GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule

2-101. Scope and title.

A. Scope. These rules shall govern the civil procedure in all magistrate courts.

B. Construction. These rules shall be liberally construed to secure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of every magistrate court action. They shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of any court, or to abridge, enlarge or modify the substantive rights of any litigant.

C. Title. These rules shall be known as the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Magistrate Courts.

D. Citation form. These rules shall be cited by set and rule numbers, as in SCRA 1986, Rule 2-_____.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1987.]

Power of court to adopt general rule requiring pretrial conference as distinguished from exercising its discretion in each case separately, 2 A.L.R.2d 1061.

21 C.J.S. Courts §§ 124 to 134.

2-102. Conduct of court proceedings.

A. Judicial proceedings. The purpose of judicial proceedings is to ascertain the truth. Such proceedings should be conducted with fitting dignity and decorum, in a manner conducive to undisturbed deliberation, indicative of their importance to the people and to the litigants, and in an atmosphere that bespeaks the responsibilities of those who are charged with the administration of justice. The taking of photographs in the courtroom during the progress of judicial proceedings or during any recess thereof and the transmitting or sound recording of such proceedings for broadcasting by radio or television introduce extraneous influences which tend to have a detrimental psychological effect on the participants and to divert them from the proper objectives of the trial; they shall not be done or permitted.

B. Nonjudicial proceedings. Proceedings, other than judicial proceedings, designed and carried out primarily as ceremonies, and conducted with dignity by judges in open court, may properly be photographed in or broadcast from the courtroom with the permission and under the supervision of the court.

88 C.J.S. Trial §§ 36 to 54.

2-103. Rules and forms.

A. Rules. Each magistrate court or division thereof may from time to time make and amend rules governing its practice not inconsistent with law, these rules or regulations prescribed by the administrative office of the courts. Such rules may relate to office hours and procedures, to the performance of clerical duties by clerical assistants, and to other procedures for effecting a just, speedy and inexpensive determination of causes pending before such court. Proposed rules or amendments shall be submitted to the director of the administrative office of the courts and shall not become effective until approved by him.

B. Forms. Forms used in the magistrate courts shall be substantially in the form approved by the supreme court.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1987.]

ANNOTATIONS

Cross-references. - For civil and criminal forms for the district courts and courts of limited jurisdiction, see Forms 4-101 et seq. and 9-101 et seq.

Am. Jur. 2d, A.L.R. and C.J.S. references. - 20 Am. Jur. 2d Courts §§ 82 to 86.

Power of court to prescribe rules of pleadings, practice or procedure, 110 A.L.R. 22, 158 A.L.R. 705.

Constitutionality, construction and application of statutes or rules of court which permit setting aside a plea and giving judgment by default, or dismissing suit, because of disobedience of order, summons or subpoena duces tecum requiring production of documents, 144 A.L.R. 372.

Pretrial conference, power of court to adopt general rule requiring, 2 A.L.R.2d 1061.

Consent as ground of vacating judgment, or granting new trial, in civil case, after expiration of term or time prescribed by statute or rules of court, 3 A.L.R.3d 1191.

Contempt based on violation of court order where another court has issued contrary order, 36 A.L.R.4th 978.

2-104. Time.

A. Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any magistrate court, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday.

B. Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court, an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion:

(1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or

(2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, permit the act to be done, but it may not extend the time for commencement of trial under Rule 2-305 or for taking an appeal under Rule 2-705.

C. For motions; affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereon shall be served not later than five (5) days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and opposing affidavits may be served not later than one (1) day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

D. Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

2-105. Designation of judge.

A. Assignment of cases. The magistrate before whom the case is to be tried shall be designated at the time the complaint is filed.

B. Procedure for replacing a magistrate who has been excused.

(1) In magistrate districts which have presiding magistrates as defined in Section 35-1-37 NMSA 1978. Upon receipt of a notice of excusal, the magistrate or clerk of the magistrate court shall give written notice to the parties to the action. Upon failure of counsel for all parties to file a stipulation within five (5) days of the filing of a notice of excusal naming another magistrate in the district to try the cause, the presiding magistrate of the district shall, by random selection, designate another magistrate to try the cause. If all magistrates in the district have been excused or have recused themselves, within ten (10) days after the filing of the last notice of excusal or recusal, the presiding magistrate shall certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending and the district court shall designate another magistrate to conduct any further proceedings. The district court shall send notice of its designation to the parties or their counsel, to the excused or recused magistrate and to the designated magistrate.

(2) In magistrate districts which do not have presiding magistrates as defined in Section 35-1-37 NMSA 1978. Upon excusal, the parties or their counsel may, by agreement, designate another magistrate of the same or an adjoining magistrate district to conduct any further proceeding in the cause. If the excused magistrate has not received notice of such an agreement within five (5) days after the date the notice of excusal is filed, the excused magistrate shall within ten (10) days after the date the notice of excusal was filed, certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending and the district court shall designate another magistrate to conduct any further proceedings. The district court shall send notice of its designation to the parties or their counsel, to the excused magistrate, and to the designated magistrate.

C. Procedure for replacing a recused magistrate.

(1) In magistrate districts which have presiding magistrates as defined in Section 35-1-37 NMSA 1978, if the magistrate recuses himself from sitting in the action, the magistrate or clerk of the magistrate court shall give written notice to the parties to the action. Upon failure of counsel for all parties to file a stipulation within ten (10) days after the filing of the certificate of recusal naming another magistrate in the district to try the cause, the presiding magistrate of the district shall, by random selection, designate another magistrate to try the cause. If all magistrates in the district have been excused or have recused themselves, within ten (10) days after the filing of the last notice or excusal or recusal, the presiding magistrate shall certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending and the district court shall designate another magistrate to conduct any further proceedings. The district court shall send notice of its designation to the parties or their counsel, to the excused or recused magistrate and to the designated magistrate.

(2) In magistrate districts which do not have presiding magistrates as defined in Section 35-1-37 NMSA 1978, upon recusal of the magistrate, the parties or their counsel may, by agreement, designate another magistrate of the same or an adjoining magistrate district to conduct any further proceeding in the cause. If the recused magistrate has not received notice of such an agreement within ten (10) days after the notice of recusal is filed, the excused magistrate shall certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending and the district court shall designate another magistrate to conduct any further proceedings. The district court shall send notice of its designation to the parties or their counsel, to the recused magistrate, and to the designated magistrate.

D. Subsequent proceedings. After the designation, the excused magistrate shall within ten (10) days send to the designated magistrate a copy of all proceedings in the action. Upon designation of a new magistrate, all proceedings shall continue to be conducted in the original magistrate district. The clerk of the magistrate court of the original magistrate district shall continue to be responsible for the court file and shall perform such further duties as may be required. The designated magistrate may not be excused by either party except for causes set out in Article 6, Section 18 of the Constitution of New Mexico.

[As amended, effective May 1, 1986; October 1, 1987; September 1, 1989.]

2-106. Excusal; recusal; disability.

A. Excusal; procedure. Whenever a party to any civil action or proceeding of any kind files a notice of excusal, the magistrate's jurisdiction over the cause terminates immediately.

B. Extent of excuse. No party shall excuse more than one judge.

C. Excusal procedure. The statutory right to excuse the magistrate judge before whom the case is pending must be exercised:

(1) by each party plaintiff by filing a peremptory election to excuse with the court within ten (10) days after the later of:

(a) the filing of the complaint; or

(b) mailing by the clerk of notice of assignment or reassignment of the case to a judge;

(2) by defendant or any other party by filing a peremptory election to excuse within ten (10) days after the later of the filing of the answer pursuant to Rule 2-302 by that party or of mailing by the court of notice of assignment or reassignment of the case to a judge; and

(3) by each party plaintiff and defendant in a restitution case, including an action in forcible entry or detainer, by filing a peremptory election to excuse within five (5) days after service.

