Public Officers and Employees

ARTICLE 1

Qualifications

10-1-1. [Ineligibility for recess appointment after rejection by senate.]

No person, whose nomination or appointment to any office in the state shall have been rejected by the senate, shall be eligible to hold office under recess appointment.

History: Laws 1915, ch. 61, § 1; C.S. 1929, § 96-138; 1941 Comp., § 10-101; 1953 Comp., § 5-1-1.

10-1-2. [Person convicted of crime; ineligibility for office; exception.]

That no person convicted of a felonious or infamous crime, unless such person has been pardoned or restored to political rights, shall be qualified to be elected or appointed to any public office in this state.

History: Laws 1912, ch. 44, § 1; Code 1915, § 3951; C.S. 1929, § 96-102; 1941 Comp., § 10-102; 1953 Comp., § 5-1-2.

Felony convictions occurring during term of office. — A felony conviction that occurs during the term of an elective office disqualifies the elected official from continuing to hold that office effective upon entry of a judgment of conviction. State ex rel. King v. Sloan, 2011-NMSC-020, 149 N.M. 620, 253 P.3d 33.

Restoration of citizenship rights. — A convicted felon who was elected to the position of county commissioner became eligible to hold that office when, prior to taking the oath of office, she applied for and received a certificate of restoration of full rights of citizenship from the governor. Lopez v. Kase, 1999-NMSC-011, 126 N.M. 733, 975 P.2d 346.

Effect of appeal pending. — Person who committed felony by assaulting a federal officer was ineligible to run for governor where although a jury rendered a guilty verdict, the person was appealing the judgment. A judgment on a verdict of a guilty is a conviction, and the fact that an appeal is pending does not alter that interpretation. 1968 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 68-98.

10-1-6. [Affidavits of residence; prima facie value as evidence.]

Any person whose duty it is to engage or hire employees mentioned in Section 1 of this act may require any person applying for such employment to file an affidavit with such person, stating his name and residence and that he has been a bona fide resident of the state of New Mexico for a period of one year next previous to the date of application for such employment. In all prosecutions against any persons for violation of the provisions of this act [10-1-6 to 10-1-9 NMSA 1978], such affidavits shall be received in evidence as prima facie proof of the truth of the statements therein contained.

Every written contract entered into by the state of New Mexico and all political subdivisions thereof, including all of the departments, bureaus, boards, commissions or institutions of said state and all of its political subdivisions, involving the employment of persons mentioned in Section 1 of this act shall contain such provisions relating to employment as comply with the provisions of this act.

10-1-10. [Nepotism prohibited; exceptions.]

It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person elected or appointed to any public office or position under the laws of this state or by virtue of any ordinance of any municipality thereof, to employ as clerk, deputy or assistant, in such office or position, whose compensation is to be paid out of public funds, any persons related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree to the person giving such employment, unless such employment shall first be approved by the officer, board, council or commission, whose duty it is to approve the bond of the person giving such employment; provided, that this act [10-1-10, 10-1-11 NMSA 1978] shall not apply where the compensation of such clerk, deputy or assistant shall be at the rate of $600 or less a year, nor shall it apply to persons employed as teachers in the public schools.

History: Laws 1925, ch. 50, § 1; C.S. 1929, § 96-136; 1941 Comp., § 10-110; 1953 Comp., § 5-1-10.

ANNOTATIONS

Election of teacher's relative to school board. — The rule that statutes in pari materia should, as far as reasonably possible, be construed consistently supports, by reference to this section and Section 29-2-6 NMSA 1978, the conclusion that Section 22-5-6 NMSA 1978 was intended only to apply to the initial hiring of teachers and does not affect the retention of teachers when a relative within the prohibited degree of consanguinity is elected to the school board. N.M. State Bd. of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 1981-NMSC-031, 95 N.M. 588, 624 P.2d 530.

Deputy county assessor. — When salary exceeds $600 per year, appointment of a deputy county assessor without approval of the board of county commissioners is void. State ex rel. Sanchez v. Stapleton, 1944-NMSC-056, 48 N.M. 463, 152 P.2d 877.

Constitutionality. — This law is not unconstitutional by reason of the fact that the title merely states "An act relating to nepotism." 1938 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 38-2030.

Legislative intent. — The legislature intended by this section to apply the civil law rule for determining the degree of relationship and under this method of computation a cousin is not within the third degree, so that a public officer may employ his cousin as a deputy or assistant. 1947 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 47-5040.

Statute normally construed strictly. — Anti-nepotism statutes, being penal in nature, are normally strictly construed. However, no statute may be construed so as to defeat the obvious intent of the legislature. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Section inapplicable where person hired before relative's election. — This section would not apply to a person employed prior to his relative's election to the hiring authority. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Brothers are related within the second degree of consanguinity. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Employment where members of family on school district board. — This section does not prohibit employment of a person in a nonteaching, supervisory capacity, although members of his immediate family serve on the board of the school district. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-201.

When teacher's spouse on school board. — There is no prohibition against the spouse of a schoolteacher being a member of the school board, but in order to prevent any possible conflict of interest, such school board member should not vote on any issue which affects his or her spouse individually as opposed to affecting all the teachers in the system as a group. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-71.

When husband and wife hired. — The New Mexico state racing commission may hire a husband and wife to carry on the duties of the racing commission so long as no such employee is related to the commissioner within the degree of consanguinity prohibited by this section. 1951 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 51-5424.

County commissioner's daughter in county department. — The laws on nepotism do not prohibit the employment of a daughter of county commissioner as a stenographer in the county health department of the county where the commissioner serves. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-224.

Sheriff's relative as deputy sheriff. — This statute would come into play should a sheriff employ as his guard the regularly employed deputy sheriff since a deputy sheriff would fall within the statutory definition of "deputy or assistant." If such a deputy were related to the sheriff within the prohibited degree it would be a violation of the law. A person temporarily employed as a guard might still be considered an assistant as defined by the statute. However, in the event of temporary employment, it is almost certain that the compensation paid to each assistant would be less than $600 a year, in which case, the prohibition would not apply. Compensation as used here is synonymous with salary and does not include traveling or other incidental expenses usually called per diem. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-09.

Section is not applicable to hiring of state police personnel, but Section 29-2-6 NMSA 1978, pertaining specifically to the state police, is instead controlling. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-114.

Prohibited appointments may be approved. — Appointments within the prohibited degree may yet be made if such appointments are approved by a board or officer whose duty it is to approve the bond of the person making the appointment. 1949 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 49-5247.

Approval of district judge's employee. — As district judges are not bonded, there is no entity from which approval of otherwise prohibited employment by the district judge may be obtained. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-25.

Employment by district judge of his step-daughter, as his secretary, is unlawful. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-25.

Municipality's council member is "elected public official". — A member of the governing body of a municipality is an "elected public officer" for purposes of the statutory prohibition against nepotism. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Brother of council member employable where council member abstains from voting. — The brother of a member of the governing body of a mayor-council municipality may be employed as an assistant municipal clerk if the council member abstains from voting to approve his brother's employment. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Assistant clerk of a municipality serves as "clerk" to the governing body for purposes of the statutory prohibition against nepotism. 1982 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 82-08.

Court reporter not clerk, deputy, etc. — An official court reporter is not a clerk, deputy or assistant as those terms are used in this section. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-35.

Janitor is not clerk, etc. — Since a janitor would be neither clerk, deputy or assistant to the employing authority, employment of the wife of one of the school board members by the board would not be prohibited by this section. 1952 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 52-5484.

Levelman is not clerk, etc. — This position of a "levelman" in the highway department is not such as would be included within the terminology of "clerk, deputy, or assistant" so as to be within that class of employment from which an officer is prohibited from naming any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree. 1951 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 51-5448.

10-1-11. [Payment of nepotic employees; liability of employer and bondsmen; employment void.]

No person so unlawfully employed shall be paid or receive any compensation from public funds, and such employment shall be null and void, and the person or persons giving such employment, together with his or their bondsmen, shall be liable for any and all monies so unlawfully paid out.

History: Laws 1925, ch. 50, § 2; C.S. 1929, § 96-137; 1941 Comp., § 10-111; 1953 Comp., § 5-1-11.

10-1-12. [Employment of persons advocating sabotage, sedition or treason prohibited; discharge of such persons already employed.]

No person shall be knowingly employed by any state department, office, board, commission or bureau, county, municipality or other political subdivision, board of education or school board, who either directly or indirectly carries on, advocates, teaches, justifies, aids or abets a program of sabotage, force and violence, sedition or treason against the government of the United States or of this state.

When it becomes reasonably apparent to his appointing power that any employee has committed any of the acts hereinabove described it shall be the duty [duty] of such employer to refer the data and information available to him to the district attorney of the judicial district wherein such employee resides, and it shall thereupon become the mandatory duty of the district attorney to institute a proceeding in the district court to determine whether the employee has violated this act [section]. If such court determines that this act has been violated, such employee shall be immediately discharged and shall not be again employed in any capacity by any state department, office, board, commission, or bureau, county, municipality, or other political subdivision, board of education, or school board.

No part of any money appropriated from the state treasury shall ever be expended to compensate any person whose employment is forbidden by this section.

10-1-13. County officers; oath; bond.

A. As used in this section, "county officer" means county commissioner, county assessor, county clerk, county sheriff, county treasurer, probate judge, county flood commissioner and small claims court clerk.

B. Before assuming the duties of office, each county officer shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of New Mexico and give an official bond payable to the state and conditioned for the faithful performance of duties, during the county officer's term of office and until a successor is elected or appointed and is qualified, and that the county officer shall pay all money received in the county officer's official capacity to the person entitled to receive it. The bond shall be executed by a corporate surety company authorized to do business in this state. The amount of the bond required shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners in a sum equal to twenty percent of the public money handled by the county officer during the preceding fiscal year but not to exceed:

county commissioner	$ 5,000
county assessor	5,000
county clerk	10,000
county sheriff	20,000
county treasurer	50,000
probate judge	5,000
county flood commissioner	10,000
small claims court clerk	10,000.

C. Each county officer shall appoint a deputy or clerk, as allowed by law, who shall take the oath of office required of the appointing county officer and shall receive salary as provided by law. In case of the death of the appointing county officer, the deputy shall continue in office and perform the duties of the county officer until a new county officer is appointed and qualified as required by law.

D. The cost of official bonds for county officers shall be paid from the county general fund, and the board of county commissioners may elect to provide a schedule or blanket corporate surety bond covering county officers and employees for any period of time not exceeding four years.

E. If any county officer fails to give bond by January 10 following the county officer's election or within ten days of appointment, the board of county commissioners shall declare the office vacant.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-1-13, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 238, § 1; 2011, ch. 56, § 25.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective December 31, 2012, removed the office of county surveyor from the list of county officers.

The county treasurer has exclusive statutory authority to hire and supervise deputies and other employees of their office. — State law expressly provides elected county officers, including the county treasurer, with exclusive authority to hire and recommend the salaries of a deputy and employees to carry out the duties of their offices, while the county commission is authorized to set the salaries of such employees and deputies as it feels necessary to discharge the functions of the county, and may apply a merit or other personnel policy governing working conditions for county employees to the extent the merit system does not improperly infringe upon the elected official's authority to hire and supervise employees or interfere with the elected official's ability to perform the duties of the office. 2024 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 24-08.

Appointment to fill county office vacancy. — A vacancy in a county office may occur where a successor in an office fails to qualify. The board of county commissioners must appoint a person to fill the vacancy and an incumbent who has already served two consecutive terms is ineligible for that appointment. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-19.

In addition, in this state, an officer must take and file an official oath, hold a commission or other written authority, and give an official bond, if the latter be required by proper authority. 1956 Op. 10-2-12. [Insufficient bond of county or precinct officer; new bond required; failure to provide; procedure; decree of vacancy by district court.]

It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of each county at each regular meeting thereof on the first day of each meeting to examine and inquire into the sufficiency of all the official bonds given or to be given by any county or precinct officer as required by law, and if it shall appear that any one or more of the securities on the official bond of any county officer has or have removed from the county, died, or become insolvent, or of doubtful solvency, the said board of county commissioners shall cause such county or precinct officer to be summoned to appear before the said board on a day to be named in said summons, to show cause why he should not be required to give a new bond with sufficient security, and if at the appointed time he shall fail to satisfy said board as to the sufficiency of the present security, an order shall be entered of record by said board requiring such county or precinct officer, to file in the office of the county clerk within twenty days, a new bond to be approved as required by law, unless the number and pecuniary ability of other securities on said bond shall be such as to satisfy the board that the bond is sufficient, notwithstanding one or more of the securities on said bond may have removed, be dead, insolvent or of doubtful solvency, in which case the bond in question may be, in the discretion of the board, held sufficient. In the event any such bond is found insufficient, and a new bond is not filed as ordered, the fact shall be certified by the board of county commissioners to the district court of the county, and shall also be certified to the district attorney of the judicial district wherein such county is located; and it shall thereupon become the duty of the district attorney to cause a hearing to be had in said district court for the purpose of adjudicating and declaring a vacancy in such office, in the event the district court determines, after a hearing, that the bond is in fact insufficient, and such officer fails within five days after the district court has so found to file a new bond with sufficient surety as required by law. Upon the entry of such decree of vacancy it shall thereupon become the duty of the appointing power to fill such office in the manner provided by law.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — A similar provision relating only to constables, compiled in Comp. Laws 1865, ch. 40, § 2, deriving from the Kearny Code, Constables, § 3, appears to have been superseded by this section. Carried forward in Comp. Laws 1884, § 449; Comp. Laws 1897, § 802; Code 1915, § 3166; and Comp. Stat. 1929, § 79-112, modified by the 1915 compilers and carried in Code 1915 and Comp. Stat. 1929, it read: "Whenever the county commissioners shall be satisfied that the bond of any constable is likely to prove insufficient, by reason of the death or failure of the sureties to his bond, or any of them, they shall require such constable to give a new bond."

Bonding of deputy treasurer. — No statute requires that deputy county treasurers be bonded, and while it is good business for bonding companies which are sureties on county treasurers' bonds, as well as for county treasurers, to require that deputy treasurers be bonded, the county should not pay for the premiums on such deputies' bonds, since the state and county are protected on the treasurers' bonds for any defalcation, even by deputies, under Section 6-10-38 NMSA 1978. 1940 Op. only through the public school group insurance authority or its successor unless the district has been granted a waiver by the authority or the authority is not offering the coverage for the fiscal year for which the division offers its coverage. A local school district to which the division may provide coverage may provide for marketing and servicing to be done by licensed insurance agents who shall receive reasonable compensation for their services.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1978, ch. 132, § 2, repealed 5-2-14, 1953 Comp. (former 10-2-14 NMSA 1978), relating to definitions used in the Surety Bond Act, and enacted a new 10-2-14 NMSA 1978.

Compiler's notes. — Chapter 21, Article 17 NMSA 1978, referenced in Subsection G, was repealed by Laws 1999, ch. 219, effective July 1, 1999.

10-2-15. Surety bond coverage.

A. The department shall provide surety bond coverage for all employees. Whenever an employee is required by another law to post bond or surety as a prerequisite to entering employment or assuming office, the requirement is met when coverage is provided for the office or position under the provisions of the Surety Bond Act [10-2-13 to 10-2-16 NMSA 1978]. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, no state agency or employee shall purchase any employee surety bond other than pursuant to the provisions of the Surety Bond Act.

C. All or any part of the amount of surety bond coverage prescribed by the secretary may be covered by a schedule or blanket corporate surety bond.

D. The department may provide coverage for employees of covered educational entities through insurance, self-insurance or a combination thereof.

Intent to cover all state officers and employees. — This section, by its language, "Notwithstanding any other provision of law," evidences legislative intent that the Surety Bond Act controls surety bond coverage of all state officers and employees. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-42.

- (3) to pay claims of state agencies and covered educational entities covered by a surety bond certificate of coverage issued by the department; and
- (4) to pay any costs and expenses of carrying out the provisions of this section.

C. Claims against the surety bond fund shall be made in accordance with a certificate of coverage issued by the department to each state agency and covered educational entity. If the secretary has reason to believe that the surety bond fund would be exhausted by the payment of all claims allowed against the fund during a particular state fiscal year, the amounts paid for each claim shall be prorated with each state agency and covered educational entity receiving an amount equal to the percentage that its claims bear to the total of claims outstanding and payable from the fund. Any amounts due and unpaid as a result of such proration shall be paid in the following fiscal years.

D. The department shall collect or transfer funds from each state agency and covered educational entity to cover costs of coverage of employees of the agency as required by this section. Money collected or transferred from a state agency or covered educational entity pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the surety bond fund. Income from the surety bond fund shall be credited to the fund.

F. The department shall have the right to recover from a public employee for any loss under the Surety Bond Act [10-2-13 to 10-2-16 NMSA 1978] for which the public employee was responsible.

G. The risk management advisory board shall review:

The 2019 amendment, effective April 3, 2019, revised the provisions related to the circumstances that may cause a vacancy in a local office; in the introductory clause, after "Any office", deleted "belonging to the class mentioned in Section 10-4-1 NMSA 1978" and added "of a political subdivision of the state subject to election by the qualified electors within the political subdivision", in Subsection A, after "by", added "resignation or"; in Subsection G, after "by", deleted "resignation of the" and added "an", after "officer", added "accepting and undertaking an employment relationship with the political subdivision in which the officer serves in a position subject to election"; and in Subsection H, after "officer", deleted "accepting and" and added "taking the oath of office or".

