premises.

(b) Whoever leaves the family residence shall notify the other party, within twenty-four (24) hours of an address where the vacating party can receive mail.

(c) At a reasonable time, you are entitled to examine the contents of the marital residence and to have access to all properties owned by either of you, for inspection, valuation or appraisal. If you ask, the other party must provide access to the home within fifteen (15) days after the date of the request.

(6) Do not incur unreasonable or unnecessary debts. Any debt that does not contribute to the benefit of both spouses or the minor children of the parties which is incurred after you have separated, may be the separate debt of the party who incurs the debt.

(7) Do not sell, remove, transfer, dispose of, hide, encumber or damage any property, real or personal, community or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life. Keep an accounting of any transactions to show to the court.

(8) Do not drop or cancel any insurance policy, including automobile or other vehicle insurance, household insurance, medical or dental insurance or life insurance.

(9) Do not terminate or change the beneficiaries of any existing life insurance policy.

(10) Do not close any financial institution account² or cancel any credit cards nor remove the other party from any credit card account during pendency of this case, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.

(11) Do not liquidate, cash out, remove funds from or take loans against any retirement account, including but not limited to PERA, pension, IRA, Roth IRA, SARSEP, SEP, profit sharing, 401(k), 403(b), defined benefit, money purchase, employee stock ownership (ESOP), or 457 or 409A accounts, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life. Keep an accounting of any transactions to show to the court.

MODIFICATION BY COURT³

This order may be modified by the court upon request of either party. To request the court to modify this order, a motion must be filed with the clerk of the court. The motion must include reference to each paragraph number the party is requesting to be modified or terminated. The party making the request must provide the other party with a copy of the motion requesting the change. If the other party agrees with the request, an order approving the request, which has been initialed by both parties as “approved,” shall be filed with the motion.

WAIVER BY PARTIES

The parties may modify a specific provision of this order by entering into a written agreement and filing it with the court. The parties may also waive a provision of this order on a specific occasion if both parties sign an agreement to waive the provision. A waiver must include the paragraph number of each paragraph waived by the parties.

OTHER ORDERS

If an order of protection from a domestic violence case has been served on either party or if there is any other order in effect governing the relationship of the parties, and there is a conflict between this order and the other order, the other order controls unless the court specifically orders otherwise.

VIOLATIONS

Violation of this court order may result in the imposition of a fine or imprisonment. This order is binding on the petitioner at the time the petition is filed. This order is effective on the respondent immediately upon service. The parties are cautioned that actions taken by either party that are contrary to the terms of this order are subject to redress by the court, including costs and attorney fees.

USE NOTES

1. A scheduling order may be issued at the time a domestic relations case is docketed and served with the petition, however, the scheduling order must be issued as a separate order.
2. See NMSA 1978, Section 58-1-7 for notice to any bank of an adverse claim to a bank account.
3. Within two (2) days after service of this order, a party may file a motion requesting a hearing to dissolve this order. If the court finds the motion was frivolous or was not filed in good faith it may assess the party filing the motion with costs and attorney fees.

[Approved, effective November 1, 2000 until November 1, 2001; approved, effective November 1, 2002; 4A-112 recompiled and amended as 4A-201 by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2017.]

Committee commentary. — This form deviates from the forms used by some judicial districts, however, the changes are necessary to comply with due process requirements. See Rules 1-121 and 1-066(B) NMRA.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective December 31, 2017, added a provision ordering the parties not to take or remove certain family assets unless the parties agree in writing and to keep an accounting of any financial transaction, and provided that a temporary domestic order is effective on the respondent immediately upon service; under the heading “THE COURT ORDERS THE PARTIES AS FOLLOWS”, added Paragraph (11); and under the heading “VIOLATIONS”, deleted “two (2) days after it is served on the respondent” and added “immediately upon service”.

Compiler’s note. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, 4A-112 NMRA was recompiled and amended as 4A-201 NMRA, effective May 31, 2013.

Withdrawals. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, former 4A-201 NMRA, relating to pro se forms, was withdrawn effective May 31, 2013.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014; as amended by Supreme Court Order 17-8300-017, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2017.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2017 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective December 31, 2017, substantially rewrote the form changing it from a verified motion for order to show cause to a motion to enforce order; in the form heading and title, deleted "Verified motion for order to show cause (domestic relations actions)" and added "Motion to enforce order"; deleted former Paragraphs 1 and 2, which provided space allowing the Petitioner to describe the court order and to describe how the other party is not following the order, and added new Paragraphs 1 and 2, in Paragraph 3, deleted provisions related to what the Petitioner was requesting of the court; added new paragraph designation “4” and added Subparagraphs 4(A) and 4(B); added Paragraph 5; and completely rewrote the Use Note.

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, changed the language of the former Verification form; eliminated the requirement that the Verification be signed before a notary public; changed the former Certificate of Service form to a Verification of Service form; in Paragraph 1, after “in detail”, added “and attach a copy of the order”; deleted the former Verification form, including the notary public certificate, and added the new Verification form; in the former Certificate of Service form, changed “CERTIFICATE” to “VERIFICATION”, in the first sentence, deleted “I certify that on _____ (date), I” and added “I affirm under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New Mexico that on _____ (date), I” and under the signature line, after “Signature of”, changed “attorney” to “party”; following the former Certificate of Service form, deleted the former sentence which provided that if the notice was served by a person other than an attorney, the verification must be filed with the court; deleted the former Verification of Service form; and in the Use Note, deleted Paragraph 2 which required the form to be notarized.

USE NOTES

1. This form is to be used with an Interim Order Allocating Income and Expenses, Form 4A-213 NMRA. Unless, upon motion of a party, the court orders the division of separate income and expenses, only community income and expenses should be included on this form. In minimal or negative income cases, the court will have discretion to fashion an appropriate order.

2. "Gross monthly income" is income from all sources except child support received from a prior court order. For self-employed individuals, gross monthly income means gross receipts less reasonable and ordinary business expenses. For varying income and expenses use the average of the last three (3) months' income and expenses.

Gross monthly income is to be computed by using one of the following: hourly wage x average hours worked per week x 52 divided by 12; weekly wage x 52 divided by 12; every two weeks wage x 26 divided by 12; twice monthly x 2. For varying wages, use the average of the last three months' income.

3. "Deductions" are payroll deductions for taxes, social security, health insurance, union dues, retirement and other employer-related deductions. Payroll deductions are to be computed on a monthly basis as described in Use Note 2.

4. "Monthly fixed expenses" include periodic expenses even though paid quarterly, semiannually or yearly. Fixed expenses are to be computed on a monthly basis by using one of the following: annual income or expenses divided by 12. For varying expenses, use the average of the last three months' receipts or expenses.