D. Notice of reassignment; service of excusal. After the filing of the complaint, if the case is reassigned to a different judge, the court shall give notice of the reassignment to all parties. Any party electing to excuse a judge shall serve notice of such election on all parties.

E. Recusal; procedure. Whenever the magistrate before whom the action is pending is disqualified by the terms of the New Mexico Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct, he shall recuse himself from sitting in the action by giving notice to all parties. Upon recusal, another magistrate shall be designated to conduct any further proceedings in the action in the manner provided by Rule 2-105 of these rules for cases of disqualification.

F. Failure to recuse. If a party believes that one or more of the conditions in Paragraph E of this rule exists, he may disqualify the judge by filing a notice of excusal, naming the condition or conditions, and the magistrate shall thereupon proceed in accordance with Rule 2-105 of these rules. If in any case of disqualification the magistrate fails or refuses to recognize the disqualification, any party may certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending. The district court shall make such investigation as it deems warranted and enter an order in the action, either prohibiting the magistrate from proceeding further and designating another or striking the notice of excusal as ineffective or groundless.

G. Disability of magistrate. If by reason of absence, death, sickness or other cause, the magistrate before whom the cause is pending is unable or unavailable to perform his duties, either party may certify that fact by letter to the district court of the county in which the action is pending. The district court may make such investigation as it deems warranted and, if it finds that the magistrate is in fact disabled or unavailable, shall thereupon designate another magistrate of the county or, if none is available, of any other county to preside over the cause.

H. Subsequent proceedings. After the designation, the excused or recused magistrate shall within ten (10) days send to the designated magistrate a copy of all proceedings in the action. Upon designation of a new magistrate, all proceedings shall continue to be conducted in the original magistrate district. The clerk of the magistrate court of the original magistrate district shall continue to be responsible for the court file and shall perform such further duties as may be required. The designated magistrate may not be excused by either party except for causes set out in Article 6, Section 18 of the Constitution of New Mexico.

48A C.J.S. Judges §§ 36, 98 to 185.

2-107. Pro se and attorney appearance.

A. Pro se appearance by an individual. A party to any civil action may appear, prosecute, defend and appeal any proceeding:

- (1) if the party is an individual party, in person;
- (2) if the property is community property, one spouse may appear for both spouses.

B. Other authorized appearances. A party to any civil action may appear, prosecute and defend any proceeding:

- (1) if the party is brought into the suit by a writ of garnishment or attachment, and such party is a partnership, by one of its general partners;
- (2) if the party is brought into the suit by writ of garnishment or attachment and such party is a corporation, by an officer, director or general manager of the corporation upon the filing of a notarized certificate to so act on behalf of the corporation;
- (3) if the action is brought pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Owner-Resident Relations Act [47-8-1 to 47-8-52 NMSA 1978] and the appearance is by:
 - (a) the "owner", as defined by the provisions of the Uniform Owner-Resident Relations Act;
 - (b) a licensed real estate agent authorized by such owner; or
 - (c) the person authorized to manage the premises;
- (4) if the party is a corporation whose voting shares are held by a single shareholder or closely knit group of shareholders all of whom are natural persons active in the conduct of the business and the appearance is by an officer or general manager who has been authorized to appear on behalf of the corporation;
- (5) if the party is a general partnership which meets all of the following qualifications:
 - (a) the partnership has less than ten partners, whether limited or general, except that a husband and wife are treated as one partner for this purpose;
 - (b) all partners, whether limited or general, are natural persons; and
 - (c) the appearance is by a general partner who has been authorized to appear by the general partners; or
- (6) if the party is a governmental entity and the appearance is by an employee of the governmental entity authorized by the entity to institute or cause to be instituted an action on behalf of the governmental entity.

C. Attorney appearance. A party may appear, prosecute, defend and appeal any proceeding by an attorney. Whenever an attorney undertakes to represent a party, the attorney shall file a written entry of appearance showing the attorney's name, address and telephone number. For the purpose of this rule, the filing of any pleading signed by counsel constitutes an entry of appearance. If entry of appearance is made by the filing of a pleading on behalf of a party, the attorney shall set forth on the pleading the attorney's address and telephone number.

D. Collection agencies. Collection agencies may take assignments of claims in their own name as real parties in interest for the purpose of billing and collection and bringing suit in their own names thereon, provided that no suit authorized by this section may be instituted on behalf of a collection agency in any court unless the collection agency appears by a licensed attorney-at-law.

[As amended, effective July 1, 1987; July 1, 1988; July 1, 1990; October 1, 1992.]

The 1990 amendment, effective for cases filed in the magistrate courts on or after July 1, 1990, added the last three sentences in Paragraph C.

The 1992 amendment, effective October 1, 1992, rewrote Paragraph D.

2-108. Withdrawal or substitution of attorneys.

A. Consent and notice. No attorney or firm who has appeared in a cause may withdraw from it without written consent of the magistrate court, filed with the clerk. Such consent may be conditioned upon substitution of other counsel or the filing by a party of an address at which service may be made upon him, with proof of service thereof on all other parties, or otherwise. Following withdrawal by counsel, an unrepresented party shall have twenty (20) days within which to secure counsel or be deemed to have entered an appearance pro se. Notice of withdrawal or substitution of counsel shall be given to all parties either by withdrawing counsel or by substituted counsel and proof of service filed with the clerk.

B. Withdrawal without consent. If an attorney ceases to act in a cause for a reason other than withdrawal or consent, upon motion of any party, the court may require the taking of such steps as may be advised to insure that the cause will proceed with promptness and dispatch.

C. Service upon attorneys of record. Attorneys of record shall continue to be subject to service for ninety (90) days after entry of final judgment. This rule does not preclude the earlier withdrawal of counsel as provided above.

D. Service upon responding party. In the event of further legal proceedings between the parties after the ninety (90) days have elapsed, the moving party shall effect service of process upon the responding party in the manner prescribed by Rule 2-202.

[As amended, effective July 1, 1990.]

ANNOTATIONS

The 1990 amendment, effective for cases filed in the magistrate courts on or after July 1, 1990, designated the former first paragraph as Paragraph A, added the present heading of that paragraph, and inserted the present third sentence therein; designated the former second paragraph as Paragraph B, adding the present heading thereto; and added present Paragraphs C and D.

2-109. Record.

As used in these rules, "record" shall mean:

A. Transcript. Stenographic notes which must be transcribed when a "record" is required to be filed;

B. Stipulated facts. A statement of facts and proceedings stipulated to by the parties for purposes of review; or

C. Other recording. Any mechanical, electrical or other recording, including a videotape recording when such method of mechanical, electrical or other recording has been approved by the court administrator. No broadcast or reproduction of any mechanical, electrical or other recording shall be made for any person other than an official of the court without the express written consent of the New Mexico Supreme Court.

2-110. Contempt.

A magistrate has jurisdiction to punish for contempt only for disorderly behavior or breach of the peace tending to interrupt or disturb a judicial proceeding in progress before the magistrate or for disobedience of any lawful order or process of his court. No person shall be punished for contempt of the magistrate court until given an opportunity to be heard in his defense. Any person found in contempt may be ordered to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) or may be imprisoned not more than thirty (30) days, or in the discretion of the magistrate, may be ordered both to pay such fine and be imprisoned. Any person found guilty of contempt may appeal to the district court pursuant to the rules of procedure governing criminal actions in the magistrate court.