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, added a section heading, clarified that an officer must live in the area the officer was elected or appointed to represent, and made technical and conforming changes; added the section heading; in the introductory clause, after "Section", deleted "3954" and added "10-4-1 NMSA 1978"; redesignated former Paragraphs [1] through [8] as Subsections A through H, respectively; in Subsection B, after "as provided by", deleted "this chapter" and added "Sections 10-4-1 through 10-4-29 NMSA 1978"; in Subsection E, after "removes from the", deleted "county in" and added "area from", after "the officer was elected", added "to represent", after "in case of", deleted "municipal officers" and added "an officer serving pursuant to an appointment", after "removes from the", deleted "town or city for which he is elected" and added "area the officer was appointed to represent"; and in Subsection F, after "absence from the", deleted "county" and added "political subdivision in which the officer serves", and after "six consecutive months", deleted "and, in cases of municipal officers, absence for such length of time from the village, town or city for which he is elected".

Dual office holding. — The offices of mayor and district attorney of a city are not incompatible and may be held by the same person at the same time, and the fact that the mayor is also district attorney is not ground for ousting him from the mayoralty. State ex rel. Chapman v. Truder, 1930-NMSC-049, 35 N.M. 49, 289 P. 594.

Effect on other section. — This section, creating a vacancy for "failure of the officer to qualify as provided by law" does not repeal by implication the last line of 10-3-3 NMSA 1978 providing that an appointive officer shall hold office until "his successor shall be duly elected and qualified according to law." State ex rel. Rives v. Herring, 1953-NMSC-086, 57 N.M. 600, 261 P.2d 442.

Effect where authority to hold over after expiration of term. — During the period in which a public officer holds over after the expiration of his term, under constitutional or statutory authority entitling him to do so until the election and qualification of a successor, there is no vacancy in office which may be filled by an interim appointment. State ex rel. Rives v. Herring, 1953-NMSC-086, 57 N.M. 600, 261 P.2d 442.

Reelected county clerk's resignation before new term. — Where a reelected county clerk resigned prior to the beginning of her new term, a vacancy in office was thereby created pursuant to this section and the person properly appointed on the same day as the resignation and qualified pursuant to Section 10-3-3 NMSA 1978 was entitled to hold the office until her successor was duly elected and qualified; therefore, there was no vacancy in the office for the new term. State ex rel. Rives v. Herring, 1953-NMSC-086, 57 N.M. 600, 261 P.2d 442.

Effect of death of elected candidate before term begins. — The death of an elected candidate before term of office commences does not seat the minority candidate, but creates a vacancy to be filled as in case of vacancy for any other reason. 1918 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 18-2145.

Meaning of "qualify". — The word "qualify" does not refer to eligibility for the office but rather to the performance of the acts which the chosen person is required to perform before he can enter into office (usually the taking of an oath and the filing of a bond). 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-86.

Residence in legal contemplation. — Residence in legal contemplation may be maintained in a locality despite actual physical absence, the mental intent of the person being an important factor in determining residence. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-20.

Intracounty move of county commissioner. — The removal of a county commissioner from the district from which he was elected to another part of the county does not create a vacancy in the office. 1912 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 12-955.

Resignation of judge of small claims court. — The resignation of the judge of the small claims court caused a vacancy in that office. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-146.

10-3-3. Vacancy in county office; appointment.

Whenever any vacancy in any county office in any of the counties of this state, other than a vacancy in the office of county commissioner, occurs by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, it is the duty of the board of county commissioners of the county where such vacancy has occurred to fill the vacancy by appointment, and the appointee shall be entitled to hold the office until the end of the unexpired term of office.

For tenure of office of state officers, see N.M. Const. art. XX, § 2.

The 2019 amendment, effective April 3, 2019, provided the term of office for an appointee to a vacancy in a county office; added "Vacancy in county office; appointment."; and after "hold the office until", deleted "his successor shall be duly elected and qualified according to law" and added "the end of the unexpired term of office".

Interim appointment. — There is no provision in this statute for an interim appointment. Having made the appointment which filled the vacancy, the jurisdiction of the board was exhausted until another vacancy occurred. It is irrelevant that the plaintiff was designated as "acting county clerk" or that she filed her oath of office and bond as an "acting county clerk"; the appointment is for the full legal term, notwithstanding the appointing body's attempt to give it a different duration. State ex rel. Walker v. Dilley, 1974-NMSC-090, 86 N.M. 796, 528 P.2d 209.

Serial appointments. — Where power has been given to appoint to an office and the same has been exercised, any subsequent appointment to the same office will be void unless the prior incumbent has been removed or the office has otherwise become vacant, and an office is not vacant so long as it is supplied, in the manner provided by the constitution or law, with an incumbent who is legally qualified to exercise the power and perform the duties which pertain to it. *State ex rel. Reelected clerk's resignation prior to beginning of term. — Where a reelected county clerk resigned prior to the beginning of her new term, a vacancy in office was thereby created pursuant to Section 10-3-1 NMSA 1978 and the person properly appointed on the same day as the resignation was entitled to hold the office until her successor was duly elected and qualified; therefore, there was no vacancy in the office for the new term. State ex rel. Rives v. Herring, 1953-NMSC-086, 57 N.M. 600, 261 P.2d 442.

Last line of section not repealed. — Section 10-3-1 NMSA 1978, creating a vacancy for "failure of the officer to qualify as provided by law" does not repeal by implication the last line of this section, providing that an appointive officer shall hold office until "his successor shall be duly elected and qualified according to law." *State ex rel. Probate judge vacancy appointments. — A probate judge, who is appointed to replace a probate judge who died in the first year of a four-year term, must participate in the first primary and general elections after the appointment and if elected, the appointee must run again two years later when the original term expires. 2012 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 12-04.

Incumbent ineligible for reappointment. — A vacancy in a county office may occur where a successor in an office fails to qualify. The board of county commissioners must appoint a person to fill the vacancy and an incumbent who has already served two consecutive terms is ineligible for that appointment. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-19.

Appointment within a reasonable time. — No mention is made of the time in which the appointment must be made, thus, in the absence of any directives, the appointment must be made within a reasonable time. 1970 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 70-50.

Incumbent may hold over. — Where person elected to office of probate judge dies before taking office, and incumbent of the office is appointed by county commissioners a year before that time upon resignation of the probate judge, the incumbent holds over until a successor is appointed by board of county commissioners. 1936 Op. Removal of Local Officers

10-4-1. Local officers subject to removal.

Any officer of a political subdivision of the state elected by the people and any officer appointed to fill out the unexpired term of any such officer may be removed from office on any of the grounds mentioned in and according to the provisions of Sections 10-4-1 through 10-4-29 NMSA 1978.

The 2018 amendment, effective July 1, 2018, added a section heading and added statutory citations; added the section heading; after "Any", deleted "county, precinct, district, city, town or village", after "officer", added "of a political subdivision of the state", after "mentioned in", deleted "this chapter", and after "according to the", deleted "provisions hereof" and added "provisions of Sections 10-4-1 through 10-4-29 NMSA 1978".

Constitutionality. — This act (Sections 10-3-1, 10-4-1 to 10-4-29 NMSA 1978) does not violate N.M. Const., art. XX, § 2. State ex rel. Harvey v. Medler, 1914-NMSC-055, 19 N.M. 252, 142 P. 376.

Purpose of removal is not to determine whether a public officer has been a good person or a bad person in the past but only to determine whether, by reason of existing facts and circumstances, he should be removed from his present office. State v. Santillanes, 1982-NMSC-138, 99 N.M. 89, 654 P.2d 542.

Removal and suspension proceedings separate and distinct. — Proceedings for removal and that for suspension are separate and distinct, and each requires its own citation as a basis for jurisdiction, although the latter is auxiliary to the former. State ex rel. Delgado v. Leahy, 1924-NMSC-077, 30 N.M. 221, 231 P. 197.

Officer not removable for misconduct during prior term. — The terms "office" and "in office" in this section and Section 10-4-2 NMSA 1978 mean during the current term for which the officer is elected or appointed and in which the offenses charged occurred. Therefore, it is not within the province of the court to punish a public officer by allowing his removal for misconduct which may have occurred during a previous term. State v. Santillanes, 1982-NMSC-138, 99 N.M. 89, 654 P.2d 542.

Power to remove board of education member not exclusive. — Notwithstanding N.M. Const., art. XII, § 6, the school board does not have exclusive power to remove a member of the state board of education, but the court also has such power under this section. State ex rel. Hannah v. Armijo, 1933-NMSC-063, 37 N.M. 423, 24 P.2d 274.

District attorney not within purview of section. — This section does not embrace a district attorney within its purview. In 1909, when this section was passed, the district attorney was an officer appointed by the governor of the state by and with the consent of the legislature. The district attorney is not a "county, precinct, district, city, town or village officer elected by the people" under the terms of this section, even though N.M. Const., art. VI, § 24, adopted in 1911, provides for the election of district attorneys. State ex rel. Prince v. Rogers, 1953-NMSC-101, 57 N.M. 686, 262 P.2d 779.

10-4-2. [Causes for removal of local officers.]

The following shall be causes for removal of any officer belonging to the class mentioned in the preceding section [10-4-1 NMSA 1978]:

- A. conviction of any felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;
- B. failure, neglect or refusal to discharge the duties of the office, or failure, neglect or refusal to discharge any duty devolving upon the officer by virtue of his office;
- C. knowingly demanding or receiving illegal fees as such officer;
- D. failure to account for money coming into his hands as such officer;
- E. gross incompetency or gross negligence in discharging the duties of the office;
- F. any other act or acts, which in the opinion of the court or jury amount to corruption in office or gross immorality rendering the incumbent unfit to fill the office.

Generally, as to neglect of duty. — Dismissal of a public officer for neglect of duty cannot be for honest errors in judgment or mistakes in administration. The dismissal must be for failure or neglect to do a positive duty. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-132.

Cupidity or pathological sloth. — The neglect must constitute "cupidity or pathological sloth." The mere failure to perform an act, with nothing more, does not constitute a neglect of duty. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-132.

Failure to attend meetings as neglect of duty. — The consistent, continual failure of an elected school board member to attend board meetings could be construed as a neglect of duty. The board is charged with the overall supervision of the schools of the district over which it has jurisdiction, and members thereof are certainly charged with a positive duty of such interest in the matters before the board to attend at least a part of its meetings. A complete failure on the part of a board member to take part in board affairs is a dereliction of a positive duty constituting neglect of office. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-132.

Failure of justice of peace to account for money. — A justice of the peace (now magistrate) is an officer subject to removal for failure to account for money owing the state. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-84 (rendered under former law).

Meaning of "gross incompetency". — The plain meaning of the term "gross incompetency" is a glaringly noticeable or manifest lack of physical or mental ability. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-24.

Requirements of nonrelated job causing conflict of duties. — If an individual is unable to adequately and efficiently perform the duties of a public position because of the requirements of other nonrelated jobs of either a public or private nature, such amounts to an inability to fill the position because of a conflict of duties, thus rendering such person subject to discharge. 1963 Op. (3) at least sixty percent of the cost of the insurance of an employee whose annual salary is sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) or more.

D. Effective July 1, 2004, the group insurance contributions of the state or any of its executive, judicial or legislative departments, including agencies, boards or commissions, shall be made as follows; provided that the contribution percentage shall be the same for all affected public employees in a given salary bracket:

(1) up to eighty percent of the cost of the insurance of an employee whose annual salary is less than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000);

F. Effective July 1, 2013, the employer shall pay one hundred percent of basic life insurance premiums for employees, and employees who choose to carry disability insurance shall pay one hundred percent of the premium.

Any contributions of the political subdivisions of the state, except the public schools and political subdivisions of the state with twenty-five employees or fewer, shall not exceed sixty percent of the cost of the insurance.

J. When a public employee elects to participate in a cafeteria plan as authorized by the Cafeteria Plan Act and enters into a salary reduction agreement with the governmental employer, the provisions of Subsections B through G of this section with respect to the maximum contributions that can be made by the employer are not violated and will still apply. The employer percentage or dollar contributions as provided in Subsections B through E of this section shall be determined by the employee's gross salary prior to any salary reduction agreement.

K. Any group medical insurance plan offered pursuant to this section shall include effective cost-containment measures to control the growth of health care costs and maximize benefits for the least cost. If a state agency that is responsible for providing state employee health benefits under the Health Care Purchasing Act [Chapter 13, Article 7 NMSA 1978] establishes a reference-based pricing program for in-network or out-of-network hospital services, hospitals subject to the program shall not charge or collect from a member of the health benefit plan an amount in addition to the maximum payment established by the secretary of health care authority, except that a hospital may charge an amount for cost-sharing that is authorized by the terms of the member's health benefit plan. The responsible public body that administers a plan offered pursuant to this section shall report annually by September 1 to appropriate interim legislative committees on the effectiveness of the cost-containment measures required by this subsection.

L. Within available revenue, school districts, charter schools and participating entities pursuant to the Public School Insurance Authority Act [Chapter 22, Article 29 NMSA 1978] may contribute up to one hundred percent of the cost of the insurance of all employees and institutions of higher education may contribute up to eighty percent of the cost of the insurance of all employees.

M. Beginning July 1, 2025, the secretary shall set actuarially sound rates sufficient to cover projected claims, subject to legislative appropriation. By September 1 of each year, the projected actuarially sound rate adjustment for the following fiscal year, subject to legislative appropriation, shall be communicated to the local public bodies who are part of the state employee health benefit program.

N. The secretary of health care authority shall establish a program to make state health benefit premiums more affordable for certain employees using appropriations from the health care affordability fund. The secretary shall establish a system for determining eligibility for the program and may annually update program eligibility and contribution criteria.

O. By July 1, 2026, the health care authority shall ensure that state employees are provided the opportunity to purchase a variety of health benefit plans with varying plan designs and cost-sharing options.

Constitutionality and effect of section. — Provision by the state under this section of group or other forms of insurance for the benefit of eligible employees is a valid use of public funds and not a pledge of credit or donation in contravention of the state constitution, since such contribution is in fact an increment to a public employee's salary and is a benefit to the state or its subdivisions through its concomitant effect of attracting and maintaining capable public personnel in public positions. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-83.

Constitutionality of payments. — Payments by the state under this section do not violate N.M. Const. art. V, § 12 and are not payments of additional fees or compensation. 1968 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 68-01.

Objective of section was to expressly provide authority for the state, state institutions and political subdivisions of the state to make contributions from public funds to pay a portion of the cost of group insurance policies carried for the benefit of their employees up to certain prescribed maximums. Such contributions may be validly made if the amounts contributed by the state employer are kept within the statutory limitation. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-44. See also 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-25.

Meaning of "departments". — The term "departments" as utilized in this section has application to the three basic departments of state government recognized in N.M. Const., art. III, § 1, that is, the legislative, executive and judicial departments. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-44.

"For the benefit of" construed. — The words "for the benefit of" the employee should be construed to include an employer's payment toward the premium of a group hospitalization insurance policy which covers both an employee and his or her dependents. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-59.

Dependents. — The legislature did not intend to limit this employment benefit to the individual employee regardless of whether or not he had dependents. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-59.

Payment of retirees health insurance premiums not authorized. — This section is a general law providing municipalities with the authority to pay health insurance costs for employees and their family members, and does not authorize a municipality to pay a portion of its retirees' health insurance premium costs for its employees who retire under the Public Employee's Retirement Act. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-04.

District attorney's office covered. — The district attorney's office is covered under the provisions of this section through Section 10-7-6 NMSA 1978, inclusive. 1959 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-106.

Constables and magistrates. — Constables and justices of the peace (now magistrates) are not eligible for group insurance as provided by New Mexico statutes. 1959 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-42 (rendered prior to 1969 amendment).

Section applies to cattle sanitary board (now New Mexico livestock board) and constitutes a legal limitation upon the maximum amount of contribution which the board may make in providing funds for group insurance programs covering the board's employees. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-44.

Employees of adjutant general's office ineligible. — Persons employed by the office of the adjutant general of New Mexico in maintenance, technical, clerical and fiscal positions throughout the state of New Mexico who are paid by the federal government, and are participants in the state public employees' retirement association program, are nevertheless not eligible for participation in the state group insurance program. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-97.

This section does not contemplate voluntary official organizations. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-41.

Scope of contribution. — The contribution provided for in this section applies only to those plans of group insurance or other types of insurance approved by the governing authority of the respective subdivisions and of this state. 1965 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 65-06.

Computation of contribution. — It is lawful for governmental units referred to in this section to compute the percentage of their contribution to an employees' group hospitalization plan based upon the entire cost for both individual and dependent coverage. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-59.

Maximum contribution applies even if additional coverage provided. — A city may not contribute a greater share of the premium of each policy even if the policy contains coverage enabling the city to make a savings on workmen's compensation insurance. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-25.

Participation in group insurance programs by school employees is optional with each individual employee, and such participation may not be required in the absence of assent by each employee. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-100.

Effect of Public Purchases Act. — The purchase of group insurance for employees of state agencies must be made in compliance with the Public Purchases Act (now the Procurement Code, 13-1-28 NMSA 1978 et seq.) including the requirement for bids. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-117.

The coverage shall be provided by a group term insurance policy, the premium for which shall be paid out of state funds appropriated to the children, youth and families department.

