56-1-2. Retail installment contracts; consolidation; first bought, first paid.

A. Each retail installment contract shall be in writing, dated, signed by the retail buyer, and completed as to all essential provisions, except as otherwise provided in Subsections G and H of this section.

B. The printed or typed portion of the contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in a size equal to at least eight point type. The contract shall be designated "retail installment contract" and shall contain substantially the following notice printed or typed in a size equal to at least ten point bold type:

"NOTICE TO THE BUYER. DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE CONTRACT YOU SIGN."

C. The retail seller shall deliver to the retail buyer, or mail to him at his address shown on the retail installment contract, a copy of the contract as accepted by the seller. Until the seller does so, a buyer, who has not received delivery of the goods or been furnished or rendered the services, shall have the right to rescind his contract and to receive a refund of all payments made and return of all goods traded in to the seller on account of or in contemplation of the contract, or if such goods cannot be returned, the value thereof. Any acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the contract shall be in a size equal to at least ten point bold type and, if contained in the contract, shall appear directly above the buyer's signature.

D. The retail installment contract shall contain the names of the seller and the buyer, the place of business of the seller, the residence or other address of the buyer as specified by the buyer and a description or identification of the goods sold or to be sold, or services furnished or rendered or to be furnished or rendered.

E. The retail installment contract shall contain the following items:

- (1) the cash sale price of the goods or services;
- (2) the amount of the buyer's down payment, identifying the amounts paid in money and allowed for goods traded in;
- (3) the difference between items (1) and (2);
- (4) the aggregate amount, if any, included for insurance, if a separate identified charge is made therefor, specifying the type or types of insurance and the term or terms of coverage;
- (5) the aggregate amount of official fees;
- (6) the principal balance, which is the sum of items (3), (4) and (5);
- (7) the amount or rate of the time price differential;
- (8) the amount of the time balance owed by the buyer to the seller, which is the sum of items (6) and the amount set out under item (7);
- (9) except as otherwise provided in the next two sentences, the maximum number of installment payments required and the amount of each installment and the due date of each payment necessary to pay the time balance set forth in item (8). If installment payments other than the final payment are stated as a series of equal scheduled amounts and if the amount of the final installment payment does not substantially exceed the scheduled amount of each preceding installment payment, the maximum number of payments and the amount and due date of each payment need not be separately stated and the amount of the scheduled final installment payment may be stated as the remaining unpaid balance. The due date of the first installment payment may be fixed by a day or date or may be fixed by reference to the date of the contract or to the time of delivery or installation;

(10) the time sale price; and

(11) if any installment (except the down payment) is more than double the average of all other installments (except the down payment), the following legend printed in at least ten point bold type or typewritten: THIS CONTRACT IS NOT PAYABLE IN INSTALLMENTS OF EQUAL AMOUNTS followed, if there be but one such larger installment, by: AN INSTALLMENT OF $ . . . . . WILL BE DUE ON . . . . . or, if there be more than one such larger installment, by: LARGER INSTALLMENTS WILL BE DUE AS FOLLOWS: . . . . ., in such latter case, inserting the amount of every such larger installment and of its due date.

The above items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth; additional items may be included to explain the computations made in determining the amount to be paid by the buyer.

F. A retail installment contract need not be contained in a single document. If the contract is contained in more than one document, one such document may be an original document signed by the retail buyer, stated to be applicable to purchases of goods or services to be made by the retail buyer from time to time. In such case, such document, together with the sales slip, account book or other written statement relating to each purchase, shall set forth all of the information required by this section and shall constitute the retail installment contract for each purchase. On each succeeding purchase pursuant to such original document, the sales slip, account book or other written statement may at the option of the seller constitute the memorandum required by Subsection M of this section.

G. Retail installment contracts negotiated and entered into by mail without personal solicitations by salesmen or other representatives of the seller and based upon a catalog of the seller, or other printed solicitation which clearly sets forth the cash sale prices and other terms of sales to be made through such medium, may be made as provided in this subsection. The provisions of this act [56-1-1 to 56-1-13 NMSA 1978] with respect to retail installment contracts shall be applicable to such sales, except that:

(1) the designation and notice provisions of Subsection B of this section shall not be applicable to such contract; and

(2) the retail installment contract, when completed by the buyer, need not contain the items required by Subsection E of this section.

When the contract is received from the retail buyer, the seller shall prepare a written memorandum containing all of the information required by Subsection E of this section to be included in a retail installment contract. In lieu of delivering a copy of the contract to the retail buyer as provided in Subsection C of this section, the seller shall deliver to the buyer a copy of such memorandum prior to the due date of the first installment payable under the contract.

H. A retail installment contract shall not be signed by any party thereto when it contains blank spaces of items which are essential provisions of the transaction; provided, however, if delivery of the goods is not made at the time of the execution of the contract, the identifying numbers of marks of the goods or similar information and the due date of the first installment may be inserted by the seller in the seller's counterpart of the contract after it has been signed by the buyer. The buyer's acknowledgment, conforming to the requirements of this section, of delivery of a copy of the contract shall be presumptive proof, or, in the case of a holder of the contract without knowledge to the contrary when he purchases it, conclusive proof of such delivery and of compliance with this subsection and any other requirement relating to completion of the contract prior to execution thereof by the buyer, in any action or proceeding.

I. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a retail installment contract may provide for, and the seller or holder may then charge, collect and receive a time price differential.