5. Residence fixed expense is mortgage or rent actually paid. If a party receives free rent, e.g., by living with parents, that party's rent is imputed as zero. If residence expense is a mortgage payment for the residence of a party, unless already separately stated, include insurance and taxes.

6. Include monthly average payments for gas, electricity, water, sewer, refuse, and basic telephone bill, if not paid as part of rent. Use average for last 12 months if known.

7. Do not include medical, dental, liability, life, or other insurance that is deducted by payroll deduction.

8. Do not include homeowners insurance premiums if the premium is included as part of the residence expense, Line 6(a).

9. Day care fixed expense is work-related day care and does not include baby-sitting or occasional day care.

10. "Credit card payments" is listed as a fixed expense and includes only the minimum monthly payment as of the date of the filing of the petition.

11. Any regular monthly payment ordered by a prior order of child support or alimony, which is actually paid, is a fixed expense.

12. Line 8. "Net spendable income" and "combined net spendable income" are determined by subtracting Line 7, "total monthly fixed expenses," from Line 5, "net monthly income."

Negative combined net spendable income. If the "combined net spendable income" (Line 8, Column 3) is a negative number, and there are no children, adjust the allocations of income or expenses between the parties, or transfer an amount from one party to another so that the amount of net spendable income for the petitioner and respondent on Line 9 is equal. Do not complete Lines 10, 11, and 12. If Line 8, Column 3 has a negative or minimal "combined net spendable income," and there are children, the court will need to fashion an appropriate form to divide interim income and expenses of the parties.

13. Line 9. Equalizing spendable income. If "net spendable income" on Line 8, Column 3, is a positive number, divide "combined net spendable income" by two and enter the result in each column of Line 9.

14. Line 10. Amount transferred and received. The party with the larger net spendable income will transfer an equalizing amount to the party with the smaller net spendable income. To determine the amount of the transfer or receipt, subtract Line 9 (one-half of combined net spendable income) from Line 8, "net spendable income" and enter the amount on Line 10. This is the amount to be transferred by the party with the larger net spendable income to the party with the lower net spendable income.

For example, if the petitioner has a net spendable income of $1,000.00 per month and the respondent has a net spendable income of $500.00 per month, divide the total, $1,500.00, by two. Since the petitioner has the larger net spendable income, enter the result, $750.00, on Line 9, under Column 1. To determine the amount the petitioner transfers, subtract Line 9 of Column 1 from Line 8 of Column 1 ($1,000.00 minus $750.00 = $250.00) and this amount ($250.00) will be transferred each month by the petitioner to the respondent.

15. Line 11. Children. If Line 8, Column 3, is a positive number, an adjustment for child support is made by multiplying the amount on Line 8, Column 3 (combined "net spendable income") by the applicable percentage in the table below and enter the amount in the party column of the party with primary custody of the child or children. Do not count children who are covered by a prior child support order.

One child	10%
Two children	15%

Three children	19%
Four children	22%
Five children	25%
Six children	28%

If more than six children, add three percent (3%) for each additional child.

For example, if the combined "net spendable income" of the petitioner and respondent (Column 3, Line 8) is $1,500.00 and there is one child, multiply Column 3, Line 8 ($1,500.00) by ten percent (10%) and enter the result ($150.00) on Line 11 in the petitioner and respondent columns.

16. Line 12. Total amount transferred. Line 11 is used to adjust the amount to be transferred by a party or received by a party on Line 10 by the parties. Using the example in Use Notes 14 and 15, if there is one child and the combined net spendable income of the parties is $1,500.00, an adjustment of ten percent (10%) of $1,500.00 ($150.00) is made for child support. If the respondent has primary custody, the respondent will receive another $150.00. If the petitioner has primary custody, subtract $150.00 from the amount the respondent is to receive on Line 10. Using the example in Use Notes 14 and 15, if the respondent has primary custody, the petitioner will transfer $400.00 to the respondent. If the petitioner has primary custody, the petitioner will transfer $100.00 to the respondent.

2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, added an unnotarized affirmation under penalty of perjury that the schedule is correct; in the title of the rule and form, changed “liabilities” to “debts”; after the case name, added “SERVE THIS FORM ON THE OTHER PARTY. DO NOT FILE WITH THE COURT”; in the assets schedule, in the column headings, changed “Husband” to “Petitioner” and changed “Wife” to “Respondent”; in the debts schedule, changed “Liabilities” to “Debts” in two places, after “NET SEPARATE PROPERTY”, deleted the former affirmation “I have read the foregoing and the amounts are true and correct. I understand that if I make a material misstatement of fact, I may be prosecuted and punished for perjury”, and added the new affirmation; and deleted the former statement by the notary public that the affirmation was signed and sworn before the notary public.

Compiler’s note. — Pursuant to Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, 4A-132 NMRA was recompiled and amended as 4A-215 NMRA effective May 31, 2013.

Stage Three (3) Divorce Forms

4A-300. Domestic relations forms; instructions for stage three (3) forms.

A. Stage three (3) forms; scope. The stage three (3) forms are the last forms that you must complete to dissolve your marriage (i.e., get a “divorce”). Once approved by the Court, the agreements and promises that you have made in these forms will settle financial matters between you and the other party, and will control your rights as a parent. When both parties sign the Marital Settlement Agreement (Form 4A-301 NMRA), the Custody Plan and Order (Form 4A-302 NMRA), and the Child Support Obligation and Order (Form 4A-303 NMRA), they may be enforced by either party as contracts. When the Court signs a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 or 4A-306 NMRA), you will be divorced, and the Marital Settlement Agreement, the Custody Plan and Order, and the Child Support Obligation and Order will become legally binding on both of you. Any important changes to these agreements should be in writing and signed by both parties. These changes should be filed with the Court. You should be careful when filling out these forms, and be as complete as possible. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney.

B. Marital Settlement Agreement. A Marital Settlement Agreement (“MSA”) must be completed, signed by both parties, and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case. (Use Form 4A-301 NMRA.) Although the MSA is called an “Agreement,” if the parties do not agree on its terms, the Court may use the terms of either party's proposed MSA in its final order after a hearing. The MSA describes how you and the other party will divide your property and debts, and how you will settle any other financial matters, including whether one party will pay spousal support or make a cash payment to the other. When the parties sign the MSA or the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the MSA is legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on some or all of the terms of the MSA, you may request the assistance of a mediator, if available, by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation (child support or other financial issues) (Form 4A-205 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Subparagraph (1) of Paragraph E of Form 4A-200 NMRA.

