Article 1

District Attorneys

§ 36-1-1. [Oath and bond of district attorneys.]

Each district attorney shall, within sixty days after his election, qualify by filing in the office of the secretary of state, an oath of office as prescribed for other officers and a good and sufficient bond to be approved by a justice of the supreme court in the sum of five thousand dollars [($5,000)].

History: Laws 1909, ch. 22, § 1; Code 1915, § 1857; C.S. 1929, § 39-101; 1941 Comp., § 17-101; 1953 Comp., § 17-1-1.

As to duties of district attorneys generally, see 36-1-18 NMSA 1978. For constitutional provision relating to qualifications, election, term of office, duties and compensation of district attorneys, see N.M. Const., art. VI, § 24. As to oath of office of elected officers, see N.M. Const., art. XX, § 1. As to filling of vacancies in offices of district attorneys, see N.M. Const., art. XX, § 4.

Compiler's notes. - The 1915 Code compilers omitted the first part of this section which read: "For each district attorney's district as now or hereafter established by law, the governor shall, by and with the consent of the legislative council, appoint a competent attorney at law as district attorney, who shall hold his office for a period of two years, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified" and substituted "election" for "appointment."

The office of district attorney was created by N.M. Const., art. VI, § 24. State ex rel. Ward v. Romero, 17 N.M. 88, 125 P. 617 (1912).

§ 36-1-2. Assistants; appointment; revocation; duties.

Each district attorney in this state may appoint one or more suitable persons who shall be attorneys-at-law practicing their profession in this state and members of the bar of this state to be his assistants. Every appointment of an assistant district attorney shall be in writing under the hand of the district attorney and filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the judicial district in which the district attorney resides, and the person so appointed shall take and file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the judicial district in which the district attorney resides an oath of office as is now prescribed by law for district attorneys before entering upon his duties as assistant district attorney. Every such appointment may be revoked by the district attorney making it, which revocation shall be in writing and filed in that clerk's office. The assistant district attorney may attend the meetings of the boards of county commissioners, the district court, metropolitan, magistrate and probate courts in the district attorney's district and therein discharge any duties imposed by law upon or required of the district attorney by whom he was appointed.

History: Laws 1905, ch. 34, § 1; Code 1915, § 1858; C.S. 1929, § 39-102; 1941 Comp., § 17-102; 1953 Comp., § 17-1-2; Laws 1984, ch. 109, § 1.

Cross-references. - As to payments of salaries and expenses of assistant district attorneys, see 36-1-8 NMSA 1978. As to appointment of special assistant district attorneys, see 36-1-23.1 NMSA 1978.

The 1984 amendment added the catchline, rewrote the first sentence which formerly read, "Each district attorney in this state may appoint a suitable person who must be an attorney-at-law practicing his profession in this state and member of the bar of this state, and a citizen and resident of the district wherein such district attorney resides, to be his assistant," substituted "in which" for "wherein" and deleted "such" following "entering upon his duties as" in the second sentence, substituted "it" for "the same" and substituted "that" for "said" in the third sentence and substituted "The" for "Such" and substituted "metropolitan, magistrate and probate courts in the district attorney's district" for "justice and probate court in such district attorney's district" in the fourth sentence.

Effective dates. - Laws 1984, ch. 109, contains no effective date provision but was enacted at a session which adjourned on February 16, 1984. See N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23.

Member of the legislature may not be appointed assistant district attorney since the latter is a civil officer making these positions incompatible. 1941-42 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 3866.

Person who is probate judge may not also be appointed to the position of assistant district attorney by reason that his duties as a representative of the state would require his appearance in many matters before himself as presiding judge of the probate court. This is not only violative of the laws of the state of New Mexico but would also be a violation of the legal canons of ethics. 1953-54 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 5955.

Person appointed as assistant district attorney must be a practicing attorney and a member of bar of this state. 1931-32 Op. Att'y Gen. 164.

Fees and compensation of assistant district attorneys. - District attorneys are precluded from receiving fees or compensation other than the salary provided by law for services rendered the counties of their district. The duties of assistant district attorneys are the same as those imposed on district attorneys, and the inhibition applies to those officials as well. Hanagan v. Board of County Comm'rs, 64 N.M. 103, 325 P.2d 282 (1958).

Assistant district attorney may not recover special compensation for collecting delinquent taxes. 1915-16 Op. Att'y Gen. 225.

§ 36-1-3. District attorneys; travel expenses.

