LR8-107C. Eighth judicial district settlement week and settlement conference requirements.

A. Policy. It is the policy of the Eighth Judicial District to encourage early and fair resolutions of disputes among parties. Therefore, and in accordance with Rule 1-016 NMRA, the court

(1) may set aside one week each year which will be designated "Settlement Week" and devoted to conducting settlement conferences, and require the parties and their representatives to attend such conferences, and

(2) may at other times of the year require the parties and their representatives to attend settlement conferences.

B. Settlement week dates. Settlement week in the Eighth Judicial District generally will be held the last full week of September, for that entire week, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

C. Cases to be considered for settlement conferences. The following sections apply both to settlement conferences scheduled during settlement week and to conferences scheduled at other times of the year:

(1) Cases which may be referred or submitted to settlement conference. Generally, settlement conferences will be available and should be used in all cases except those in the following categories:

foreclosure without other issues;

replevin without other issues;

conservatorship;

guardianship;

adoption;

petitions pursuant to the Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Code;

election;

appeals;

license suspension, revocation and restoration;

writs of certiorari;

writs of prohibition and mandamus;

cases in which a referral order to court-annexed arbitration has been entered;

cases submitted on stipulations and briefs criminal court cases;

children's court cases;

Without requirements of amending this section, the court by administrative order may revise the foregoing list to add or delete categories of cases. The list will be revised no more than one time each year, generally following settlement week.

(2) Limitations. The number of cases scheduled for settlement conferences shall necessarily be limited by the availability of settlement facilitators and time for settlement conferences.

D. Settlement conference procedures. The following sections apply both to settlement conferences scheduled during settlement week and to conferences scheduled at other times of the year:

(1) Referral by the court. The court, in its sole discretion, may refer cases to settlement conferences at any time whether or not the parties agree thereto.

(2) Submission by a party. Counsel and parties pro se may submit for settlement conference any case that they believe is ready for discussion and settlement. No special form shall be required to submit a case for settlement conference. However, submissions must be in writing; the person or entity submitting the case for settlement conference shall write a letter, directed to the assigned judge during settlement week proceedings or at any other time, setting forth the name of the case, the cause number, and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all counsel and parties pro se. The submission may be done on an ex parte, confidential basis. Submission for settlement conference may be unilateral; an agreement by all parties to agree to try a settlement conference is not required. Further, submission to settlement conference may not be blocked by any party.

(3) Notification of settlement conference. In all cases, whether referred by the court or submitted by a party, the court will issue an order notifying the parties that a settlement conference is required and will do so in such a manner that the parties will not be able to determine whether the case was referred by the court or submitted by a party.

(4) Choice of settlement facilitator. For settlement conferences conducted as part of settlement week, or for settlement conferences at other times of the year, the court may choose the facilitator from the court's list or the parties by agreement may request any licensed attorney or other qualified person to act as the settlement facilitator. Whether the facilitator is chosen by the court or by the parties, the court will confirm the choice in writing.

(5) Payment to settlement facilitator. Payment shall not be required for any settlement facilitator for any settlement conference conducted as part of settlement week. The court may order the parties to pay reasonable compensation to the facilitator for a settlement conference not conducted as part of settlement week. Judges shall not receive payment for acting as settlement facilitators.

(6) Time and place for settlement conference. The parties and settlement facilitator shall agree on the time and place for the settlement conference which may include weekends and evenings. Conferences scheduled as part of settlement week shall, to the extent possible within the schedules of all involved, be held during the week designated as settlement week. All settlement week scheduling conflicts which cannot be resolved by the settlement facilitator and parties and all other settlement conference scheduling conflicts shall be resolved by the assigned judge.

(7) Attendance. The attorneys who will be trying the case and each party or the party's representative having actual and realistic authority to compromise or settle the issues (including but not limited to insurance company representatives and guardians ad litem) shall attend the settlement conference in person and shall be present during the entire conference. Failure to attend the settlement conference or have present all necessary parties or their representatives with settlement authority will constitute grounds for the court to impose sanctions.