The MSA includes the following sections:

(1) Property we are dividing. This is where you describe how you will divide your property, including personal property, real property, bank and investment accounts, retirement plans, vehicles, and any other property. Examples of each type of property are included on the form. Complete the Personal Property List (Attachment A) to identify any personal property you own that is valuable to you and to show how you will divide it. If you have real property other than the home you lived in while you were married, complete the Real Property List (Attachment B) to identify the property and to show how you will divide it;

(2) Debts we are dividing. This is where you describe how you will divide your debts (e.g., credit cards, loans, etc.), cancel joint credit cards, file your taxes, and handle any issues that may come up with tax returns that were filed while you were married. Complete the Debt List (Attachment C) to identify each of your debts and to show how you will divide them;

(3) Cash payment. This is where you show any dollar amount that you have agreed one party should pay the other to settle the division of your property and debts. This amount will be included in the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage as a judgment in favor of the party who is to receive the cash payment. This judgment may be enforced as provided by law;

(4) Spousal support. This is where you show any dollar amount that you have agreed one party should pay the other as monthly spousal support. If the Court approves this section, the amount and timing of spousal support can be modified only by a court order. For more information on spousal support, see Section 40-4-7 NMSA 1978;

(5) Other statements by parties. This is where you promise to do what is necessary to carry out your agreements in the MSA and how you will resolve any arguments you may have about the MSA in the future; and

(6) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the MSA and sign it under penalty of perjury.

C. Custody plan and order. A Custody Plan and Order must be completed and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case when the parties are the parents of one or more children under eighteen (18) years of age or under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school. (Use Form 4A-302 NMRA.) This document describes decisions that have been made, and how decisions will be made in the future, about the children. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the Custody Plan and Order is legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on the terms of a Custody Plan and Order, you may request the assistance of a mediator by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation (child custody, timesharing, or visitation) (Form 4A-204 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe that a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA. Some courts will not set a hearing on custody matters until the parties have tried mediation but failed to reach an agreement. Check with the Court before you request a hearing to find out if mediation is required.

The Custody Plan and Order includes the following sections:

(1) Identification and contact information. This is where you list the names and contact information of the parties and the children who are covered by the form;

(2) Custody of the children. This is where you describe the agreement you have reached about how you will make decisions and who will have custody of your children. If you choose sole legal custody, you must provide the specific reason why sole legal custody is in the best interests of the children. Also describe how often, when, and where the non-custodial parent will be allowed to visit the children, if at all. If you choose joint legal custody, you must complete the parenting plan in Subparagraphs one (1) through five (5) of Paragraph B to describe how you will share the custody of your children; and

(3) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the Custody Plan and Order and sign it under penalty of perjury.

D. Child support obligation and Order. A Child Support Obligation and Order must be completed and filed with the Court in every dissolution of marriage case when the parties are the parents of one or more children under eighteen (18) years of age or under the age of nineteen (19) and attending high school. (Use Form 4A-303 NMRA.) This document describes how you will divide the expenses of raising the children, including child support and health insurance, and tax issues relating to the children. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, the Child Support Obligation and Order will become legally binding on both parties. See Paragraph A, above.

If you and the other party cannot agree on the terms of the Child Support Obligation and Order, you may request the assistance of a mediator by completing and filing a Motion for Referral to Mediation (child support or other financial issues) (Form 4A-205 NMRA) with the Court. If you do not believe that a mediator will be helpful, you may complete and file a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA), and the Court will make a decision for you. For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA.

The Child Support Obligation and Order includes the following sections:

(1) Identification and contact information. This is where you list the names and contact information of the parties and the children who are covered by the form;

(2) Child support. This is where you describe how you will share the expenses of raising your children. This portion of the form refers to these additional documents:

(a) Child support worksheet. To complete Paragraph A of this section, you must complete and attach a child support worksheet to your Child Support Obligation and Order. The worksheet will help you figure out the amount of child support required by law. The worksheet is available at Section 40-4-11.1 NMSA 1978, or you can find an interactive version at www.nmcourts.com by clicking on the “Family Law Forms” link and selecting “Child Support Worksheet.” The interactive worksheet will automatically calculate the monthly child support obligation. The amount shown on the child support worksheet will be awarded by the Court. If the parties need to deviate from the amount shown on the child support worksheet, they must request a different amount, explain why that amount is necessary, and the deviation must be approved by the Court; and

(b) Wage withholding order. Under Paragraph D of this section, you must tell the Court how you will begin wage withholding for child support. Payment of child support by wage withholding is mandatory unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court. Wage withholding will not take effect until the parties complete a Wage Withholding Order (Form 4A-304 NMRA) and submit it to the Court for filing, or until the Court signs and files the Child Support Obligation and Order and the parties open a case with the New Mexico Human Services Department, Child Support Enforcement Division (“CSED”). CSED can issue a notice of wage withholding for the parties on full service cases. You may request the Court to order wage withholding by attaching a completed Wage Withholding Order to the Child Support Obligation and Order; and

(3) Verification. This is where you affirm the truth of the statements in the Child Support Obligation and Order and sign it under penalty of perjury.

E. Final decree of dissolution of marriage. When the Court signs and files a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, you and the other party will be divorced. You may request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage as follows:

(1) Uncontested. If you and the other party agree on the terms of your MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children), you may request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage by doing the following:

(a) filing your completed MSA (and completed Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) with the Court Clerk's Office; and

(b) submitting a completed Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 (without children) or 4A-306 (with children) NMRA) to the judge for approval.

The Court may sign the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage without further notice, or it may order you and the other party to appear for a hearing. WARNING: Once the Court signs and files the Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, your divorce will be final, and the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order) will be binding as a court order on both parties. See Paragraph A, above;

(2) Contested. If you and the other party do not agree on the terms of your MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children) and you cannot submit completed forms to the Court, you should request a trial in your case by submitting a Request for Hearing (Form 4A-206 NMRA). For more information about how to request a hearing, see Form 4A-200(E)(1) NMRA.