ARTICLE 2 COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION

Rule

2-201. Commencement of action.

A. How commenced. A civil action is commenced by filing with the court a complaint consisting of a written statement of a claim or claims setting forth briefly the facts and circumstances giving rise to the action.

B. Jurisdiction. Magistrates have jurisdiction in all cases as may be provided by law.

C. Form of complaint. The complaint shall be in substantially the form approved by the court administrator and the supreme court.

D. Verified accounts. Accounts duly verified by the oath of the party claiming the same, or his agent, and promissory notes and other instruments in writing not barred by law are sufficient evidence in any suit to create a rebuttable presumption, sufficient to enable the plaintiff to recover judgment for the account thereof.

ANNOTATIONS

72 C.J.S. Process § 3.

2-202. Summons.

A. Summons; issuance. Upon receipt of a complaint and payment of the docket fee, the clerk or the magistrate shall docket the action and issue a summons and deliver it to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, who shall be responsible for prompt service of the summons and a copy of the complaint. Upon the request of the plaintiff, separate, additional or amended summons shall issue against any defendants. Any defendant may waive the service of summons by entering an appearance or filing an answer in the proceedings.

B. Summons; how issued; form. The summons shall be signed by the clerk, be directed to the defendant, be substantially in the form approved by the Supreme Court and must contain:

(1) the name of the court in which the action is brought, the name of the county in which the complaint is filed, the docket number of the case, the name of the first party on each side, with an appropriate indication of the other parties, and the name of each party to whom the summons is directed;

(2) a direction that the defendant serve a responsive pleading or motion within twenty (20) days after service of the summons, and file the same, all as provided by law, and a notice that unless the defendant so serves and files a responsive pleading or motion, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint;

(3) the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, shall be shown on every summons, otherwise the plaintiff's address.

C. Summons; service of copy. A copy of the summons with a copy of complaint attached and a copy of the form for answer shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary.

D. Summons; by whom served. In civil actions any process may be served by the sheriff of the county where the defendant may be found or by any other person who is over the age of eighteen (18) years and not a party to the action, except for writs of attachment and writs of replevin, which shall be served by the sheriff or by any person not a party to the action over the age of eighteen (18) years who may be designated by the court to perform such service or by the sheriff of the county where the property or person may be found.

E. Summons; service by mail. A summons and complaint may be served upon a defendant of any class referred to in Subparagraph (1) or (2) of Paragraph F of this rule by mailing a copy of the summons and of the complaint (by first-class mail, postage prepaid) to the person to be served, together with two (2) copies of a notice and acknowledgement substantially conforming with the form approved by the Supreme Court and a return envelope, postage prepaid, addressed to the sender. If no acknowledgement of service under this subdivision of this rule is received by the sender within twenty (20) days after the date of mailing plus three (3) days as provided by Rule 2-104, service of such summons and complaint shall be made by a person authorized by Paragraph D of this rule, in the manner prescribed by Paragraph F of this rule. Unless good cause is shown for not doing so, the court shall order the payment of the costs of personal service by the person served if such person does not complete and return to the sender within twenty-three (23) days after mailing the notice and acknowledgement of receipt of summons.

The form of the notice and acknowledgement of receipt of summons and complaint shall be substantially in the form approved by the Supreme Court.

F. Summons; how served. Personal service shall be made as provided by law as follows:

(1) upon an individual other than a minor or an incapacitated person by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to him personally; or if the defendant refuses to receive such, by leaving same at the location where he has been found; and if the defendant refuses to receive such copies or permit them to be left, such action shall constitute valid service. If the defendant is absent, service may be made by delivering a copy of the process or other papers to be served to some person residing at the usual place of abode of the defendant who is over the age of fifteen (15) years; and if there is no such person available or willing to accept delivery, then service may be made by posting such copies in the most public part of the defendant's premises, and by mailing to the defendant at his last known mailing address copies of the process;

(2) upon a domestic or foreign corporation by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or a general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant; upon a partnership by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to any general partner; and upon other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by law to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the unincorporated association. If the person refuses to receive such copies, such action shall constitute valid service. If none of the persons mentioned is available, service may be made by delivering a copy of the process or other papers to be served at the principal office or place of business during regular business hours to the person in charge thereof;

(3) upon the State of New Mexico:

(a) in garnishment actions, service of writs of garnishment shall be made on the department of finance and administration, on the attorney general and on the head of the branch, agency, bureau, department, commission or institution;

(b) service of process on the governor, attorney general, agency, bureau, department, commission or institution or head thereof may be made either by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the head or to his receptionist. Where an executive secretary is employed, he shall be considered as the head;

(4) upon any county by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the county clerk, who shall forthwith notify the district attorney of the judicial district in which the county sued is situated;

(5) upon a municipal corporation by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the city clerk, town clerk or village clerk, who in turn shall forthwith notify the head of the commission or other form of governing body;

(6) upon the board of trustees of any land grant referred to in Sections 49-1-1 through 49-10-6 NMSA 1978, process shall be served upon the president or in his absence upon the secretary of such board;

(7) upon a minor, whenever there shall be a conservator of the estate or guardian of the person of such minor, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the conservator or guardian. Service of process so made shall be considered as service upon the minor. In all other cases process shall be served by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the minor, and if the minor is living with an adult a copy of the summons and of the complaint shall also be delivered to the adult residing in the same household. In all cases where a guardian ad litem has been appointed, a copy of the summons and of the complaint shall be delivered to such representative, in addition to serving the minor as herein provided;

(8) upon an incapacitated person, whenever there shall be a conservator of the estate or guardian of the person of such incapacitated person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the conservator or guardian. Service of process so made shall be considered as service upon the ward. In all other cases process shall be served upon the ward in the same manner as upon competent persons;

(9) upon a personal representative, guardian, conservator, trustee or other fiduciary in the same manner as provided in Subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph as may be appropriate.

Service shall be made with reasonable diligence, and the original summons with proof of service shall be returned to the clerk of the court from which it was issued.

G. Return. If service is made by mail pursuant to Paragraph E of this rule, return shall be made by the sender's filing with the court the acknowledgment received pursuant to such paragraph. Where service within the state includes mailing, the return shall state the date and place of mailing. If service is by personal service pursuant to Paragraph F of this rule, the person serving the process shall make proof of service thereof to the court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. When service is made by the sheriff (or deputy), proof thereof shall be by certificate; and when made by a person other than a sheriff (or deputy), proof thereof shall be made by affidavit. Where service within the state includes mailing, the return shall state the date and place of mailing. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of service.

H. Service by publication. Service by publication may not be made, except as provided by law in cases of attachment or replevin.

I. Alias process. When any process has not been returned, or has been returned without service, or has been improperly served, it shall be the duty of the clerk, upon the application of any party to the suit, to issue other process as the party applying may direct.

J. Service; applicable statute. Where no provision is made in these rules for service of process, process shall be served as provided for by any applicable statute.

K. Construction of terms. Wherever the terms "summons", "process", "service of process" or similar terms are used, such shall include the summons, complaint and any other papers required to be served.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1990; July 1, 1990 and January 1, 1993; May 1, 1994.]

The 1989 amendment, effective for cases filed in the magistrate courts on or after January 1, 1990, rewrote Paragraph A and former Paragraphs B to G, redesignating former Paragraphs B to G as present Paragraphs D, F, E, G, I, and K respectively; added present Paragraphs B and C; in Paragraph I, substituted "clerk" for "court" and "may direct" for "may request"; and added Paragraph J.

