

Rules of the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District

LR8-101. Authority.

The following rules are hereby adopted and promulgated by the judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of New Mexico, comprised of the Counties of Colfax, Taos and Union, pursuant to the authority vested in the court by Rule 1-083 NMRA. These rules are comprehensive, and by their promulgation, all previously existing local rules and administrative orders inconsistent herewith are withdrawn.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-102. Title.

The following local rules of procedure for the Eighth Judicial District shall be known as the "Local Rules of the Eighth Judicial District Court".

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-103. Scope and applicability.

These local rules apply to all cases brought in the Eighth Judicial District Court.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-201. Failure to comply.

The failure to comply with the requirements of these rules may subject counsel or a party to sanctions.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-202. Assignment of cases; consolidation.

A. Subject to Rules 1-088 and 1-088.1 NMRA, the chief judge of the district, in consultation with the other judge, shall determine the assignment and reassignment of cases.

B. In any case in which Division I is disqualified pursuant to Rule 1-088.1 NMRA, Division II shall be automatically assigned. In any case in which Division II is disqualified pursuant to Rule 1-088.1 NMRA, Division I shall be automatically assigned. Reassignment shall be noted by mailing of notice of reassignment to counsel of record or parties pro se or by publishing notice in the Bar Bulletin, at the time of the reassignment.

C. Cases assigned to one judge shall not be heard by another judge except by consent of the judge to whom the case is assigned, except in those circumstances described in Paragraph E of this rule.

D. Whenever the assigned judge is not available, any judge of the district, or any judge from another district who is present in the county by designation, may hear any default matter, emergency matter, guilty plea or ex parte matter, and may sign orders presented with signatures of all counsel and parties pro se, which may arise.

E. Motions to consolidate and cases consolidated for trial shall be heard by the judge assigned to the case hearing the lowest case number (the oldest case).

[As amended, approved by Supreme Court Order 05-8300-26 effective December 20, 2005.]

LR8-203. Code of conduct.

A. Manner of dress. Attorneys and parties pro se appearing before the court shall dress in an appropriate manner.

B. Conduct towards opposing counsel, parties and witnesses. Attorneys and parties pro se shall be civil and courteous to one another in all matters, both inside the courtroom and in the preparation of a case. Counsel shall have sole discretion to determine accommodations to be granted to opposing counsel in all matters not directly affecting the merits of a cause or prejudicing the client's rights. Counsel shall not accede to a client's demand that the lawyer act in a discourteous or uncooperative manner toward opposing counsel.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-204. Forum shopping.

A. If a matter or proposition has previously been submitted to another district judge within the state, an attorney shall disclose that fact to the judge to whom it is being submitted.

B. A failure to inform the second or subsequent judge of the prior submission or submissions may be deemed contempt of court and punished accordingly.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-205. Interpreters.

It shall be the duty of the attorney or party pro se to promptly and diligently inquire into and ascertain the need for an interpreter and to advise the clerk of the court and assigned judge of the need for an interpreter not less than five (5) days before the hearing.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-206. Control of court files.

Court files shall not be removed from the courthouse except with the written approval of the judge.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-207. Sealing of court files.

A. No court file, except those matters required by law to remain confidential, shall be ordered sealed from public inspection, except in extraordinary cases to be determined by the court:

- (1) upon a written and verified application for the sealing of such file;
- (2) a showing of good cause; and
- (3) a showing that significant and irreparable harm will result unless the file is sealed.

B. Every order sealing a court file shall state the reasons therefor, and shall state the duration of the time within which the file shall be sealed.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-208. Filing by FAX.

A. The clerk of the court will accept documents that do not require a filing fee for filing by electronically transmitted image (FAX) pursuant to Rule 1-005.1 NMRA.

B. FAX transmissions which are not covered by Rule 1-005.1 NMRA will be accepted, and the sender shall be charged a FAX fee at a rate set periodically by the district court clerk.

C. No FAX transmission shall exceed ten (10) pages, except with express permission of the chief deputy clerk of the court, or the chief deputy's designee.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000; as amended, effective January 25, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's note. — By Supreme Court order, effective January 25, 2005, the length of a fax transmission was changed from twenty-five (25) pages to ten (10) pages.

LR8-301. Appearance and withdrawals; pro se representation.

A. Whenever counsel undertakes to participate in a case on behalf of a party, counsel shall file a written entry of appearance in the cause. The filing of any signed pleading in a case will be considered compliance with this rule.

B. Withdrawal of counsel shall be in accordance with Rule 1-089 NMRA. The application of counsel to withdraw, and order allowing withdrawal shall state the last known mailing address and telephone number of the client.

C. Any party, who is an individual, desiring to proceed pro se in any cause shall include with the first pleadings filed their full name, address and telephone number, if any.