The time price differential on a retail installment contract shall be computed on the principal balance of each transaction, as determined under Subsection E on contracts payable in successive monthly payments substantially equal in amount from the date of the contract to the maturity of the final payment, notwithstanding that the total time balance thereof is required to be paid in one or more deferred payments. When a retail installment contract provides for payment other than in substantially equal successive monthly payments, the time price differential shall not exceed the amount which will provide the same return as is permitted on substantially equal successive monthly payment contracts, having due regard for the schedule of payments. The time price differential may be computed on the basis of a full month for any fractional portion of a month in excess of ten days.

J. Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any buyer may prepay in full the unpaid time balance thereof at any time before its final due date and, if he does so, shall receive a refund credit thereon for such prepayment. The amount of such refund credit shall represent at least as great a proportion of the original time price differential, after deducting therefrom a maximum of ten dollars ($10.00) as:

(1) the sum of the monthly balances under the schedule of payments in the contract beginning as of the date after such prepayment which is the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the due date of the first installment under the contract, or, if the prepayment is prior to the due date of the first installment under the contract, then as of the date after such prepayment which is the next succeeding monthly anniversary date of the date of the contract, bears to;

(2) the sum of all the monthly balances under the schedule of installment payments in the contract. Where the amount of refund credit is less than one dollar ($1.00), no refund credit need be made.

K. The holder of any retail installment contract, if it so provides, may collect a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in default for a period of more than ten days in the amount not to exceed five percent of each installment or five dollars ($5.00), whichever is less, or in lieu thereof, interest after maturity of each such installment not to exceed the highest lawful contract rate. In addition, such contract may provide for the payment of an attorney's reasonable fee where it is referred for collection to an attorney not a salaried employee of the holder of the contract, and for court costs and disbursements.

L. Upon written request of the buyer, the holder of a retail installment contract shall give or forward to the buyer a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments and the total amount unpaid under the contract. A buyer shall be given a written receipt for any payment when made in cash. Such a statement or receipt shall be given the buyer once without charge; if any additional statement is requested by the buyer, it shall be supplied by the holder at a charge not in excess of one dollar ($1.00) for each additional statement or receipt so supplied.

M. (1) If, in a retail installment transaction, a retail buyer makes any subsequent purchases of goods or services from a retail seller from whom he has previously purchased goods or services under one or more retail installment contracts, and the amounts under such previous contract or contracts have not been fully paid, the subsequent purchases may, at the seller's option, be included in and consolidated with one or more of the previous contract or contracts. Each subsequent purchase shall be a separate retail installment contract under this act [56-1-1 to 56-1-13 NMSA 1978], notwithstanding that the same may be included in and consolidated with one or more of such previous contract or contracts. All the provisions of this act with respect to retail installment contracts shall be applicable to such subsequent purchases except as hereinafter stated in this subsection.

(2) In the event of such consolidation, in lieu of the buyer's executing a retail installment contract respecting each subsequent purchase, as provided in this section, it shall be sufficient if the seller shall prepare a written memorandum of each subsequent purchase, in which case the provisions of Subsections A, B, C and E of this section shall not be applicable. Unless previously furnished in writing to the buyer by the seller, by sales slip, memorandum or otherwise, such memorandum shall contain with respect to each subsequent purchase items (1) through (8) of Subsection E of this section and, in addition, the outstanding balance of the previous contract or contracts, the consolidated time balance, and the revised installments applicable to the consolidated time balance, if any.

The seller shall deliver to the buyer a copy of such memorandum prior to the due date of the first installment of such consolidated contract.

(3) When such subsequent purchases are made, if the seller has retained title or taken a lien or other security interest in any of the goods purchased under any one of the contracts included in the consolidation, the entire amount of all payments made prior to such subsequent purchases shall be deemed to have been applied on the previous purchases; and each payment after such subsequent purchase made on the consolidated contract shall be deemed to have been allocated to the purchases earliest in time. The payments shall be credited first to the current carrying charges and then in reduction of the purchase price of merchandise in the order in which it was purchased. Articles of merchandise for which the sales price and carrying charges have been paid for under this section shall not thereafter be repossessed or considered security for payment of any charge arising out of any subsequent purchases made by the buyer. However, the amount of any down payment on the subsequent purchase shall be allocated in its entirety to such subsequent purchase. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to cases where such previous and subsequent purchases involve equipment, parts, or other goods attached or affixed to goods previously purchased and not fully paid, or to services in connection therewith rendered by the seller at the buyer's request.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-2, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 2; 1971, ch. 110, § 1; 1981, ch. 186, § 1.

56-1-2.1. Repealed.

56-1-3. Retail charge agreements.

A. Each retail charge agreement shall be in writing and signed by the buyer. A copy of any such agreement executed on or after the effective date of this act shall be delivered or mailed to the buyer prior to the date on which the first payment is due thereunder. Any acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the agreement contained in the body thereof shall be in a size equal to at least ten point bold type and shall appear directly above the buyer's signature. No agreement executed on or after the effective date of this act shall be signed by the buyer when it contains blank spaces to be filled in after it has been signed. The buyer's acknowledgment, conforming to the requirements of this subsection, of delivery of a copy of an agreement, shall be presumptive proof, in any action or proceeding, of such delivery and that the agreement, when signed, did not contain any blank spaces as herein provided. All retail charge agreements executed on or after the effective date of this act shall state the maximum amount and rate of the time price differential to be charged and paid pursuant thereto. Any such agreement shall contain substantially the following notice printed or typed in a size equal to at least ten point bold type:

"NOTICE TO THE BUYER - DO NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE YOU READ IT OR IF IT CONTAINS BLANK SPACES. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO A COPY OF THE AGREEMENT YOU SIGN."