(8) Settlement conference information sheet. Prior to the settlement conference, each party to the settlement conference shall complete a "settlement conference information sheet". The completed form shall set forth all of the information necessary for an informed evaluation of the case. The settlement conference information sheets may be ex parte and shall be sent to the settlement facilitator and not filed with the court nor in any way made part of the court record.

LR8-108A. Temporary domestic order.

In actions for dissolution of marriage, or proceedings under Section 40-4-3 NMSA 1978, the following order shall control the proceedings during the pendency of the action, unless otherwise ordered by the court:

(1) Coincident with the filing of a petition, the clerk shall issue, along with the summons, a temporary domestic order (TDO), which shall be effective upon issuance and filing. The petitioner shall complete petitioner's portion of the standard form of the TDO affidavit related to income and expenses (LR8-Form B) which shall be served with the TDO upon the respondent, along with the summons and petition. Counsel for petitioner shall provide a copy of the TDO and TDO affidavit to the petitioner at the time the petition is filed;

(2) Every petition filed with the court under this rule shall contain the following paragraph: "Petitioner understands pursuant to local rule LR8-108A that petitioner is bound by the TDO at the time the petition is filed, and petitioner has read and understands the contents of the TDO."

(3) The TDO shall be in effect upon petitioner at the time it is filed and upon the respondent when the TDO is served upon the respondent or respondent's counsel;

(4) The requirement of a TDO may be waived by both counsel for parties to the lawsuit, or both parties pro se, upon approval of the court;

(5) Either party may apply to the court by motion and notice to the opposing party to modify or supplement the TDO. The TDO will be in effect while such motion is pending;

(6) Within twenty (20) days of the filing of the answer by respondent, respondent shall complete the respondent's portion to the TDO affidavit, file it and mail it to petitioner or petitioner's attorney. Within twenty (20) days of the filing of the answer by respondent, the parties will also exchange documents reflecting recent income and expenses including among other items the most recent federal and state tax returns;

(7) Rule 1-011 NMRA shall apply to the signing of the affidavit by each party.

FORM A

TEMPORARY DOMESTIC ORDER

This matter comes before the court upon the filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage or upon the filing of an action pursuant to Section 40-4-3 NMSA 1978. The court finds it is in the best interests of the parties and of the public in this action to issue this order,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. Neither party shall molest, intimidate, threaten, harass, injure or physically or mentally abuse the other party or any children of either party.
2. Neither party shall remove, cause to be removed, or permit the removal of any minor children of the parties from the State of New Mexico without the written consent of the other party.

3. Neither party shall incur unreasonable or unnecessary debts hereafter. An unreasonable debt is one which is incurred during separation that does not contribute to the benefit of both parties or their dependents. Any unreasonable or unnecessary debt incurred after the date of the filing of the petition shall presumptively be assessed against the party incurring any such debt. The court specifically reserves the right to allocate the expenses and fees of this action.

4. Neither party shall cause the other party or the children of the parties to be removed from existing insurance coverage, including but not limited to medical, hospital, dental, automobile or disability insurance, and each party shall maintain all such insurance coverage in full force and effect.

5. Neither party shall change the beneficiaries of any existing life insurance policies, and each party shall maintain the existing life insurance policies in full force and effect.

6. No party shall conceal or damage any property, real or personal, community or separate. Neither party shall dissipate, sell, remove, assign, transfer, dispose of, lend, mortgage, or encumber any property, real or personal, community or separate, except in the ordinary course of business or for the necessities of life. In the case of transactions made in the ordinary course of business, an itemized written accounting shall be made at least quarterly to the other party. In the case of dispositions made for the necessities of life, an itemized written accounting shall be made to the other party within thirty (30) days of said disposition.

7. In the event the parties are living in the same residence at the time of the service of this order, the parties shall attempt to decide between themselves which party shall move from the family residence. The party moving out of the residence is not prejudiced by reason of the move in any way with respect to custody of any minor children, with respect to a claim of any interest in the family residence, or the personal property in or on the premises.

8. If the parties do not determine which party will move from the residence, the court will decide the issue at a hearing on interim relief, considering among others the following facts:

(a) Minor children should continue to reside in the family residence during the pendency of this case.

(b) The parent who is and has been primarily caring personally for the children's basic daily needs should remain in the family residence during the pendency of this case.