The 1990 amendment, effective for cases filed in the magistrate courts on or after July 1, 1990, substituted "as provided by law" for "within the magistrate district" in the first sentence of Paragraph E and near the beginning of Paragraph F.

The 1993 amendment, effective January 1, 1993, substituted "how issued" for "execution" in the heading for Paragraph B; in Paragraph E, substituted "sender" for "court" throughout, deleted "as provided by law" following "may be served" in the first sentence, and substituted "twenty-three (23) days" for "twenty (20) days" in the last sentence of the first paragraph; deleted the last sentence in Paragraph F(3)(a), which read "A copy of the writ of garnishment shall be delivered or mailed by registered or certified mail to the defendant employee"; and, in Paragraph G, substituted "sender's filing with the court the acknowledgment received pursuant to such paragraph" for "defendant filing with the court the Notice and Receipt of Summons and Complaint", added the second sentence, and made gender neutral changes.

The 1994 amendment, effective May 1, 1994, substituted the present last sentence of Paragraph A for "Any defendant may waive the issuance or service of summons", inserted "be substantially in the form approved by the Supreme Court" in the introductory language of Paragraph B, deleted former Subparagraph B(4) which read "the summons shall be substantially in the form approved by the Supreme Court", and substituted "where the defendant may be found or by" for "where the magistrate court is located if the defendant may be found therein, or by" near the beginning of Paragraph D.

2-203. Service and filing of papers.

A. When required. Unless the court otherwise orders, every pleading subsequent to the complaint, every order not entered in open court, every written motion unless it is one as to which a hearing ex parte is authorized, and every written notice, demand and similar paper shall be served on each party, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 2-202.

B. How made. When service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address, or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the judge or clerk of the court who shall place it in the court file. "Delivery of a copy" within this rule shall mean: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his secretary or other person in charge; or, if there be no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his usual place of abode with some person of his family above fifteen (15) years of age and informing such person of the contents thereof; or leaving it in a mail depository authorized by the attorney to be served. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing. "Mailing" shall include deposit in an outgoing mail container which is maintained in the usual and ordinary course of business of the serving attorney.

C. Filing. All original papers, copies of which are required to be served upon parties, must be filed with the court either before service or immediately thereafter.

D. Filing with the court defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the judge or clerk of the court.

E. Proof of service. Except as otherwise provided in these rules or by order of court, proof of service shall be made by the certificate of an attorney of record, or if made by any other person, by the affidavit of such person. Such certificate or affidavit shall be filed with the clerk or endorsed on the pleading, motion, or other paper required to be served.

F. Motions. Whenever, by these rules, a party is required to "move" within a specified time or a motion is required to be "made" within a specified time, the motion shall be deemed to be made at the time it is filed or at the time it is served, whichever is earlier.

ARTICLE 3 PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

Rule

2-301. Pleadings allowed; form of motions.

A. Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and, if the defendant wishes to contest the plaintiff's claim in any way, an answer. The answer may assert a counterclaim or a setoff. If a counterclaim is filed, a reply may be filed. The complaint may interplead two (2) or more persons who have or may have a claim to funds owed by the plaintiff.

B. Joinder of claims. A party asserting a claim to relief may join either as independent or as alternate claims as many claims as the party may have against an opposing party.

C. Permissive joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of related transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or related series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action.

D. Third-party practice. Any defending party may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action, who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him, by filing a third-party complaint. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make service if he files the third-party complaint not later than ten (10) days after he serves his original answer. The third-party defendant shall respond to the third-party complaint in the same manner as if it were an original proceeding. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other rule, failure to file a third-party complaint shall not constitute a waiver or forfeiture of any party's rights or claims, nor shall such failure preclude the joinder of separate causes of action, as may otherwise be provided for in these rules.

E. Interpleader. Persons having claims for funds from a third party may be named as defendants and required to adjudicate their claims for the funds when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. A defendant exposed to similar liability for funds may adjudicate the right to funds by third-party complaint, cross-claim or counterclaim. Any person who is named as a defendant or third-party defendant pursuant to this paragraph shall file an answer within the time set forth in these rules setting forth the facts and circumstances giving rise to such person's claim and any such person is entitled to the funds owed by the plaintiff. The disposition of the proceedings shall be binding upon all parties to the action upon whom service has been made.

F. Separate trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

G. Motions. Written motions are not allowed except when permitted by these rules or required by the nature of the proceedings.

H. Exhibits. An exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

I. Signing of pleadings. The signature of a party or his attorney on a pleading constitutes a certificate by him that he has read it, that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it, and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as false and the action may proceed as though it had not been filed.

[As amended, effective October 1, 1987; October 1, 1992.]

ANNOTATIONS

71 C.J.S. Pleading §§ 63 to 210.

2-302. Defenses; answer.

A. Answer; when filed. The defendant shall file his answer on or before the appearance date as fixed in the summons.

B. Defenses; how presented. The answer shall describe in concise and simple language the reasons why the defendant denies the claim of the plaintiff as well as any defenses he may have to the claim of the plaintiff. Defenses shall be raised in the answer and not by motion. A party may file a motion to have the answer clarified or explained. On the filing of such motion, the magistrate may, in his discretion, require a more explicit answer or order a pretrial conference to clarify the issues.

C. Form of answer. The answer shall be in substantially the form approved by the court administrator and the supreme court.

D. Permissive counterclaim or setoff. If the defendant possesses a claim or claims against the plaintiff at the time the action is begun, they may be asserted in the answer as a counterclaim or setoff. The facts and circumstances giving rise to the claim or claims must be briefly described, in the form of answer approved by the supreme court.

E. Nature of claim and amount claimed. The nature of the defendant's claim or claims and the total sum claimed shall comply with applicable law. A claim which exceeds the jurisdiction of the magistrate court shall be amended by the defendant prior to trial to conform to the court's jurisdiction or shall be dismissed without prejudice. There shall be no compulsory counterclaim.

71 C.J.S. Pleading §§ 99 to 129, 167 to 176.

2-303. Judgment on the pleadings.

A. For claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim or counterclaim may, at any time after an answer or a reply by the adverse party, move for a judgment on the pleadings in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

B. For defending party. A party against whom a claim or counterclaim is asserted may, at any time, move for a judgment on the pleadings in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

C. Motion and proceedings thereon. The motion shall be served by mail at least five (5) days before the time fixed for the hearing. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, on file, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A judgment on the pleadings may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

2-304. Amended and supplemental pleadings.

Upon request of either party, the magistrate may permit him to file an amended pleading, or to amend by interlineation, at any stage of the proceeding and upon such terms as may be just. Permission to amend a pleading shall be freely granted if trial of the action on its merits will be advanced. Similar consideration shall apply to supplemental pleadings asserting claims or defenses which have arisen since the date of the pleading to be supplemented. Continuances to meet new matter asserted by way of amended or supplemental pleadings shall be granted if necessary to avoid surprise or other prejudice to the opposing party.

2-305. Dismissal of actions.

A. Voluntary dismissal. A claim may be dismissed by the plaintiff by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before filing of the answer. A claim may also be dismissed by the plaintiff, or by the defendant asserting a counterclaim, by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice. The notice or stipulation shall be presented to the magistrate before filing, and he shall endorse thereon an order that the action, claim or counterclaim, as the case may be, is dismissed.

B. Dismissal for failure to prosecute. Any action pending for six (6) months from the date the complaint is filed, in which the plaintiff or defendant asserting a counterclaim has failed to take all available steps to bring the matter to trial, shall be dismissed without prejudice.

PARTIES

2-401. Parties; capacity.