The Court will set one or more hearings to resolve the remaining disagreements over the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order, if you have children). You must complete your own proposed MSA (and Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order if you have children) and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-305 (without children) or Form 4A-306 (with children) NMRA) and bring them with you to the hearing. Once the Court has decided the terms of the MSA (and the Custody Plan and Order and Child Support Obligation and Order if you have children), it will sign and file a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, and you will be divorced from the other party; or

(3) Default. If more than thirty (30) days have passed since you filed and served the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage and the other party has not filed an answer or otherwise responded to your petition, you may be able to request a Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage without the other party's participation. This is called a default judgment. See Form 4A-310 NMRA for instructions on how to request a default judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, clarified the language of the instructions; changed “your spouse” to “the other party” throughout; added “and Order” after “Custody Plan” and “Child Support Obligation” throughout; in Paragraph A, in the fourth sentence, after “Form 4A-305”, added “or 4A-306”; in Paragraph B, in the fourth sentence, after “When”, added “the parties sign the MSA or”; in Paragraph B (6), after “sign it”, added “under penalty of perjury” and deleted the former second sentence which instructed the petitioner to sign the Marital Settlement Agreement in the presence of a notary; in Paragraph C, in the second sentence, after “in the future, about”, deleted “which parent the children will live with” and added “the children”; in Paragraph C (3), after “sign it”, added “under penalty of perjury”, and deleted the former second sentence which instructed the petitioner to sign the Custody Plan in the presence of a notary; in Paragraph D (3), after “sign it”, added “under penalty of perjury” and deleted the former second sentence which instructed the petitioner to sign the Child Support Obligation before a notary; in Paragraph E (1), after “Dissolution”, added “of Marriage”, and after “Marriage by”, added “doing the following”; in Paragraph E (1)(b), after “Form 4A-305”, added “(without children) or 4A-306 (with children)” and deleted the former second sentence which instructed the parties to sign the final decree in the presence of a notary; in Paragraph E, in the second unnumbered subparagraph, after “will be binding”, added “as a court order”; and in Paragraph E, in the third unnumbered subparagraph, after “complete your own” added “proposed”, and added “and Order if you have children” in two places.

Respondent.

MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT¹

_____ (Petitioner's name) and _____ (Respondent's name) are married and agree to follow this agreement beginning on the day we both sign it. We understand that the judge may make changes to this agreement and that we must comply with any changes made.

I. PROPERTY WE ARE DIVIDING²

A. Personal property (such as clothing, furniture, jewelry, or artwork). We have agreed how we will divide our property. We have attached a Personal Property List (Attachment A) showing all our property and which of us will receive that property.

(Choose 1 or 2)

1. Each of us already has possession of all the personal property we each expect to receive.
(Or)
 2. We will make sure we each have our own property by _____

B. Real Property (such as a home, mobile home, condominium, lot, or commercial building).³

(Choose all that apply)

1. Neither of us owns real property.
 2. We own a marital home, which is located at _____ (street address), and we agree to do the following:
(Complete the correct section: a. Keep the home; b. Sell the home; or c. Other plan.)

- a. Keep the home. We agree to the following:

(Choose i or ii)

- i. Petitioner shall keep the home and be responsible for all debts related to the home.

Respondent will keep the following vehicles and assume any debt relating to each vehicle (provide year of each vehicle and list the vehicle identification number):

Vehicle description

Vehicle Identification No.
(last six digits)

Each person listed above as keeping the vehicles will pay for the costs of the vehicles, including title, and will transfer title by the following date:

_____ (date).

(Or)

when the vehicle is paid off.

(Or)

the party who is keeping the vehicle already has the title in his/her name.

F. Other property (such as business interests, patents, trademarks, copyrights, royalties, manuscripts, or any other property).

(Choose 1 or 2)

1. Neither party has any other property.

(Or)

2. One or both parties has the other property listed below, and we have agreed to divide it as follows:

II. DEBTS WE ARE DIVIDING⁸

A. Debt. We attach a Debt List (Attachment C) which lists all of our debts, including mortgages, vehicle payments, taxes, credit cards, student loans, medical debts, judgments, and any other debts we may have. Any debt not listed is the responsibility of the person who created it. Each of us will pay debts we created prior to our marriage, unless we state differently here. Unless we state differently here, a person who takes property (such as a house or car) with a debt associated with it, will take the debt.

(Choose all that apply)

We have no debt from our marriage.

We will pay our debts as listed on Attachment C.

The amount owed from _____ to _____ for the division of the debts is $_____, which is included in the calculation of the Cash Payment, Section III, below.

B. Credit cards and charge cards. Each of us will turn in and cancel all joint credit cards, or we will have the credit card company take the other person's name off of the account.

C. Taxes. We will share information necessary to correctly file our income tax returns. We will get the help we need to file our taxes.

D. Problem with tax returns. If any of our returns that we filed together are audited or contested, we will meet to decide what to do. If we cannot decide who pays the taxes owed or who gets any refund, we will ask a judge to decide at the time the problem comes up.

E. Legal promise. We understand that if either of us fails to pay the debts we have promised to pay, the other party may end up making that payment. If that happens, the party who should have paid promises to repay the other party, including any other extra costs caused by the failure to pay, such as attorney fees, late fees, and interest charged by the creditor.

III. CASH PAYMENT

(If the parties have agreed that one party should pay money to the other in any of the preceding sections, those amounts should be included in this section.)

In order to settle the division of property and debts, we agree that _____ (name) shall pay _____ (name) the amount of $_____ no later than _____ (date). We agree that judgment shall enter in this amount for _____ (name of person owed money). The statutory interest rate shall apply as provided in Section 56-8-4(A) NMSA 1978.

IV. SPOUSAL SUPPORT⁹

A. We agree to spousal support as follows:

V. OTHER STATEMENTS BY PARTIES

A. Documents. We will each sign the documents we need to divide the property and debts, and each will deliver to the other party all documents related to property and debt awarded to the other.

B. Future issues.¹⁰

1. Either of us may ask the judge for help if
 - a. one of us does not do what we said in this agreement; or
 - b. we cannot agree on what this agreement says.

We understand that the judge may make one party pay costs such as attorney fees.

2. If we forgot or failed to list any property or debt, we will seek the help we need to divide that property or debt.¹¹

C. Final agreement. This is the final and entire agreement of the parties. Neither party is relying on other promises or statements that are not specifically included in this document.

VERIFICATION

When I sign here, I am telling the judge under oath and penalty of perjury:

I have read this agreement and agree with everything in it; I have read the warnings and cautions listed in this agreement;

I have disclosed all assets and debts known to me, and I understand that my spouse is relying on my disclosures;

I have gotten the help I needed before signing this agreement; and this document and the statements in it are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I understand that I can be punished both civilly and criminally if any information in this agreement is false.

USE NOTES

1. A marital settlement agreement must be filed in every dissolution of marriage cause. See Forms 4A-100, -200, and -300 NMRA for additional information about completing and filing this form.

2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.

3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.

5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary. If the parties cannot agree on the terms of the QDRO, they should request a hearing.

6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension, deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see an attorney regarding these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are certain documents the plan administrator must have. An attorney can help you prepare these documents.

7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

8. This agreement may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter who agrees to pay the debt in this agreement. See an attorney if you have questions about separate and community debts and separate and community property.

9. There can be serious consequences resulting from spousal support awards. If your agreement includes spousal support, you should consult with an attorney.

10. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.