(c) The spouse who maintains his or her principal place of business within the family residence should continue to reside in the family residence during the pendency of this case.

9. If there are minor children, the person moving from the family residence shall be entitled to continue to have frequent contact and communication with the children, in person and by telephone. If the parties cannot agree on a time-sharing arrangement during the pendency of this case, a mediation order will be entered immediately. If the issue is not resolved by agreement through mediation, the court will establish a time-sharing arrangement at a hearing on a motion for interim relief.

10. The person moving from the family residence may return to pick up personal belongings and effects at a reasonable time to be agreed upon. Personal belongings and effects do not include furniture unless the parties agree or the court decides the issue at a hearing on interim relief.

11. Any party receiving personal mail or packages addressed only to the other party shall not open them, but shall forward or arrange to have such mail or packages delivered promptly to the other party. Personal mail addressed to both parties or concerning the children and mail related to the parties' income, debts or property, may be opened by the person who receives it, but any party receiving such mail shall promptly send a copy to the other party.

12. Unless the parties agree in writing, neither party shall cancel any credit cards during pendency of this action or cause the other party to be removed from any credit card account. All charges on credit cards are subject to the limitations of paragraph 3 of this order.

13. Each party is advised that all earned income is community property, and that income from all sources acquired during the marriage is generally community property. Likewise, each party is advised that all debt obligations, existing and recurring, are generally community obligations. Each party has a one-half interest in all community income and property and is obligated to pay one-half of all existing and recurring community debts. During the pendency of the case the income and debts are generally equally divided, provided, however, that the party who has the principal care of any children will be allocated a greater proportion of the income during the pendency of the action. If the parties agree upon the interim division of income and payment of debts, a stipulated order on the court form of order regarding the interim division of income and expenses shall be submitted to the court for signature and filing. If the parties cannot agree, the court will determine the division at a hearing on a motion for interim relief.

14. Within twenty (20) days of the filing of an answer by respondent, respondent shall complete respondent's portion of the TDO affidavit, file it and mail a copy to petitioner.

15. Within twenty (20) days of the filing and service of respondent's answer, each party shall mail or deliver to the other party documents reflecting current income from all sources, including but not limited to wage statements for the last four pay periods and interest, dividends or other income statements showing the current total gross income, deductions and net income received by that party. Within the same period each party shall also mail or deliver to the other party copies of the most recent personal state and federal tax returns with all schedules and attachments.

16. Within twenty (20) days of the filing and service of respondent's answer, each party shall deliver or mail to the other party copies of all current unpaid bills, statements, and due notices from all creditors.

17. This order is effective on the petitioner as of the date and time of filing and is effective on the respondent when it is served on the respondent or respondent's counsel.

18. This order shall continue in effect except as specifically or necessarily modified by written agreement of the parties or order of the court.

DISOBEDIENCE OF THIS ORDER CAN CONSTITUTE CONTEMPT OF COURT, AND SUBJECT THE VIOLATOR TO FINE, IMPRISONMENT OR OTHER SANCTIONS, PLUS PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS TO THE OTHER PARTY.

Self-employed individuals should attach a separate sheet to Worksheet A itemizing the business income and expenses.

B. "Deductions" are payroll deductions for taxes, social security, health insurance, union dues, retirement and other employer-related deductions. Regular and customary savings deductions may be included.

C. "Fixed expense" includes periodic, generally invariable expenses even though paid quarterly, semi-annually or yearly, e.g., car payments, insurance and loan payments:

(1) residence fixed expenses is mortgage or rent actually paid. If a party receives free rent, e.g., by living with parents, that party's rent is imputed at zero;

(2) credit card fixed expense is listed as a fixed expense and includes only the minimum monthly payment at the time of entry of the interim order;

(3) health insurance includes medical and dental insurance which, if not deducted by a payroll deduction, may be included as a fixed expense;

(4) any regular monthly payment ordered by a prior order of child support or alimony which is actually paid is a fixed expense;

(5) day care fixed expense is work-related day care and does not include baby-sitting or occasional child care;

(6) an equal sum will generally be allocated each month to pay toward the attorney fees of each party;

(7) generally utilities are not fixed expenses (telephone and cable TV are never fixed expenses). However, if the utility costs are greatly disproportionate, they may be considered fixed expenses by agreement or court order.