District attorneys and their employees shall be allowed per diem and shall be reimbursed for their necessary travel expenses incurred while absent from their district headquarters upon official business as provided in the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978]. These expenses shall be paid from the appropriation to the district attorney of the judicial district for which the business is transacted.

Cross-references. - As to payment of expenses of offices of district attorneys, see 36-1-8 NMSA 1978.

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1968, ch. 69, § 49, repealed 17-1-3, 1953 Comp., relating to expense allowances of district attorneys and employees, limitations upon private practice of district attorneys and assistants, appointment of assistants and maintenance of offices, and enacted a new 17-1-3, 1953 Comp.

§ 36-1-4. District attorneys; limitation of private practice.

After January 1, 1977, no district attorney or assistant district attorney shall engage in the private practice of law. Violation of this section is ground for removal from office.

History: 1953 Comp., § 17-1-3.1, enacted by Laws 1968, ch. 69, § 50; 1969, ch. 85, § 1; 1973, ch. 2, § 1; 1975, ch. 302, § 1.

Cross-references. - As to grounds for removal of district attorneys from office generally, see 36-1-9 NMSA 1978. As to restrictions on practices of attorneys who are partners of, or related to, district attorneys, see 36-2-20 NMSA 1978.

Effective dates. - Laws 1969, ch. 85, § 3, makes the act effective on July 1, 1969.

Purpose of this section and 36-1-19 NMSA 1978 is to prevent an attorney engaged in the performance of public duties from being influenced or appearing to be influenced, by personal or private interests. The potential for conflict between public and private interests exists whether the legal services rendered consist of court appearances or other legal services. 1977 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 77-7.

Section is mandatory in quality and provides no alternative to the disability imposed. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-71.

When individual is actually serving as assistant district attorney he is subject to the statutory disability. Once his term of office terminates, his disability ceases. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-71.

Applicability of disability to part-time assistant district attorney. - If the nature of the appointment is such as to be of a continuing nature, meaning that the so-called part-time assistant district attorney is held to be, at times, an assistant district attorney serving without pay, then said individual would be subject to the disability of the section. On the other hand, if the individual selected as a part-time assistant district attorney serves only between two specified dates and then is no longer an assistant district attorney, the disability of the section would not apply. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-71.

§ 36-1-5. District attorneys; assistants; investigators.

A. Within legislative appropriations, the district attorney in each judicial district may appoint:

(1) necessary assistant district attorneys and other personnel and assign their duties;
and

(2) full-time staff as peace officers for the purpose of investigating and enforcing the criminal laws of the state, within the district attorney's judicial district.

B. Those staff appointed as peace officers pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph (2) of Subsection A of this section shall comply with the certification provisions of Section 29-7-8 NMSA 1978.

History: 1953 Comp., § 17-1-3.3, enacted by Laws 1968, ch. 69, § 52; 1988, ch. 92, § 2.

The 1988 amendment, effective May 18, 1988, added in the catchline "investigators"; divided the former provisions into present Subsections A and A(1); and added Subsections A(2) and B and made a related change.

The 1986 amendment deleted "After July 1, 1982," at the beginning of the section and substituted "forty-six thousand two hundred dollars ($46,200)" for "forty-one thousand dollars ($41,000)".

The 1988 amendment, effective the beginning of the first pay period of the seventy-seventh fiscal year, substituted "forty-seven thousand five hundred eighty-six dollars ($47,586)" for "forty-six thousand two hundred dollars ($46,200)".

Repeals and reenactments. - Laws 1976 (S.S.), ch. 18, § 1, repealed former 17-1-3.4, 1953 Comp., relating to salaries of district attorneys, and enacted a new 17-1-3.4, 1953 Comp.

§ 36-1-7. District attorneys; salary and allowances exclusive.

No district attorney shall receive to his own use any salary, fees or emoluments other than the salary and per diem and travel allowances prescribed by law.

History: Laws 1913, ch. 54, § 2; Code 1915, § 1870; C.S. 1929, § 39-202; 1941 Comp., § 17-104; 1953 Comp., § 17-1-4; Laws 1968, ch. 69, § 53.

There are no legal services that can be rendered by a district attorney for a board of county commissioners for which he may exact extra compensation. Hanagan v. Board of County Comm'rs, 64 N.M. 103, 325 P.2d 282 (1958).