B. The buyer under the retail charge agreement shall promptly be supplied with a statement as of the end of each monthly period, which need not be a calendar month, or other regular period agreed upon in writing, at the end of which there is any unpaid balance thereunder, which statement shall recite the following:

(1) the unpaid balance under the retail charge agreement at the beginning and at the end of the period;

(2) the dollar amount of each purchase by the buyer during the period and (unless a sales slip or a memorandum of each purchase has previously been furnished the buyer or is attached to the statement) the purchase or posting date, a brief description or identification and the cash price of each purchase;

(3) the payments made by the buyer and any other credits to the buyer during the period;

(4) the amount, if any, of any time price differential for such period; and

(5) a legend to the effect that the buyer may at any time pay his total unpaid balance or any part thereof.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a retail charge agreement may provide for, and the seller or holder may then charge, collect and receive, a time price differential for the privilege of paying in installments thereunder.

The time price differential on a retail charge agreement shall be computed from month to month (which need not be a calendar month) or other regular period, on all amounts unpaid under the agreement at the beginning of each such period. The time price differential under this subsection may be computed for all unpaid balances within a range of not in excess of ten dollars [($10.00)] on the basis of the median amount within such range, if as so computed such time price differential is applied to all unpaid balances within such range.

A retail charge agreement may also provide for the payment of an attorney's reasonable fee where it is referred for collection to an attorney not a salaried employee of the holder of the retail charge agreement or any unpaid balance thereunder, and for court costs and disbursements.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-3, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 3; 1980, ch. 72, § 1; 1981, ch. 186, § 3.

56-1-3.1. Repealed.

56-1-4. Insurance.

If the cost of insurance is included in the retail installment contract or the retail charge agreement and a separate charge is made to the buyer for the insurance:

A. the contract or agreement must state the nature, purpose and amount of the insurance;

B. the contract or agreement must state whether the insurance is to be procured by the buyer or the seller;

C. the amount included for the insurance may not exceed the premiums chargeable in accordance with the rate fixed for the insurance by the insurer except where the amount is less than one dollar [($1.00)]; and if the insurance is cancelled or terminated for any reason, the refund for unearned insurance premiums received by the seller or the holder, shall be credited to the final maturing installments of the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement, and the remaining balance of the unearned insurance premiums shall be refunded to the buyer; provided, however, that no cash refund shall be required if the amount thereof is less than one dollar [($1.00)], and

D. if the insurance is to be procured by the seller or holder, he shall, within 45 days after delivery of the goods or furnishing of the services under the contract or agreement deliver, mail or cause to be mailed to the buyer at his address as specified in the contract or agreement, a notice that the insurance is procured, a copy of the policy or policies of insurance or a certificate of the insurance so procured.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-4, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 4.

56-1-5. Prohibited provisions.

No retail installment contract or retail charge agreement shall contain any provision by which:

A. in the absence of the buyer's default in the performance of any of his obligations, the holder may accelerate the maturity of any part or all of the amount owing thereunder;

B. a power of attorney is given to confess judgment in this state, or an assignment of wages is given;

C. the seller or holder or other person acting on his behalf is given authority to enter upon the buyer's premises unlawfully or to commit any breach of the peace in the repossession of goods;

D. the buyer waives any right of action against the seller or holder or other person acting on his behalf, for any illegal act committed in the collection of payments under the contract or agreement or in the repossession of goods;

E. the buyer executes a power of attorney appointing the seller or holder or other person acting on his behalf, as the buyer's agent in collection of payments under the contract or agreement or in the repossession of goods; or

F. the buyer agrees not to assert against the seller or against an assignee a claim or defense arising out of the sale.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-5, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 5.

56-1-6. Assignment.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law:

A. an assignee may purchase or acquire or agree to purchase or acquire any retail installment contract or retail charge agreement or any outstanding balance under either from a seller on such terms and conditions and for such price as may be mutually agreed upon;

B. filing of the assignment, notice to the buyer of the assignment and any requirement that the seller be deprived of dominion over payments upon a retail installment contract or retail charge agreement, or over the goods if returned to or repossessed by the seller, shall not be necessary to the validity of a written assignment of the retail installment contract or retail charge agreement or any outstanding balance under either as against creditors, subsequent purchasers, pledgees, mortgagees and lien claimants of the seller; and

C. unless the buyer has notice of the assignment of his retail installment contract, retail charge agreement or any outstanding balance under either, payment therefor made by the buyer to the holder last known to him shall be binding upon all subsequent holders.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-6, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 6.

56-1-7. [Waiver.]

No act or agreement of the retail buyer before or at the time of the making of a retail installment contract, retail charge agreement or purchase thereunder shall constitute a valid waiver of any of the provisions of this act [56-1-1 to 56-1-13 NMSA 1978] or of any remedies granted to the buyer by law.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-7, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 7.

56-1-8. Penalty for violation of act.

Any person who wilfully [willfully] and intentionally violates any provision of this act [56-1-1 to 56-1-13 NMSA 1978] shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Violation of any order or injunction issued pursuant to this act shall constitute prima facie proof of a violation of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-8, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 8.

56-1-9. Violation; bar to recovery.

Any seller who enters into any contract or agreement which does not comply with the provisions of this act [56-1-1 to 56-1-13 NMSA 1978] or who violates any provision of this act except as a result of an accidental or bona fide error shall be barred from the recovery of any time price differential, official fees, or any delinquency or collection charge under or in connection with the related retail installment contract or purchases under a retail charge agreement; but the seller may nevertheless recover from the buyer an amount equal to the cash price of the goods or services and the cost to the seller of any insurance included in the transaction.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-9, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 9.

Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the district court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business. Failure to perform the terms of any such assurance shall constitute prima facie proof of a violation of this act for the purpose of securing any injunction as provided in Section 10 [56-1-10 NMSA 1978] of this act and for the purpose of Section 9 [56-1-9 NMSA 1978] hereof. After commencement of any action by a district attorney, the attorney general may not accept an assurance of discontinuance without the consent of the district attorney.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-11, enacted by Laws 1965, ch. 258, § 11.

A. Payments made on retail charges agreements, open-end contracts or similar types of add-on retail sales agreements shall be first applied to the purchases earliest in time. The payments shall be credited first to the current interest or carrying charges and then in reduction of the purchase price of merchandise in the order in which it was purchased.

B. When, subsequent to the date of purchase, payments have been made and credited in an amount to pay the sales price and carrying charges of any merchandise, then that article of merchandise shall be considered paid for in full, provided that all balances incurred prior to that purchase have been paid.

C. The articles of merchandise which have been paid for under this section shall not thereafter be repossessed or considered security for the payment of any charges arising out of subsequent purchases under the same account.

History: 1953 Comp., § 50-16-14, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 179, § 1.

56-1-16. Variable rates.

A retail installment contract for the purchase of a mobile home may provide that the rate of time price differential may be adjusted at stated intervals, in which case the retail installment contract shall be subject to the following provisions:

A. adjustments in the rate charged shall be based on changes in a specific index, as set forth in the retail installment contract, with the index base being fixed by the index value in effect on the first day of the month in which the retail installment contract is dated. The index may be only an index approved by the federal home loan bank board or by the office of the comptroller of the currency of the department of the treasury for adjustable or variable interest rates on residential mortgage loans;

B. subject to the limitations prescribed by this section, the adjustments to the rate of time price differential on each rate adjustment date, either up or down, shall be equal to the difference between the index value in effect on the first day of the second calendar month preceding the month in which the rate adjustment falls and the index value in effect on the first day of the month in which the retail installment contract is executed; or, for adjustments after the initial adjustment, the adjustment shall be equal to the difference between the index value in effect on the first day of the second calendar month preceding the adjustment date and the index value in effect on the first day of the second calendar month preceding the date of the immediately preceding rate adjustment;

C. for any six-month period, no rate adjustment may result in a rate of time price differential which is more than one percentage point greater or less than the rate of time price differential in effect in the preceding six-month period. At no point in time shall the rate of time price differential after adjustment be more than ten percentage points more or less than the rate of time price differential in effect when the retail installment contract was dated;

D. any increase in the rate permitted by this section may be waived at the option of the seller. Any decrease in the rate warranted by decreases in the index is mandatory, subject to the limitations prescribed by this section and by the provisions of Subsection E of this section. History: Laws 2010, ch. 54, § 3.

56-3A-4. Notice of rights.

At any time that a consumer reporting agency is required to provide the consumer with a summary of rights pursuant to Section 609 of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, the following notice shall be included:

"New Mexico Consumers Have the Right to Obtain a Security Freeze or Submit a Declaration of Removal

You may obtain a security freeze on your credit report to protect your privacy and ensure that credit is not granted in your name without your knowledge. You may submit a declaration of removal to remove information placed in your credit report as a result of being a victim of identity theft. You have a right to place a security freeze on your credit report or submit a declaration of removal pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act.

The security freeze will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing any information in your credit report without your express authorization or approval.

The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans and services from being approved in your name without your consent. When you place a security freeze on your credit report, you will be provided with a personal identification number, password or similar device to use if you choose to remove the freeze on your credit report or to temporarily authorize the release of your credit report to a specific party or parties or for a specific period of time after the freeze is in place. To remove the freeze or to provide authorization for the temporary release of your credit report, you must contact the consumer reporting agency and provide all of the following:

- (1) the unique personal identification number, password or similar device provided by the consumer reporting agency;
- (2) proper identification to verify your identity;
- (3) information regarding the third party or parties who are to receive the credit report or the period of time for which the credit report may be released to users of the credit report; and
- (4) payment of a fee, if applicable.

A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to lift temporarily a freeze on a credit report shall comply with the request no later than three business days after receiving the request. As of September 1, 2008, a consumer reporting agency shall comply with the request within fifteen minutes of receiving the request by a secure electronic method or by telephone.

A security freeze does not apply in all circumstances, such as where you have an existing account relationship and a copy of your credit report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control or similar activities; for use in setting or adjusting an insurance rate or claim or insurance underwriting; for certain governmental purposes; and for purposes of prescreening as defined in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act.

If you are actively seeking a new credit, loan, utility, telephone or insurance account, you should understand that the procedures involved in lifting a security freeze may slow your own applications for credit. You should plan ahead and lift a freeze, either completely if you are shopping around or specifically for a certain creditor, with enough advance notice before you apply for new credit for the lifting to take effect. You should contact a consumer reporting agency and request it to lift the freeze at least three business days before applying. As of September 1, 2008, if you contact a consumer reporting agency by a secure electronic method or by telephone, the consumer reporting agency should lift the freeze within fifteen minutes. You have a right to bring a civil action against a consumer reporting agency that violates your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act."

History: Laws 2007, ch. 106, § 4; 2010, ch. 54, § 5.

- A. injunctive relief to prevent further violation of the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act;

B. any actual damages sustained by the consumer as a result of a violation of the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act;

D. costs of the action and reasonable attorney fees.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 106, § 5; 2010, ch. 54, § 6.

56-3A-6. Severability.

If any part or application of the Fair Credit Reporting and Identity Security Act is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other persons or situations shall not be affected.