D. (1) If the combined amount in Line 7 is a positive number : To complete Lines 8 and 9, compute one-half of the value shown on the "combined" column on Line 7 "net spendable income", and enter the result for each party on Line 8. To compute the amount transferred/received, subtract Line 8 from Line 7 for each party. The party who has a positive value on Line 9 pays that amount to the other party, and the same amount is entered in paragraph 10 of the Interim Order Allocating Income and Expense.

(2) If the combined amount in Line 7 is a negative number : To complete Line 7, adjust the allocations of income or expenses or transfer an amount from one party to another so that the amounts under "Husband" and "Wife" in line 7 are equal. Enter any transferred amount in paragraph 7 of the Interim Order Allocating Income and Expenses. Do not complete Lines 8 and 9.

[As amended, effective December 1, 1993.]

LR8-108C. Statement of financial condition.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, in every contested domestic relations case involving child support, alimony, property and debt division or characterization, or attorney fees, each party shall file and serve a verified statement of financial condition (statement). The statement shall be in substantial compliance with the following schedules and served no later than forty-five (45) days after service of the answer or thirty (30) days prior to the trial whichever is earlier. The parties may stipulate to a different exchange date. The statement shall be filed with the court clerk:

- | | |

| 1. Child support | Schedules A, D, and E or F |
| 2. Post-decree child support | Schedule D and E or F |

| 5. Post-decree alimony | Schedule C, D |

- 6. Property and debt division Schedule A, B, C, D
- 7. Property characterization Schedule A, B, C

A statement as to character or value of property is an admission. Failure to timely serve the statement may result in the assessment of costs and attorney fees against the delinquent party. This rule does not prevent a party from submitting nor a court from considering additional schedules or evidence, upon a showing of good cause and approval by the court.

LR8-401. Differential case management. (Effective May 3, 1999 to May 3, 2002.)

A. Assignment of cases to a track. Differential case management provides case management to civil cases according to degrees of complexity. All cases, after being put at issue, will be assigned to one of three tracks: expedited, standard or complex. Track assignments by the judge presiding over the case shall be based upon the Civil Case Cover Sheet and Scheduling Report, both of which are described below. Track assignments may be changed at any time on the judge's own motion or upon good cause shown by a party.

B. Intent of system. The intent in this management system is to guide and control the progress of cases, from filing to final disposition. Upon completion of discovery and all required attempts at settlement, and after declaration by counsel and self-represented parties that the case is ready to be tried, the case will be scheduled for pre-trial conference and trial.

C. Three year pilot project. The Eighth Judicial District is implementing this differentiated case management system for civil cases as a pilot project. The pilot project shall continue for a period of three years. Thereafter, the case processing goals and objectives of the pilot project will be evaluated by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

[Effective, May 3, 1999 until May 3, 2002.]

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. - Pursuant to a court order dated March 15, 1999, this rule is effective May 3, 1999 until May 3, 2002.

A. The attorney for the plaintiff or petitioner or a self represented plaintiff or petitioner shall file a Civil Case Cover Sheet in the form set forth in LR8-Form 1 with the pleading initiating a civil action. A copy shall be delivered to the assigned judge by the attorney or self-represented party.

B. The attorney for the defendant or respondent or a self represented defendant or respondent shall file a civil cover page with the party's responsive pleading. A copy of the cover sheet shall be delivered to the assigned judge by the attorney or self-represented party.

C. Legal effect. Information appearing on the civil cover sheet will have no legal effect in the action.

D. Failure to file cover sheet. The clerk will file the initiating pleading, and answer, even if it is submitted without the completed cover sheet. If a party fails to file a cover sheet, the clerk will give written notice to the party of the deficiency. If a party fails to cure the deficiency within thirty (30) days, the court may enter an order which provides for dismissal of the action without prejudice.

E. Supreme Court approved cover sheet. Upon adoption of one or more civil cover sheets by the New Mexico Supreme Court, the appropriate Supreme Court civil cover sheet shall be filed as a supplement to the Eighth Judicial District civil cover sheet.