All salaries and expenses of the offices of the district attorneys, except the expenses of maintenance and upkeep of quarters occupied by the district attorneys and their staffs, shall be paid from funds appropriated to the district attorneys in the respective judicial districts upon warrants drawn by the secretary of finance and administration in accordance with budgets approved by the state budget division of the department of finance and administration. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent an agreement between an incorporated municipality or a county and a district attorney whereby the district attorney agrees to assign an assistant to the municipality or county and the municipality or county agrees to reimburse the department of finance and administration to the credit of the district attorney's budget for all or a portion of the assistant's salary or expenses.

Historical. - Prior to the adoption of the constitution the district attorney was by statute the law officer of the territory, and was required to represent the territory, within his district, in all cases, civil and criminal, and to give advice, when requested, to territorial officials. State ex rel. Ward v. Romero, 17 N.M. 88, 125 P. 617 (1912).

Under the constitution, the district attorney is a part of the judicial system of the state, and is a quasi-judicial officer. State ex rel. Ward v. Romero, 17 N.M. 88, 125 P. 617 (1912).

The words "district officer" used in N.M. Const., art. XX, § 3, refer to the district attorney and district judge, but the words were used to designate the geographical limits within which such officer performed the duties of his office, and did not refer to the nature and grade of the office. State ex rel. Ward v. Romero, 17 N.M. 88, 125 P. 617 (1912).

District attorney has no powers outside his district, nor does he have any common-law powers. State ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Reese, 78 N.M. 241, 430 P.2d 399 (1967).

District attorney or attorney general to represent state in criminal proceedings. - Although Subsection A does not require the district attorney to appear in a nonrecord court such as the metropolitan court, 36-1-19 NMSA 1978 prohibits anyone other than the attorney general's office and district attorney's office from representing the state in a criminal proceeding, except on order of the court and with the consent of those offices. State v. Baca, 101 N.M. 716, 688 P.2d 34 (Ct. App. 1984).

If criminal complaint is filed by sheriff without consent of the district attorney, the latter may at any time step in and take charge of the case and the prosecution on behalf of the state, since he is the chief law enforcement officer and the state's prosecutor in his district. 1939-40 Op. Att'y Gen. 98.

District attorney may initiate a foreclosure action in the name of the county treasurer interested in the particular assessment. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-77.

Institution of probation revocation proceedings. - Although the specific procedural authority of 40A-29-20, 1953 Comp., had been repealed, the district attorney, as the chief law officer of his district, had authority to institute probation revocation proceedings. State v. Paul, 82 N.M. 791, 487 P.2d 493 (Ct. App. 1971).

District attorneys are not required to defend sheriffs in civil suits. Their duties are limited solely to representing the interests of the state in criminal and civil actions. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-98.

The district attorney is not obligated to represent a county sheriff in a civil suit. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-47.

Appearance on appeal in criminal cases. - District attorney has authority to take an appeal, but it is the prerogative and duty of attorney general to brief the case and to present it in supreme court, and a district attorney may appear on appeal in a criminal case only by permission of the attorney general and in association with him. State v. Aragon, 55 N.M. 421, 234 P.2d 356 (1950), rev'd on other grounds, 55 N.M. 423, 234 P.2d 358 (1951).

Office's immunity in defamation suit. - In a defamation suit arising out of a report prepared by an assistant district attorney at the request of the district attorney, the trial court's ruling of absolute immunity was based upon the concepts of judicial immunity, because the office of district attorney is a quasi-judicial office, as well as executive immunity, because that office has duties which cannot be properly classified as quasi-judicial. Candelaria v. Robinson, 93 N.M. 786, 606 P.2d 196 (Ct. App. 1980).

Subsections A and B call for the district attorney to "represent the county" and "advise county officials." These terms are used in the generally accepted sense, namely, the district attorney is to serve as attorney for the county in all matters when called upon to so act. The legislature intended to make the district attorney the attorney for the counties of his district. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6565.

Whenever the county commissioners request representation in any matter before them, it is the duty of the district attorney to act for such county. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6565.

Duty to advise state officers found in this section is limited to those matters relating to and pending in the judicial district in which the district attorney is located-not to matters of statewide application. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-61.

While a district attorney is to advise state officers within his district when requested, this means "advise these officers on matters relating to the judicial district in which he is located." 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-61.

§ 36-1-19. Legal representation; state; county.

A. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this section, no one shall represent the state or any county thereof in any matter in which the state or county is interested except the attorney general, his legally appointed and qualified assistants or the district attorney or his legally appointed and qualified assistants and such associate counsel as may appear on order of the court, with the consent of the attorney general or district attorney.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a board of county commissioners may contract with private counsel for legal assistance to or representation of the county in any civil matter in which the county is interested. Such private counsel shall have the same powers of compromise, satisfaction or release in civil proceedings as are held by district attorneys pursuant to Section 36-1-22 NMSA 1978.