State agencies, state or educational institutions and political subdivisions of the state shall be authorized to enter into salary reduction agreements with their employees for the purpose of purchasing annuity contracts and deferred compensation plans, offered by insurance companies, banks and savings and loan associations authorized to transact business in New Mexico, when the salary reduction will result in an income tax deferment for the employees under federal law. The salary reduction agreement shall provide that the employer is not liable to the employee in the event the plan provider becomes insolvent or income tax on the salary reductions is not deferred. Such annuity contracts and deferred compensation plans must be approved by the secretary of general services for state agencies and the governing body of political subdivisions for such political subdivisions. State agencies, state or educational institutions and political subdivisions of the state shall further be authorized to deposit or invest funds deducted from an employee's salary or wages pursuant to any such approved deferred compensation plan. Any funds deducted from an employee's salary or wages pursuant to any such deferred compensation plan shall not be subject to any state law regulating or restricting the deposit or investment of public funds.

ARTICLE 7C

Retiree Health Care

10-7C-1. Short title.

Sections 1 through 16 [10-7C-1 to 10-7C-16 NMSA 1978] of this act may be cited as the "Retiree Health Care Act".

History: Laws 1990, ch. 6, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The Retiree Health Care Act was enacted by Laws 1990, ch. 6, §§ 1 to 16 and codified as 10-7C-1 to 10-7C-16 NMSA 1978. Laws 2002, ch. 75, §§ 2 to 4 and Laws 2002, ch. 80, §§ 2 to 4 enacted identical sections which were codified as 10-7C-17 [repealed], 10-7C-18 [repealed] and 10-7C-19 NMSA 1978 [repealed]. These sections were enacted as part of the Retiree Health Care Act.

10-7C-2. Purpose of act.

The purpose of the Retiree Health Care Act is to provide comprehensive core group health insurance for persons who have retired from certain public service in New Mexico. The purpose is to provide eligible retirees, their spouses, dependents and surviving spouses and dependents with health insurance consisting of a plan or optional plans of benefits that can be purchased by funds flowing into the retiree health care fund and by co-payments or out-of-pocket payments of insureds.

History: Laws 1990, ch. 6, § 2.

10-7C-3. Legislative findings and declaration of policy.

A. The legislature finds and declares that public employees face a severe problem in securing continuing medical insurance when they retire. Medical care inflation has far exceeded the general inflation rate for the past decade. It is expected that at least some of the factors that have contributed to this phenomenon will continue into the foreseeable future. As the public employee population grows older, the ratio of retirees to active employees is expected to continue to rise. This factor will be exacerbated as the life expectancy of the aged improves and the post-world war two generation approaches retirement age. Financial problems faced by the federal medicare system are becoming more serious, and it is apparent that there will be attempts to shift those costs to the public employer and employee. More such cost shifting is likely, and one of the purposes of the Retiree Health Care Act is, within the constraints of what can be afforded by the taxpayers, to alleviate this burden on the retiree as much as possible.

B. The legislature further finds and declares that the public employees covered by the Retiree Health Care Act have entered into public employment in circumstances where they have received in exchange for their services a present salary and an expectation of receiving a future stream of benefits, including payment of certain retirement benefits. The legislature declares that the expectation of receiving future benefits may be modified from year to year in order to respond to changing financial exigencies, but that such modification must be reasonably calculated to result in the least possible detriment to the expectation and to be consistent with any employer-employee relationship established to meet that expectation. The legislature does not intend for the Retiree Health Care Act to create trust relationships among the participating employees, retirees, employers and the authority administering the Retiree Health Care Act nor does the legislature intend to create contract rights which may not be modified or extinguished in the future; rather the legislature intends to create, through the Retiree Health Care Act, a means for maximizing health care services returned to the participants for their participation under the Retiree Health Care Act.

C. The legislature further finds and declares that nothing in the Retiree Health Care Act shall prohibit the legislature from increasing or decreasing participating employer and employee contributions, eligible retiree premiums or group health insurance coverages or plans, and that participation in the Retiree Health Care Act by retired and active public employees shall not be construed to establish rights between the retired and active public employees and the state for health care benefits which cannot be modified or extinguished in the future to meet changes in economic or social conditions.

D. The legislature further finds and declares that the health care coverage provided under the Retiree Health Care Act shall constitute a state group health insurance plan, separate subsequent state group health insurance plan, state group insurance plan, separate subsequent state group insurance plan, state medical group insurance plan and separate subsequent state medical group insurance plan for the purposes of Sections 10-11-121, 10-12-15, 10-12A-11 and 22-11-41 NMSA 1978.

E. The legislature further finds and declares that participation of current retirees in the Retiree Health Care Act is predicated on State ex rel. Hudgins v. Public Employees Retirement Board 58 N.M. 543, 273 P.2d 543 [743] (1954); the additional monthly participation fee to be paid by current retirees as a condition of participation in the Retiree Health Care Act is in lieu of the lump-sum consideration paid by the retirees who were the relators in that case.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 1 and by Laws 2003, ch. 5, § 1; 2005, ch. 333, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, added the statutory reference to the act.

Punitive damages. — Punitive damages are available in actions for breach of the duty of fair representation where the union's conduct is malicious, willful, wanton, reckless, fraudulent or in bad faith. Akins v. United Steel Workers of Am., 2010-NMSC-031, 148 N.M. 442, 237 P.3d 744, aff'g 2009-NMCA-051, 146 N.M. 237, 208 P.3d 457.

Where after being subjected to overt racism in the workplace, the plaintiff called upon the union to file a grievance and the union refused to do so; the plaintiff was the only African-American working in the plaintiff's department; the plaintiff's coworkers refused to speak English to the plaintiff and the plaintiff's supervisor would only issue orders in Spanish, a language which the plaintiff did not speak; when the plaintiff complained to the defendant's supervisor that the plaintiff could not speak or understand Spanish, the supervisor continued to give orders in Spanish; when the plaintiff asked the union to file a grievance on his behalf, the plaintiff was told by the union president that the plaintiff was of the "wrong color" and that the plaintiff needed to learn to speak Spanish, the union's conduct was sufficiently reprehensible to allow the issue of punitive damages to be considered by the jury. Akins v. United Steel Workers of Am., 2009-NMCA-051, 146 N.M. 237, 208 P.3d 457, aff'd, 2010-NMSC-031, 148 N.M. 442, 237 P.3d 744.

Duty of fair representation. — Public employee unions owe union members a duty of fair representation. When a complaint arises from a union's representation of employees in a grievance proceeding, the cause of action is for breach of the duty of fair representation, not for breach of a fiduciary duty. Callahan v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers TVI, 2006-NMSC-010, 139 N.M. 201, 131 P.3d 51.

Proof of breach of duty of fair representation. — Breach of the duty of fair representation requires a showing of arbitrary, fraudulent, or bad faith conduct, not a simple showing of negligent representation. Callahan v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers TVI, 2006-NMSC-010, 139 N.M. 201, 131 P.3d 51.

Covenant of good faith and fair dealing. — Breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing is subsumed within claims for breach of duty of fair representation. Callahan v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers TVI, 2006-NMSC-010, 139 N.M. 201, 131 P.3d 51.

Third-party beneficiary claims. — In order to state a claim against union for breach of collective bargaining agreement as third-party beneficiaries, union members must assert a promise that union made to employer and to union members as third-party beneficiaries, which union subsequently broke. Callahan v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers TVI, 2006-NMSC-010, 139 N.M. 201, 131 P.3d 51.

Exhaustion of administrative remedies. — Because breach of duty of fair representation is not listed as a prohibited practice, union members are not required to bring their claims of breach of the duty of fair representation before the public employees labor relations board or the local labor relations board in order to exhaust their administrative remedies. Callahan v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers TVI, 2006-NMSC-010, 139 N.M. 201, 131 P.3d 51.

Consistency of local ordinance with act's purpose. — City ordinance that allows a public employer to select two members of the three-member local board to adjudicate labor-management disputes does not productively allow employees to collectively bargain, and, as such, violates the purpose of the Public Employee Bargaining Act as stated in Section 10-7E-2 NMSA 1978. *City of Deming v. Such an organization shall file a petition containing the signatures of not less than thirty percent of the public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit no later than ten days after the board or the local board and the public employer post a written notice that the petition in Subsection A of this section has been filed by a labor organization.

C. As an alternative to the provisions of Subsection A of this section, a labor organization with a reasonable basis for claiming to represent a majority of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit may submit authorization cards from a majority of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit to the board or local board, which shall, upon verification that a majority of the employees in the appropriate bargaining unit have signed valid authorization cards, certify the labor organization as the exclusive representative of all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. The employer may challenge the verification of the board or local board; the board or local board shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the challenge to confirm that a majority of the employees in the appropriate bargaining unit have signed valid authorization cards.

D. If a labor organization receives a majority of votes cast, it shall be certified as the exclusive representative of all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. Within fifteen days of an election in which no labor organization receives a majority of the votes cast, a runoff election between the two choices receiving the largest number of votes cast shall be conducted. The board or local board shall certify the results of the election, and, when a labor organization receives a majority of the votes cast, the board or local board shall certify the labor organization as the exclusive representative of all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit.

E. An election shall not be conducted if an election or runoff election has been conducted in the twelve-month period immediately preceding the proposed representation election. An election shall not be held during the term of an existing collective bargaining agreement, except as provided in Section 10-7E-16 NMSA 1978.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 14; 2003, ch. 5, § 14; 2020, ch. 48, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, revised certain bargaining unit election procedures; in Subsection A, added "Upon acceptance of a valid petition, the board or a local board shall require the public employer to provide the labor organization within ten business days the names, job titles, work locations, home addresses, personal email addresses and home or cellular telephone numbers of any public employee in the proposed bargaining unit. This information shall be kept confidential by the labor organization and its employees or officers."; in Subsection C, after "Subsection A of this section", deleted "a public employer and", after "appropriate bargaining unit may", deleted "establish an alternative appropriate procedure for determining majority status.

The procedure may include a labor organization's submission of" and added "submit", after "an appropriate bargaining unit", deleted "The board or local board shall not certify an appropriate bargaining unit if the public employer objects to the certification without an election" and added the remainder of the subsection; and in Subsection E, changed "Section 16 of the Public Employee Bargaining Act" to "10-7E-16 NMSA 1978".

10-7E-15. Exclusive representation.

A. A labor organization that has been certified by the board or local board as representing the public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit shall be the exclusive representative of all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. The exclusive representative shall act for all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit and negotiate a collective bargaining agreement covering all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. The exclusive representative shall represent the interests of all public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit without discrimination or regard to membership in the labor organization. A claim by a public employee that the exclusive representative has violated this duty of fair representation shall be forever barred if not brought within six months of the date on which the public employee knew, or reasonably should have known, of the violation.

B. This section does not prevent a public employee, acting individually, from presenting a grievance without the intervention of the exclusive representative. At a hearing on a grievance brought by a public employee individually, the exclusive representative shall be afforded the opportunity to be present and make its views known. An adjustment made shall not be inconsistent with or in violation of the collective bargaining agreement then in effect between the public employer and the exclusive representative.

C. A public employer shall provide an exclusive representative of an appropriate bargaining unit reasonable access to employees within the bargaining unit, including the following:

(1) for purposes of newly hired employees in the bargaining unit, reasonable access includes:

(a) the right to meet with new employees, without loss of employee compensation or leave benefits; and

(b) the right to meet with new employees within thirty days from the date of hire for a period of at least thirty minutes but not more than one hundred twenty minutes, during new employee orientation or, if the public employer does not conduct new employee orientations, at individual or group meetings; and

(2) for purposes of employees in the bargaining unit who are not new employees, reasonable access includes:

(a) the right to meet with employees during the employees' regular work hours at the employees' regular work location to investigate and discuss grievances, workplace-related complaints and other matters relating to employment relations; and

(b) the right to conduct meetings at the employees' regular work location before or after the employees' regular work hours, during meal periods and during any other break periods.

D. A public employer shall permit an exclusive representative to use the public employer's facilities or property, whether owned or leased by the employer, for purposes of conducting meetings with the represented employees in the bargaining unit. An exclusive representative may hold the meetings described in this section at a time and place set by the exclusive representative. The exclusive representative shall have the right to conduct the meetings without undue interference and may establish reasonable rules regarding appropriate conduct for meeting attendees.

E. The meetings described in this section shall not interfere with the public employer's operations.

F. If a public employer has the information in the employer's records, the public employer shall provide to the exclusive representative, in an editable digital file format agreed to by the exclusive representative, the following information for each employee in an appropriate bargaining unit:

(1) the employee's name and date of hire;

(2) contact information, including:

(a) cellular, home and work telephone numbers;

(b) a means of electronic communication, including work and personal electronic mail addresses; and

(c) home address or personal mailing address; and

(3) employment information, including the employee's job title, salary and work site location.

G. The public employer shall provide the information described in Subsection F of this section to the exclusive representative within ten days from the date of hire for newly hired employees in an appropriate bargaining unit, and every one hundred twenty days for employees in the bargaining unit who are not newly hired employees. The information shall be kept confidential by the labor organization and its employees or officers. Apart from the disclosure required by this subsection, and notwithstanding any provision contained in the Inspection of Public Records Act [Chapter 14, Article 3 NMSA 1978], the public employer shall not disclose the information described in Subsection F of this section, or public employees' dates of birth or social security numbers to a third party.

H. An exclusive representative shall have the right to use the electronic mail systems or other similar communication systems of a public employer to communicate with the employees in the bargaining unit regarding:

- (1) collective bargaining, including the administration of collective bargaining agreements;
- (2) the investigation of grievances or other disputes relating to employment relations; and
- (3) matters involving the governance or business of the labor organization.

I. Nothing in this section prevents a public employer from providing an exclusive representative access to employees within the bargaining unit beyond the reasonable access required under this section, or limits any existing right of a labor organization to communicate with public employees.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 15; 2003, ch. 5, § 15; 2020, ch. 48, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, required public employers to grant an exclusive union representative reasonable access to and information concerning bargaining unit employees, as well as use of public employees' facilities or property; in Subsection A, added "A claim by a public employee that the exclusive representative has violated this duty of fair representation shall be forever barred if not brought within six months of the date on which the public employee knew, or reasonably should have known, of the violation."; and added Subsections C through I.

10-7E-16. Decertification of exclusive representative.

A. A member of a labor organization or the labor organization itself may initiate decertification of a labor organization as the exclusive representative if thirty percent of the public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit make a written request to the board or local board for a decertification election. Decertification elections shall be held in a manner prescribed by rule of the board. An election shall only be valid if forty percent of the eligible employees in the bargaining unit vote in the election.

B. When there is a collective bargaining agreement in effect, a request for a decertification election shall be made to the board or local board no earlier than ninety days and no later than sixty days before the expiration of the collective bargaining agreement; provided, however, a request for an election may be filed at any time after the expiration of the third year of a collective bargaining agreement with a term of more than three years.

C. When, within the time period prescribed in Subsection B of this section, a competing labor organization files a petition containing signatures of at least thirty percent of the public employees in the appropriate bargaining unit, a representation election rather than a decertification election shall be conducted.

D. When an exclusive representative has been certified but no collective bargaining agreement is in effect, the board or local board shall not accept a request for a decertification election or an election sought by a competing labor organization earlier than twelve months subsequent to a labor organization's certification as the exclusive representative.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 16; 2003, ch. 5, § 16; 2020, ch. 48, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, prohibited a competing labor organization from seeking an election within twelve months of initial certification; and in Subsection D, after "decertification election", added "or an election sought by a competing labor organization".

10-7E-17. Scope of bargaining.

A. Except for retirement programs provided pursuant to the Public Employees Retirement Act [Chapter 10, Article 11 NMSA 1978] or the Educational Retirement Act [Chapter 22, Article 11 NMSA 1978], public employers and exclusive representatives:

(1) shall bargain in good faith on wages, hours and all other terms and conditions of employment and other issues agreed to by the parties. However, neither the public employer nor the exclusive representative shall be required to agree to a proposal or to make a concession; and

(2) shall enter into written collective bargaining agreements covering employment relations. Entering into a collective bargaining agreement shall not obviate the duty to bargain in good faith during the term of the collective bargaining agreement regarding changes to wages, hours and all other terms and conditions of employment, unless it can be demonstrated that the parties clearly and unmistakably waived the right to bargain regarding those subjects. However, no party may be required, by this provision, to renegotiate the existing terms of collective bargaining agreements already in place.

B. In regard to the Public Employees Retirement Act and the Educational Retirement Act, a public employer in a written collective bargaining agreement may agree to assume any portion of a public employee's contribution obligation to retirement programs provided pursuant to the Public Employees Retirement Act or the Educational Retirement Act. Such agreements are subject to the limitations set forth in this section.

C. The obligation to bargain collectively imposed by the Public Employee Bargaining Act shall not be construed as authorizing a public employer and an exclusive representative to enter into an agreement that is in conflict with the provisions of any other statute of this state; provided, however, that a collective bargaining agreement that provides greater rights, remedies and procedures to public employees than contained in a state statute shall not be considered to be in conflict with that state statute. In the event of an actual conflict between the provisions of any other statute of this state and an agreement entered into by the public employer and the exclusive representative in collective bargaining, the statutes of this state shall prevail.