LR8-403. Evaluation and track assignment of cases. (Effective May 3, 1999 to May 3, 2002.)

A. When the case is at issue, the judge assigned to an individual case may consider the following factors in assigning cases to a particular track.

Expedited:

(1) Legal issues: few and clear;

- (2) Required discovery: limited;
- (3) Number of witnesses: five or fewer fact witnesses; including parties. No expert witness;
- (4) Likely trial days: one (1) or less;

- (2) Required discovery: routine;
- (3) Number of fact and expert witnesses proportionate to nature of case;
- (4) Likely trial days: five (5) or less;
- (5) Character and nature of damage claim: routine;
- (6) Readiness for trial within twelve (12) months of filing of complaint.

Complex:

- (1) Legal issues: numerous, complicated or unique;
- (2) Required discovery: extensive;
- (3) Large number of fact and expert witnesses;
- (4) Likely trial days: more than five (5);
- (5) Character and nature of damage claims: usually requiring expert testimony or extensive factual testimony;
- (6) Time to prepare trial: more than twelve (12) months.

Note: These factors are guidelines only. A case need not meet each criterion to be assigned to a particular track.

The form to be used in explaining the delay in putting the case at issue is set forth in LR8-Form 6. This same form shall be used by third party plaintiffs, cross claimants and others who are required to serve an opposing party.

C. Any party who appears in the action after the scheduling conference shall file a scheduling report within ten (10) days after entry into the case.

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF NEW MEXICO

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 92-1 MISC.

The court, being advised that changes are required in the local rules because:

1. The prior rescission of rules 1, 2, and 4 require renumbering for better continuity and clarity;
2. Rule 6 should now be rescinded;
3. There is now a caseload disparity which requires that both district judges would, from time to time, be designated trial judge in any county; and
4. Rules 13 and 14 are better understood consolidated as one rule with subsections, and there were typographical errors in those rules, requiring changes as follows:

(a) The form accompanying Rule 14 captioned "Interim Monthly Income and Expenses" should be captioned "Worksheet A - Interim Monthly Income and Expenses", and

(b) Paragraph (D)(2) of the instructions for completing Worksheet A of Rule 14 requires that the numeral "7" be substituted for the numeral "10".

5. A rule providing for mediation in domestic relations and civil cases should be added, and made a part of a broader rule on alternative dispute resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, these redesignations and amendments in the court's local rules are hereby ordered:

1. Present Rule is designated as local rule LR8-101.
2. New local rule LR8-101 is amended by adding this subsection:

(d) The above notwithstanding, the presiding judge may, from time to time, designate either district judge as the judge of record in any case in any county, within the district, in order to best utilize both divisions in the event a disparity in caseload should arise. The designations under this subsection shall be done under a random system adopted by the presiding judge proportionate to the caseload disparity.

3. Local Rule 6 is rescinded.
4. Present Rule 5 is now local rule LR8-102.
5. Present Rule 7 is now local rule LR8-103.

6. Present Rule 8 is now local rule LR8-104.

7. Present Rule 9 is now local rule LR8-107A.

8. Present Rule 10 is now local rule LR8-105.

9. Present Rule 11 is now local rule LR8-106.

10. Present Rule 12 is now local rule LR8-107C.

11. Present Rules 13 and 14 are now "LR8-108. Automatic Temporary Domestic Orders", and contains the text designations as follows:

(a) Present Rule 13 is now local rule LR8-108A.

(b) Present Rule 14 and accompanying documents, up to but not including the language "Statement of Financial Condition" is now designated as local rule LR8-108B, Interim Allocation of Income and Expenses. LR8-108B is also amended by adding the phrase "Attachment A" before the caption of the document "Interim Monthly Income and Expenses", and by changing the numeral "10" to the numeral "7" in Paragraph (D)(2) of the Instructions for Worksheet A; and

(c) Present Rule 14 from the language "Statement of Financial Condition" is now designated as local rule LR8-108C.

12. Local Rule LR8-107B is added to provide for referral of civil cases to mediation, where appropriate.

DONE BY THE COURT this 5th day of November, 1992.