56-8-9. Excessive charges prohibited; applicability of maximum rates; definition.

A. Unless otherwise provided by law, no person, corporation or association, directly or indirectly, shall take, reserve, receive or charge any interest, discount or other advantage for the loan of money or credit or the forbearance or postponement of the right to receive money or credit except at the rates permitted in Sections 56-8-1 through 56-8-21 NMSA 1978.

B. No provision of law prescribing maximum rates of interest that may be charged in any transaction shall apply to a transaction in which a corporation, limited liability corporation or other business entity is a debtor, regardless of the purpose for which the corporation was formed and regardless of the fact that an individual is codebtor, endorser, guarantor, surety or accommodation party. No corporation or its codebtor, endorser, guarantor, surety or accommodation party shall have a cause of action or affirmatively plead, counterclaim, set off or set up the defense of usury in any action to recover damages or enforce a remedy on any obligation executed by the corporation, and no civil or criminal penalty that would otherwise be applicable except as provided in Sections 30-43-1 through 30-43-5 NMSA 1978 shall apply on any obligation executed by the corporation.

C. D. In addition to the maximum interest or discount that a lender is permitted to charge by law, the lender may charge, take, reserve or receive a premium or points in an amount up to but not exceeding three percent of the face amount of the loan on interim construction loans. The lender may charge and require the borrower to pay the premium upon execution of the loan agreement, whether the proceeds are delivered to the borrower immediately or whether there are to be obligatory or permissive future advances. The lender shall not be required to refund this charge in the event of prepayment of the obligation. For the purposes of this section, "interim construction loan" means a loan secured by a first mortgage and used by the borrower primarily for financing the construction of buildings, structures or improvements on or to the real property on which the first mortgage has been taken.

E. A lender may charge, take, reserve or receive points or a premium on any loan secured by real property; provided the points or premium together with the interest or discount charged, taken, reserved or received do not exceed the maximum interest or discount permitted by law. The lender shall not be required to refund this charge in the event of prepayment even if the prepayment would result in a higher charge to the borrower than permitted by law.

F. A loan in an amount equal to five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less shall be made only pursuant to the New Mexico Bank Installment Loan Act of 1959 [58-7-1 to 58-7-3, 58-7-5 to 58-7-9 NMSA 1978] or the New Mexico Small Loan Act of 1955 [Chapter 58, Article 15 NMSA 1978].

A buyer in the ordinary course of business buying farm products covered by an effective financing statement takes free of any security interest on such products if such buyer secures a waiver or release of the security interest specified in such effective financing statement from the secured party. If a buyer in the ordinary course of business buying farm products covered by the central filing system tenders to the seller the total purchase price by means of a check or other instrument payable to such seller and each security interest holder of the seller identified in the central filing system for such products and if such security interest holder authorizes the negotiation of such check or other instrument, such authorization or endorsement and payment thereof shall ### 56-15-3. Manner of giving notification.

A. Except as otherwise provided in Subsections C and D of this section, a person gives a notification or a copy of a notification pursuant to the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act:

(1) by depositing it with the United States postal service or with a commercially reasonable delivery service, properly addressed to the intended recipient's address as specified in Subsection B of this section, with first-class postage or cost of delivery provided; or

(2) if the recipient agreed to receive notification by facsimile transmission, electronic mail or other electronic transmission, by sending it to the recipient in the agreed manner at the address specified in the agreement.

B. The following rules determine the proper address for giving a notification pursuant to Subsection A of this section:

(1) a person giving a notification to an assignee shall use the address for notices to the assignee provided in the document creating the assignment of rents, but, if the assignee has provided the person giving the notification with a more recent address for notices, the person giving the notification shall use that address;

(2) a person giving a notification to an assignor shall use the address for notices to the assignor provided in the document creating the assignment of rents, but, if the assignor has provided the person giving the notification with a more recent address for notices, the person giving the notification shall use that address; and

(3) if a tenant's agreement with an assignor provides an address for notices to the tenant and the person giving notification has received a copy of the agreement or knows the address for notices specified in the agreement, the person giving the notification shall use that address in giving a notification to the tenant. Otherwise, the person shall use the address of the premises covered by the agreement.

C. If a person giving a notification pursuant to the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act and the recipient have agreed to the method for giving a notification, any notification shall be given by that method.

D. If a notification is received by the recipient, it is effective even if it was not given in accordance with Subsection A or C of this section.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 3.

56-15-4. Security instrument creates assignment of rents; assignment of rents creates security interest.

A. An enforceable security instrument creates an assignment of rents arising from the real property described in the security instrument, unless the security instrument provides otherwise.

B. An assignment of rents creates a presently effective security interest in all accrued and unaccrued rents arising from the real property described in the document creating the assignment, regardless of whether the document is in the form of an absolute assignment, an absolute assignment conditioned upon default, an assignment as additional security or any other form. The security interest in rents is separate and distinct from any security interest held by the assignee in the real property.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 4.

56-15-5. Recordation; perfection of security interest in rents; priority of conflicting interests in rents.

A. A document creating an assignment of rents may be submitted for recording in the office of the county clerk in the same manner as any other document evidencing a conveyance of an interest in real property.

B. Upon recording, the security interest in rents created by an assignment of rents is fully perfected, even if a provision of the document creating the assignment or law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act would preclude or defer enforcement of the security interest until the occurrence of a subsequent event, including a subsequent default of the assignor, the assignee's obtaining possession of the real property or the appointment of a receiver.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Subsection D of this section, a perfected security interest in rents takes priority over the rights of a person that, after the security interest is perfected:

(1) acquires a judicial lien against the rents or the real property from which the rents arise; or

(2) purchases an interest in the rents or the real property from which the rents arise.