C. The private legal assistance permitted pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall not extend to the prosecution of any criminal action without the permission of the district attorney for that county, provided that such permission shall not be required for the prosecution of any violation of a county ordinance.

The 1985 amendment substituted "Subsections" for "Subsection" near the beginning of Subsection A, and "Section 36-1-22 NMSA 1978" for "Section 17-1-15 NMSA 1953" at the end of Subsection B, and added the proviso at the end of Subsection C.

Effective dates. - Laws 1985, ch. 147, § 3 makes the act effective on July 1, 1985.

Purpose of this section and 36-1-4 NMSA 1978 is to prevent an attorney engaged in the performance of public duties from being influenced or appearing to be influenced by personal or private interests. The potential for conflict between public and private interests exists whether the legal services rendered consist of court appearances or other legal services. 1977 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 77-7.

Attorney general or district attorney must represent state or county. - The attorney general's office or the district attorney's office must represent the state, or a county, in any matter in which the latter is interested. State v. Davidson, 33 N.M. 664, 275 P. 373 (1929) (decided prior to 1977 amendment).

But Subsection A only applicable in suits in court. - It is only in suits in court by the state or a county, and where special counsel seek to represent the state or a county, that Subsection A has any application. State v. Davidson, 33 N.M. 664, 275 P. 373 (1929) (decided prior to 1933 amendment).

Officer may not prosecute case in district court after appeal. - A peace officer who has prosecuted a criminal case in magistrate or municipal court may not continue to prosecute the case in district court after an appeal of the magistrate or municipal court judgment has been filed in district court. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-27.

Improper representation of state denies jurisdiction of court. - Where there was no explicit approval by order of court authorizing a private counsel to prosecute for the district attorney, the metropolitan court lacked criminal jurisdiction to proceed in an assault and battery proceeding on the criminal docket. State v. Baca, 101 N.M. 716, 688 P.2d 34 (Ct. App. 1984).

§ 36-1-20. [Authority of district attorney before magistrate court.]

The district attorney may appear and represent the county or the state in any manner [matter] arising before the courts of justices of the peace [magistrate courts] or committing magistrates when in his opinion the interests of the people demand his services.

History: Laws 1909, ch. 22, § 3; Code 1915, § 1861; C.S. 1929, § 39-110; 1941 Comp., § 17-113; 1953 Comp., § 17-1-13.

Jurisdiction, powers and duties of justices of the peace transferred. - The office of justice of the peace has been abolished, and the jurisdiction, powers and duties have been transferred to the magistrate court. See 35-1-38 NMSA 1978.

§ 36-1-21. [Aiding defense; penalty against attorney general or district attorney; removal from office; exceptions; taking case in which state or county interested prohibited.]

If the attorney general or any district attorney shall consult with any accused defendant, or in any other manner shall aid the defense of any person accused of any crime or misdemeanor in this state, he shall be fined in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) and shall be removed from office by judgment of the court if convicted of the charge.

Provided, further, that said attorney general or district attorney are [is] authorized and should be allowed by the judge of the district court to defend their [his] cases already on the docket of said court, on which appears on said docket that said attorney general or district attorney were [was] the attorneys [attorney] of said cases prior to the appointment of said attorney general or district attorneys [attorney].

Provided, further, that where it appears in the record of the court that the attorney general or district attorney was the attorney in some cases prior to the appointment of the said attorney general or district attorney, in those cases the court shall appoint a lawyer to prosecute in those particular cases, allowing said lawyer the fee which is allowed to the attorney general or district attorney, and the attorney general or district attorney should be allowed to defend in those particular cases.

Provided, further, that said attorney general or district attorney shall not be allowed to take any case after he is appointed attorney general or district attorney in which the state or county is involved in the litigation in which the law compels the attorney general or district attorney to prosecute or defend as said attorney general or district attorney.

§ 36-1-22. [Compromise, satisfaction or release by attorney general or district attorney.]

The attorney general and district attorneys of this state in their respective districts, when any civil proceedings may be pending in their respective districts, in the district court, in which the state or any county may be a party, whether the same be an ordinary suit, scire facias proceedings, proceedings growing out of any criminal prosecution, or otherwise, shall have power to compromise or settle said suit or proceedings, or grant a release or enter satisfaction in whole or in part, of any claim or judgment in the name of the state or county, or dismiss the same, or take any other steps or proceedings therein which to him may appear proper and right; and all such civil suits and proceedings shall be entirely under the management and control of the said attorney general or district attorneys, and all compromises, releases and satisfactions heretofore made or entered into by said officers are hereby confirmed and ratified.