11. To divide property or debts left out of this agreement, see Section 40-4-20(A) NMSA 1978.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 15-8300-024, effective for all pleadings and papers filed after November 18, 2015; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after July 1, 2019.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective after July 1, 2019, made technical and clarifying changes to the form, provided an additional option related to transferring vehicle titles, removed an option on the form related to tax claims for spousal support, and revised the Verification language; in Section I, Paragraph B(1), replaced “has” with “owns” preceding “real property”, in Paragraph B(2), replaced “have” with “own” preceding “a marital home”, in Paragraph E, in option 2, after each occurrence of “Vehicle Identification No.”, added “(last six digits)”, and after “when the vehicle is paid off”, added the option “[] the party who is keeping the vehicle already has the title in his/her name.”; in Section III, after the third occurrence of “name”, added “of person owed money”; in Section IV, in option “2.”, deleted Subparagraph b, which related to tax claims for spousal support, and made conforming changes; and in the Verification section, deleted “I affirm under oath and penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New Mexico the following:” and added “When I sign here, I am telling the judge under oath and penalty of perjury:”, and after “I understand that”, deleted “the other party” and added “my spouse”.

USE NOTES

1. A custody plan must be filed in every dissolution of marriage case if the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school. For more information about filling out this form, see Form 4A-300 NMRA.

2. The parties should understand the difference between the rights and obligations of joint custodians and a sole custodian. Descriptions of these terms are set out in NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-9.1. See an attorney with questions you may have. Joint custody does not imply an equal division of the child's time between the parents or an equal division of financial responsibility for the child.

USE NOTES

1. A child support obligation must be filed in every dissolution of marriage case if the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school. For more information about filling out this form, see Form 4A-300 NMRA.

2. If child support is not paid in a timely manner, interest will be added to the amount owed at the rate provided by law. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-7.3 for accrual of interest on delinquent child support.

3. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-11.1 for the child support worksheet. An interactive version of this worksheet may be found at www.nmcourts.com, click on "Family Law Forms." See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the child support worksheet. The child support worksheet is used to determine the monthly child support obligation.

4. If child support is being paid for more than one child, the end of a child support obligation for a child may be a change of circumstances that justifies a different child support amount. A new child support worksheet must be completed and adopted by the court. If your child has an intellectual or physical disability, you should consult with an attorney.

5. The judge may or may not accept a proposed change from the worksheet amount. Proposed changes may be appropriate if application of the child support guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate, or create a substantial hardship. If child support has been ordered in another proceeding, tell the court about it here and attach that child support worksheet.

6. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4C-4 for medical support orders. In some circumstances the court may order both parties to provide employer-provided health insurance.

7. See Form 4A-304 NMRA for the Wage Withholding Order. Wage withholding is required unless the parties show good cause and make alternate payment arrangements. Wage withholding is mandatory if the children are receiving public assistance. Payments made by wage withholding go through the Title IV-D agency (CSED) and cannot be directly sent by the employer to a party. Either party may request the court to enter a Wage Withholding Order. See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the Wage Withholding Order.

8. You need a court order to adjust child support payments.

9. Consult with a professional about tax issues that relate to any children.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective July 1, 2019, removed certain language that conflicts with the requirement that a marital settlement agreement must be filed in every dissolution of marriage, made technical and clarifying changes to the form, and revised the Use Notes; in the second undesignated paragraph, deleted the option which stated “A Marital Settlement Agreement that is attached as Exhibit A, because the parties did not settle the claims related to their marital relationship”, and made conforming changes; in the third undesignated paragraph, added subparagraph designation “1.”, added new Subparagraph 2 and redesignated the succeeding subparagraphs accordingly; in the Order portion of the form, in Paragraph 2, deleted the option stating “[] is attached and adopted as the order of the Court.” and made conforming changes, and in Paragraphs 5 and 6, deleted “first, middle, and last name” and added “write full legal name”; and in the Use Note, deleted Use Note 2, which provided “If the parties are not in agreement, each party must complete and submit a proposed draft of this document to the court with this decree. See Form 4A-301 NMRA (Marital Settlement Agreement). The court may approve some or all of the proposed terms of either party, or it may order any other terms that it deems are just and proper.”.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-020, effective December 31, 2016, in Paragraphs 5 and 6, added “(first, middle, and last name)” after each signature line.

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, simplified the form for use when no children are involved; eliminated the requirement that the parties sign the decree before a notary public; in the title of the rule and form, added “(without children)”; in the introductory sentence, after “Marriage by”, added “Petitioner and Respondent (‘the parties’)”; added the second, third and fourth sentences; deleted former language acknowledging that the respondent had been properly served, that the decree refers to the documents that the parties have selected from a list of documents, including a marital settlement agreement, custody plan, and child support obligation; in the Findings and Conclusions, deleted language that the court has jurisdiction over children, language approving the marital settlement agreement, custody plan, and child support obligation, and language that the respondent is in default; and added Paragraph 3; in the Decree, deleted language that orders the parties to comply with the custody plan, child support obligation, specifies the monthly amount of child support, custody of children, and the court's continuing jurisdiction; added Paragraph 6; after the judge's signature line, added an affirmation by the parties concerning the right to trial, duress and coercion, completeness of the parties' agreement as expressed in the Decree, and legal advice; deleted the acknowledgments for each party; and in the Use Note, in Paragraph 1, after "dissolution of marriage", added the remainder of the sentence; and in Paragraph 2, in the first sentence, after "each party", deleted "(or the petitioner alone, if the respondent is in default)".

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The marriage of Petitioner and Respondent is dissolved on the grounds of incompatibility.
2. The parties are ordered to comply with the terms of the Marital Settlement Agreement, which has been filed with the Court and is incorporated here by reference.
3. The parties are ordered to comply with the terms of the Custody Plan and Order, which has been adopted by the Court and is incorporated here by reference.
4. The parties are ordered to comply with the terms of the Child Support Obligation and Order, which has been adopted by the Court and is incorporated here by reference.
5. Petitioner (or) Respondent is ordered to pay child support in the amount of $ _____ per month to the other parent.
6. Legal custody of the children is as follows (select one):
 The parties have joint legal custody of the children.
(Or)
 Petitioner (or) Respondent has sole legal custody of the children.

7. The Court has continuing jurisdiction over issues relating to the children of the marriage until the children reach the age of majority as provided by law.

(Select and complete the following paragraphs if applicable)

- 8. The Court retains jurisdiction to enter QDROs or other orders dividing the retirement plans referenced in the Marital Settlement Agreement.
- 9. Judgment in favor of Petitioner (or) Respondent is awarded in the amount of $_____, as set forth in Section III of the Marital Settlement Agreement (Cash Payment). The statutory interest rate shall apply as provided in Section 56-8-4(A) NMSA 1978.
- 10. Petitioner's name is restored to the former name of _____ (insert full legal name).
- 11. Respondent's name is restored to the former name of _____ (insert full legal name).