A. Real party in interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; but an executor, administrator, personal representative, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the state so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the state. Where it appears that an action, by reason of honest mistake, is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, the court may allow a reasonable time for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

B. Capacity to sue or be sued. The capacity of an individual, including those acting in a representative capacity, to sue or be sued shall be determined by the law of this state. The capacity of a corporation to sue or be sued shall be determined by the law under which it was organized, unless some statute of this state provides to the contrary.

C. Minors or incompetent persons. When a minor or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the minor or incompetent person. If a minor or incompetent person does not have a duly appointed representative he may sue by his next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the minor or incompetent person.

2-502. Subpoenas.

A. For attendance of witnesses. Every subpoena shall be issued by the magistrate or clerk of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified.

The judge or clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence, signed and sealed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

B. For production of documentary evidence. A subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may:

(1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive, or

(2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents or tangible things.

C. Service. A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, by the sheriff's deputy, or by any other person who is not a party and is not less than eighteen (18) years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and

(1) if the witness is to be paid from funds appropriated by the legislature to the administrative office of the courts for payment of state witnesses or for the payment of witnesses in indigency cases, by processing for payment to such witness the fee and mileage prescribed by regulation of the administrative office of the courts;

(2) for all witnesses not described in Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, by tendering to the witness the fee for per diem expenses provided by Subsection A of Section 10-8-4 NMSA 1978 for nonsalaried public officers attending a board or committee meeting and the mileage provided by Subsection D of Section 10-8-4 NMSA 1978. The fee for per diem expenses shall not be prorated. In the event the per diem expense and mileage fees are not tendered as required, the subpoena shall be valid but the court shall impose such sanctions as are appropriate.

When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the state or an officer or agent thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

D. Manner of service. Service of a subpoena may be made by mail in the manner provided for serving the summons, complaint and form of answer.

E. Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the magistrate court from which the subpoena was issued. The magistrate shall not hold any person in contempt of the magistrate court if service of the subpoena has been made by mail unless there has been presented to the court evidence, in addition to that contained in the return and certificate of the judge or clerk of the court, that the person received delivery of the subpoena or that a subpoena was personally served on the person in accordance with Paragraph C of this rule.

ARTICLE 6 TRIALS

Rule

2-601. Conduct of trials.

A. Continuances. Continuances shall be granted for good cause shown at any stage of the proceedings.

B. Evidence. Evidence shall be admitted in accordance with the New Mexico Rules of Evidence. At his own expense and for the purpose of preserving testimony, a party may cause a record, as defined in Rule 2-109, to be made. The trial shall be conducted expeditiously, but each party shall be permitted to present his position amply and fairly.

C. Oath of witnesses. The magistrate shall administer the following oath to each witness: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the testimony you give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth under penalty of perjury?"

50 C.J.S. Juries §§ 10, 84 to 113.

2-603. Jurors.

A. Magistrate jury. A jury in the magistrate court consists of six jurors with the same qualifications as jurors in the district court. Whenever a jury is required, the magistrate shall select prospective jurors in the manner provided by law.

B. Challenges for cause. At the time of the trial, the parties, their attorneys or the magistrate may examine the jurors who have been summoned to determine whether they should be disqualified for cause. Jurors shall be excused for cause if the examination discloses bias, relationship to a party or other grounds of actual or probable partiality. If examination of any juror discloses any basis for his disqualification, he shall be excused.

C. Peremptory challenges. Each party shall be entitled to one peremptory challenge. If peremptory challenges are exercised, the magistrate shall excuse those jurors challenged.

D. Selection of jury.

(1) The magistrate shall cause the name of each juror present to be placed on a separate slip of paper which shall be placed in a box. A list of the names of the jurors present shall be prepared by the magistrate or at his direction, and a copy of the list provided each party or his attorney.

(2) The jurors may be examined by the parties, their attorneys or the magistrate by questioning all of the jurors present, as a group, or individually.

Additional slips with jurors' names thereon shall be drawn from the box to replace those excused for cause or by peremptory challenge, who may then be questioned by the parties, their attorneys or the magistrate.

(3) When six qualified jurors have been selected, they shall constitute the jury for the case to be tried.

(4) One alternate juror may be selected, if the magistrate at his discretion so elects. The parties may exercise their peremptory challenges in the selection of the alternate juror, if their peremptory challenges have not been exhausted in the selection of the other jurors.

E. Additional jurors. If a jury cannot be completed by drawing additional slips, the sheriff or responsible person shall summon a sufficient number of jurors to fill the deficiency.

F. Oath to jurors. The magistrate shall administer the following oath to the jurors: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will truly try the facts of this action and give a true verdict according to the law and evidence given in court."

2-604. Trial by jury.

Juries in the magistrate court shall hear the evidence in the action which shall be delivered in public in its presence. After hearing the evidence, the members of the jury shall be kept together until five of them agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the magistrate. Whenever the magistrate is satisfied that five jurors cannot agree on a verdict after a reasonable time, he may discharge it and summon a new jury unless the parties agree that the magistrate may render judgment.

2-605. Instructions to juries.

A. Procedural instructions. After the parties have completed their presentation of the evidence, and before arguments to the jury, the magistrate shall orally instruct the jury on the procedure to be followed by them in deciding the case. Such instructions shall be given in substantially the following form:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the jury:

The case will now be submitted to you for decision. Upon retiring to the jury room and before commencing your deliberations you will select one of your members as foreman. You will then determine the facts in the case from the evidence that has been presented here in open court during the trial. From the facts and the law as you understand it you will decide upon a verdict.

You are the sole judges of all disputed questions of fact. Your verdict should not be based on speculation, guess or conjecture. Neither sympathy nor prejudice should influence your verdict.

You should first decide whether or not the defendant is liable to the plaintiff at all (and whether or not the plaintiff is liable to the defendant on the defendant's counterclaim/setoff). If you find the defendant liable to the plaintiff (or the plaintiff liable to the defendant), you should then determine the amount of damages that should be awarded.

When five or more of you have agreed upon a verdict, you will return to open court and your foreman will then announce the verdict."

B. UJI instructions. If requested by a party or, if the court deems it appropriate, on the court's own motion, the court may give the jury any other applicable instructions contained in the New Mexico Uniform Jury Instructions (UJI) Civil. Whenever the court determines the jury should be instructed on a subject and no applicable instruction on the subject is found in UJI Civil, the instruction given on that subject shall be brief, impartial and free from hypothesized facts.

ARTICLE 7 JUDGMENT AND APPEAL

Rule

2-701. Judgments; costs.

A. Definition; form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment should not contain a recital of pleadings or the record of prior proceedings.

B. Judgment upon multiple claims or involving multiple parties.

(1) Except as provided in Subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, when more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim or counterclaim, the court may enter a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay. In the absence of such determination, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all of the claims shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims.

(2) When multiple parties are involved, judgment may be entered adjudicating all issues as to one or more, but fewer than all parties. Such judgment shall be a final judgment unless the court, in its discretion, expressly provides otherwise in the judgment. If the judgment provides that it is not a final judgment, it shall not terminate the action as to such party or parties and shall be subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

C. Entry of judgment. Following the trial the court shall enter a written judgment in accordance with the verdict of the jury or, if the trial was without a jury, in accordance with the court's decision. The court may direct counsel for any party to prepare the judgment. If any setoff or counterclaim is established by the defendant, the amount of the setoff or counterclaim shall be offset against any sum owed the plaintiff and judgment entered accordingly.

D. Demand for judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that claimed in the complaint. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in the party's pleadings.