History: Laws 1875-1876, ch. 5, § 1; C.L. 1884, § 1856; C.L. 1897, § 2905; Code 1915, § 1863; C.S. 1929, § 39-112; 1941 Comp., § 17-115; 1953 Comp., § 17-1-15.

Cross-references. - As to power of private attorney to compromise, satisfy, or release in name of county, see 36-1-19 NMSA 1978.

Section is completely harmonious with N.M. Const., art. IV, § 32. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-69.

Attorney general under the broad powers of his office has the management and control of suits and proceedings in which it is his duty to appear, and the power to take any steps or proceedings therein "which to him may appear proper and right." Cooper v. Otero, 38 N.M. 164, 29 P.2d 341 (1934).

A settlement entered into by the attorney general, with no evidence of bad motives, is not unconstitutional under N.M. Const., art. IV, § 32 and "in the absence of explicit legislative expression to the contrary, the attorney general possesses entire dominion over every suit instituted by him in his official capacity whether there is a relator or not. As an incident of such control, the attorney general has power to dismiss or to discontinue suits brought by him either with or without a stipulation by the other party, and to make any dispositions of such suits that he deems best for the interest of the state." Lyle v. Luna, 65 N.M. 429, 338 P.2d 1060 (1959).

Compromise and settlement of tax suits. - The authority of district attorneys to compromise and settle tax suits is not restrained by N.M. Const., art. IV, § 32 and does not violate N.M. Const., art. VIII, § 1 or art. II, § 18. State v. State Inv. Co., 30 N.M. 491, 239 P. 741 (1925).

The district attorney has full authority to compromise and settle any action instituted in behalf of the state ex rel. its state tax commission (now property tax division of taxation and revenue department) and the county treasurer, for the collection of delinquent personal property taxes. This authority is, of course, subject to the duty of the attorney general's office to act, pursuant to 8-5-2 NMSA 1978, when in the judgment of the attorney general the interest of the state requires such action, and to the authority of the attorney general's office to act pursuant to this section, empowering the attorney general to compromise and settle civil proceedings, in the event of any conflict between the state tax commission (now property tax division of taxation and revenue department) and the district attorney as to the propriety of a particular proposed settlement in a case within the authority of the commission to act. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-54.

A stipulation of settlement concerning tax liability under 59-5-1 NMSA 1978 (now repealed) and 72-16-1 to 72-16-47, 1953 Comp., entered into by the attorney general of the state of New Mexico on behalf of the plaintiffs under the authority of the provisions of this section was not constitutionally prohibited by N.M. Const., art. IV, § 32. Lyle v. Luna, 65 N.M. 429, 338 P.2d 1060 (1959).

Compromise and settlement of judgment which is entered of record as satisfaction of judgment would be a proper proceeding in court and would alert the public to the action of the district attorney or attorney general. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-69.

Judicial review. - Absent a showing of fraud or misdealing, it is not for the courts to second-guess the attorney general in the exercise of his authority in compromising a matter. State ex rel. Property Appraisal Dep't v. Sierra Life Ins. Co., 90 N.M. 268, 562 P.2d 829 (1977).

Compiler's notes. - The provisions of 36-1-23 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 85, § 1, have terminated of their own accord and have been deleted from the code. This section related to the office of special prosecutors.

§ 36-1-23.1. Special prosecutors in conflict cases.

Each district attorney may, when he cannot prosecute a case for ethical reasons or other good cause, appoint a practicing member of the bar of this state to act as special assistant district attorney. Any person so appointed shall have authority to act only in the specific case or matter for which the appointment was made. An appointment and oath shall be required of special assistant district attorneys in substantially the same form as that required for assistant district attorneys in Section 36-1-2 NMSA 1978.

Compiler's notes. - The provisions of 36-1-24 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 85, § 4, have terminated of their own accord and have been deleted from the code. This section related to the misuse of funds appropriated to try cases that arose from the riots at the state penitentiary in February, 1980.

§ 36-1-25. Administrative office of the district attorneys created; director; personnel.

A. There is created the "administrative office of the district attorneys," which shall be supervised by a director who shall be appointed by majority vote of the elected or appointed district attorneys and serve at their pleasure.

