18-201. Minimum educational requirements.

A. Hours required. Every active licensed member of the state bar shall complete fifteen (15) hours of continuing legal education during each year as provided by these rules.

B. Legal ethics. At least one (1) hour of the fifteen (15) hours shall be devoted to legal ethics or code of professional responsibility subjects.

C. Judges. Judges and retired judges who are active licensed members of the state bar shall be required to complete the same number of hours of continuing legal education as other active licensed bar members but may satisfy such requirement by attending judicial education programs:

- (1) provided by the Judicial Continuing Education Committee in addition to programs approved by the Minimum Continuing Legal Education Board; or

(2) approved by the Administrative Office of the Courts pursuant to the Rules Governing Judicial Education.

D. Carry-over. Any member may carry up to fifteen (15) hours of credits earned in one (1) compliance year over to the next. However, not more than fifteen (15) hours shall be carried over from the prior year. Self study credit hours cannot be carried over.

E. Initial compliance year. For members admitted on or after January 1, 1990 the initial compliance year shall be the first full compliance year following the date of admission.

F. Compliance year. For all active members not mentioned in Paragraph E of this rule, the compliance year shall end December 31 of each year.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1990; November 1, 1991; February 1, 1992.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective November 1, 1991, deleted former Paragraph D, relating to practice skills; redesignated former Paragraphs E and F as Paragraphs D and E, rewrote Paragraph E; and added Paragraph F.

The 1992 amendment, effective February 1, 1992, added the last sentence in Paragraph D.

18-202. Exemptions and waivers.

A. Inactive members. An inactive member of the state bar shall be exempt from continuing legal education and reporting requirements of these rules.

B. Waivers. Upon petition, the board, with approval by the Supreme Court, may exempt an active licensed member from continuing legal education, but not the reporting requirements of these rules, upon a finding by the board of special circumstances constituting undue hardship.

(As amended, effective January 1, 1990.)

18-203. Accreditation; course approval.

A. Accreditation. The board shall:

(1) accredit institutions that have a history of providing quality continuing legal education;

(2) approve individual programs of continuing legal education. The content of the instruction provided may include, but not be limited to, live seminars, audiotapes and videotapes; and

(3) periodically review accredited institutions.

B. Accredited institutions and program provider requirements. Accredited institutions and program providers shall:

(1) assure that each program addresses the ethical or code of professional responsibility implications where appropriate; provided, however, that only those portions of a program specifically approved or specified as granting ethics credit shall be used to fulfill the attorneys' ethics requirements;

(2) assure that the course has significant intellectual or practical content and that its primary objective is to increase the participant's professional competence as an attorney;

(3) assure that the curriculum offered relates to legal subjects or subjects which relate to the individual attorney's practice of law, including professional conduct, legal ethics, or law office management;

(4) assure that presenters for all programs are qualified by practical or academic experience to teach the subject to be covered. Legal subjects should normally be taught by attorneys;

(5) assure that thorough, high quality, current, readable, carefully prepared written materials are distributed to all participants at or before the time the course is offered; and

(6) assure that a level of activity is noted on the promotional materials following the guidelines listed below:

(a) Advanced. An advanced continuing legal education course should be designed for the practitioner who specializes in the subject matter of the course;

(b) Intermediate. An intermediate course is designed for the practitioner experienced in the subject matter, but not necessarily an expert. A survey course in which there have been recent, substantial changes will be deemed intermediate. In an intermediate course, some segment may be low intermediate or basic and others high or advanced. In those instances, the course taken as a whole will be considered intermediate;

(c) Basic. A basic course is designed for the practitioner with no experience or limited experience in the area of law with which the course deals. A survey course will be considered basic unless there are recent, significant changes in the law.

C. Announcement of approval. Providers shall announce, as to a program that has been given approval, that: "This course has been approved by the New Mexico Minimum Continuing Legal Education Board for _____ hours of credit".

D. Self-study credit. Self-study credit may be given for viewing videotapes or listening to audiotapes, provided:

- (1) board approval is received prior to viewing or listening;
- (2) the video or audio tapes are from an accredited provider; or
- (3) the video or audio tapes are from an approved program.

No more than five (5) hours of credit may be given during one compliance year for self-study activities.

E. Publications. Credit for one hour may be earned for each fifty (50) minutes spent authoring or co-authoring written material which is actually published in a legal periodical, journal, book or treatise which is approved by the administrator or the board, subject to the following requirements:

- (1) it substantially contributes to the legal education or competency of the attorney and other attorneys; and
- (2) it is not done in the ordinary course of the attorney's practice of law or the performance of regular employment.

Credit is given in the year the work is accepted for publication, or in which publication actually occurs.

F. Live program credit. Live program credit can also be attained for time spent viewing video tapes and listening to audio tapes at an organized open enrollment program provided there is a moderator assigned to supervise the program and foster discussion among participants and provided this live program is approved as provided for in these rules.

G. Speakers. Speakers who participate at an accredited providers' program or an approved program may receive credit for preparation time and presentation time, including credit for repeated presentations.