SO ORDERED:

District Court Judge

By signing below I affirm under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of New Mexico that everything in this document is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, including the following:

1. Right to trial is waived. I understand that by signing the Final Decree, I am waiving my right to a trial before a Judge.
2. No duress or coercion; complete agreement. I am not under force, threats, duress, coercion or undue influence from anyone, including the other party, to sign this Final Decree. This Decree and any attachments that I have signed is our full agreement. I have not agreed to something different from what is stated in writing in this Decree.
3. Legal advice. I understand that even if I am representing myself without an attorney, I have the right to be represented by an attorney. I have the right to call an attorney and get legal advice before I sign this Final Decree.

USE NOTES

1. This form may be used anywhere in this state by the court to enter a final decree of dissolution of marriage when the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-020, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2016; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after July 1, 2019.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective July 1, 2019, removed options indicating that the parties did not agree on the terms of a Marital Settlement Agreement, a Custody Plan or a Child Support Obligation, added provisions requiring additional personal information, removed provisions indicating that certain documents are adopted as orders of the court, and revised the Use Note; in the first undesignated section describing referenced documents, in the Marital Settlement Agreement option, deleted “attached as Exhibit A, because the parties did not agree on the terms of a Marital Settlement Agreement”, in the Custody Plan and Order option, deleted “attached as Exhibit B, because the parties did not agree on the terms of a Custody Plan”, and in the Child Support Obligation and Order option, deleted “attached as Exhibit C, because the parties did not agree on the terms of a Child Support Obligation”; in the second undesignated section, in Paragraph 2, added “The parties were married on _____ (date of marriage)”; in the third undesignated section, in Paragraphs 2, 3, and 4, deleted “is attached and adopted as the order of the Court.”, and in Paragraphs 10 and 11, added “(insert full legal name)”; in the Use Notes, deleted Use Note 2, which provided “If the parties are not in agreement, each party must complete and submit a proposed draft of this document to the court with this decree. See Form 4A-301 NMRA (Marital Settlement Agreement); Form 4A-302 NMRA (Custody Plan and Order); Form 4A-303 NMRA (Child Support Obligation and Order). The court may approve some or all of the proposed terms of either party, or it may order any other terms that it deems are just and proper.”.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-020, effective December 31, 2016, in Paragraphs 10 and 11, added “(first, middle, and last name)” after each signature line.

4A-310. Domestic relations forms; instructions for default proceedings.

If you are the Petitioner AND more than thirty (30) days have passed since you served the Respondent with the Petition AND the Respondent has failed to file a Response or to otherwise respond to the Petition, you may be granted a divorce without the agreement of the Respondent. This is called a default judgment. You may request a default judgment and final decree of dissolution of marriage by doing the following:

A. Complete and file with the Court Clerk's Office an Affidavit as to Respondent's Failure To Plead or Otherwise Defend (Form 4A-311 NMRA); your affidavit must include a certificate verifying the other party's active duty military status, which you can obtain online at https://dmdc.osd.mil/appj/scra/single_record.xhtml; when you file your affidavit, bring a blank Certificate as to the State of the Record (Form 4A-312 NMRA) and a self-addressed, stamped envelope so that the Clerk can return a completed certificate to you;

B. After you receive the completed Certificate as to the State of the Record (Form 4A-312 NMRA) from the Clerk, attach the certificate to an Application for Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-313 NMRA), and file the application with the Court Clerk's Office; and

C. Complete and submit to the judge a copy of the Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage (Form 4A-314 NMRA (without children) or Form 4A-315 NMRA (with children)). Check with the clerk of your district to determine if your district has additional requirements.

The Court may sign and file the Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage without further notice, or it may order you to appear for a hearing. WARNING: Once the Court enters the Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage, your divorce will be final, and the terms of your Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage will be legally binding on both parties.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 13-8300-010, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after May 31, 2013, in all cases pending or filed on or after May 31, 2013; approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective December 31, 2014, clarified the language of the instructions; instructed the parties to use specified forms; in the introductory paragraph, after "you are the", deleted "party who filed the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage" and added "Petitioner", changed "your spouse" to "the Respondent" in three places, and changed "an Answer" to "a Response"; in Paragraph A, deleted "your spouse's" and added "the other party's"; in Paragraph C, in the first paragraph, deleted "Submit a copy" and added "Complete and submit to the judge a copy", after "a copy of the" added "Default Judgment and", after “Dissolution of Marriage”, deleted “(Form 4A-305 NMRA) to the judge; you must also complete and submit to the judge a proposed Marital Settlement Agreement (Form 4A-301 NMRA) and, if you have children as defined in these forms, a proposed Custody Plan (Form 4A-302 NMRA) and a proposed Child Support Obligation (Form 4A-303 NMRA)” and added “(Form 4A-314 NMRA (without children) or Form 4A-315 NMRA (with children))” and added the second sentence; and in Paragraph C, in the second paragraph, added “Default Judgment and” in two places, after “and the terms of your”, deleted “proposed Marital Settlement Agreement (and proposed Custody Plan and proposed Child Support Obligation)” and added “Default Judgment and Final Decree of Dissolution of Marriage”; and deleted the former third sentence which referred the petitioner to Form 4A-300 NMRA for information about the marital settlement agreement, custody order, and child support obligation.

USE NOTES

1. This form may be used anywhere in this state to enter a default judgment and final decree of dissolution of marriage when the parties do not have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school.

2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.

3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.

5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary.

6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension, deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see an attorney regarding these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are certain documents the plan administrator must have. An attorney can help you prepare these documents.

7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.

8. This default judgment may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter who is ordered to pay the debt in this default judgment. See an attorney if you have questions about separate and community debts and separate and community property.

9. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.

[Adopted by Supreme Court Order No. 14-8300-011, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2014, in all cases filed or pending on or after December 31, 2014; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 15-8300-024, effective for all pleadings and papers filed after November 18, 2015; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-020, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2016; as amended by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after July 1, 2019.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 19-8300-006, effective July 1, 2019, added provisions requiring additional personal information, made technical and clarifying changes to the form, provided an additional option related to transferring vehicle titles, and removed an option on the form related to tax claims for spousal support; in the undesignated section after the title, added “The parties were married on _____ (date of marriage)”; in Section I, in Paragraph A, option 2, after “The”, deleted “parties shall get some or all of the property from the other party” and added “party in possession of personal property to be received by the other party shall give that property to the receiving party within _____ days”, in Paragraph B, replaced “has” with “owns” preceding “real property” and replaced “have” with “own” preceding “a marital home”, in Paragraph E, after each occurrence of “Vehicle Identification No.”, added “(last six digits)”, and added the option “[] the party who is keeping the vehicle already has the title in his/her name.”; in Section III, after “amount”, deleted “for” and added “in favor of”, and after the third occurrence of “name”, added “of person owed money”; in Section IV, in option “2.”, deleted Subparagraph b, which related to tax claims for spousal support, and made conforming changes; and in the last undesignated section, in option 5, deleted “first, middle, and last name” and added “write full legal name”.