§ 36-1-27. District attorney fund created; appropriation. (Effective until July 1, 1990.)

There is created in the state treasury the "district attorney fund" which shall be administered by the director of the administrative office of the district attorneys. All balances in the fund are appropriated, subject to legislative approval, to the administrative office of the district attorneys for the sole purpose of meeting necessary expenses incurred in the operation of that office.

Compiler's notes. - The state bar and the medical society have adopted the following:

"STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES RELATING TO THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF ATTOR-NEYS AND PHYSICIANS IN THEIR INTERPROFESSIONAL RELATIONS

"These principles should govern the interprofessional relations of physicians and attorneys

"I.

"THE PATIENT-CLIENT

"The welfare of the patient-client is the paramount and joint goal of these principles.

"II.

"PHYSICIANS AND THE LAW

"1. Physicians shall refrain from giving legal advice.

"2. Physicians shall refrain from interfering with established lawyer-client relationships.

"III.

"ATTORNEYS AND HEALTH CARE

"1. Attorneys shall refrain from giving medical advice.

"2. Attorneys shall refrain from interfering with established physician-patient relationships.

"IV.

"AN ATTORNEY'S RESPONSIBILITIES

"An attorney's responsibility is always first to his client. However, in his relationships with physicians, an attorney has the following responsibilities:

"1. Testimony. An attorney must keep the physician fully informed as to the status of the litigation and in particular inform him sufficiently in advance of:

"a) trial settings;

"b) vacated settings;

"c) pre-trial settlements.

Fees. The services of a physician in a legal matter involve the consumption of the physician's time and the utilization of his facilities and his expertise over and above that required in merely treating his patient. As a result, the attorney shall make proper arrangements with all involved physicians beforehand for payment for the physician's services either directly by his client or by the attorney himself through the advancement of costs.

"An attorney is not expected to advance costs for physician's services involving treatment.

"An attorney who requests information from a physician solely to advance his medical knowledge is responsible personally for prompt payment of those services.

"3.

Background. An attorney must familiarize himself with the medical issues involved in his case from available medical literature in order that he may have some initial understanding of the problem and so that he might be able to specify the information requested from the physician and understand the physician and understand the physician's explanation and report.

"V.

"A PHYSICIAN'S RESPONSIBILITIES

"A physician's primary responsibility is always the health of his patient. However, a physician having a patient involved in the legal process has the following responsibilities:

"1.

Records. Given a valid authorization, the physician should promptly transfer information from his records to the requesting attorney.

"2.

Reports. Given a valid authorization, reports covering a summation of medical facts and opinions concerning their significance shall be furnished upon request by the treating physician or the physician specifically engaged to do such work insofar as their expertise permits. The attorney should specify the items he wishes covered in that report.

"3.

Conferences. Given a valid authorization, attorneys may confer with physicians either to:

"a) gain medical information on a topic of the attorney's interest, or

"b) discuss medical aspects of the case of a particular client with the treating physician or with one engaged to render such opinions. This may include a discussion of testimony that may be elicited at trial.

Testimony. Physicians may be required to testify either in court or by deposition. Cooperation between both attorneys and physicians should obviate the necessity for subpoenas.

"A physician should familiarize himself with the basic requirements of court procedure.

"A physician is not an advocate and should leave the representation of his patient and advancement of the patient's interests to the patient's attorney.

"5.

Fees. Physicians may use the expenditure of their time, office facilities, and funds as a basis for arriving at a reasonable fee for services rendered pursuant to these principles. If an attorney fails to give timely notification of a change in the scheduled time for the physician's services, which makes the physician unavailable for other remunerative work, the physician may charge for the time set aside."

An attorney has authority:

A. to execute in the name of his client any bond or other written instrument necessary and proper for the prosecution of an action or proceeding about to be or already commenced, or for the prosecution or defense of any right growing out of an action, proceeding or final judgment rendered therein;

B. to bind his client to any agreement in respect to any proceeding within the scope of his proper duties and power, but no evidence of any such agreement is receivable, except the statement of the attorney himself, his written agreement signed and filed with the clerk or an entry thereof on the records of the court;

C. to receive money claimed by his client in an action or proceeding during the pendency thereof or after judgment, unless a revocation of his authority is filed and, upon payment thereof and not otherwise to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment.

History: Laws 1909, ch. 53, § 29; Code 1915, § 356; C.S. 1929, § 9-130; 1941 Comp., § 18-110; 1953 Comp., § 18-1-10.