E. Costs. Any docket fee, jury fee or copying fee paid by the prevailing party to the court shall be awarded to the prevailing party against the losing party. The court may award any fees actually paid by the prevailing party for service of the complaint, summons and subpoenas and for attendance of witnesses, including expert witnesses. No costs or fees shall be taxed against the state, its officers and agencies. Expert witness fees for any case shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500), plus the fee for per diem expenses provided by Subsection A of Section 10-8-4 NMSA 1978 for nonsalaried public officers attending a board or committee meeting and the mileage provided by Subsection D of Section 10-8-4 NMSA 1978. The fee for per diem expenses shall not be prorated.

[As amended, effective January 1, 1995.]

The 1995 amendment, effective January 1, 1995, added Paragraphs A and B; redesignated former Paragraph A as Paragraph C and, in that paragraph, added the second sentence, substituted "offset" for "balanced" in the third sentence, and deleted the former last sentence which read "The judgment shall be in substantially the form approved by the supreme court"; redesignated former Paragraph B as Paragraph D and rewrote the first sentence and added the second sentence in that paragraph; deleted former Paragraph C relating to costs collected by magistrates; redesignated former Paragraph D as Paragraph E and rewrote that paragraph; and made minor stylistic changes throughout the rule.

Witness fees taxable. - Witnesses in civil suits in justice of the peace (now magistrate) courts could receive witness fees, which were taxed in favor of the prevailing party. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-48 (opinion rendered under former law).

2-702. Default.

A. Entry at time of appearance. If the defendant fails to appear or has not filed an answer within the time prescribed by Rule 2-202, and if the plaintiff proves by an appropriate return that proper service was made upon the defendant, the magistrate may enter judgment for the plaintiff for the amount due, including interest, costs and other items allowed by law. The magistrate may require evidence as to any fact before entering default judgment.

A copy of the default judgment shall forthwith be mailed by the clerk of the court to each party against whom judgment has been entered. The clerk shall endorse on the judgment the date of mailing.

B. At time of trial. Failure to appear at the time and date set for trial shall be grounds for entering a default judgment against the nonappearing party.

C. Setting aside default. For good cause shown, within thirty (30) days after entry of judgment and if no appeal has been timely taken, the magistrate may set aside a default judgment.

2-703. Relief from judgment or order.

A. Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the file and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the magistrate at any time of his own initiative or on the request of any party after such notice to the opposing party, if any, as the magistrate orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the transcript is filed in the district court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the district court.

B. Mistakes; inadvertence; excusable neglect; fraud, etc. If the judgment has not been filed in the district court, on motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect;

(2) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(3) the judgment is void;

(4) the judgment has been satisfied, released or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated.

A motion filed pursuant to subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph shall be filed not more than one (1) year after the judgment, order or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this paragraph does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation.

An order granting or denying relief from a final judgment under this rule may be appealed to the district court in the same manner as other appeals from final judgments of the magistrate court are taken.

C. Satisfied judgments. Upon the filing with the court of a motion for an order declaring the judgment to be satisfied and notice to the opposing party, the court may set a hearing to determine if the judgment has been satisfied, released or discharged. The application shall be served upon the judgment creditor in the manner prescribed by Rule 2-202 for service of summons and complaint. A hearing on the application shall be held within a reasonable time after the filing of the application. Notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the parties by the clerk of the court. If the judgment creditor fails to appear at such hearing, a default satisfaction of judgment may be entered upon:

(1) the filing of the return of service or an affidavit that after "diligent search" the judgment creditor could not be located. For purposes of this subparagraph "diligent search" includes, but shall not be limited to an affidavit that:

(a) the judgment creditor no longer has a business or residence at the judgment creditor's last known address as shown in the court file; and

(b) the judgment creditor could not be located through a search of telephone and city directories in each county where the defendant was known to have resided or maintained a place of business in this state; and

(2) proof of payment of the full amount of such judgment with interest thereon to date of payment, plus post-judgment costs incurred by the judgment creditor which can be determined from the court record or, if the judgment, including any interest and costs has not been paid in full, payment into the court of a money order or cashier's check made payable to the administrative office of the courts. Upon receipt of a money order or cashier's check pursuant to this subparagraph, the administrative office of the courts shall deposit such money order or cashier's check in a suspense account in the state treasury. Funds deposited in such account shall be disbursed in accordance with Section 39-1-6.2 NMSA 1978.

D. Filing in district courts. If the judgment has been filed in the district court pursuant to Paragraph E of Rule 2-803, the motion for an order declaring the judgment satisfied shall be filed in the district court.

[As amended, effective July 1, 1990; January 1, 1993.]

5 C.J.S. Appeal and Error § 825 et seq.; 66 C.J.S. New Trial § 13.

2-705. Appeal.

A. Right of appeal. A party who is aggrieved by the final order or judgment in a civil action, may appeal, as permitted by law, to the district court of the county within which the magistrate court is located. The notice of appeal shall be filed in the district court within fifteen (15) days after the judgment or final order appealed from is filed in the magistrate court clerk's office. The three (3) day mailing period set forth in Rule 2-104 does not apply to the time limits set forth above. A notice of appeal filed after the announcement of a decision, or return of the verdict, but before the judgment or order is filed in the magistrate court clerk's office shall be treated as timely filed. Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, no docket fee or other cost shall be imposed upon a county or the state in any such appeal.

B. Notice of appeal. An appeal from the magistrate court is taken by:

- (1) filing with the clerk of the district court a notice of appeal; and
- (2) filing with the magistrate court:
 - (a) a copy of the notice of appeal which has been endorsed by the clerk of the district court; and
 - (b) a copy of the receipt of payment of the docket fee.

C. Docketing the appeal. Upon the filing of the notice of appeal and payment of the docket fee, the clerk of the district court shall docket the appeal in the district court. Within five (5) days after the docketing of the appeal in the district court, the appellant shall:

- (1) give notice of the appeal to the clerk of the magistrate court and to each party to the action or to the attorney for each party who is represented; and
- (2) file a certificate in the district court that such notice has been given. No appeal shall be heard unless such certificate is filed with the clerk of the district court.

D. Transcript of the proceedings. Within ten (10) days after the appellant files a copy of the notice of appeal in the magistrate court pursuant to Paragraph C of this rule, the magistrate shall file with the clerk of the district court a transcript of all proceedings taken in the action in the magistrate court. The transcript shall include:

- (1) title page containing caption of the case in the magistrate court and names and mailing addresses of each party or, if the party is represented by counsel, the name and address of the attorney;
- (2) copy of the complaint and other pleadings;
- (3) copy of the judgment or order sought to be reviewed with date of filing noted thereon;
- (4) any exhibits; and
- (5) any recording of the proceedings made by the magistrate court.

E. Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.

- (1) When an appeal is taken, the appellant may obtain a stay of the proceedings to enforce the judgment by posting a supersedeas bond with the clerk of the magistrate court. The stay is effective when the supersedeas bond is approved by the magistrate court and shall continue in effect until final disposition of the appeal. The bond shall be conditioned for the satisfaction of and compliance with the judgment in full as may be modified by the appellate court, together with costs, attorneys' fees and interest, if any. The bond shall be enforceable upon dismissal of the appeal or affirmance of the judgment. If the judgment is reversed or satisfied, the bond is void. The surety, sureties or collateral securing such bond, and the terms thereof, must be approved by and the amount fixed by the magistrate court. If a bond secured by personal surety or sureties is tendered, the same may be approved only on notice to the appellee. Each personal surety shall be required to show a net worth at least double the amount of the bond. When the judgment is for the recovery of money, the amount of the bond shall be such sum as will cover the whole amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied, together with costs, attorneys' fees and interest, if any. In any event, in determining the sufficiency of the surety or sureties and the extent to which such surety or sureties shall be liable on the bond, or whether any surety shall be required, the court shall take into consideration the type and value of any collateral which is in, or may be placed in, the custody or control of the court and which has the effect of securing payment of and compliance with such judgment.