D. Payroll deduction of the exclusive representative's membership dues shall be a mandatory subject of bargaining if either party chooses to negotiate the issue. The amount of dues shall be certified in writing by an official of the labor organization and shall not include special assessments, penalties or fines of any type. The public employer shall honor payroll deductions until the authorization is revoked in writing by the public employee in accordance with the negotiated agreement and this subsection and for so long as the labor organization is certified as the exclusive representative. Public employees who have authorized the payroll deduction of dues to a labor organization may revoke that authorization by providing written notice to their labor organization during a window period not to exceed ten days per year for each employee. The public employer and the labor organization shall negotiate when the commencement of that period will begin annually for each employee. If no agreement is reached, the period shall be during the ten days following the anniversary date of each employee's employment. Within ten days of receipt of notice from a public employee of revocation of authorization for the payroll deduction of dues, the labor organization shall provide notice to the public employer of a public employee's revocation of that authorization. A public employee's notice of revocation for the payroll deduction of dues shall be effective on the thirtieth day after the notice provided to the public employer by the labor organization. No authorized payroll deduction of dues held by a public employer or a labor organization on July 1, 2020 shall be rendered invalid by this provision and shall remain valid until replaced or revoked by the public employee. During the time that a board certification is in effect for a particular appropriate bargaining unit, the public employer shall not deduct dues for any other labor organization.

E. Public employers and a labor organization, or their employees or agents, are not liable for, and have a complete defense to, any claims or actions under the law of this state for requiring, deducting, receiving or retaining fair share dues or fees from public employees, and current or former public employees do not have standing to pursue these claims or actions if the fair share dues or fees were permitted at the time under the laws of this state then in force and paid, through payroll deduction or otherwise, on or before June 27, 2018. This subsection:

(1) applies to all claims and actions pending on July 1, 2020 and to claims and actions filed on or after July 1, 2020; and

(2) shall not be interpreted to infer that any relief made unavailable by this section would otherwise be available.

F. The scope of bargaining for the exclusive representative and the state shall include enhancements of employee rights and benefits existing pursuant to the Personnel Act [Chapter 10, Article 9 NMSA 1978].

G. The scope of bargaining for representatives of public schools as well as educational employees in state agencies shall include, as a mandatory subject of bargaining, the impact of professional and instructional decisions made by the employer.

H. An impasse resolution or an agreement provision by the state and an exclusive representative that requires the expenditure of funds shall be contingent upon the specific appropriation of funds by the legislature and the availability of funds. An impasse resolution or an agreement provision by a public employer other than the state or the public schools and an exclusive representative that requires the expenditure of funds shall be contingent upon the specific appropriation of funds by the appropriate governing body and the availability of funds. An agreement provision by a local school board and an exclusive representative that requires the expenditure of funds shall be contingent upon ratification by the appropriate governing body. An arbitration decision shall not require the reappropriation of funds.

I. An agreement shall include a grievance procedure to be used for the settlement of disputes pertaining to employment terms and conditions and related personnel matters. The grievance procedure shall provide for a final and binding determination. The final determination shall constitute an arbitration award within the meaning of the Uniform Arbitration Act [44-7A-1 to 44-7A-32 NMSA 1978]; such award shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to the standard set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act. The costs of an arbitration proceeding conducted pursuant to this subsection shall be shared equally by the parties.

J. The following meetings shall be closed:

(1) meetings for the discussion of bargaining strategy preliminary to collective bargaining negotiations between the public employer and the exclusive representative of the public employees of the public employer;

(2) collective bargaining sessions; and

(3) consultations and impasse resolution procedures at which the public employer and the exclusive representative of the appropriate bargaining unit are present.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 17; 2003, ch. 5, § 17; 2020, ch. 48, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, revised the scope of bargaining provisions, including allowing parties to bargain regarding a public employer assuming a portion of public employees' retirement contributions, clarifying that a collective bargaining agreement that provides greater rights, remedies and procedures than contained in a state statute shall not be considered to be in conflict with that state statute, dictating procedures regarding how and when dues deductions are determined, and providing that bargaining shall include enhancements of employee rights and benefits existing pursuant to the Personnel Act; in Subsection A, Paragraph A(2), after "written collective bargaining agreements covering employment relations", added the remainder of the paragraph; added a new Subsection B and redesignated former Subsections B and C as Subsections C and D, respectively; in Subsection C, after "any other statute of this state", added "provided, however, that a collective bargaining agreement that provides greater rights, remedies and procedures to public employees than contained in a state statute shall not be considered to be in conflict with that state statute", and after "In the event of", added "an actual"; in Subsection D, after "in accordance with the negotiated agreement", added "and this subsection", and added "Public employees who have authorized the payroll deduction of dues to a labor organization may revoke that authorization by providing written notice to their labor organization during a window period not to exceed ten days per year for each employee. The public employer and the labor organization shall negotiate when the commencement of that period will begin annually for each employee. If no agreement is reached, the period shall be during the ten days following the anniversary date of each employee's employment. Within ten days of receipt of notice from a public employee of revocation of authorization for the payroll deduction of dues, the labor organization shall provide notice to the public employer of a public employee's revocation of that authorization. A public employee's notice of revocation for the payroll deduction of dues shall be effective on the thirtieth day after the notice provided to the public employer by the labor organization. No authorized payroll deduction of dues held by a public employer or a labor organization on July 1, 2020 shall be rendered invalid by this provision and shall remain valid until replaced or revoked by the public employee"; and added new Subsections E and F and redesignated the remaining subsections accordingly.

A non-union member of a collective bargaining unit is subject to arbitration provisions of a collective bargaining agreement. — Where petitioner was a regular full-time non-probationary sworn police officer employed by the municipal police department and a member of the collective bargaining unit covered by the union's collective bargaining agreement; petitioner did not join the union, did not pay union dues, and never sought assistance from the union; the municipality recognized the union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative for regular full-time non-probationary sworn police officers; and petitioner initiated a grievance procedure to challenge petitioner's termination, petitioner was a public employee, working for a public employer and was subject to the Public Employee Bargaining Act, the collective bargaining agreement, and the requirements of the collective bargain agreement and the act that petitioner's grievance challenging petitioner's termination was subject to binding arbitration. Luginbuhl v. City of Gallup, 2013-NMCA-053, 302 P.3d 751.

A collective bargaining agreement was supported by adequate consideration. — Where petitioner was a police officer employed by the municipal police department, a member of the collective bargaining unit, and subject to the union's collective bargaining agreement; petitioner did not join the union, did not pay union dues, and never sought assistance from the union; and petitioner enjoyed the benefits of the collective bargaining agreement, including increased compensation for serving as a member of the municipal emergency response team, vacation and holiday pay, a clothing allowance, and seniority rights, the collective bargaining agreement was supported by adequate consideration and the arbitration provision of the agreement was enforceable as to petitioner. Luginbuhl v. City of Gallup, 2013-NMCA-053, 302 P.3d 751.

A collective bargaining agreement was not vague. — Where petitioner was a police officer employed by the municipal police department and a member of the collective bargaining unit; the collective bargaining agreement provided a four-step grievance process that culminated in arbitration; the arbitration clause applied to written disputes regarding disciplinary action; the arbitration process was set forth in detail; and petitioner initiated a written dispute by engaging in the grievance process to challenge petitioner's termination, the arbitration clause was not vague or uncertain in its application to petitioner. Luginbuhl v. City of Gallup, 2013-NMCA-053, 302 P.3d 751.

The arbitration provision of a collective bargaining agreement provided an adequate remedy at law for disputes. — Where petitioner was a police officer employed by the municipal police department and a member of the collective bargaining unit; the collective bargaining agreement provided a four-step grievance process that culminated in arbitration; and petitioner had the statutory right to appeal any arbitration decision to the district court, arbitration provided an adequate and complete forum and remedy at law for disputes governed by the collective bargaining agreement, including petitioner's grievance challenging petitioner's termination. Luginbuhl v. City of Gallup, 2013-NMCA-053, 302 P.3d 751.

Failure to implement wage increase due to economic considerations. — Where a collective bargaining agreement provided for annual wage increases for the second and third fiscal years of the three year term of the agreement contingent upon city council approval pursuant to the city's labor management relations ordinance; the ordinance provided that in order for a collective bargaining agreement to be approved by the city council, the city council had to approve the economic components of the contract and adopt a resolution providing an appropriation to cover the cost of the contract; because of a revenue shortfall, the city council adopted a budget that did not include funding for wage increases for the third fiscal year as required by the agreement, and the city had sufficient funds to cover the wage increases, the city breached the agreement when it failed to implement the wage increases for the third fiscal year because the city council had appropriated the funding to cover the cost of wage increases for the third fiscal year when it initially approved the agreement pursuant to the ordinance. Albuquerque Police Officers' Ass'n v. City of Albuquerque, 2013-NMCA-110, cert. denied, 2013-NMCERT-011.

Management-rights clause. — A union's waiver of its right to mandatory bargaining under a management-rights clause, which gives management rights not limited by a collective bargaining agreement, will not be inferred unless it is clear and unmistakable that the union was aware of its rights and made the conscious choice to waive its rights. County of Los Alamos v. Martinez, 2011-NMCA-027, 150 N.M. 326, 258 P.3d 118.

Where the county and the firefighters union were parties to a collective bargaining agreement; the agreement contained a management-rights clause that gave the county certain specific operational and policy rights, as well as all rights not specifically limited by the contract; the county entered into contracts with individual firemen to provide for voluntary paramedic training which specified terms of employment during and after the training program; the paramedic training contracts were not covered by the collective bargaining agreement; and the paramedic training contracts were mandatory subjects of bargaining, the union did not clearly and unmistakably waive its right to bargain for the paramedic training contracts. County of Los Alamos v. Martinez, 2011-NMCA-027, 150 N.M. 326, 258 P.3d 118.

"Zipper" clause. — A "zipper" clause, which provides that a collective bargaining agreement is the complete and only agreement between the parties on all subjects and that the parties waive the right to bargain with respect to any other matter not specifically referred to in the agreement, is to be given such effect as the bargaining posture, past practices and agreements of the parties indicate. County of Los Alamos v. Martinez, 2011-NMCA-027, 150 N.M. 326, 258 P.3d 118.

Where the county and the firefighters union were parties to a collective bargaining agreement; the agreement contained a "zipper" clause which provided that the agreement was the complete and only agreement between the parties, that all mandatory subjects of collective bargaining had been negotiate, and that each party waived the right to bargain collectively as to any subject not specifically covered by the agreement; the county entered into contracts with individual firemen to provide for voluntary paramedic training which specified terms of employment during and after the training program; the paramedic training contracts were not covered by the collective bargaining agreement; the paramedic training contracts were mandatory subjects of bargaining; and there was no evidence about the bargaining history, expectations of the parties, past practices, or surrounding circumstances of the parties' collective bargaining, the district court did not err in finding that the union did not waive its right to bargain for the paramedic training contracts based on the "zipper" clause. County of Los Alamos v. Martinez, 2011-NMCA-027, 150 N.M. 326, 258 P.3d 118.

An arbitration award that requires a public employer other than the state to expend funds is contingent upon the appropriation and availability of funds.

International Assn. of Firefighters v. City of Carlsbad, 2009-NMCA-097, 147 N.M. 6, 216 P.3d 256, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-007, 147 N.M. 361, 223 P.3d 358.

Arbitration decision contingent upon appropriation of funds. — Where a municipality and a union reached an impasse in their negotiations over wages; the parties entered into an agreement to resolve the impasse by arbitration and selected an arbitrator; the arbitrator entered an arbitration award pursuant to Section 10-7E-18 NMSA 1978 that awarded a wage increase to the union; and the municipality did not appropriate funds to pay the wage increase, the union could not enforce the arbitration award by an action in district court, because under Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978, the arbitration award was contingent upon the appropriation and availability of funds. International Assn. of Firefighters v. City of Carlsbad, 2009-NMCA-097, 147 N.M. 6, 216 P.3d 256, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-007, 147 N.M. 361, 223 P.3d 358.

Arbitration decision did not require the reappropriation of funds. — Where the state and the unions entered into collective bargaining agreements that covered salary increases for union employees in fiscal year 2009; the state determined that the legislature had not appropriated sufficient funds to cover the full salary increases for union employees and implemented salary increases for all employees that differed from those required by the agreements; the arbitrator determined that the Legislature had appropriated sufficient funds to cover the salary increases required by the agreements and that the state's pay package violated the terms of the agreements; and the arbitrator directed the state to adjust the union employee's salary levels for fiscal year 2010 to reflect the level they would have been had the salary increases been provided as required by the agreements, the arbitrator's award did not violate Subsection E of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978. State v. AFSCME Council 18, 2012-NMCA-114, 291 P.3d 600, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-011.

Lack of evergreen clause. — Where the municipality and labor unions reached an impasse in negotiations to replace existing collective bargaining agreements; the municipal labor management ordinance did not require that expiring collective bargaining agreements continue in full force and effect until replaced by subsequent agreements; and no municipal appropriation had occurred to extend the agreements and the municipality did not have available funds to fund the economic components of the extension of the agreements, the Public Employee Bargaining Act did not apply to the economic components of the existing agreements because provisions of collective bargaining agreements that require an expenditure of funds are subject to Subsection E of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978, which requires the specific appropriation and availability of funds and the Act did not require the extension of the existing agreements in conflict with Subsection E of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978. AFSCME Council 18 v. City of Albuquerque, 2013-NMCA-012, 293 P.3d 943, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-001.

Collective bargaining procedures were exempt from the evergreen provision. — Where the municipality's labor-management relations ordinance, which was adopted in 1974, included impasse resolution procedures through mediation and arbitration, but did not require that expired collective bargaining agreements remain in effect until successor agreements were reached; when the collective bargaining agreements between the municipality and the unions expired and the parties were unable to agree upon successor agreements, the municipality refused to honor a provision of the expired agreements that required the municipality to compensate union members for union business conducted during municipality work time; and the unions argued that the municipality was required to comply with the evergreen provision of Subsection D of Section 10-7E-18 NMSA 1978 regardless of the grandfather status of the municipality's ordinance, the municipality's collective bargaining procedures were exempt, under Subsection A of Section 10-7E-26 NMSA 1978, from compliance with the evergreen provision. AFSCME Council 18 v. City of Albuquerque, 2013-NMCA-063, 304 P.3d 443, cert. quashed, 2013-NMCERT-009.

Appointment of interim board member by municipality did not violate the grandfather clause requirement. — Where a municipal ordinance required the president of the city council to appoint an interim member of the municipal labor-management relations board when the board met during the absence of a regular board member; the ordinance had been grandfathered under the Public Employee Bargaining Act; the president was an elected city councilor who was elected as president by city council members; and the president did not perform any executive functions, the president did not serve in either a "management" or a "labor" capacity and the procedure by which the president appointed an interim board member during the absence of a regular board member did not violate the act's grandfather clause requirement that a local ordinance create a system of collective bargaining. City of Albuquerque v. Montoya, 2012-NMSC-007, 274 P.3d 108, rev'd 2010-NMCA-100, 148 N.M. 930, 242 P.3d 497.

Appointment of interim board member by municipality. — The grandfather clause does not apply to the provision of a municipal labor-management relations ordinance which provides that if one of the appointed local board members is absent, the president of the city council shall appoint an interim board member from the public at large with due regard to the representative character of the local board because the ordinance did not permit employees to bargain collectively. City of Albuquerque v. Montoya, 2010-NMCA-100, 148 N.M. 930, 242 P.3d 497, cert. granted, 2010-NMCERT-010, 149 N.M. 64, 243 P.3d 1146, rev'd, 2012-NMSC-007, 274 P.3d 108.

10-7E-18. Impasse resolution.

A. The following negotiations and impasse procedures shall be followed by the state and exclusive representatives for state employees:

(1) a request to the state for the commencement of initial negotiations shall be filed in writing by the exclusive representative no later than June 1 of the year in which negotiations are to take place. Negotiations shall begin no later than July 1 of that year;

(2) in subsequent years, negotiations agreed to by the parties shall begin no later than August 1 following the submission of written notice to the state by the exclusive representative no later than July 1 of the year in which negotiations are to take place;

(3) if an impasse occurs during negotiations between the parties, either party may request mediation services from the board. A mediator from the federal mediation and conciliation service shall be assigned by the board to assist in negotiations unless the parties agree to another mediator;

(4) the mediator shall provide services to the parties until the parties reach agreement or the mediator believes that mediation services are no longer helpful or until thirty days after the mediator was requested, whichever occurs first; and

(5) if the impasse continues after the time described in Paragraph (4) of this subsection, either party may request a list of seven arbitrators from the federal mediation and conciliation service. One arbitrator shall be chosen by the parties by alternately striking names from such list. Who strikes first shall be determined by coin toss. The arbitrator shall render a final, binding, written decision resolving unresolved issues pursuant to Subsection H of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978 and the Uniform Arbitration Act [44-7A-1 to 44-7A-32 NMSA 1978] no later than thirty days after the arbitrator has been notified of selection by the parties. The arbitrator's decision shall be limited to a selection of one of the two parties' complete, last, best offer. The costs of an arbitrator and the arbitrator's related costs conducted pursuant to this subsection shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall be responsible for bearing the cost of presenting its case. The decision shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to the standard set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act.