Section does not alter case law governing authority of attorney to settle or compromise cases for his client. Augustus v. John Williams & Assocs., 92 N.M. 437, 589 P.2d 1028 (1979).

Oral settlement by attorney who has specific authority to settle is enforceable under certain circumstances. Augustus v. John Williams & Assocs., 92 N.M. 437, 589 P.2d 1028 (1979).

Client accepting benefits of unauthorized settlement is bound. - Where an attorney has not been authorized to settle a case but the client accepts the benefits of the settlement before attempting to treat the settlement as unauthorized and unenforceable, the client is bound by his attorney's settlement. Augustus v. John Williams & Assocs., 92 N.M. 437, 589 P.2d 1028 (1979).

Scope of authority. - Where defendant did not personally sign the answer in the prior suit, in which appears the admission of the debt now sued upon, but in her answer in the present suit she admits her deceased husband signed the answer in the prior suit as attorney for her and himself, and no question has been raised as to his authority to sign the answer as her attorney or to make the admission on her behalf, then his signature on her behalf to the answer in the prior suit had the same effect as if she had personally signed. Smith v. Walcott, 85 N.M. 351, 512 P.2d 679 (1973) (decided under former law).

No person shall practice law in any of the courts of this state, except courts of justice of the peace [the magistrate court], nor shall any person commence, conduct or defend any action or proceeding in any of said courts unless he be an actual and bona fide resident of the state of New Mexico, and unless he shall have first obtained a temporary license as herein provided, or shall have been granted a certificate of admission to the bar under the provisions of this chapter. No person not licensed as provided herein shall advertise or display any matter or writing whereby the impression may be gained that he is an attorney or counselor at law, or hold himself out as an attorney or counselor at law, and all persons violating the provisions hereof shall be deemed guilty of contempt of the court wherein such violation occurred, as well as of the supreme court of the state; provided, however, that nothing in this act [section] shall be construed to prohibit persons residing beyond the limits of this state, otherwise qualified, from assisting resident counsel in commencing, conducting or otherwise participating in any action or proceeding; and provided further that this act shall not apply to attorneys who formerly resided in this state and who have been duly admitted to practice here during such residence, and are in good standing at the bar of this state; provided further that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit persons who are citizens of the United States and of the state of New Mexico, and who have resided in the state of New Mexico for more than twenty years, and who shall have studied law for more than three years in a law office and under the direction of some member of the bar of this state, or in a law school, and who shall have practiced before one or more of the United States land offices in this state and the general land office of the department of the interior from time to time for twenty years or more, and who shall be vouched for as to his integrity, honesty and respect for moral ethics, by six reputable lawyers of the state of New Mexico who are members of the bar of this state in good standing; and the board of bar examiners on application of any person who possesses the qualifications herein specified shall recommend to the supreme court his admission to the bar on motion and the supreme court shall issue to such person a license to practice law in all the courts of the state.

Compiler's notes. - The office of justice of the peace has been abolished, and the jurisdiction, powers and duties have been transferred to the magistrate court. See 35-1-38 NMSA 1978.

The 1915 Code compilers substituted "this chapter" for "this act," presumably to refer to Code 1915, ch. 8, §§ 327 to 376, the operative provisions of which are compiled as 36-2-10 to 36-2-19, 36-2-21, 36-2-23, 36-2-24 and 36-2-27 NMSA 1978.

The preliminary clause of Laws 1935, ch. 124, § 1, read: "Section 1. That Section 126 of chapter 9 of the New Mexico Statutes Annotated, Compilation of 1929 be amended by adding thereto the following." The provisions of the present final proviso of the section followed that clause. The validity of this method of amendment may be affected by N.M. Const., art. IV, § 18, which provides that each section of a law which is amended shall be set out in full.

The provisions of the final proviso of this section were held to be in conflict with former Rule II(A)9 of Rules Governing Admission to the Bar, adopted effective January 12, 1934, which provided in part that no person, other than one admitted on certificate from another state, should be granted a license to practice law in New Mexico or should be entitled to take an examination for admission to the bar unless such person had graduated from a law school approved by the American Bar Association. See In re Sedillo, 66 N.M. 267, 347 P.2d 162 (1959).

For present rule governing qualifications of applicants for admission to the bar, see Rule 15-103.

Constitutionality of last proviso in section. - The last proviso in this section, which sets educational requirements for admission to the bar which are less than those found in rules governing admission to the bar, is an unconstitutional invasion of the judicial powers. In re Sedillo, 66 N.M. 267, 347 P.2d 162 (1959) (decided under former Rules Governing Admission to the Bar).