The 2016 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 16-8300-020, effective December 31, 2016, in the Order portion of the form, in Paragraphs 5, added “(first, middle, and last name)” after the signature line.

The 2015 amendment, approved by Supreme Court Order No. 15-8300-024, effective November 18, 2015, required the petitioner to sign the default judgment and final decree before a notary public; in the “Verification” provision, in the first sentence, after “I affirm under”, added “oath and”, and after the petitioner’s signature and personal information, added the petitioner’s notarization section of the Verification.

(Or)

2. One or both parties has the other property listed below, and shall divide it as follows:

II. DEBTS BEING DIVIDED⁸

A. Debt. Attached is a Debt List (Attachment C) which lists all of the parties' debts, including mortgages, vehicle payments, taxes, credit cards, student loans, medical debts, judgments, and any other debts the parties may have. Any debt not listed is the responsibility of the person who created it. Each party shall pay debts created by that party prior to the marriage, unless stated differently here. Unless stated differently here, a party who takes property (such as a house or car) with a debt associated with it, shall take the debt.

(Choose all that apply)

The parties have no debt from the marriage.

Each party shall pay the debts as listed on Attachment C.

The amount owed from _____ to _____ for the division of the debts is $_____, which is included in the calculation of the Cash Payment, Section III, below.

B. Credit cards and charge cards. Each party shall turn in and cancel all joint credit cards, or shall have the credit card company take the other party's name off of the account.

C. Taxes. The parties shall share information necessary to correctly file income tax returns. Each party will get the help needed to file taxes.

D. Problem with tax returns. If any tax returns that the parties filed jointly are audited or contested, the parties should meet to decide what to do. If the parties cannot decide who pays the taxes owed or who gets any refund, they will ask a judge to decide at the time the problem comes up.

E. Failure to pay debts. If either party fails to pay the debts each is ordered to pay, the other party may end up making that payment. If that happens, the party who should have paid may have to repay the other party, including any other extra costs caused by the failure to pay, such as attorney fees, late fees, and interest charged by the creditor.

III. CASH PAYMENT

To equalize the division of property and debts, _____ (name) shall pay _____ (name) the amount of $_____ no later than _____ (date). USE NOTES

1. This form may be used anywhere in this state to enter a default judgment and final decree of dissolution of marriage when the parties have minor children or a child under nineteen years of age who is attending high school.
2. It is highly recommended that you consult with an attorney. Whether property is separate or community is a complicated issue. There can be serious consequences, including tax consequences, for the division of property and for not properly transferring property, including retirement accounts. You may need separate documents to transfer divided property.
3. To transfer land, a building or a home other than a mobile home, the parties must prepare, sign and record a deed in the real property records where the property is located. To transfer a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
4. If both parties are listed on the mortgage, you must seek lender approval to remove the moving spouse from the mortgage and from responsibility for payment.
5. If the parties are going to divide a retirement plan, contact the retirement plan before completing and filing this form. Depending on the plan, a QDRO may be necessary.
6. CAUTION: You may want to consult an attorney about your retirement, pension, deferred compensation, 401k plans, and/or benefits. If you do not see an attorney regarding these assets, you risk losing any interest you have in these plans and/or benefits. There are certain documents the plan administrator must have. Only an attorney can help you prepare these documents.
7. To transfer vehicles or a mobile home, contact the Motor Vehicle Division.
8. This default judgment may not affect the rights of creditors even when approved by the Court as part of the final decree. The creditor may expect payment from you no matter who agrees to pay the debt in this default judgment. See an attorney if you have questions about separate and community debts and separate and community property.
9. Consult with an attorney if problems arise later.

10. You should understand the difference between the rights and obligations of joint custodians and a sole custodian. Descriptions of these terms are set out in NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-9.1. See an attorney with questions you may have. Joint custody does not imply an equal division of the child's time between the parents or an equal division of financial responsibility for the child.

11. If child support is not paid in a timely manner, interest will be added to the amount owed at the rate provided by law. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-7.3 for accrual of interest on delinquent child support.

12. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4-11.1 for the child support worksheet. An interactive version of this worksheet may be found at www.nmcourts.com, click on "Family Law Forms." See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the child support worksheet. The child support worksheet is used to determine the monthly child support obligation.

13. If child support is being paid for more than one child, the end of a child support obligation for a child may be a change of circumstances that justifies a different child support amount. A new child support worksheet must be completed and adopted by the court. If your child has an intellectual or physical disability, you should consult with an attorney.

14. The judge may or may not accept a proposed change from the worksheet amount. Proposed changes may be appropriate if application of the child support guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate, or create a substantial hardship. If child support has been ordered in another proceeding, tell the court about it here and attach that child support worksheet.

15. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-4C-4 for medical support orders. In some circumstances the court may order both parties to provide employer-provided health insurance.

16. See Form 4A-304 NMRA for the Wage Withholding Order. Wage withholding is required unless the parties show good cause and make alternate payment arrangements. Wage withholding is mandatory if the children are receiving public assistance. Payments made by wage withholding go through the Title IV-D agency (CSED) and cannot be directly sent by the employer to a party. Either party may request the court to enter a Wage Withholding Order. See also Form 4A-300 NMRA for a further explanation of the Wage Withholding Order.

17. You need a court order to adjust child support payments.

18. Consult with a professional about tax issues that relate to any children.

USE NOTES

1. You may use this form to ask the court to modify the conditions of a final order, including a custody plan and order, a child support obligation and order, or a spousal support provision in a final decree of dissolution of marriage. If more than 90 days have passed from the issuance of the order that you wish to modify, you may have to pay the filing fee required under Rule 1-099 NMRA. You must serve the other party with the documents you filed with the court. Refer to Rules 1-089 and 1-004 NMRA for more information. Failure to have the other party served with the documents may result in a re-set of your hearing or dismissal of your motion.

2. If you do not have a copy of the order(s) listed in Paragraph 2, you may request one from the clerk's office. Standard copying fees may apply.

[Approved by Supreme Court Order No. 17-8300-017, effective for all pleadings and papers filed on or after December 31, 2017.]

Paternity Forms

4A-401. Uncontested petition for paternity; forms needed; filing fee.