B. The following impasse procedures shall be followed by all public employers and exclusive representatives, except the state and the state's exclusive representatives:

(1) if an impasse occurs, either party may request from the board or local board that a mediator be assigned to the negotiations unless the parties can agree on a mediator. A mediator with the federal mediation and conciliation service shall be assigned by the board or local board to assist negotiations unless the parties agree to another mediator; and

(2) if the impasse continues after a thirty-day mediation period, either party may request a list of seven arbitrators from the federal mediation and conciliation service. One arbitrator shall be chosen by the parties by alternately striking names from such list. Who strikes first shall be determined by coin toss. The arbitrator shall render a final, binding, written decision resolving unresolved issues pursuant to Subsection H of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978 and the Uniform Arbitration Act no later than thirty days after the arbitrator has been notified of selection by the parties. The arbitrator's decision shall be limited to a selection of one of the two parties' complete, last, best offer. The costs of an arbitrator and the arbitrator's related costs conducted pursuant to this subsection shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall be responsible for bearing the cost of presenting its case. The decision shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to the standard set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act.

C. A public employer other than the state may enter into a written agreement with the exclusive representative setting forth an alternative impasse resolution procedure.

D. In the event that an impasse continues after the expiration of a contract, the existing contract will continue in full force and effect until it is replaced by a subsequent written agreement. However, this shall not require the public employer to increase any employees' levels, steps or grades of compensation contained in the existing contract.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 18; 2003, ch. 5, § 18; 2020, ch. 48, § 11.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, removed certain deadlines for resolving an impasse; in Subsection A, Paragraph A(3), after "between the parties", deleted "and if an agreement is not reached by the parties by October 1", in Paragraph A(4), after "helpful or until", deleted "November 1" and added "thirty days after the mediator was requested", in Paragraph A(5), after "impasse continues after", deleted "November 1" and added "the time described in Paragraph (4) of this subsection"; and in Paragraphs A(5) and B(2), after "Subsection", deleted "E" and added "H", and changed "Section 17 of the Public Employee Bargaining Act" to "10-7E-17 NMSA 1978".

Impasse arbitration. — In public-sector arbitration under the Public Employee Bargaining Act, the arbitrator is required to select an offer in its entirety and cannot decide particular matters on an issue-by-issue basis. National Union of Hosp. Emps. v. Board of Regents, 2010-NMCA-102, 149 N.M. 107, 245 P.3d 51, cert. denied, 2010-NMCERT-010, 149 N.M. 64, 243 P.3d 1146.

Arbitrator exceeded authority by permitting modification of final offers. — Where a public sector employer and a union reached an impasse in the negotiation of a new collective bargaining agreement and the impasse was submitted to arbitration pursuant to the Public Employee Bargaining Act; during the arbitration hearing, the arbitrator permitted the union to make a revised offer and to modify the revised offer several times and asked the parties to confer in an effort to narrow the issues; and at the conclusion of the hearing, the arbitrator suggested modifications of the party's offers that would be more to the liking of the arbitrator and directed the parties to submit modified offers, the arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's authority under the Public Employee Bargaining Act requiring the arbitrator's award to be vacated on the ground of misconduct under the Uniform Arbitration Act. National Union of Hosp. Emps. v. Board of Regents, 2010-NMCA-102, 149 N.M. 107, 245 P.3d 51, cert. denied, 2010-NMCERT-010, 149 N.M. 64, 243 P.3d 1146.

An arbitration award that requires a public employer other than the state to expend funds is contingent upon the appropriation and availability of funds. International Assn. of Firefighters v. City of Carlsbad, 2009-NMCA-097, 147 N.M. 6, 216 P.3d 256, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-007, 147 N.M. 361, 223 P.3d 358.

Arbitration decision contingent upon appropriation of funds. — Where a municipality and a union reached an impasse in their negotiations over wages; the parties entered into an agreement to resolve the impasse by arbitration and selected an arbitrator; the arbitrator entered an arbitration award pursuant to Section 10-7E-18 NMSA 1978 that awarded a wage increase to the union; and the municipality did not appropriate funds to pay the wage increase, the union could not enforce the arbitration award by an action in district court because, under Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978, the arbitration award was contingent upon the appropriation and availability of funds. International Assn. of Firefighters v. City of Carlsbad, 2009-NMCA-097, 147 N.M. 6, 216 P.3d 256, cert. denied, 2009-NMCERT-007, 147 N.M. 361, 223 P.3d 358.

Lack of evergreen clause. — Where the municipality and labor unions reached an impasse in negotiations to replace existing collective bargaining agreements; the municipal labor management ordinance did not require that expiring collective bargaining agreements continue in full force and effect until replaced by subsequent agreements; and no municipal appropriation had occurred to extend the agreements and the municipality did not have available funds to fund the economic components of the extension of the agreements, the Public Employee Bargaining Act did not apply to the economic components of the existing agreements because provisions of collective bargaining agreements that require an expenditure of funds are subject to Subsection E of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978, which requires the specific appropriation and availability of funds and the Act did not require the extension of the existing agreements in conflict with Subsection E of Section 10-7E-17 NMSA 1978. AFSCME Council 18 v. City of Albuquerque, 2013-NMCA-012, 293 P.3d 943, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-001.

10-7E-19. Public employers; prohibited practices.

A public employer or the public employer's representative shall not:

A. discriminate against a public employee with regard to terms and conditions of employment because of the employee's membership in a labor organization;

B. interfere with, restrain or coerce a public employee in the exercise of a right guaranteed pursuant to the Public Employee Bargaining Act or use public funds to influence the decision of its employees or the employees of its subcontractors regarding whether to support or oppose a labor organization that represents or seeks to represent those employees, or whether to become a member of any labor organization; provided, however, that this subsection does not apply to activities performed or expenses incurred:

(1) addressing a grievance or negotiating or administering a collective bargaining agreement;

(2) allowing a labor organization or its representatives access to the public employer's facilities or properties;

(3) performing an activity required by federal or state law or by a collective bargaining agreement;

(4) negotiating, entering into or carrying out an agreement with a labor organization;

(5) paying wages to a represented employee while the employee is performing duties if the payment is permitted under a collective bargaining agreement; or

(6) representing the public employer in a proceeding before the board or a local board or in a judicial review of that proceeding;

C. dominate or interfere in the formation, existence or administration of a labor organization;

D. discriminate in regard to hiring, tenure or a term or condition of employment in order to encourage or discourage membership in a labor organization;

E. discharge or otherwise discriminate against a public employee because the employee has signed or filed an affidavit, petition, grievance or complaint or given information or testimony pursuant to the provisions of the Public Employee Bargaining Act or because a public employee is forming, joining or choosing to be represented by a labor organization;

F. refuse to bargain collectively in good faith with the exclusive representative;

G. refuse or fail to comply with a provision of the Public Employee Bargaining Act or board rule; or

H. refuse or fail to comply with a collective bargaining agreement.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 4, § 19; 2003, ch. 5, § 19; 2020, ch. 48, § 12.

The 2020 amendment, effective July 1, 2020, made it a prohibited practice for a public employer to use public funds to influence an election regarding representation; in Subsection B, after "Public Employee Bargaining Act", added "or use public funds to influence the decision of its employees or the employees of its subcontractors regarding whether to support or oppose a labor organization that represents or seeks to represent those employees, or whether to become a member of any labor organization; provided, however, that this subsection does not apply to activities performed or expenses incurred", and added Paragraphs B(1) through B(6).

To constitute a prohibited practice, discriminatory treatment need only be because of the employee's membership in a labor organization. — Where the New Mexico corrections department (department) treated state employees who were members of a union differently than a state employee who was not by allowing the non-union employee to use a state vehicle to attend the same department-called policy review meeting for which the union employees' request to use a state vehicle had been denied, the district court did not err in affirming the public employee labor relations board's decision that the department had committed a prohibited practice in violation of this section by treating state employees who were union members differently than management employees regarding the use of state vehicles to attend labor-management meetings; the plain language of this section requires only that the discriminatory treatment be because of the employee's membership in a labor organization in order for such treatment to constitute a prohibited practice, and does not require proof that the action was retaliatory or motivated by anti-union animus. N.M. Corrections Dep't v. AFSCME, 2018-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Board's decision was arbitrary and capricious because it failed to consider an important aspect of the issue. — Where the communications workers of America filed a prohibited practice complaint against the state of New Mexico, asserting that the state violated the Public Employee Bargaining Act by refusing paid time off for bargaining unit employees for time spent preparing for and participating in grievance meetings and by providing paid union time to union officers and union stewards only, the public employee relations board (board) acted arbitrarily and capriciously in determining that the parties' past practice of granting union time or paid time to bargaining unit employees is as binding as the written provision of the collective bargaining agreement (CBA) and was therefore a mandatory subject of bargaining, because the board failed to consider the effect, if any, of the CBA's zipper clause, in which both parties waived the right to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter covered in the CBA. Communication Workers of Am. v. State, 2019-NMCA-031.

Where the communications workers of America filed a prohibited practice complaint against the state of New Mexico, asserting that the state violated the Public Employee Bargaining Act by refusing paid time off for bargaining unit employees for time spent preparing for and participating in grievance meetings and providing paid union time to union officers and union stewards only, the public employee relations board (board) acted arbitrarily and capriciously in determining that the state did not refuse to bargain collectively in good faith when it gave notice that bargaining unit employees did not have a right to meet with a union officer or steward regarding a grievance on work time, because the board failed to consider whether the state's notice constituted a fait accompli, that is, if the notice was too short a time before implementation or because the employer had no intention of altering its plans. Communication Workers of Am. v. State, 2019-NMCA-031.

Dismissal of complaint was arbitrary and capricious. — Where educational employees' union alleged that the community college had terminated two employees of the college in retaliation for their union-related activities, the college's alleged violation of the college's labor-management relations resolution gave rise to the union's claims that employees' employment was wrongfully terminated for retaliatory reasons, and where the local labor-management relations board (board) elected to dismiss the union's complaint on the ground that there was no conflict between the collective bargaining agreement's provisions requiring discharge or termination for cause and the employee handbook's provisions permitting non-renewal for no reason, the board's dismissal, being based on a ground not alleged in the union's complaint, was arbitrary and capricious. Northern N.M. Fed'n of Educ. Emps. v. Northern N.M. Coll., 2016-NMCA-036, cert. denied.

- B. interfere with, restrain or coerce any public employee in the exercise of a right guaranteed pursuant to the provisions of the Public Employee Bargaining Act;
- C. refuse to bargain collectively in good faith with a public employer;
- D. refuse or fail to comply with a collective bargaining or other agreement with the public employer;
- E. refuse or fail to comply with a provision of the Public Employee Bargaining Act; or

B. A public employer may apply to the district court for injunctive relief to end a strike, and an exclusive representative of public employees affected by a lockout may apply to the district court for injunctive relief to end a lockout.

C. The board or local board, upon a clear and convincing showing of proof at a hearing that a labor organization directly caused or instigated a public employee strike, may impose appropriate penalties on that labor organization, up to and including decertification of the labor organization with respect to any of its bargaining units which struck as a result of such causation or instigation.

10-7E-23. Judicial enforcement; standard of review.

A. The board or local board may request the district court to enforce orders issued pursuant to the Public Employee Bargaining Act, including those for appropriate temporary relief and restraining orders. The court shall consider the request for enforcement on the record made before the board or local board. It shall uphold the action of the board or local board and take appropriate action to enforce it unless it concludes that the order is:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion;
- (2) not supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole; or
- (3) otherwise not in accordance with law.

B. A person or party, including a labor organization affected by a final rule, order or decision of the board or local board, may appeal to the district court for further relief. All such appeals shall be based upon the record made at the board or local board hearing. All such appeals to the district court shall be taken within thirty days of the date of the final rule, order or decision of the board or local board. Actions taken by the board or local board shall be affirmed unless the court concludes that the action is:

- (1) arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion;
- (2) not supported by substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole; or 10-7E-24. Existing collective bargaining units.

A. Bargaining units established prior to July 1, 1999 shall continue to be recognized as appropriate bargaining units for the purposes of the Public Employee Bargaining Act. Bargaining units established between July 1, 1999 and the effective date of that act shall continue in effect only if the unit is covered by a collective bargaining agreement on the date of this act.

B. A labor organization that was recognized by a public employer as the exclusive representative of an appropriate bargaining unit on June 30, 1999 shall be recognized as the exclusive representative of the unit on the effective date of the Public Employee Bargaining Act; provided, however, that the public employer shall not enter into a new collective bargaining agreement pursuant to this subsection unless the labor organization demonstrates majority support to the public employer pursuant to Section 14 [10-7E-14 NMSA 1978] of the Public Employee Bargaining Act. ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010, ch. 62, § 10 made the Hazardous Duty Officers' Employer-Employee Relations Act effective July 1, 2010.

Preemption analysis of municipal ordinance prohibiting employees from seeking elective office. — Municipalities that adopt home rule charters may exercise all legislative powers and perform all functions not expressly denied by general law or charter. To determine whether a state statute denies a home rule municipality certain authority, it must first be determined whether the statute is a general law, that is, whether the law applies generally throughout the state and is of statewide concern as contrasted to local or municipal law, and then it must be determined whether the provision expressly denies a home rule municipality the authority to prohibit its employees from seeking elective office. Kane v. City of Albuquerque, 2015-NMSC-027.

Where the city of Albuquerque's charter and personnel rules prohibit employees of the city from being a candidate for, or from holding elective office of, the state of New Mexico or any of its political subdivisions, petitioner, a city firefighter, claimed that the city charter was not a valid exercise of the city's municipal powers because it was preempted by 10-7F-9 NMSA 1978. The New Mexico supreme court held that 10-7F-9 NMSA 1978 did not preempt the city's charter, because the regulation of government employees' activities under the First Amendment of the United States Constitution touches upon issues of local, not statewide, concern, and therefore this section is not a general law. Moreover, the city's home rule charter falls within this section's "except as otherwise provided by law" exception, such that this section does not preempt municipal employment regulations as applied to hazardous duty officers. Kane v. City of Albuquerque, 2015-NMSC-027.

Source of compensation. — Nothing in the Per Diem and Mileage Act specifies the source from which board members are to receive compensation for travel costs. N.M. Bd. of Veterinary Med. v. N.M. State Highway Dep't, 1991-NMCA-093, 113 N.M. 2, 820 P.2d 436.

Members of the music commission may receive reimbursement for travel expenses to and from commission meetings pursuant to the Per Diem and Mileage Act. — Although 18-16-3(E) NMSA 1978, prohibits members of the music commission from receiving any compensation, perquisite or allowance for their service, the section should be read in the context of, and in harmony with, the Per Diem and Mileage Act, 10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978, which expressly allows "public officials" to be reimbursed for travel expenses, and therefore, members of the music commission are authorized to be reimbursed for travel expenses to and from commission meetings. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 25-03.

Enforcement of dropped restriction disallowed. — Where a 35-mile condition is retained only in a per diem clause of a bargaining agreement and it is clear that the parties intended that the 35-mile condition would not apply to a special living allowance provision, the highway department, once it agrees to drop a restriction during negotiations, cannot now be allowed to enforce it. Local 2238 AFSCME v. N.M. State Highway Dep't, 1979-NMSC-057, 93 N.M. 195, 598 P.2d 1155.

Intent of payment. — Payment under this section is intended to defray costs incurred in travel associated with the performance of public business rather than serve as a salary for services performed. 1977 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 77-20.

10-8-5. Restrictions; rules.

A. The secretary may promulgate rules for state agencies and local public bodies for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978]. Public officials of public post-secondary educational institutions and employees of public post-secondary educational institutions shall be subject to the rules of their governing boards.

B. Public funds may be advanced to any public officer or employee before the travel occurs only with prior written approval of the secretary, the secretary's designee, the local public body or the governing board or its designee. This restriction shall not prohibit the use of authorized credit cards in connection with purchases necessary to the use of vehicles owned by the state, a local public body or a public post-secondary educational institution or for food, lodging or transportation as permitted by the department of finance and administration or the governing board. Public funds shall be paid out under the Per Diem and Mileage Act only upon vouchers duly presented with any required receipts attached thereto. For employees authorized to receive public funds in advance of travel, payment shall be received only upon vouchers submitted with attached authorization for each travel period. For public officers or employees using authorized credit cards, vouchers with required receipts for each month's travel expenses shall be submitted as a condition to receiving authorization to use the credit card for the next month's travel. Travel expenses may also be advanced if the travel is to be performed under provisions of federal or private contracts and the funds used are not derived from taxes or revenues paid to the state or any of its political subdivisions.

C. The secretary may reduce the rates set for the per diem and mileage for any class of public officials and for employees of state agencies, except public officials of public post-secondary educational institutions, at any time the secretary deems it to be in the public interest, and such reduction shall not be construed to permit payment of any other compensation, perquisite or allowance. The secretary shall exercise this power of reduction in a reasonable manner and shall attempt to achieve a standard rate for all public officers and employees of the same classification. The secretary may, at the request of any state agency and for good cause shown, reduce the rates of per diem and mileage for that state agency. The governing body of any local public body may eliminate or may reduce the rates set for the per diem and mileage for all or any class of public officials and employees of the local public body at any time the local public body deems it to be in the public interest, and such reduction shall not be construed to permit payment of any other compensation, perquisite or allowance. The local public body shall exercise this power of reduction in a reasonable manner and shall attempt to achieve a standard rate for all public officers and employees of the same classification. The secretary may, in extraordinary circumstances and with the prior approval of the state board of finance in public meeting, allow actual expenses rather than the per diem rates set in the Per Diem and Mileage Act.