D. A perfected security interest in rents has priority over the rights of a person described in Subsection C of this section with respect to future advances to the same extent as the assignee's security interest in the real property has priority over the rights of that person with respect to future advances.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 5.

56-15-6. Enforcement of security interest in rents.

A. An assignee may enforce an assignment of rents using one or more of the methods specified in Sections 7, 8 and 9 [56-15-7, 56-15-8 and 56-15-9 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act or any other method sufficient to enforce the assignment pursuant to any law of New Mexico other than that act.

B. From the date of enforcement, the assignee or, in the case of enforcement by appointment of a receiver pursuant to Section 7 of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, the receiver is entitled to collect all rents that:

(1) have accrued but remain unpaid on that date; and

(2) accrue on or after that date, as those rents accrue.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 6.

56-15-7. Enforcement by appointment of receiver.

A. An assignee is entitled to the appointment of a receiver for the real property subject to the assignment of rents if:

(1) the assignor is in default and:

(a) the assignor has agreed in a signed document to the appointment of a receiver in the event of the assignor's default;

(b) it appears likely that the real property may not be sufficient to satisfy the secured obligation;

(c) the assignor has failed to turn over to the assignee proceeds that the assignee was entitled to collect; or

(d) a subordinate assignee of rents obtains the appointment of a receiver for the real property; or

(2) other circumstances exist that would justify the appointment of a receiver pursuant to the Receivership Act [44-8-1 to 44-8-10 NMSA 1978] or any other law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

B. An assignee may file a petition for the appointment of a receiver in connection with an action:

(1) to foreclose the security instrument;

(2) for specific performance of the assignment;

(3) seeking a remedy on account of waste or threatened waste of the real property subject to the assignment; or

(4) otherwise to enforce the secured obligation or the assignee's remedies arising from the assignment.

C. An assignee that files a petition pursuant to Subsection B of this section shall also give a copy of the petition in the manner specified in Section 3 [56-15-3 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act to any other person that, ten days before the date the petition is filed, held a recorded assignment of rents arising from the real property.

D. If an assignee enforces an assignment of rents pursuant to this section, the date of enforcement is the date on which the court enters an order appointing a receiver for the real property subject to the assignment.

E. From the date of its appointment, a receiver is entitled to collect rents as provided in Subsection B of Section 6 [56-15-6 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act. The receiver also has the authority provided in the order of appointment, the Receivership Act and any other law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

F. The following rules govern priority among receivers:

(1) if more than one assignee qualifies pursuant to this section for the appointment of a receiver, a receivership requested by an assignee entitled to priority in rents pursuant to the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act has priority over a receivership requested by a subordinate assignee, even if a court has previously appointed a receiver for the subordinate assignee; and

(2) if a subordinate assignee obtains the appointment of a receiver, the receiver may collect the rents and apply the proceeds in the manner specified in the order appointing the receiver until a receiver is appointed pursuant to a senior assignment of rents.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 7.

56-15-8. Enforcement by notification to assignor.

A. Upon the assignor's default, or as otherwise agreed by the assignor, the assignee may give the assignor a notification demanding that the assignor pay over the proceeds of any rents that the assignee is entitled to collect pursuant to Section 6 [56-15-6 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act. The assignee shall also give a copy of the notification to any other person that, ten days before the notification date, held a recorded assignment of rents arising from the real property.

B. If an assignee enforces an assignment of rents pursuant to this section, the date of enforcement is the date on which the assignor receives a notification pursuant to Subsection A of this section.

C. An assignee's failure to give a notification pursuant to Subsection A of this section to any person holding a recorded assignment of rents does not affect the effectiveness of the notification as to the assignor, but the other person is entitled to any relief permitted pursuant to any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

D. An assignee that holds a security interest in rents solely by virtue of Subsection A of Section 4 [56-15-4 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act shall not enforce the security interest pursuant to this section while the assignor occupies the real property as the assignor's primary residence.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 8.

56-15-9. Enforcement by notification to tenant.

A. Upon the assignor's default, or as otherwise agreed by the assignor, the assignee may give to a tenant of the real property a notification demanding that the tenant pay to the assignee all unpaid accrued rents and all unaccrued rents as they accrue. The assignee shall give a copy of the notification to the assignor and to any other person that, ten days before the notification date, held a recorded assignment of rents arising from the real property. The notification shall be signed by the assignee and shall:

- (1) identify the tenant, assignor, assignee, premises covered by the agreement between the tenant and the assignor and assignment of rents being enforced;
- (2) provide the recording data for the document creating the assignment or other reasonable proof that the assignment was made;
- (3) state that the assignee has the right to collect rents in accordance with the assignment;
- (4) direct the tenant to pay to the assignee all unpaid accrued rents and all unaccrued rents as they accrue;
- (5) describe the manner in which Subsections C and D of this section affect the tenant's payment obligations;
- (6) provide the name and telephone number of a contact person and an address to which the tenant can direct payment of rents and any inquiry for additional information about the assignment or the assignee's right to enforce the assignment; and
- (7) contain a statement that the tenant may consult a lawyer if the tenant has questions about its rights and obligations.

B. If an assignee enforces an assignment of rents pursuant to this section, the date of enforcement is the date on which the tenant receives a notification substantially complying with Subsection A of this section.