D. Counsel and parties pro se shall inform the court of any change of mailing address or telephone number by filing a notice and serving it upon all parties and to the court.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-302. Requests for hearing.

Requests for hearing shall be submitted to the trial court administrative assistant (judge's secretary), along with a notice of hearing, in the form set forth in Forms LR8-Form 1 and LR8-Form 2.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-303. Submission of orders, decrees and judgments.

A. Unless otherwise ordered by the court all orders, judgments and decrees shall be submitted to the judge by the prevailing party not later than ten (10) days following the date of announcement by the judge of the decision, if announced in open court, or twelve (12) days following the date of the letter or other document announcing the decision.

B. The prevailing party shall be responsible for submission of orders. If approval of opposing counsel cannot be obtained by the tenth (10th) or twelfth (12th) day, request for hearing on notice of presentment, with proposed order attached, shall be made immediately.

(1) In matters decided by the court after a hearing or trial, the prevailing party or the party designated by the court shall prepare orders or judgments and shall submit them to opposing counsel or parties pro se within five (5) days from the date the order or judgment was made by the court, unless otherwise directed by the court at time of hearing.

(2) If the proposed order or judgment is approved by all counsel or parties pro se, the order or judgment shall so indicate and may be signed by the court immediately, if appropriate. Orders may be approved telephonically and so indicated.

(3) Any order which the parties have agreed and stipulated to shall be approved without reservation by counsel or parties pro se, and not "Approved as to Form" or in any other way limiting approval.

(4) If opposing counsel or parties pro se do not agree as to the form of order or judgment, such person shall send written objection, if any to the drafter of the order, within five (5) days of receipt of the order. At a presentment hearing, the court shall consider the order attached to the notice of presentment and objector's proposed form of order.

(5) The court may prepare a proper order or judgment, if different from the one initially submitted, in accordance with the court's decision on the objections.

C. Orders to show cause shall be submitted to the judge assigned to hear the case. If, however, such judge is unavailable, then the proposed order may be signed by any judge, but only after the date for hearing has been obtained from the trial court administrative assistant of the judge who will hear the matter.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-304. Exhibits and exhibit lists.

A. Prior to the beginning of any court proceeding, all exhibits shall have affixed to them the court's standard exhibit stickers, bearing the case number and date of hearing. The exhibit number or letter shall be added by the court reporter at the time the exhibit is displayed to a witness, or tendered to the court, whichever event occurs first.

B. When more than five (5) exhibits are to be tendered, a list identifying the exhibits is to be provided to the court reporter and the judge in advance of the hearing.

C. Plaintiffs' and petitioners' exhibits shall be designated numerically. Defendants' and respondents' exhibits shall be designated alphabetically.

D. Copies of all exhibits shall be provided to opposing counsel at the time of displaying them to a witness or at time of tender, unless otherwise controlled by NMRA rules of procedure or court order.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]

LR8-401. Differential case management.

A. Assignment of cases to a track. Differential case management provides case management to civil cases according to degrees of complexity. All cases, after being put at issue, will be assigned to one of three tracks: expedited, standard or complex. Track assignments by the judge presiding over the case shall be based upon the civil case cover sheet and scheduling report, both of which are described below. Track assignments may be changed at any time on the judge's own motion or upon good cause shown by a party.

B. Intent of system. The intent in this management system is to guide and control the progress of cases, from filing to final disposition. Upon completion of discovery and all required attempts at settlement, and after declaration by counsel and self-represented parties that the case is ready to be tried, the case will be scheduled for pretrial conference and trial.

C. Three year pilot project. The Eighth Judicial District is implementing this differentiated case management system for civil cases as a pilot project. The pilot project shall continue for a period of three years. Thereafter, the case processing goals and objectives of the pilot project will be evaluated by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

[Effective, May 3, 1999 until June 30, 2004; approved, effective January 21, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's note. — The Supreme Court extended the expiration date of this rule on October 23, 2003 from October 24, 2003 to October 24, 2004. On January 21, 2005, the Supreme Court entered an order removing the termination date of this rule.

LR8-402. Civil cover sheet; pretrial scheduling form.

A. The attorney for the plaintiff or petitioner or a self-represented plaintiff or petitioner shall file a civil case cover sheet in the form set forth in LR8-Form 1 [4] with the pleading initiating a civil action. A copy shall be delivered to the assigned judge by the attorney or self-represented party.

B. The attorney for the defendant or respondent or a self-represented defendant or respondent shall file a civil cover page with the party's responsive pleading. A copy of the cover sheet shall be delivered to the assigned judge by the attorney or self-represented party.