D. The governing board or its designee may reduce the rates set for the per diem and mileage for public officials of public post-secondary educational institutions and for employees of public post-secondary educational institutions at any time the governing board deems it to be in the public interest, and such reduction shall not be construed to permit payment of any other compensation, perquisite or allowance. The governing board shall exercise this power of reduction in a reasonable manner and shall attempt to achieve a standard rate for public officers and employees of public post-secondary educational institutions. The governing board may reduce the rates of per diem and mileage for its public post-secondary educational institution and may, in extraordinary circumstances and in public meeting, allow actual expenses rather than the per diem rates set in the Per Diem and Mileage Act.

E. No reimbursement for out-of-state travel shall be paid to any elected public officer, including any member of the legislature, if after the last day to do so that officer has not filed a declaration of candidacy for reelection to the public officer's currently held office or has been defeated for reelection to the public officer's currently held office in a primary election or any general election.

F. Subsection E of this section does not apply to any elected public officer who is ineligible to serve another term after serving the public officer's term in office.

G. Subsection E of this section does not apply to legislators whose travel has been approved by a three-fourths' vote of the New Mexico legislative council at a regularly called meeting.

H. Any person who is not an employee, appointee or elected official of a county or municipality and who is reimbursed under the provisions of the Per Diem and Mileage Act in an amount that singly or in the aggregate exceeds one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) in any one year shall not be entitled to further reimbursement under the provisions of that act until the person furnishes in writing to the person's department head or, in the case of a department head or board or commission member, to the governor or, in the case of a member of the legislature, to the New Mexico legislative council an itemized statement on each separate instance of travel covered within the reimbursement, the place to which traveled and the executive, judicial or legislative purpose served by the travel.

B. The provisions of Subsection D of Section 10-8-4 NMSA 1978 pertaining to the mileage reimbursement rate for travel in a privately owned vehicle shall not apply to employees of a hospital facility under the control of the board of trustees of a special hospital district created pursuant to the provisions of the Special Hospital District Act [Chapter 4, Article 48A NMSA 1978], if the board of trustees has fixed a mileage reimbursement rate for those employees.

Rules for labor-management relations. — Even if the legislature could delegate its power to make law concerning public sector collective bargaining, and even if it intended to do so in this act, it failed to do so properly, and the rules for labor-management relations promulgated by the personnel board are therefore void and a nullity, since the Personnel Act does not mention collective bargaining, much less any standards to guide the board in fashioning the RLMR. 1987 Op. State land office. — The state land office is presently subject to the Personnel Act. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-99.

Medical center covered by act. — The Los Lunas state hospital and training school (now the Los Lunas medical center) is a state institution and it falls within the category of departments covered by the Personnel Act. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-80.

Agencies already with merit systems. — Nothing in the Personnel Act indicates that agencies that have adopted merit systems are thereby exempted from the operation of the Personnel Act. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-229 (decided under former law).

10-9-2. Purpose of act; enactment under constitution.

The purpose of the Personnel Act is to establish for New Mexico a system of personnel administration based solely on qualification and ability, which will provide greater economy and efficiency in the management of state affairs. The Personnel Act is enacted under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, Section 2 of the constitution of New Mexico, as amended.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-29, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 2; 1963, ch. 200, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Purpose and interpretation of Personnel Act. — The Personnel Act has for its basic purpose the furtherance of economy and efficiency in state government. To achieve this purpose and implement the objectives of the act, the provisions providing for the right of an administrative hearing and judicial review should not be narrowly interpreted so as to restrict such a view. Montoya v. Dep't of Fin. & Admin., 1982-NMCA-051, 98 N.M. 408, 649 P.2d 476.

Legislative intent. — In enacting the Personnel Act it was the desire of the legislature to insulate in some manner the paid state employee from the whims and caprice of the political election so as to provide continuity of government in a changing environment. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-7.

Legislature intended balance between internal and statewide administration. — The legislature intended to strike a balance between the inherent power of a state agency or department to act administratively to adjust or organize itself internally so as to more effectively and efficiently carry out its duties, and the statutory objective of establishing and creating an effective system of state personnel administration. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-33.

Ability of government to be enhanced. — The legislature wished to enhance the ability of government by insuring that the "sifting system" of the public election be replaced by objective examinations to assure that competent citizens are initially selected for the "insulated" positions. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-7.

Merit system provided. — The Personnel Act provides for a merit system, but not a seniority system. 1965 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 65-78A.

State agencies not to engage in collective bargaining. — A collective bargaining agreement between the division of vocational rehabilitation and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees is void, as it is illegal for state agencies governed by the provisions of this article to engage in collective bargaining. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-56.

10-9-3. Definitions.

As used in the Personnel Act:

- A. "director" means the personnel director;
- B. "board" means the personnel board;
- C. "service" means the state personnel service created by the Personnel Act, and includes all positions covered by the Personnel Act;
- D. "position" means any state office, job, or position of employment;
- E. "employer" means any authority having power to fill positions, in an agency;
- F. "agency" means any state department, bureau, division, branch or administrative group which is under the same employer;
- G. "class" means a group of positions similar enough in powers and responsibilities that they can be covered by the same qualifications and rate of pay;
- H. "test" means a test of the qualifications, fitness and ability, and includes tests that are written, oral, physical or in the form of a demonstration of skill or any combination thereof;
- I. "employee" means a person in a position in the service who has completed his probationary period; and
- J. "probationer" means a person in a position in the service who is still in the probationary period for that position.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-30, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Probationer. — Worker who had not completed the probationary period upon reentry into the classified service was not an "employee" within the meaning of Section 10-9-3

NMSA 1978 thus not entitled to appeal rights. Clark v. N.M. Children, Youth & Families Dep't, 1999-NMCA-114, 128 N.M. 18, 988 P.2d 888.

Employer. — The regulation and licensing department was an employer within the definition found in the State Personnel Act (10-9-3E NMSA 1978) since it, not the New Mexico real estate commission (NMREC), hired the employee, employee's title fell under the department, employee's hiring was approved by the superintendent of the department, and the power to control the administration of NMREC necessarily includes the hiring and firing of its employees. N.M. Regulation & Licensing Dep't v. Lujan, 1999-NMCA-059, 127 N.M. 233, 979 P.2d 744.

Effect on person contemplated by 28-15-1 NMSA 1978. — If a person contemplated by 28-15-1 NMSA 1978 has gained the status of an "employee" as that term is defined by this section and the personnel board rules, he will have additional rights under the state personnel board rules that a "probationer" would not. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-108.

Employees not entitled to participate. — Since the employees of an intercommunity gas association worked for a corporation controlled by three separate municipalities rather than for the state itself, such employees were not entitled to participate under the provisions of the State Personnel Act. 1966 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 66-07.

- D. directors of department divisions;
- E. those in educational institutions and in public schools;
- F. those employed by state institutions and by state agencies providing educational programs and who are required to hold valid certificates as certified school instructors as defined in Section 22-1-2 NMSA 1978 issued by the public education department;
- G. those in the governor's office;

H. those in the state militia or the commissioned officers of the New Mexico state police division of the department of public safety;

I. those in the judicial branch of government;

J. those in the public defender department, upon implementation of personnel policies and rules by the public defender commission;

K. those in the legislative branch of government;

L. not more than two assistants and one secretary in the office of each official listed in Subsections A, B and C of this section, excluding members of boards and commissions in Subsection B of this section;

M. those of a professional or scientific nature that are temporary in nature;

N. those filled by patients or inmates in charitable, penal or correctional institutions;

O. state employees if the board in its discretion decides that the position is one of policymaking; and

P. disadvantaged youth under twenty-two years of age regularly enrolled or to be enrolled in a secondary educational institution approved by the public education department or in an accredited state institution of advanced learning or vocational training and who are to be employed for not more than seven hundred twenty hours during any calendar year:

(1) the term "disadvantaged youth" shall be defined for purposes of this exemption by regulation duly promulgated by the board; and

(2) the board shall:

(a) require that all the criteria of this subsection have been met;

(b) establish employment lists for the certification of the highest-standing candidates to the prospective employers; and

(c) establish the pay rates for such employees.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-31, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 4; 1963, ch. 200, § 2; 1967, ch. 181, § 1; 1969, ch. 126, § 1; 1975, ch. 182, § 1; 1977, ch. 247, § 45; 1979, ch. 202, § 6; 1981, ch. 339, § 5; 1987, ch. 254, § 15; 1989, ch. 204, § 10; 1990, ch. 20, § 1; 2014, ch. 78, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2014 amendment, effective May 21, 2014, allowed the public defender commission to adopt personnel policies and rules to exempt department employees from the Personnel Act; and added Subsection J.

Due process requirements. — New Mexico has recognized that nonpolicymaking officials are entitled to due process before they may be dismissed, but members of boards and commissions and heads of agencies appointed by the governor are not entitled to the State Personnel Act's notice and hearing requirements preceding dismissal of state employees. Mitchell v. King, 537 F.2d 385 (10th Cir. 1976).

Removal of personnel from policy-making positions. — By exempting members of boards and commissions and agency heads from the Personnel Act, under Subsection B, the legislature acknowledges that such policy-making positions are different from other types of employment positions and that such category of persons are not entitled to hearings, provided for by 10-9-13H NMSA 1978, before removal from their positions. State ex rel. Duran v. Anaya, 1985-NMSC-044, 102 N.M. 609, 698 P.2d 882.

The Personnel Act applies to all state employees unless specifically excluded. — Where, in 2015, the newly elected New Mexico attorney general, before taking office, terminated certain employees within the office of the attorney general (OAG), and where the employees appealed to the state personnel board (board) claiming that 10-9-4 NMSA 1978 made all employees of the OAG classified employees who could not be discharged without the procedural protections of the Personnel Act, 10-9-1 to -25 NMSA 1978, and where the attorney general claimed that all employees of the OAG are exempt because they all serve at the pleasure of the attorney general pursuant to 8-5-5 NMSA 1978, the board erred in concluding that it did not have subject matter jurisdiction to hear the employees' appeal on the ground that the employees were not entitled to the protections of the Personnel Act, because the Personnel Act, as a comprehensive revision of the law on the subject of state public employment, supersedes 8-5-5 NMSA 1978, and the plain language of this section specifically provides that the Personnel Act applies to "all state positions" except those falling within specific categories. Landau v. N.M. Att'y Gen., 2019-NMCA-041, cert. denied.

Purposes underlying exemptions. — The purposes underlying the exemption of certain classes of employees are not to preclude them from benefits such as vacation and sick leave. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-47.

Meaning of "division". — In determining whether departments are "divisions" for purposes of Personnel Act coverage, it is well to keep in mind that there is nothing magic in the word "division"; whether a subdivision of a governmental agency is termed a unit, department, bureau or something else is not the determining factor. Rather the critical determination is whether the subdivision is a major component within the internal administrative framework of the state agency, with certain policy-making powers vested in the head of the "unit"; if so, the department or unit is a "division" within the meaning of the Personnel Act. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-90.

Certain positions exempt. — The following departments, agencies, offices, etc., are exempt from the Personnel Act because they are neither (1) not state positions within the meaning of the act or (2) they are not official state agencies within the meaning of the act: district judges, New Mexico historical society and probation officers. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-28.

Employing agency's determination of exemption prima facie correct. — When an employing agency employs a person to hold an exempt position and so notifies the personnel department (personnel director), the determination by the employing agency is to be considered as prima facie correct. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

Status of classified employees upon transfer to successor department. — If classified personnel of a department are transferred to a new, supplanting department, the personnel retain the same classified status and position that they held in the former department and are thus within the coverage of the Personnel Act, 10-9-1 NMSA 1978 et seq.; if a classified position is to become exempt from the provisions of the Personnel Act, then it must first become vacant. 1983 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 83-03.

Associate museum directors exempt. — The four associate directors of the museum of New Mexico are exempt from the Personnel Act under Subsection C. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-19.

Judicial employees are specifically exempt from the Personnel Act. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-47.

Coverage of insurance department personnel. — All insurance department personnel are covered under the Personnel Act except those, if any, who have been properly excluded under the provisions of this section. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-121.

Classification of corrections department teachers. — Teachers employed by the department of corrections should be classified as state employees under the State Personnel Act. 1974 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 74-02.

10-9-4.1. Personnel Act; rocky mountain information network employees; exemption from coverage.

A. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10-9-4 NMSA 1978, all employees of the rocky mountain information network who commence employment on or after the effective date of this act are exempt from coverage under the Personnel Act.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10-9-4 NMSA 1978, any employee of the rocky mountain information network who was employed prior to the effective date of this act may elect to become exempt from coverage under the Personnel Act by filing a written election to do so with the director of the rocky mountain information network and the director of the state personnel office. An election is effective upon filing and shall be irrevocable so long as the employee remains employed by the rocky mountain information network.

C. As used in this section, "rocky mountain information network" means that project funded by the United States department of justice, regulated by the provisions of 28 Code of Federal Regulations, Part 23, created as part of the regional information sharing systems program established by the United States department of justice and serving law enforcement agencies in the states of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho and Utah.

History: Laws 1987, ch. 337, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Compiler's notes. — The phrase "effective date of this act", referred to in Subsections A and B, means June 19, 1987, the effective date of Laws 1987, ch. 337.

10-9-5. Public officers and public employees; executive branch; annual exempt salaries plan.

A. The department of finance and administration shall prepare, by December 1 of each year, an exempt salaries plan for the governor's approval. The plan shall specify salary ranges for the following public officer and public employee positions of the executive branch of government:

- (1) members of boards and commissions appointed by the governor;
- (2) heads of agencies or departments appointed by the governor;
- (3) heads of agencies or departments appointed by the respective boards and commissions of the agencies;
- (4) directors of department divisions;
- (5) employees in the governor's office;
- (6) positions in the state militia and the commissioned officers of the New Mexico state police division of the department of public safety;
- (7) assistants and secretaries in the offices of each official covered by Paragraphs (2), (3) and (10) of this subsection;
- (8) positions of a professional or scientific nature which are temporary in nature;

(9) state employees whose positions the personnel board has classified as policy-making positions and exempt employees of elective public officials; and

(10) secretaries of departments appointed by the governor.

B. Excluded from the provisions of this section are employees of the commission on higher education and employees of state educational institutions named in Article 12, Section 11 of the constitution of New Mexico.

C. The exempt salaries plan for the ensuing fiscal year, as prepared by the department of finance and administration and approved by the governor, shall be published as a part of the executive budget document presented to the legislature at its next regular session following the preparation of the plan.

D. Upon the governor's approval, the plan shall take effect at the beginning of the subsequent fiscal year.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1978, ch. 96, § 1, repealed 5-4-31.1, 1953 Comp. (former 10-9-5 NMSA 1978), relating to annual exempt-salaries plan for public officers and employees in the executive branch, and enacted a new 10-9-5 NMSA 1978.

10-9-6. Certified school instructors previously employed under the provisions of the Personnel Act.

Certified school instructors who were employed as certified school instructors by state institutions or state agencies under the provisions of the Personnel Act prior to July 1, 1974, may elect to continue to be employed under the Personnel Act. Certified school instructors who elect to continue under the Personnel Act shall file a notice of such election with the personnel director prior to the effective date of this act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-31.2, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 182, § 2.

10-9-7. Certain rules changes requiring legislative approval.

The state personnel office shall not spend any of its appropriation for the promulgating or filing of rules, policies or plans which have significant financial impact or which would require significant future appropriations to maintain without prior, specific legislative approval.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-31.3, enacted by Laws 1976, ch. 11, § 1; 1980, ch. 6, § 1; 1984, ch. 7, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Rules consistent with section. — Rules of labor-management relations fully protected the legislature's appropriations power since they expressly prohibited any violation of Section 10-9-7 NMSA 1978, and since collective bargaining agreements entered into could only commit funds for purposes for which they had been appropriated, there would be "prior, specific legislative approval". Local 2238 of AFSCME v. Stratton, 1989-NMSC-003, 108 N.M. 163, 769 P.2d 76.

1983 rules violative of section. — The current rules for labor-management relations promulgated by the personnel board in 1983 were promulgated in violation of this section, since the rules contain numerous provisions that have, or are likely to have, a significant financial impact and since no specific, prior legislative approval was given for the promulgation. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-41.

10-9-8. Personnel board; appointment.

The personnel board is created, and shall be composed of five members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate, who shall serve staggered terms of five years each with one board member's term expiring each year. No person shall be a member of the board or eligible for appointment to the board who is an employee in the service, holds political office or is an officer of a political organization.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-32, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 5; 1980, ch. 47, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Meaning of "political office". — Under the theory advanced by a Kentucky court, any person who is elected by the voters to a public office would be deemed holding a political office within the intent of Laws 1961, ch. 240, §§ 5 and 15 (this section and 10-9-21 NMSA 1978). This would be so even if the election were conducted along what is commonly known as nonpartisan lines rather than political party lines. The term "political office" applies to every elected public office within the state including, but not limited to state elected positions, county elected positions and municipal elected positions, even if conducted along nonpartisan lines. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-53.

10-9-9. Board members; pay; meetings.

Each board member shall be paid per diem and mileage according to the Per Diem and Mileage Act [Chapter 10, Article 8 NMSA 1978] when traveling on board business. The board shall meet at the call of the chairman but in the absence of such call, at least once every two months.

10-9-10. Board duties.