A. Forms to be filed. In an uncontested paternity proceeding, the parties need to file the following completed forms with the court:

- (1) a Domestic Relations Cover Sheet, Form 4A-101 NMRA is required;
- (2) a Petition to Establish Parentage, Form 4A-402 NMRA is provided; and
- (3) a Final Decree of Parentage. Form 4A-403 NMRA is provided.

B. Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation. If child support is to be ordered, a Custody Plan (Form 4A-302 NMRA), Child Support Obligation (Form 4A-303 NMRA), and child support worksheet are required. A Wage Withholding Order (Form 4A-304 NMRA) may also be required if requested by a party. See Form 4A-300 NMRA for an explanation of the Custody Plan, Child Support Obligation, child support worksheet, and Wage Withholding Order.

C. Type or print. The parties must type or print all of the information required to be completed on the forms. Many forms may be downloaded and completed or completed on-line. If a pre-printed form is being used by the parties and there is not enough room on the form to provide all of the information required, use a separate page for the information and staple the page to the pre-printed form before making copies and filing the form with the court.

D. Sign the pleadings. A party's signature on a pleading or paper filed with the court constitutes a certificate that the party has read the paper and that to the best of the party's knowledge, information and belief there is good grounds to support it.

E. Forms required to be signed before a notary. Both the husband and wife must sign the following pleadings and papers before a notary:

- (1) the Petition for Parentage; and
- (2) if child support is to be ordered, the Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation.

F. File the forms with the court. After the parties have completed and signed the forms, the parties must file them with the court clerk.

G. Required number of copies. An original and two (2) copies of each form must be filed.

H. Pay the filing fee. A filing fee must be paid to the clerk in cash or money order at the time the petition and information sheet are filed unless free process is approved.

4A-403. Final decree of parentage.

STATE OF NEW MEXICO
COUNTY OF _____

_____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Petitioner,

v. _____ No. _____

Respondent.

FINAL DECREE OF PARENTAGE

THIS MATTER was brought before the court by _____ (father's name) and _____ (mother's name), "the parties".
The parties have asked the court to enter a final decree establishing parentage. In addition, the parties have filed a Custody Plan and a Child Support Obligation that set out the custody and child support of their [child] [children].

This court has considered the parties' agreements, and finds the parties' Custody Plan, Child Support Obligation, and requests to be reasonable.

THIS COURT FINDS AND CONCLUDES:

1. The court has jurisdiction over the parties, the [child] [children] and the subject matter of this action.
2. _____ (name of father) has acknowledged in the petition filed in this case that he is the father of _____ (name of each child).
3. The parties have sworn, under oath, that the Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation are complete, true, and correct.
4. The filed Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation determine custody and child support of the parties' minor [child] [children]. The parties have sworn, under oath, that the Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation are in the best interest of the [child] [children].

5. (Judge to check applicable.)

The child support guidelines are appropriate in this case.

The child support guidelines are unjust or inappropriate in this case because they result in substantial hardship. It is appropriate to deviate from the child support guidelines in this case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. _____ is the father of

(name of each minor child).

2. The parties are ordered to fully comply with all terms and provisions of the Custody Plan and Child Support Obligation, the terms of which are incorporated by reference.

3. Father Mother is ordered to pay child support in the amount of _____ to the other parent.

4. (check applicable alternative)

The parties have joint custody of the [child] [children]

Father Mother is the sole custodian of the [child] [children].

5. The court will have continuing jurisdiction over issues relating to the [child] [children] while the [child is a minor] [children are minors].

6. (Check and complete if applicable)

The Department of Health, Health Services Division, Vital Statistics Bureau is ordered to change the birth record of _____ (name of each child) to reflect _____ (name of father) is the [child's] [children's] father.

7. This case is now closed. However, the court will have continuing jurisdiction over issues relating to the [child] [children] while they are minors and as provided by law.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

USE NOTES

1. Enter the initials of each child. Each child should be listed in the petition under Section A.
2. Forms 4A-501 to 4A-513 NMRA are required to be used by persons representing themselves in kinship guardianship proceedings. Parties represented by an attorney may use other forms that serve the same purpose.
3. A petitioner must be an adult with whom the child has a significant bond. See NMSA 1978, Section 40-10B-5 for persons who may file as a petitioner under the Kinship Guardianship Act.
4. Fill out Section B for each child you are seeking guardianship over. If you are applying for guardianship of more than two children, repeat the sections as necessary for each child.

5. Any minor child fourteen (14) years of age or older must be served with a copy of this petition. If a child is fourteen (14) years of age or older and does not want the petitioner(s) to be the child's guardian, the Court will not appoint the petitioner(s). See NMSA 1978, § 40-10B-11(B). If the child is fourteen (14) years of age or older and consents to the petitioner(s) as guardian(s), please use the Nomination of Kinship Guardian Form, Form 4A-506 NMRA.

6. The Indian Child Welfare Act defines "Indian child" as "any unmarried person who is under age eighteen and is either (a) a member of an Indian tribe or (b) is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe." See 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4).

7. If there are more than two parents for the children involved, repeat the information for each additional parent. Unless the child's parent is deceased or the parent's parental rights have been terminated, use Form 4-206 NMRA for service of process on each parent named in the petition unless (a) the parent has waived service in writing; (b) the parent is deceased; or (c) the parent's rights as a parent have been terminated by a court order.

8. Form 4A-505 NMRA must be signed, notarized, and filed with the court for each respondent-parent who consents to the guardianship.

9. For example: Has the child lived with the petitioner(s) for so long that removing the child would cause anguish or harm to the child? Are there other reasons why the child should not be with the parent?

10. If there are other people claiming to have court-ordered custody or court ordered visitation of the child(ren), they must also be served with a copy of the petition and notice of the hearing.

11. Both parents may be ordered to pay child support. The petitioners' income should not be used for calculation of child support.

USE NOTES

1. Enter the initials of each child listed in the Petition To Appoint Kinship Guardian(s).

2. You need to try to find and serve the respondent(s) with the petition and other documents you filed in the kinship guardianship case. If you are unable to find the respondent, you may want to consider service by publication in a newspaper. If there is more than one respondent that you need to serve by publication (for example the mother and the father of the child), you need to file one motion for each respondent.

The information you provide about trying to locate the respondent in the motion is for each individual respondent. If the court allows you to serve by publication, you may use only one Notice of Pendency of Action and include all of the respondents in the same document.

3. Check all of the boxes that apply. You need to tell the court about all of the efforts you made to find and serve the respondent. Be prepared to show the court your efforts to search records to find the respondent, including, for example, a letter from the postmaster, any court docket printouts, or any returned mail.

4. Complete and attach a Notice of Pendency of Action, Form 4A-503 NMRA.