C. Legal effect. Information appearing on the civil cover sheet will have no legal effect in the action.

D. Failure to file cover sheet. The clerk will file the initiating pleading, and answer, even if it is submitted without the completed cover sheet. If a party fails to file a cover sheet, the clerk will give written notice to the party of the deficiency. If a party fails to cure the deficiency within thirty (30) days, the court may enter an order which provides for dismissal of the action without prejudice.

E. Supreme Court approved cover sheet. Upon adoption of one or more civil cover sheets by the New Mexico Supreme Court, the appropriate Supreme Court civil cover sheet shall be filed as a supplement to the Eighth Judicial District civil cover sheet.

[Effective, May 3, 1999 until June 30, 2004; approved, effective January 21, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The Supreme Court extended the expiration date of this rule on October 23, 2003 from October 24, 2003 to October 24, 2004. On January 21, 2005, the Supreme Court entered an order removing the termination date of this rule.

LR8-403. Evaluation and track assignment of cases.

A. When the case is at issue, the judge assigned to an individual case may consider the following factors in assigning cases to a particular track.

Expedited:

- (1) Legal issues: few and clear;
- (2) Required discovery: limited;
- (3) Number of witnesses: five or fewer fact witnesses; including parties. No expert witness;
- (4) Likely trial days: one (1) or less;
- (5) Character and nature of damage claim: fixed amount or capable of determination with limited evidence;
- (6) Parties can be ready for trial within six (6) months of filing of complaint.

Standard:

- (1) Some legal issues;
- (2) Required discovery: routine;

- (3) Number of fact and expert witnesses proportionate to nature of case;
- (4) Likely trial days: five (5) or less;
- (5) Character and nature of damage claim: routine;
- (6) Readiness for trial within twelve (12) months of filing of complaint.

Complex:

- (1) Legal issues: numerous, complicated or unique;
- (2) Required discovery: extensive;
- (3) Large number of fact and expert witnesses;
- (4) Likely trial days: more than five (5);
- (5) Character and nature of damage claims: usually requiring expert testimony or extensive factual testimony;
- (6) Time to prepare trial: more than twelve (12) months.

Note: These factors are guidelines only. A case need not meet each criterion to be assigned to a particular track.

[Effective, May 3, 1999 until June 30, 2004; approved, effective January 21, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The Supreme Court extended the expiration date of this rule on October 23, 2003 from October 24, 2003 to October 24, 2004. On January 21, 2005, the Supreme Court entered an order removing the termination date of this rule.

LR8-404. Notice of track assignment.

Attorneys and self-represented parties shall be notified of the track assignment upon receipt of a "Notice" in the form found in Forms LR8-Form 2, LR8-Form 3 and LR8-Form 4. Those same notices shall set the case for a scheduling conference.

[Approved effective, May 3, 1999 until June 30, 2004; approved, effective January 21, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The Supreme Court extended the expiration date of this rule on October 23, 2003 from October 24, 2003 to October 24, 2004. On January 21, 2005, the Supreme Court entered an order removing the termination date of this rule.

LR8-405. Scheduling report.

A. Each attorney and self-represented party shall confer and jointly submit and file a completed scheduling report at least five (5) days in advance of the scheduling conference. The form of scheduling report is attached to these rules as Form LR8-Form 5.

B. If all parties are not of record sixty (60) days after the complaint is filed, self-represented plaintiffs or plaintiff's counsel then of record shall immediately file a written explanation with a copy to the court and estimate when the matter will be completely at issue. The form to be used in explaining the delay in putting the case at issue is set forth in LR8-Form 6. This same form shall be used by third party plaintiffs, cross claimants and others who are required to serve an opposing party.

C. Any party who appears in the action after the scheduling conference shall file a scheduling report within ten (10) days after entry into the case.

D. The court will set deadlines controlling the progress of the case, and file a scheduling order based upon the parties' answers to the scheduling report and discussion at a scheduling conference. The scheduling order shall control the progress of the case.

E. Upon completion and compliance with the deadlines set forth in the court's scheduling order, the parties shall confer and jointly submit a certification of readiness for trial. A copy of that certification shall be provided to the judge assigned to the case. The certification of readiness for trial is contained in LR8-Form 7.

F. Upon receipt of the certification of readiness for trial, the court shall schedule a pretrial or trial management conference, and shall set the case for trial. The goal will be to set trial within sixty (60) days of the receipt of certification of readiness for trial.

[Effective, May 3, 1999 until June 30, 2004; approved, effective January 21, 2005.]

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The Supreme Court extended the expiration date of this rule on October 23, 2003 from October 24, 2003 to October 24, 2004. On January 21, 2005, the Supreme Court entered an order removing the termination date of this rule.

LR8-501. Settlement conferences.

It is the policy of the Eighth Judicial District to encourage early and fair resolutions of disputes among parties. The court shall have the ability to order and refer a case to settlement conference at any stage in its progress toward resolution.

[Approved, effective July 1, 2000.]