C. Subject to Subsection D of this section and any other claim or defense that a tenant has pursuant to any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, following receipt of a notification substantially complying with Subsection A of this section:

(1) a tenant is obligated to pay to the assignee all unpaid accrued rents and all unaccrued rents as they accrue, unless the tenant has previously received a notification from another assignee of rents given by that assignee in accordance with this section and the other assignee has not canceled that notification;

(2) unless the tenant occupies the premises as the tenant's primary residence, a tenant that pays rents to the assignor is not discharged from the obligation to pay rents to the assignee;

(3) a tenant's payment to the assignee of rents then due satisfies the tenant's obligation pursuant to the tenant's agreement with the assignor to the extent of the payment made; and

(4) a tenant's obligation to pay rents to the assignee continues until the tenant receives a court order directing the tenant to pay the rent in a different manner or a signed document from the assignee canceling its notification, whichever occurs first.

D. A tenant that has received a notification pursuant to Subsection A of this section is not in default for nonpayment of rents accruing within thirty days after the date the notification is received before the earlier of:

(1) ten days after the date the next regularly scheduled rental payment would be due; or

(2) thirty days after the date the tenant receives the notification.

E. Upon receiving a notification from another creditor that is entitled to priority pursuant to Subsection C of Section 5 [56-15-5 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act that the other creditor has enforced and is continuing to enforce its interest in rents, an assignee that has given a notification to a tenant pursuant to Subsection A of this section shall immediately give another notification to the tenant canceling the earlier notification.

F. An assignee's failure to give a notification pursuant to Subsection A of this section to any person holding a recorded assignment of rents does not affect the effectiveness of the notification as to the assignor and those tenants receiving the notification. However, the person entitled to the notification is entitled to any relief permitted by any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

G. An assignee that holds a security interest in rents solely by virtue of Subsection A of Section 4 [56-15-4 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act shall not enforce the security interest pursuant to this section while the assignor occupies the real property as the assignor's primary residence.

History: Laws 2011, ch.141, § 9.

56-15-10. Notification to tenant; form.

No particular phrasing is required for the notification specified in Section 9 [56-15-9 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act. However, the following form of notification, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of that section:

"NOTIFICATION TO PAY RENTS TO PERSON OTHER THAN LANDLORD

Tenant:

[Name of Tenant]

Property Occupied by Tenant (the "Premises"):

[Address]

Landlord:

[Name of Landlord]

Assignee:

[Name of Assignee]

Address and Telephone Number of Assignee:

[Address of Assignee]

1. The Assignee named above has become the person entitled to collect your rents on the Premises listed above pursuant to

_____ [name of document] (the "Assignment of Rents") dated _____, and recorded at _____ [recording data] in the office of the county clerk of the following county or counties:

_____. You may obtain additional information about the Assignment of Rents and the Assignee's right to enforce it at the address listed above.

2. The Landlord is in default pursuant to the Assignment of Rents. Pursuant to the Assignment of Rents, the Assignee is entitled to collect rents from the Premises.

3. This notification affects your rights and obligations pursuant to the agreement pursuant to which you occupy the Premises (your "Agreement"). In order to provide you with an opportunity to consult with a lawyer, if your next scheduled rental payment is due within thirty days after you receive this notification, neither the Assignee nor the Landlord can hold you in default pursuant to your Agreement for nonpayment of that rental payment until ten days after the due date of that payment or thirty days following the date you receive this notification, whichever occurs first. You may consult a lawyer at your expense concerning your rights and obligations pursuant to your Agreement and the effect of this notification.

4. You shall pay to the Assignee at the address listed above all rents pursuant to your Agreement that are due and payable on the date you receive this notification and all rents accruing pursuant to your Agreement after you receive this notification. If you pay rents to the Assignee after receiving this notification, the payment will satisfy your rental obligation to the extent of that payment.

5. Unless you occupy the Premises as your primary residence, if you pay any rents to the Landlord after receiving this notification, your payment to the Landlord will not discharge your rental obligation, and the Assignee may hold you liable for that rental obligation notwithstanding your payment to the Landlord.

6. If you have previously received a notification from another person that also holds an assignment of the rents due pursuant to your Agreement, you should continue paying your rents to the person that sent that notification until that person cancels that notification. Once that notification is canceled, you shall begin paying rents to the Assignee in accordance with this notification.

7. Your obligation to pay rents to the Assignee will continue until you receive either:

(a) a written order from a court directing you to pay the rent in a manner specified in that order; or

(b) written instructions from the Assignee canceling this notification.

[Name of Assignee]

By:

[Officer/Authorized Agent of Assignee]"

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 10.

56-15-11. Effect of enforcement.

The enforcement of an assignment of rents by one or more of the methods identified in Sections 7, 8 and 9 [56-15-7, 56-15-8 and 56-15-9 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, the application of proceeds by the assignee pursuant to Section 12 [56-15-12 NMSA 1978] of that act after enforcement, the payment of expenses pursuant to Section 13 [56-15-13 NMSA 1978] of that act or an action pursuant to Subsection D of Section 14 [56-15-14 NMSA 1978] of that act does not:

- A. make the assignee a mortgagee in possession of the real property;
- B. make the assignee an agent of the assignor;
- C. constitute an election of remedies that precludes a later action to enforce the secured obligation;
- D. make the secured obligation unenforceable; or
- E. limit any right available to the assignee with respect to the secured obligation.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 11.

56-15-12. Application of proceeds.

Unless otherwise agreed, an assignee that collects rents pursuant to the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act or collects upon a judgment in an action pursuant to Subsection D of Section 14 [56-15-14 NMSA 1978] of that act shall apply the sums collected in the following order to:

- A. the assignee's reasonable expenses of enforcing its assignment of rents, including, to the extent provided for by agreement and not prohibited by any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the assignee;
- B. reimbursement of any expenses incurred by the assignee to protect or maintain the real property subject to the assignment;
- C. payment of the secured obligation;
- D. payment of any obligation secured by a subordinate security interest or other lien on the rents if, before distribution of the proceeds, the assignor and assignee receive a notification from the holder of the interest or lien demanding payment of the proceeds; and
- E. the assignor.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 12.