(2) When an appeal is taken by the state or an officer or agency thereof, or by any political subdivision or institution of the state, or by any municipal corporation, the taking of an appeal shall operate as a stay.

(3) Where an appeal is taken by a fiduciary on behalf of the estate or beneficiary which he represents, the amount of the bond and type of security shall be fixed by the court and, in fixing the same, due regard shall be given to the assets under the control of the fiduciary and any bond given by such fiduciary.

F. District court review. At any time after appeal is taken the district court may, upon motion and notice, review any action of, or any failure or refusal to act by, the magistrate court dealing with supersedeas or stay. For purposes of obtaining such review any party may docket the appeal at any time irrespective of whether the record is filed coincident therewith. If the reviewing court shall modify the terms, conditions or amount of a supersedeas bond or if it shall determine that the magistrate court should have allowed supersedeas and failed to do so on proper terms and conditions, it may grant additional time, within which to file in the district court a supersedeas bond complying with the standards prescribed in such determination. Any change ordered by the district court shall be certified by the clerk of the district court, and filed with the magistrate court clerk by the party seeking the review.

G. Disposal of appeal. The district court shall dispose of appeals by entry of an appropriate order disposing of the appeal. The court in its discretion may accompany the order with a formal or memorandum opinion. Opinions shall not be published and shall not be used as precedent in subsequent cases.

H. Rehearing. Within ten (10) days after entry of an order disposing of the appeal, any party may file a motion for rehearing. The motion shall set forth with particularity the points of law or fact which the movant believes the court has overlooked or misapprehended but shall not contain argument. No response to a motion shall be permitted unless requested by the district court. The motion for rehearing shall be disposed of within fifteen (15) days after it is filed.

I. Mandate. Process in the form of a mandate, judgment or order may issue at any time after entry of the order disposing of the appeal. Unless otherwise ordered, the mandate, judgment or order will not issue until expiration of ten (10) days after entry of the order, and if timely motion for rehearing is filed, then fifteen (15) days after disposition of such motion for rehearing. Mandate, judgment or order from the district court shall not issue until the time has elapsed for appeal to the court of appeals or supreme court. If an appeal or certiorari is taken to an appellate court, a mandate, judgment or order shall not issue until final disposition of the case.

J. Rules applicable on appeal. The Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of New Mexico shall apply to and govern the procedure in the district courts on appeal from the magistrate court.

K. Remand. Upon the judgment of the district court following an appeal from the magistrate court, the district court mandate shall remand the case to the magistrate court for enforcement of the district court's judgment.

Cross-references. - For right of appeal, see 35-13-1 NMSA 1978.

For rules of Civil Procedure for District Courts, see Rule 1-001 et seq.

For form on title page of transcript of civil proceedings, see Form 4-708.

The 1994 amendment, effective January 1, 1994, in Paragraph A, inserted "or judgment" and "as permitted by law" and made stylistic changes in the first sentence, deleted "entry of" following "after" and added "appealed from is filed in the magistrate court clerk's office" at the end of the second sentence, and added the third and fourth sentences; added the subparagraph designations in Paragraph C and deleted "shall" from the beginning of Subparagraph C(2); deleted "a" from the beginning and "and" from the end of Subparagraph D(3); and added Subparagraphs D(4) and D(5).

Time for appeal is when order is filed. - The term "entry" as used in Subsection A of Rule 2-705 SCRA 1986 and the terms "rendered" and "issued" in 35-13-1 NMSA 1978 are synonymous with the time a judgment or decision is "filed" with the court clerk's office. Thus, the time for an appeal begins to run when the order is filed. Trujillo v. Serrano, 117 N.M. 273, 871 P.2d 369 (1994) (decided prior to 1994 amendments).

Late filing of appeal. - Because timely filing of an appeal is a mandatory precondition rather than an absolute jurisdictional requirement, a trial court may, under unusual circumstances, use its discretion and entertain an appeal even though it is not timely filed. The decision to dismiss an appeal is extreme and must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Trujillo v. Serrano, 117 N.M. 273, 871 P.2d 369 (1994).

Court error may excuse late appeal. - One unusual circumstance which would warrant permitting an untimely appeal is if the delay is a result of judicial error. To deny a party the constitutional right to an appeal because of a mistake on the part of the court runs against the most basic precepts of justice and fairness. Trujillo v. Serrano, 117 N.M. 273, 871 P.2d 369 (1994).

Magistrate's continuing control over civil judgments expires 15 days after entry of judgment. State v. Ramirez, 97 N.M. 125, 637 P.2d 556 (1981).

Rule 1-006E held inapplicable. - A party notified by mail of a judgment entered against him in magistrate court who filed a notice of appeal 16 days later could not take advantage of the three-day extension provision of Subdivision (e) of Rule 6 (now see Paragraph E of Rule 1-006), N.M.R. Civ. P. Socorro Livestock Mkt., Inc. v. Orona, 92 N.M. 236, 586 P.2d 317 (1978).

Paragraph B of Rule 1-041 held inapplicable. - Rule 41(b) (now see Paragraph B of Rule 1-041), N.M.R. Civ. P., is inapplicable where a district court dismisses an appeal from a magistrate court and five months later remands the case for execution of judgment to the original court. Los Alamos County v. Beery, 101 N.M. 157, 679 P.2d 825 (1984).

ARTICLE 8

SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule

2-801. Garnishment and writs of execution.

A. Issuance of writs of execution. After filing the judgment, upon request of the prevailing party, the clerk shall issue writs of execution.

B. Executions; service and return. A writ of execution shall be served by the sheriff within sixty (60) days from the date issued. If an execution is not served within that time, upon request of the judgment creditor, an alias or pluries writ may be issued. A writ of execution issued pursuant to this rule may be served wherever the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's property may be found in the State of New Mexico.

C. Conditions precedent to sale of property. If the judgment debtor is a natural person, no property may be sold under execution prior to service of a notice of right to claim exemptions as provided in this rule and:

- (1) waiver of the claim of exemption as provided in this rule; or
- (2) entry of an order denying a claim of exemption for the property to be sold.

D. Service of notice of right to claim exemptions from execution. At any time after entry of the judgment, but not later than the date of seizure of property to be sold under a writ of execution, service shall be made by the judgment creditor upon each judgment debtor of the notice of right to claim exemptions and three (3) copies of the claim of exemption form in the following manner:

- (1) if the judgment debtor has entered an appearance in the proceeding, service of a copy of the judgment shall be made and proof of service filed with the court in the manner provided by Rule 2-203;
- (2) if the judgment debtor has not entered an appearance in the proceeding, service shall be made and return of service filed in the same manner as provided by Rule 2-202 for service of the summons and complaint; or
- (3) if service cannot be made on the judgment debtor pursuant to Subparagraph (1) and (2) of this Paragraph, service shall be made on the judgment debtor in a manner reasonably calculated to ensure actual notice of the right to claim exemptions.

E. Form of writs, notices and claim of exemptions. Writs of execution and garnishment, notices of right to claim exemptions and claims of exemptions shall be substantially in the form approved by the supreme court.

F. Claim of exemptions from execution; waiver. A judgment debtor who is a natural person may claim a statutory exemption from execution by filing two (2) copies of the claim of exemption with the court at any time, but not later than ten (10) days after service of notice of right to claim exemptions as provided in this rule. The third copy of the claim of exemption form may be retained by the judgment debtor. If the judgment debtor fails to file a claim of exemption within ten (10) days after service of the notice of the right to claim exemptions, the judgment debtor shall be deemed to have waived the right to claim any exemptions from execution and the property seized may be sold.