The board shall:

- A. promulgate regulations to effectuate the Personnel Act;
- B. hear appeals and make recommendations to employers;
- C. hire, with the approval of the governor, a director experienced in the field of personnel administration;
- D. review budget requests prepared by the director for the operation of the personnel program and make appropriate recommendations thereon;
- E. make investigations, studies and audits necessary to the proper administration of the Personnel Act;
- F. make an annual report to the governor at the end of each fiscal year;
- G. establish and maintain liaison with the general services department; and
- H. represent the public interest in the improvement of personnel administration in the system.

ANNOTATIONS

State law designates the position of personnel director to be a major advisory position. Perez v. N.M. Dep't of Workforce Solutions, 2014-NMCA-035.

Personnel director was not entitled to unemployment compensation. — Where petitioner, who was terminated from petitioner's position as personnel director, sought unemployment compensation; and pursuant to the Personnel Act, the personnel director is the administrative director of a governmental office in charge of Personnel Act matters throughout the entirety of state government, must supervise and advise other employees, agencies, departments, divisions, bureaus, sections, boards and commissions in regard to personnel issues and problems, and must recommend and advise the entity responsible for adopting rules for administration of the Personnel Act, petitioner was not entitled to unemployment compensation because the position of personnel director is designated pursuant to state law as a major advisory position which is subject to the exclusion in 51-1-44(A)(5)(a) NMSA 1978. *Perez v. J. employment of any apparently qualified applicant for a period of not more than ninety days when an emergency condition exists and there are no applicants available on an appropriate employment list as provided in Subsection F of this section. The applicant, if employed, shall be paid at the same rate as a comparable position covered by the Personnel Act.

Where a university manager was terminated by the university; the manager did not follow the grievance process contained in the university's employee handbook by filing a grievance; the handbook governed the manager's employment with the university; and the manager filed an action in district court for breach of contract and wrongful termination alleging that the employee handbook created a contract and that the university breached the contract by failing to abide by the handbook's policies and procedures governing workplace performance, disciplinary action, a harassment-free workplace, employer-employee relations, progressive discipline and by disciplining the manager without just cause, the manager's claims were barred because the manager failed to exhaust the handbook's internal grievance procedures before filing the breach of contract action based on an alleged failure of the university to follow policies in the handbook. Lucero v. Board of Regents of U.N.M., 2012-NMCA-055, 278 P.3d 1043, cert. denied, 2012-NMCERT-004.

Claim under the Human Rights Act was not barred by the Personnel Act. — The protections against discrimination and retaliation contained in the Human Rights Act, Section 28-1-1NMSA 1978 et seq., apply to probationary employees of the state who have been discharged pursuant to the Personnel Act. Rodriguez v. N.M. Dep't of Workforce Solutions, 2012-NMCA-059, 278 P.3d 1047.

Where the employee was hired as a probationary employee of the department of workforce solutions; while the employee was a probationary employee, the employee was given notice of dismissal from the employee's position pursuant to the Personnel Act, which permitted the department to terminate the employee without cause; as a probationary employee, the employee had no property interest in continuing employment; and the employee filed a claim under the Human Rights Act, Section 28-1-1NMSA 1978 et seq., alleging discrimination and retaliation based on sex and age, the employee had a right to pursue the claims under the Human Rights Act. Rodriguez v. N.M. Dep't of Workforce Solutions, 2012-NMCA-059, 278 P.3d 1047.

Misconduct. — The actions of appellant in direct contravention of appellant's superior's instructions to stop yelling at others at the staff meeting was a sufficient basis upon which appellant's supervisors, the state personnel board and the district court could reasonably find misconduct by the appellant within the definition of Rule 14.7(C) of the state personnel rules; the appellant had the status of a supervisor and as such, appellant's behavior and conduct while on duty and while serving the public and individuals who had business with the agency affected the efficiency of the agency. Romero v. Employment Sec. Dep't, 1984-NMCA-111, 102 N.M. 71, 691 P.2d 72.

Rules adopted by board may not abridge statutory rights and duties. — The board has the statutory authority to adopt rules; however, the rules adopted may not abridge the rights or duties imposed by statute. State ex rel. N.M. State Highway Dep't v. Silva, 1982-NMCA-121, 98 N.M. 549, 650 P.2d 833.

Accrual of annual vacation leave. — Juvenile probation officers and their staff who were transferred from the New Mexico judicial branch to the New Mexico executive branch pursuant to the Youth Authority Act, Laws 1988, ch. 101, § 8, were not permitted to continue to accrue annual vacation leave at judicial branch rates under § 47(C) of the act. The rate of accrual of annual leave was not an "accrued benefit" under the plain meaning and structure of § 47(C), which clearly required transferred juvenile probation officers to accrue annual leave at Personnel Act rates from the time of transfer to the executive branch. Whitely v. N.M. State Personnel Bd., 1993-NMSC-019, 115 N.M. 308, 850 P.2d 1011.

Removal of personnel from policy-making positions. — By exempting members of boards and commissions and agency heads from the Personnel Act under Section 10-9-4B NMSA 1978, the legislature acknowledges that such policy-making positions are different from other types of employment positions and that such category of persons are not entitled to hearings, provided for by Subsection H of this section, before removal from their positions. State ex rel. Duran v. Anaya, 1985-NMSC-044, 102 N.M. 609, 698 P.2d 882.

Collective bargaining contracts with governmental employees cannot in any way conflict with, contradict, expand or enlarge the rules of labor-management relations adopted by the state personnel board or any other governmental entity acting in this regard. The same applies to any merit system in place or to be adopted in the future. Local 2238 of AFSCME v. Stratton, 1989-NMSC-003, 108 N.M. 163, 769 P.2d 76.

Change of definition that denied sick leave incentive benefit. — Where a collective bargaining agreement permitted employees who were assigned to shift work in a twenty-four hour facility and who did not utilize sick leave for a calendar quarter to receive eight hours of administrative leave; after an arbitrator decided that the sick leave incentive benefit did not apply only to workers who worked an assignment that constituted an unending twenty-four-hour coverage of the job, the state personnel board adopted a regulation that defined "shift work schedule" to be a normal work schedule assigned to an employee as part of a rotating group of individuals that must continuously maintain a twenty-four hour operation; and the union claimed that some state agencies had in the past given the sick leave incentive to workers working in a twenty-four-hour facility even when the workers did not work in a position requiring continuous shifts within a twenty-four hour period, that the state used the new definition to deny the benefit to workers in jobs that did not require twenty-four hour coverage, that the board attempted to circumvent the arbitrator's decision by adopting a definition that was the opposite of the definition the arbitrator had adopted, that the regulation denied sick leave incentive pay that the state had contractually agreed to provide and had paid in the past, and that the regulation impaired the agreement in violation of the Contract Clause of the United States Constitution and the New Mexico Constitution, the union's complaint adequately pled that the regulation would substantially impair an existing contract right so as to make the regulation unconstitutionally retroactive and stated a cause of action on which relief could be granted. AFSCME Council 18 v. State of N.M., 2013-NMCA-106.

No valid delegation of authority to promulgate rules. — The words "among other things" at the beginning of this section do not constitute a valid delegation of legislative power, authorizing the personnel board to promulgate rules allowing state employees to bargain collectively with state agencies, since the state constitution commits New Mexico to the doctrine of separation of powers and vests the legislative powers in the legislature. It is fundamental that no one of the three branches can delegate effectively any of the powers which belong to it. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-41, overruled by Local 2238 of AFSCME v. Stratton, 1989-NMSC-003, 108 N.M. 163, 769 P.2d 76.

No presumptive ratification of rules. — Legislative acquiescence in and ratification of the rules for labor-management relations promulgated by the personnel board should not be presumed because the legislature did not disapprove collective bargaining when it amended this section in 1975 and Section 10-9-18 NMSA 1978 in 1980. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-41.

Requiring physical examination. — The state personnel board has the authority to require a physical examination of all applicants for employment. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-22.

Harmonization with other act. — The Personnel Act can be harmonized with the provision in the General Appropriation Act that "insurance department personnel shall have qualifications as established by the superintendent of insurance." 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-121.

Granting of overtime pay or time-off. — There is no prohibition against the cattle sanitary board (now livestock board) paying its employees engaged in inspecting meat overtime pay or granting compensatory time-off for the extra hours worked. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-20.

Generally, as to specific work hours. — There is no requirement contained in the New Mexico constitution or statutes that work be done at any specific hours of the day. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-89.

Eight-hour days. — There is no specific requirement, either constitutional or statutory, requiring that employees of the state work an eight-hour day. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-89.

Classification of personnel file as confidential. — Under the rule-making authority of this section and 10-9-10 NMSA 1978, the state personnel board has a limited and restricted right to classify as confidential certain portions of an individual's personnel file which would not otherwise be made available to the state unless on a confidential or restricted basis. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-19.

Salary matter of public record. — An employee's salary, kept and published under this section, is a matter of public record under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978. 1968 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 68-110.

Test score and position. — A job applicant's test score and position on an eligibility list under this section, possessed by the state personnel office, is a public record under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978. 1968 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 68-110.

Medical and employment histories. — The medical history and employment history solicited from an applicant's previous employer, under this section, are not public records under 14-2-1 NMSA 1978. 1968 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 68-110.

Generally, as to employment termination and pay. — Terminal leave pay is available to involuntarily terminated employees at the discretion of the appointing authority. Terminal leave pay is available to voluntarily resigning employees as a matter of right. The only limitations upon the power of the appointing authority to dismiss are that notice must be given in writing to the dismissed employee and an authorized reason for dismissal must be stated therein. The only limitation on the right of the voluntarily resigning employee to terminal pay is the requirement that he must give 14 days' notice to the appointing authority. 1960 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 60-213.

Physician dismissal by miners' hospital board. — The miners' hospital board may dismiss a physician in their employment for not abiding by the rules and regulations of the hospital board, but the physician has the right to appeal the dismissal to the personnel board. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-130.

Dismissal of employees. — The miners' hospital board has the power to remove or discharge any employee, but it must exercise this power in accordance with the rules promulgated by the personnel board. 1964 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 64-130.

Right to board hearing. — An employee covered by the Personnel Act has a right to a personnel board hearing on his dismissal when the reason given for the dismissal is administrative change and a reduction in personnel. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-138.

10-9-13.1. Legislative finding; purpose of act.

The legislature finds that residents of the state are a valuable resource in state employment because of their dedication and commitment to the state they live in. Therefore, the purpose of this act [10-9-13, 10-9-13.1 NMSA 1978] is to encourage residents to remain in the state rather than moving out of state because of unsatisfactory employment opportunities in New Mexico.

History: Laws 1983, ch. 28, § 1.

10-9-13.2. Veteran's preference.

A. In establishing the list of eligibles for appointment, the board shall provide preference points for veterans honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States. Veterans with a service-connected disability shall be awarded ten points over and above their regular test scores. Veterans without a service-connected disability shall be awarded five points over and above their regular test scores.

B. The board shall determine the rank on any employment list by adding the points to the veteran's final passing grade on the examination after the veteran has submitted proof of having status as a veteran at the time of application for employment with a state agency. In the case of a veteran having a service-connected disability, the veteran shall provide proof of a service-connected disability in the form of a certification by the federal veterans' administration. A veteran with or without a service-connected disability shall have his name placed on the list in accordance with the numerical rating of other veterans and nonveterans.

History: Laws 1989, ch. 43, § 1 and Laws 1989, ch. 284, § 1.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 1989, ch. 43, § 1 and Laws 1989, ch. 284, § 1 enacted virtually identical versions of this section. Subsection A was identical in both versions, but Subsection B in the Laws 1989, ch. 43, § 1 version read "The board shall determine the rank on any employment list by adding the points to the veteran's final passing grade on the examination after the veteran has submitted proof of having status as a veteran at the time of application for employment with a state agency. In the case of having a service-connected disability, the veteran shall provide proof of a service-connected disability in the form of a certification by the United States veterans' administration. A veteran in both five and ten point categories shall have his name placed on the list in accordance with the numerical rating of other veterans and nonveterans." The section was set out as enacted by Laws 1989, ch. 284, § 1. See 12-1-8 NMSA 1978.

10-9-14. Blind not barred from competitive examination; method of testing.

A. No agency or officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions shall prohibit, prevent, disqualify or discriminate against any blind person, otherwise qualified, from registering, taking or competing in a competitive entrance or promotion test for any position for which the blind person makes application.

B. The state personnel board and all political subdivisions of the state which require competitive or promotion tests for any position shall provide an adequate and equal test by an appropriate method for any blind person requesting such a test at the time of submitting his application.

All officers and employers of the state shall comply with the Personnel Act. 10-9-16. Status of present employees.

All employees of the state holding positions brought into the classified service by the Personnel Act shall be continued in their positions and become regular employees without original examinations, if they have held the position for at least one year immediately prior to the effective date of the Personnel Act. All other employees of the state holding positions brought into the service by the Personnel Act shall be continued in their positions as probationers until they have, not later than one year from the effective date of the Personnel Act, taken and passed a qualifying test prescribed by the director for the position held. An employee who fails to qualify shall be dismissed within thirty days after the establishment of an employment or promotion list for his position. Nothing in the Personnel Act shall preclude the reclassification or reallocation of any position held by an incumbent.

This section shall not apply to employees of the grant-in-aid agencies whose status as employees or probationers shall be recognized under rules to be promulgated by the board.

10-9-17. Certification of payroll.

No person shall make or approve payment for personnel services to any person in the service, unless the payroll voucher or account of the pay is certified by the director that the person being paid was employed in accordance with the Personnel Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-39, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 12.

ANNOTATIONS

Only concern of personnel department (personnel director) under this section is to certify whether the person shown on a payroll voucher is employed in accordance with the Personnel Act, and this would involve such matters as eligibility for the particular covered position at the particular salary shown on the payroll voucher. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

Certification authority applies only to positions covered under Personnel Act. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

The status and compensation of unclassified (exempt) employees is of no concern to the personnel department (personnel director), as its statutory authority is limited to the "service" defined in Subsection C of Section 10-9-3 NMSA 1978. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

Department of finance and administration corrects computation errors. — If an objection of the personnel office (personnel director) to a payroll voucher goes to errors in computation or something of like nature, it is for the department of finance and administration to see that such errors are corrected. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

Exemption questions determined by attorney general. — The department of finance and administration is to honor a payroll voucher so long as it meets that department's requirements, but if the personnel department is of the opinion that a position is not exempt from coverage under the Personnel Act, a legal question involving statutory interpretation arises, and the matter should be referred to the office of the attorney general for determination. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

Employing agency's determination of exemption prima facie correct. — When an employing agency employs a person to hold a position which is exempt from coverage under the Personnel Act and so notifies the personnel department (personnel director), the determination by the employing agency is to be considered as prima facie correct. 1963 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-105.

10-9-18. Appeals by employees to the board.

A. An employee who is dismissed, demoted or suspended may, within thirty days after the dismissal, demotion or suspension, appeal to the board. The appealing employee and the agency whose action is reviewed have the right to be heard publicly and to present facts pertinent to the appeal.

B. An applicant denied permission to take an examination or who is disqualified may appeal to the board.

C. The technical rules of evidence shall not apply to appeals to the board.

D. A record shall be made of the hearing, which shall be transcribed if there is an appeal to the district court. Costs of the transcripts, including one copy for the board, shall be paid initially by the agency. The cost of the transcripts may be assessed by the court to the losing party on appeal.

E. The board may designate a hearing officer who may be a member of the board or any qualified state employee to preside over and take evidence at any hearing held pursuant to this section. The hearing officer shall prepare and submit to the board a summary of the evidence taken at the hearing and proposed findings of fact. The board shall render a decision, which shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law.

F. If the board finds that the action taken by the agency was without just cause, the board may modify the disciplinary action or order the agency to reinstate the appealing employee to the employee's former position or to a position of like status and pay. Every consideration shall be given to placing the appealing employee in the same geographical location in which the employee was employed prior to the disciplinary action. The board may recommend that the appealing employee be reinstated by an agency other than the one that disciplined the appealing employee. When the board orders an agency to reinstate an appealing employee, the reinstatement shall be effective within thirty days of the board's order. The board may award back pay as of the date of the dismissal, demotion or suspension or as of the later date as the board may specify.

G. A party aggrieved by the decision of the board made pursuant to this section may appeal the decision to the district court pursuant to the provisions of Section 39-3-1.1 NMSA 1978.

H. Where the public employer has entered into a collective bargaining agreement pursuant to the Public Employee Bargaining Act [Chapter 10, Article 7E NMSA 1978] covering the employee, such an employee who is dismissed, demoted or suspended may, within thirty days after the dismissal, demotion or suspension, irrevocably elect to appeal the action through arbitration. An appeal under this subsection shall be conducted in accordance with procedures and requirements as set forth in Subsections A, C and D of this section. The arbitrator shall have all of the powers of the board as set forth in Subsection F of this section. A party aggrieved by the decision of the arbitrator may appeal the decision pursuant to Subsection G of this section. The selection of an arbitrator shall be conducted in accordance with selection procedures set forth in the collective bargaining agreement that covers the employee.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1980, ch. 47, § 2, repealed former 10-9-18 NMSA 1978, relating to appeals by employees to the personnel board, and enacted a new section.

Compiler's notes. — The reference to the "board" throughout this section apparently means the personnel board. See 10-9-3 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, substituted "Section 39-3-1.1" for "Section 12-8A-1" in Subsection G.