56-15-13. Application of proceeds to expenses of protecting real property; claims and defenses of tenant.

A. Unless otherwise agreed by the assignee, and subject to Subsection C of this section, an assignee that collects rents following enforcement pursuant to Section 8 or 9 [56-15-8, 56-15-9 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act need not apply them to the payment of expenses of protecting or maintaining the real property subject to the assignment.

B. Unless a tenant has made an enforceable agreement not to assert claims or defenses, the right of the assignee to collect rents from the tenant is subject to the terms of the agreement between the assignor and tenant and any claim or defense arising from the assignor's nonperformance of that agreement.

C. The Uniform Assignment of Rents Act does not limit the standing or right of a tenant to request a court to appoint a receiver for the real property subject to the assignment or to seek other relief on the grounds that the assignee's nonpayment of expenses of protecting or maintaining the real property has caused or threatened harm to the tenant's interest in the property. Whether the tenant is entitled to the appointment of a receiver or other relief is governed by any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 13.

56-15-14. Turnover of rents; commingling and identifiability of rents; liability of assignor.

A. As used in this section, "good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

B. If an assignor collects rents that the assignee is entitled to collect pursuant to the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act:

(1) the assignor shall turn over the proceeds to the assignee, less any amount representing payment of expenses authorized by the assignee; and

(2) the assignee continues to have a security interest in the proceeds so long as they are identifiable.

C. For purposes of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, cash proceeds are identifiable if they are maintained in a segregated account or, if commingled with other funds, to the extent the assignee can identify them by a method of tracing, including application of equitable principles, that is permitted pursuant to any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act with respect to commingled funds.

D. In addition to any other remedy available to the assignee pursuant to any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, if an assignor fails to turn over proceeds to the assignee as required by Subsection B of this section, the assignee may recover from the assignor in a civil action:

(1) the proceeds, or an amount equal to the proceeds, that the assignor was obligated to turn over pursuant to Subsection B of this section; and

(2) reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the assignee to the extent provided for by agreement and not prohibited by any law of New Mexico other than the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

E. The assignee may maintain an action pursuant to Subsection D of this section without bringing an action to foreclose any security interest that it may have in the real property. Any sums recovered in the action shall be applied in the manner specified in Section 12 [56-15-12 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act.

F. Unless otherwise agreed, if an assignee entitled to priority pursuant to Subsection C of Section 5 [56-15-5 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act enforces its interest in rents after another creditor holding a subordinate security interest in rents has enforced its interest pursuant to Section 8 or 9 [56-15-8, 56-15-9 NMSA 1978] of that act, the creditor holding the subordinate security interest in rents is not obligated to turn over any proceeds that it collects in good faith before the creditor receives notification that the senior assignee has enforced its interest in rents. The creditor shall turn over to the senior assignee any proceeds that it collects after it receives the notification.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 14.

56-15-15. Perfection and priority of assignee's security interest in proceeds.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "Article 9" means Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 or, to the extent applicable to any particular issue, Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code as adopted by the state whose laws govern that issue pursuant to the choice-of-laws rules contained in Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978; and

(2) "conflicting interest" means an interest in proceeds, held by a person other than an assignee, that is:

(a) a security interest arising pursuant to Article 9; or

(b) any other interest if Article 9 resolves the priority conflict between that person and a secured party with a conflicting security interest in the proceeds.

B. An assignee's security interest in identifiable cash proceeds is perfected if its security interest in rents is perfected. An assignee's security interest in identifiable noncash proceeds is perfected only if the assignee perfects that interest in accordance with Article 9.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Subsection D of this section, priority between an assignee's security interest in identifiable proceeds and a conflicting interest is governed by the priority rules in Article 9.

D. An assignee's perfected security interest in identifiable cash proceeds is subordinate to a conflicting interest that is perfected by control pursuant to Article 9 but has priority over a conflicting interest that is perfected other than by control.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 15.

56-15-16. Priority subject to subordination.

The Uniform Assignment of Rents Act does not preclude subordination by agreement as to rents or proceeds.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 16.

56-15-17. Uniformity of application and construction.

In applying and construing the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 17.

56-15-18. Relation to Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

The Uniform Assignment of Rents Act modifies, limits and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act but does not modify, limit or supersede Section 101(c) of that act or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 18.

56-15-19. Application to existing relationships.

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act governs the enforcement of an assignment of rents and the perfection and priority of a security interest in rents, even if the document creating the assignment was signed and delivered before the effective date of that act.

B. The Uniform Assignment of Rents Act does not affect an action or proceeding commenced before the effective date of that act.

C. Subsection A of Section 4 [56-15-4 NMSA 1978] of the Uniform Assignment of Rents Act does not apply to any security instrument signed and delivered before the effective date of that act.

D. The Uniform Assignment of Rents Act does not affect:

(1) the enforceability of an assignee's security interest in rents or proceeds if, immediately before the effective date of that act, that security interest was enforceable;

(2) the perfection of an assignee's security interest in rents or proceeds if, immediately before the effective date of that act, that security interest was perfected; or

(3) the priority of an assignee's security interest in rents or proceeds with respect to the interest of another person if, immediately before the effective date of that act, the interest of the other person was enforceable and perfected, and that priority was established.

History: Laws 2011, ch. 141, § 19.