G. Sheriff's sale. A sale shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for sales on execution from the district court.

H. Garnishment procedure. After the filing of the judgment, the clerk shall issue a writ of garnishment after the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney has filed with the clerk an application for a writ of garnishment which includes the judgment debtor's last known address and an affidavit stating that:

(1) the judgment creditor has a judgment against the judgment debtor, giving the date and amount of the judgment;

(2) after diligent inquiry to the best of the judgment creditor's knowledge, the judgment debtor has insufficient property in the judgment debtor's possession within this state subject to execution to satisfy the judgment;

(3) the named garnishee is indebted to the judgment debtor or holds personal property belonging to the judgment debtor; and

(4) the debt is not exempt from garnishment.

I. Garnishments; notice of right to claim exemption. Only when the judgment debtor is a natural person and the garnishee holds money or property other than wages due the judgment debtor, the following additional procedures shall be followed upon issuance of the writ of garnishment:

(1) for each judgment debtor, the judgment creditor shall serve the garnishee with a copy of the application for the writ of garnishment, the writ of garnishment, a copy of the notice of right to claim exemptions and three (3) copies of the claim of exemption form;

(2) on or before the fourth business day following service of the writ of garnishment, the garnishee shall mail to each named judgment debtor or to the judgment debtor's attorney of record, the application for the writ, writ of garnishment, notice of right to claim exemptions, and three (3) copies of the claim of exemption form.

J. Writ of garnishment; answer. The garnishee shall answer the writ of garnishment within twenty (20) days of service as required by Section 35-12-4 NMSA 1978. The answer shall be substantially in the form approved by the supreme court. A copy of the answer shall be mailed or delivered to the judgment creditor and judgment debtor.

K. Writ of garnishment; judgment. Judgment on the writ of garnishment shall not enter within twenty-five (25) days after the writ is served on the garnishee, unless a hearing on a claim of exemption has been held and an order thereon has been entered prior to the expiration of said twenty-five (25) days. If a claim of exemption form has been filed prior to the entry of judgment on the writ of garnishment, no judgment on the writ of garnishment shall be entered prior to the hearing on the claim of exemption. Judgment may not enter unless the judgment creditor has certified compliance with Subparagraph (1) of Paragraph I of this rule. Judgment on the writ of garnishment shall be substantially in the form approved by the supreme court. The judgment creditor shall mail a copy of the judgment on the writ of garnishment to the judgment debtor at the judgment debtor's last known address and to the garnishee within three (3) business days of its having been filed by the court.

L. Service of writ of garnishment. A writ of garnishment issued pursuant to this rule shall be served wherever the garnishee may be found in the State of New Mexico. A writ of garnishment shall be made and return of service filed in the same manner as provided by Rule 2-202 for service of the summons and complaint.

M. Garnishments; claim of exemption. A judgment debtor who is a natural person may claim a statutory exemption from garnishment by filing two (2) copies of the claim of exemption with the court at any time, but not later than ten (10) days after service by the garnishee of a copy of the notice of right to claim exemptions as provided in this rule. If the judgment debtor fails to file a claim of exemption within ten (10) days after service of the notice of the right to claim exemptions as required by this Paragraph, the judgment debtor shall be deemed to have waived the right to claim any exemptions from garnishment and the property seized may be sold. If a claim of exemptions is filed prior to entry of a judgment on the merits of the case, a hearing on the claim shall be held at the same time as the hearing on the merits or at such other time as may be scheduled by the court prior to entry of the judgment.

N. Claim of exemption hearing; executions; garnishments. If a claim of exemption form is filed after the filing of a judgment on the merits, the court shall give notice to the judgment creditor, garnishee and the judgment debtor of the date and time for the hearing. The notice of hearing shall also include a copy of the claim of exemption form, as filed by the judgment debtor. Subject to the judgment debtor's right to stay enforcement of the judgment pursuant to these rules, hearing on the claim of exemption shall be held within ten (10) business days after the clerk's receipt of the completed claim of exemption form.

O. Appeal from judgment on claim of exemption. If an order on the claim of exemption is rendered after expiration of the time for appeal on the main issue in the action, either party aggrieved by the order on the claim of exemption may appeal from that order to the district court in the same manner as other appeals from final judgments of the magistrate court are taken. If an order on the claim of exemption is rendered prior to the filing of a notice of appeal on the main issue in the cause, the order on the claim of exemption issue shall be decided by the district court.

2-802. Exemptions from attachment.

A. How claimed. Exemptions of personal property provided by Sections 42-10-1 to 42-10-7 NMSA 1978 also apply to attachment proceedings. Notice of a right to claim exemptions shall be given in all pre-judgment attachment proceedings in the same manner and time as required in execution proceedings.

B. Hearing. Upon the filing of a claim of exemptions in an attachment proceeding, the court shall proceed in the same manner as provided for hearings on claims of exemptions in execution proceedings. Unless the opposing party consents to the claim of exemption, the court shall at the time set for hearing receive evidence, determine the issues and enter an order on the claim of exemption.

C. Appeal from judgment. If an order on the claim of exemption is rendered in an attachment proceeding after expiration of the time for appeal on the main issue in the action, either party aggrieved by the order on the claim of exemption may appeal from that judgment to the district court in the same manner as other appeals from final judgments of the metropolitan court are taken. If an order on the claim of exemption is rendered before judgment on the main issue in the cause, the order on the claim of exemption issue shall be decided by the district court.

49 C.J.S. Judgments § 471.

2-803. Judgment; supplementary proceedings.

A. Examinations in aid of judgment or execution. When a judgment for the payment of money has been entered by or docketed in the magistrate court, the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's successor in interest may, in aid of the judgment or execution, examine any person, including the judgment debtor, touching the property of the judgment debtor and the judgment debtor's ability to satisfy such judgment. For the purpose of such examination or examinations, the clerk of the court shall, upon request of the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's successor in interest, issue a subpoena directing the person to be examined to appear before the magistrate court at a time and place therein stated for such examination. Such subpoena may be served in the same manner as other subpoenas except that it shall be served not less than three (3) days prior to the date therein stated when the examination is to be conducted.

B. Deposition in lieu of examination. In lieu of such an examination before the court, the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's successor in interest may take the deposition of the person whom the judgment creditor desires to examine in the manner provided for taking depositions in causes pending in the district court.

C. Discovery. In further aid of judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's successor in interest may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules.

D. Notice of deposition. Where such judgment was obtained by default, notice of taking depositions need not be given to the judgment debtor. In all other cases, notice of taking depositions shall be given to the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's attorney of record, if they or any of them be within the state and their addresses be known to the judgment creditor; otherwise, upon affidavit of the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney stating that the judgment debtor and the judgment debtor's attorneys of record are out of state or their whereabouts are unknown, the court may enter an order dispensing with such notice. Such subpoena may be served in any county where the person to be examined may be located.

E. Docketing judgment in district court. Upon the expiration of the time allowed by rule for appeal, the judgment creditor may file with the district court of the county in which the magistrate issued the judgment a certified copy of the judgment. Upon payment of the prescribed docket fee, the clerk of the district court shall docket the judgment in the same manner in which judgments of the district court are docketed, and thereafter the clerk may issue a transcript of judgment as though the judgment had been issued by the district court. The docketing of a judgment in the district court pursuant to this paragraph shall not prevent the magistrate court from issuing writs and other orders in aid of enforcement of the judgment of the magistrate court.