H. Hours earned. Credit for approved programs shall be based on one hour of credit for each fifty (50) minutes of actual instruction time, which may include lecture, panel discussion, question-and-answer periods and video or film presentation.

I. Provider attendance lists. Pursuant to practices and procedures to be adopted by the board, all continuing legal education providers must, as a condition of accreditation or program approval, agree to provide the board a list of all New Mexico attorneys and judges who attended the continuing legal education program and the number of hours claimed by each participant. Such list shall be provided within thirty (30) days of the program being held.

J. Other reporting procedures. An attorney wishing to obtain approval for a program, for which the provider has not sought accreditation or has not properly reported attendees, shall comply with the practices and procedures established by the board.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1990; November 1, 1991; January 1, 1994; January 16, 1996.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective November 1, 1991, in Paragraph D, substituted "video or audio tapes" for "materials" in Subparagraphs (2) and (3) and "one compliance year" for "any reporting year" in the last sentence of that paragraph; in Paragraph E, substituted "this live program" for "the original course or program" and deleted the former last sentence, which read "These programs are not subject to the self-study limitations"; and, in the first sentence in Paragraph I, substituted "board" for "committee" and "attorneys" for "lawyers".

The 1994 amendment, effective May 1, 1994, added Paragraph E, redesignated former Paragraphs E and F as Paragraphs F and G, and deleted former Paragraph G relating to publications, which read: "Credit may be earned of one hour for each fifty (50) minutes spent preparing an article which is actually published in a legal periodical or journal which is approved by the administrator or the board."

The 1996 amendment, effective January 16, 1996, added Subparagraph B(6) and made related changes, and inserted "and listening to audio tapes" in Paragraph F.

ARTICLE 3 REPORTING

18-301. Compliance.

A. Reporting. The board shall prepare an annual report statement for each licensed active member of the state bar for the previous compliance year which shall be mailed to each member no later than the last day of February of each year. This report shall include reference to hours earned during the compliance year which have been reported by the providers and carryover hours.

B. Verification of statement by member. Prior to April 1 of each year, each licensed active member of the state bar shall verify the annual report statement as received, or shall amend the report if incomplete. Each member shall return a verified or amended annual report statement to the MCLE board.

C. Notification of deficiency. The board shall annually compile and certify to the Supreme Court a list of those members of the state bar who prior to April 30 have:

(1) failed to file a verified or amended annual report statement for the prior calendar year;

(2) filed a verified or amended annual report statement indicating they have not complied with the requirements of these rules; or

(3) failed to pay any necessary filing fees prescribed by the board.

Whenever the board shall certify to the Supreme Court that any member of the state bar has failed or refused to comply with the provisions of these rules, the clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a citation to such member requiring the member to show cause before the court, within fifteen (15) days after service of such citation, why the member should not be suspended from the right to practice in the courts of this state. Service of such citation may be personal or by registered or certified mail. Compliance with the provision of these rules on or before the return day of such citation shall be deemed sufficient showing of cause and shall serve to discharge the citation.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1990; November 1, 1991; July 18, 1994.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective November 1, 1991, rewrote Paragraph A; in Paragraph B, substituted "March 1" for "January 1" in the first sentence and "MCLE board" for "state bar with the member's annual registration statement" in the second sentence; and, in Paragraph C, substituted "March 31" for "March 1" in the introductory language and "any necessary filing fees" for "the annual administrative fee" in Subparagraph (3).

The 1994 amendment, effective July 18, 1994, substituted "the last day of February" for "January 31" in Paragraph A, substituted "April 1" for "March 1" in Paragraph B, and substituted "April 30" for "March 31" in Paragraph C.

18-302. Review and appeal.

A. Hearing. An attorney may petition the board for a hearing in regard to a failure to comply with the provisions of these rules.

B. Decision. The board shall review the petition upon its receipt and shall notify the petitioner of its decision.

C. Appeal. An attorney may petition the Supreme Court for modification or reversal of action of the board.

(As amended, effective January 1, 1990.)

18-303. Reinstatement.

If an attorney whose license to practice law has been suspended pursuant to these rules thereafter files a report with the board showing compliance with the requirements of Rule 18-301, the board shall promptly notify the clerk of the Supreme Court, and recommend reinstatement.

(As amended, effective January 1, 1990.)

ANNOTATIONS

APPENDIX A

REGULATIONS IMPLEMENTING CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE DISTRICT AND APPELLATE COURT JUDGES

Pursuant to NMRA 1997, 18-103, the Judicial Continuing Education Committee hereby adopts the following regulations implementing the continuing legal education requirement for state district and appellate judges:

1. Required Course Work. Commencing January 1, 1987, and continuing each calendar year thereafter, each state district and appellate court judge shall be required annually to complete fifteen (15) hours of minimum continuing legal education of subject matter course work which has been approved by the Judicial Continuing Education Committee. At least one (1) hour of the fifteen (15) annual requirement hours shall include attendance of a program devoted to legal ethics and Rules of Professional Conduct subjects, and judicial standards every other year. For purposes of these regulations, credit for one (1) hour may be earned for each fifty (50) minutes spent attending or participating in an approved judicial continuing education program.