Meaning of "practice of law". - It is the character of the services rendered and not the denomination of the tribunal before whom they are rendered which controls in determining whether such services constitute the practice of law. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-200.

The practice of law, as generally understood, is the doing or performing of services in a court of justice, in any matter depending therein, throughout its various stages, and in conformity with the adopted rules or procedure, but, is not confined to performing services in an action or proceeding pending in courts of justice, and, in a larger sense, it includes legal advice and counsel, and the preparation of legal instruments and contracts by which legal rights are secured, although such matter may or may not be pending in a court. To "practice law" is to carry on the business of an attorney at law; to do or practice that which an attorney or counselor at law is authorized to do and practice; to exercise the calling or profession of the law, usually for the purpose of gaining a livelihood, or at least for gain; to make it one's business to act for, and by the warrant of, others in legal formalities, negotiations, or proceedings. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-173.

The indicia of practice of law, insofar as court proceedings are concerned, include the following: (1) representation of parties before judicial or administrative bodies, (2) preparation of pleadings and other papers incident to actions and special proceedings, (3) management of such action and proceeding, and noncourt-related activities such as (4) giving legal advice and counsel, (5) rendering a service that requires the use of legal knowledge or skill and (6) preparing instruments and contracts by which legal rights are secured. State ex rel. Norvell v. Credit Bureau of Albuquerque, Inc., 85 N.M. 521, 514 P.2d 40 (1973).

If a layman or an attorney appears in a representative capacity as an advocate in hearings before any commissioner, hearing officer, referee, board, body, committee or commission of the state of New Mexico which considers legal questions, applies legal principles and weighs facts under legal rules, and, in that representative capacity, files pleadings, qualifies, examines and cross-examines witnesses, proves and introduces exhibits into evidence or performs any of the other duties normally associated with an attorney requiring specialized training and skill, such layman or attorney is practicing law within the meaning of the term as it is used in this section. 1957-58 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 58-200.

When filling in blanks in legal instruments constitutes "practice of law". - Filling in blanks in legal instruments where the forms have been drafted by attorneys, and where filling in the blanks requires only the use of common knowledge regarding the information to be inserted, does not constitute the "practice of law"; but when the filling in of the blanks affects substantial legal rights, and if the reasonable protection of such rights requires legal skill and knowledge greater than that possessed by the average citizen, then such practice is restricted to members of the legal profession. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

Likewise, where separate additional charges made by title company for filling in blanks.
- The making of separate additional charges to fill in blanks on legal instruments by employees of a title company is considered the "practice of law," for the reason that it would place emphasis on conveyancing and legal drafting as a business rather than on the business of the title company. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

And where title company personnel use information to advise. - Persons working for title companies who confer with parties to obtain facts and information about their personal and property status, who obtain more information than that necessary to fill in the blank spaces in standardized forms used for company purposes and who use the information instead for the purpose of advising the parties of their rights and the action to be taken concerning them are engaging in the "practice of law," such practice being restricted to members of the legal profession. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

Layman may not hold self out as expert or consultant at closing loans. - A layman, regardless of whether he is expert at closing loans, may not hold himself out to the public as an expert or consultant in this field or describe himself by any similar phrase which implies that he has a knowledge of the law. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

Power to bring suits to prevent unauthorized practice of law. - A state bar, even though it is not a corporate "person," may have conferred upon it the power to bring suits to prevent the unauthorized practice of law to protect both itself and the public. Statute creating the board of bar commissioners and giving it power to make and enforce rules "generally for the control and regulation of . . . the state bar" necessarily gave it the power to seek the court's help to prevent the unauthorized practice of law. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

The board of bar commissioners and the committee on unauthorized practice of law were both empowered to maintain and prosecute suits to prevent the unauthorized practice of law, but under circumstances where suit is not entered by the bar association or its branches and it becomes necessary for individual attorneys to act in the public interest, the individuals have standing to bring action. State Bar v. Guardian Abstract & Title Co., 91 N.M. 434, 575 P.2d 943 (1978).

Arrangements in which a credit bureau represents clients on a contingency fee basis constitutes unlawful practice of law. State ex rel. Norvell v. Credit Bureau of Albuquerque, Inc., 85 N.M. 521, 514 P.2d 40 (1973).

Right of unlicensed person to practice in magistrate court. - See State ex rel. Norvell v. Credit Bureau of Albuquerque, Inc., 85 N.M. 521, 514 P.2d 40 (1973).
