Absent prior board approval in exceptional circumstances, no more than five (5) hours of credit may be given during one compliance year for self-study activities and the individual seeking self-study credit must not have received self-study credit for the same activity in a prior compliance year. Self-study credits may be applied only to the continuing legal education requirements for the year in which they are earned, and may not be carried over to subsequent year requirements or backward to prior year requirements.

E. Publications. Credit for one (1) hour may be earned for each fifty (50) minutes spent authoring or co-authoring written material which is actually published in a legal periodical, journal, book or treatise which is approved by the administrator or the board, subject to the following requirements:

- (1) it substantially contributes to the legal education or competency of the attorney and other attorneys; and

Credit is given in the year the work is accepted for publication, or in which publication actually occurs.

F. Live program credit. Live program credit can also be attained for time spent viewing videotapes and listening to audiotapes at an organized open enrollment program provided there is a moderator assigned to supervise the program and foster discussion among participants and provided this live program is approved as provided for in these rules.

G. Speakers. Speakers who participate at an accredited providers' program or an approved program may receive credit for preparation time and presentation time, including credit for repeated presentations.

H. Hours earned. Credit for approved programs shall be based on one (1) hour of credit for each fifty (50) minutes of actual instruction time, which may include lecture, panel discussion, question-and-answer periods and video or film presentation.

I. Provider attendance lists. Pursuant to practices and procedures to be adopted by the board, all continuing legal education providers must, as a condition of accreditation or program approval, agree to provide the board a list of all New Mexico attorneys and judges who attended the continuing legal education program and the number of hours claimed by each participant. Such list shall be provided within thirty (30) days of the program being held.

J. Other reporting procedures. An attorney wishing to obtain approval for a program, for which the provider has not sought accreditation or has not properly reported attendees, shall comply with the practices and procedures established by the board.

(1) Each active member who fails to complete the annual minimum educational requirements by December 31 of each year shall pay a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). The fee shall be assessed in the annual report statement provided to each member pursuant to Paragraph A of this rule, and shall be paid no later than March 31.