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, in Subsection D, substituted "assessed" for "assessed"; rewrote Subsection G and made minor stylistic changes.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS.

Right to hearing to challenge termination. — Federal law and, in general, New Mexico law require that when a state employee is terminated, that employee has a right to a hearing to challenge the termination. Copelin-Brown v. N.M. State Personnel Office, 399 F.3d 1248 (10th Cir. 2005)

Three-day mailing rule and notice of appeal. — While Subsection A of this section does provide that a notice of appeal to the state personnel board shall be filed within 30 days of the notice of termination, this language does not prohibit the board from adopting a three-day mailing rule to provide due process. N.M. Dep't of Health v. Ulibarri, 1993-NMCA-048, 115 N.M. 413, 852 P.2d 686.

Section does not prevent regular cost assessment. — This section is a specific statute that provides only for the cost of the transcript; it does not prevail over the general statutes and rules governing costs. State ex rel. N.M. State Highway & Transp. Dep't v. Baca, 1993-NMCA-149, 116 N.M. 751, 867 P.2d 421, rev'd in part on other grounds, 1995-NMSC-033, 120 N.M. 1, 896 P.2d 1148.

II. SCOPE AND STANDARD OF BOARD REVIEW.

Board acts in quasi-judicial capacity in hearing appeals. — In hearing administrative appeals by employees from agency action, as distinguished from its function in adopting rules and creating policy, the state personnel board acts in a quasi-judicial capacity rather than a policy-making function. Montoya v. Dep't of Fin. & Admin., 1982-NMCA-051, 98 N.M. 408, 649 P.2d 476.

Board may modify agency's action. — The board can find there was employee misconduct and can also determine that the agency's action was inappropriate for the misconduct found by the board. The board may then modify the agency's action, and this includes reinstatement of a dismissed employee. State ex rel. N.M. State Highway Dep't v. Silva, 1982-NMCA-121, 98 N.M. 549, 650 P.2d 833.

Discrimination claims. — The state personnel board is not authorized to adjudicate statutory disability discrimination claims in administrative just-cause termination proceedings. Martinez v. State Eng'r Office, 2000-NMCA-074, 129 N.M. 413, 9 P.3d 657, cert. denied, 129 N.M. 385, 9 P.3d 68.

Just cause. — The rules adopted by the board limiting the meaning of "just cause" to employee conduct does not abridge the authority conferred upon the board by Section 10-9-18(F) NMSA 1978 to determine whether agency action was "without just cause". State ex rel. N.M. State Highway Dep't v. Silva, 1982-NMCA-121, 98 N.M. 549, 650 P.2d 833.

III. APPELLATE REVIEW.

Right to appeal reorganization plan approved by board. — A state employee who was terminated when his position was eliminated because of a lawful reorganization of a department did not have a right to appeal the decision to eliminate his position once the proposed layoff plan had been submitted to the board and the board had given its approval to the plan. Cibas v. N.M. Energy, Minerals & Natural Res. Dep't, 1995-NMCA-046, 120 N.M. 127, 898 P.2d 1265.

Probationer's right to appeal. — Worker who had not completed the probationary period upon reentry into the classified service was not an "employee" within the meaning of Section 10-9-3 NMSA 1978 and thus not entitled to appeal rights. Clark v. N.M. Children, Youth & Families Dep't, 1999-NMCA-114, 128 N.M. 18, 988 P.2d 888, cert. denied, 128 N.M. 148, 990 P.2d 822.

Agency appeal will stay reinstatement order. — An appeal by the highway department operates as a stay of an employment reinstatement order. State ex rel. N.M. State Highway Dep't v. Silva, 1982-NMCA-121, 98 N.M. 549, 650 P.2d 833.

Board not indispensable party on appeal. — The state personnel board is not an indispensable party to an appeal from a final order making an administrative determination as to the employment status of a state employee. Montoya v. Dep't of Fin. & Admin., 1982-NMCA-051, 98 N.M. 408, 649 P.2d 476.

Exhaustion of administrative remedies. — Employees, who were discharged by the state department of corrections, could not bypass the administrative procedure after the state personnel board dismissed their appeal in favor of the pursuit of a breach of contract claim in the district court. Barreras v. State Corrs. Dep't, 2003-NMCA-027, 133 N.M. 313, 62 P.3d 770, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 413, 63 P.3d 516.

Appellate review by district court. — The State Personnel Act limits the role of the district court to appellate jurisdiction as opposed to a fact-finding court of general jurisdiction that would ordinarily apply to breach of contract civil actions. Barreras v. State Corrs. Dep't, 2003-NMCA-027, 133 N.M. 313, 62 P.3d 770, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 413, 63 P.3d 516.

Scope and standard of review by district court. — In determining whether a decision by the board is supported by substantial evidence in the record as a whole, the district court, on appeal, will review the evidence in the light most favorable to the board's decision. Jimenez v. Department of Corrs., 1984-NMSC-089, 101 N.M. 795, 689 P.2d 1266.

District court was without power or authority to decide petitioner's dispute over back pay. — Where the department of health (DOH) terminated petitioner from her employment, and where petitioner appealed her termination through arbitration as provided for under the collective bargaining agreement between the state of New Mexico and state employees, and where the arbitrator sustained petitioner's grievance and ordered DOH to reinstate petitioner and awarded petitioner back pay as of the date of her termination until the date of reinstatement, and where petitioner filed a motion to confirm the award as provided for under NMSA 1978, § 44-7A-23, and where the district court entered an order confirming the arbitration award and ordered DOH to reinstate petitioner and ordered back pay in accordance with the arbitration award, and where DOH provided petitioner with back pay, but in doing so deducted the amount of disability and unemployment compensation payments petitioner had received during her period of unemployment, and where petitioner filed a motion in the district court seeking an order compelling DOH to pay her the full amount of back pay without the deductions, and where the district court denied the motion to compel, finding that DOH was entitled to offset petitioner's earnings as permitted by regulation, the district court was without power or authority to decide petitioner's dispute over the back pay amount that she identified in her motion to compel, because the regulation DOH relied on to make the deductions provided that any dispute regarding back pay shall remain with the arbitrator. Because the parties presented the district court with a dispute that the pertinent regulation reserved for the arbitrator to resolve, the district court did not have the power or authority to rule on the dispute. N.M. Dep't of Health v. Maestas, 2023-NMCA-075.

Substantial evidence. — A reviewing court on appeal must determine whether, on balance, the record as a whole contains substantial evidence to support the hearing officer's finding. Anaya v. N.M. State Personnel Bd., 1988-NMCA-077, 107 N.M. 622, 762 P.2d 909.

Arbitrary and capricious. — Unless a statute provides otherwise, municipal personal board decisions are reviewable on the whole record for arbitrariness, capriciousness, fraud or lack of substantial evidence. Zamora v. Village of Ruidoso Downs, 1995-NMSC-072, 120 N.M. 778, 907 P.2d 182.

Court of appeal's scope of review in reviewing appeals under this article is the same as that of the district court. Gallegos v. N.M. State Corrs. Dep't, 1992-NMCA-013, 115 N.M. 797, 858 P.2d 1276.

IV. SPECIFIC CASES.

Termination without progressive discipline for intentional misconduct. — Where an employee of the corrections department forcefully struck a stack of coins toward the secretary of corrections and the deputy secretary when the secretary greeted the employee causing the coins to strike the secretary and deputy secretary, and cursed at the secretary and deputy secretary, just cause existed to terminate the employee without first imposing progressive discipline. Selmeczki v. N.M. Dep't of Corrs., 2006-NMCA-024, 139 N.M. 122, 129 P.3d 158.

Dismissals from human services department [health care authority department] were in accordance with law and supported by substantial evidence, which included the failure to promptly report the alleged sexual abuse of a child to the proper authorities. Perkins v. Dep't of Human Servs., 1987-NMCA-148, 106 N.M. 651, 748 P.2d 24.

No substantial evidence to support dismissal. — There was not substantial evidence in the record to support the agency's findings that a correctional officer witnessed and failed to report the use of force on an inmate, and the board's decision upholding the officer's dismissal was therefore arbitrary, capricious and contrary to law, where the only direct evidence was the employee's own testimony that he did not see another officer pick up an inmate by the neck and there was no evidence whatsoever that contradicted this testimony. Gallegos v. N.M. State Corrs. Dep't, 1992-NMCA-013, 115 N.M. 797, 858 P.2d 1276.

No just cause for dismissal. — Both the law and the facts supported a hearing officer's finding that charges of continued misconduct and unprofessional behavior including foul language, sexually charged misconduct, and outbursts of anger, did not amount to just cause for dismissal without progressive discipline. N.M. Regulation & Licensing Dep't. v. Lujan, 1999-NMCA-059, 127 N.M. 233, 979 P.2d 744.

Disciplinary action against prison guards upheld. — Substantial evidence supported the hearing officer's conclusion that disciplinary action was properly taken against two prison guards in connection with two inmates' escape where it included evidence from more than one confidential informant that inmates never returned to their cellblock following a class and escaped that night, it was not until two days later that a headcount of that cellblock revealed that two inmates were missing, and the inaccuracy of earlier headcounts was one of the reasons for the disciplinary action. Anaya v. N.M. State Personnel Bd., 1988-NMCA-077, 107 N.M. 622, 762 P.2d 909, cert. denied, 107 N.M. 673, 763 P.2d 689.

10-9-19. Reduction in force.

ANNOTATIONS

Authority to terminate. — Section 10-9-19 NMSA 1978, by providing rehire rights to employees "terminated by an employer in a reduction in force", implicitly authorizes a state agency or department to terminate an employee due to an authorized reduction in force. *Cibas v. 10-9-21. Prohibited acts.

A. No employer shall dismiss an employee for failure or refusal to pay or promise to pay any assessment, subscription or contribution to any political organization or candidate; however, nothing contained in this section shall prevent voluntary contributions to political organizations.

B. No person in the personnel office or employee in the service shall hold political office except for a non-partisan county or municipal office or be an officer of a political organization during his employment. For the purposes of the Personnel Act, being a local school board member or an elected board member of any post-secondary educational institution shall not be construed to be holding political office, and being an election official shall not be construed to be either holding political office or being an officer of a political organization. Nothing in the Personnel Act shall deny employees the right to vote as they choose or to express their opinions on political subjects and candidates.

C. Any employee who becomes a candidate for public office shall, upon filing or accepting the nomination and during the campaign, take a leave of absence. This subsection does not apply to those employees of a grant-in-aid agency whose political activities are governed by federal statute.

D. The director shall investigate any written charge by any person that this section has been violated and take whatever steps deemed necessary.

E. No person shall be refused the right of taking an examination, from appointment to a position, from promotion or from holding a position because of political or religious opinions or affiliation or because of race or color.

F. No employee or probationer shall engage in partisan political activity while on duty.

G. With respect to employees of federal grant-in-aid agencies, the applicable personnel standards, regulations and federal laws limiting activities shall apply and shall be set forth in rules promulgated by the board.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-4-42, enacted by Laws 1961, ch. 240, § 15; 1963, ch. 200, § 6; 1967, ch. 181, § 6; 1983, ch. 81, § 1; 1991, ch. 152, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1991 amendment, effective June 14, 1991, inserted "except for a non-partisan county or municipal office" in the first sentence in Subsection B.

Constitutionality. — Subsection B does not violate the first amendment guarantee of freedom of speech in requiring that certain state employees not hold public office, nor does it deny equal protection by exempting some state employees from its provisions. State ex rel. Gonzales v. Manzagol, 1975-NMSC-002, 87 N.M. 230, 531 P.2d 1203.

Legislative power. — The legislature had the constitutional power under N.M. Const., art. VII, § 2B, to enact this section and to thereby provide, as a qualification or standard for continued employment by the state in a position covered by the State Personnel Act, that the employee not hold "political office." State ex rel. Gonzales v. Manzagol, 1975-NMSC-002, 87 N.M. 230, 531 P.2d 1203.

Example of political office. — The office of city councilman clearly falls within the definition of a "political office" and petitioner who held such office could properly be discharged from his classified state job under this section. State ex rel. Gonzales v. Manzagol, 1975-NMSC-002, 87 N.M. 230, 531 P.2d 1203.

Scope of prohibition in Subsection B. — The words "be an officer of a political organization" are relatively clear. The prohibition (in Subsection B) is without restriction and the legislative intent of these words applies with equal force to the highest and lowest office in a political party or organization. Since there is no restriction, all officers of the party or organization are included within the prohibition, from the state chairman to membership in the central committee or executive committee on down the line to precinct officers and division officers. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-53.

Leave of absence required when running for office. — A state employee may seek election to any county office anywhere in the state if the employee takes a leave of absence from the state job while a candidate and, if elected, the employee resigns from the state job. 1992 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92-01.

Effect of election to public office. — Under the theory advanced by a Kentucky court, any person who is elected by the voters to a public office would be deemed holding a political office within the intent of Laws 1961, ch. 240, §§ 5 and 15 (10-9-8 NMSA 1978 and this section). This would be so even if the election were conducted along what is commonly known as nonpartisan lines rather than political party lines. The term "political office" applies to every elected public office within the state including, but not limited to state elected positions, county elected positions and municipal elected positions, even if conducted along nonpartisan lines. 1961 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 61-53 (rendered prior to 1963 amendment).

Effect of section on municipal election judges or clerks. — Municipal election judges or clerks are not holders of public office under the prohibition of the Personnel Act. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-37.

Candidate for delegate to constitutional convention. — A candidate for the position of delegate to the constitutional convention, which is both a temporary and occasional position, is not a candidate for "public office" and need not take a leave of absence. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-28.

Effect on the delegate. — The position of delegate to a constitutional convention is not a "political office" within the meaning of Subsection B or C of this section. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-28.

Generally, as to delegates. — There is no fundamental inconsistency between the positions of public employee covered by the State Personnel Act and that of delegate to the constitutional convention. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-28.

County commissioners. — County commissioners may not serve as state employees unless they are from Los Alamos County, currently the only county in the state with nonpartisan offices. County commissioners from Los Alamos may be employed in the state personnel service if the two positions are not incompatible. 1992 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 92-01.

Phrase "while on duty" as used in the Personnel Act means to be actually on the job. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-116.

When political activity permissible. — A state employee covered by the Personnel Act may engage in political activity while on annual leave, on week-ends and after working hours during the work week. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-116.

It is unlawful to:

A. make any false statement, certificate, mark or rating with regard to any test, certification or appointment made under the Personnel Act;

B. directly or indirectly give, pay, offer, solicit or accept any money or other valuable consideration or secure or furnish any special or secret information for the purpose of affecting the rights or prospects of any person with respect to employment in the service.

Any person wilfully violating any provision of the Personnel Act or the rules of the board is guilty of a misdemeanor. In addition to the criminal penalties, a person found guilty of a misdemeanor under the Personnel Act is ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in the service, and forfeits his office or position.

Retirement of Public Officers and Employees Generally

10-11-1. Short title.

Chapter 10, Article 11 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Public Employees Retirement Act".

History: Laws 1987, ch. 253, § 1.

State ex rel. State Highway Dep't*, 1989-NMCA-002, 108 N.M. 326, 772 P.2d 360.

Legislative retirement provisions unconstitutional. — The legislative retirement provisions of the Public Employees' Retirement Act, Chapter 10, Article 11 NMSA 1978, are unconstitutional, invalid and unenforceable: Legislators may receive only per diem and mileage under N.M. Const., art. IV, § 10. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-62.

The public employee retirement association possesses the legal authority to deduct union dues, and the administrative costs of such deductions, from pension benefits. — The Public Employees Retirement Act (act) does not address whether the public employees retirement association (PERA) may deduct union dues for its beneficiaries that are also union members, but it does appear that the policy purpose behind the act is to ensure that members benefit from a state-backed retirement plan that accounts for membership needs, including remittance or withholding of funds on behalf of its members, and therefore, where a subsection of PERA's beneficiaries sought dues deductions from their respective benefit amounts for union membership, PERA had the legal authority to deduct union dues from pension benefits of PERA members who are also members of unions. Furthermore, if this subsection of beneficiaries consent to absorbing the administrative costs that accompany the deductions and subsequent remittances to the unions, the subject beneficiaries are knowingly and willingly accepting those administrative costs, which would also appear to comply with the act. PERA Deduction of Dues from PERA Retirement Benefits for RPENM and AFSCME Members and Reimbursement of PERA's Administrative Costs for the Dues Deduction (8/25/21), [Att'y Gen. "Salary". — Injury time payments to city employees which did not exceed the difference between workers' compensation benefits and the employees' regular pay, were not "wages paid for personal services rendered" within the meaning of Subsection P. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

Workers' compensation benefits are not "wages paid for personal services rendered", but rather are benefits to compensate the injured employee for a portion of those wages he might have earned but for his injury during the course of his employment. Thus, the benefits are not "salary" for purposes of Subsection P. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

Subsection U's exclusion of overtime, clothing and other allowances evidences legislative intent to exclude fringe benefits. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

Cash payments to retiring city employees for compensatory time, which were not part of the regular, periodic wages of those employees, were not "salary" for purposes of Subsection P. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

Payments for unused sick leave, whether converted to annual leave or not, were not "salary" as defined by Subsection U. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

Lump sum annual leave payment. — A retired city policeman's benefits could not be calculated to include a lump sum annual leave payment for 586.56 hours where he was covered under a police officers' association's collective bargaining agreement with the city that permitted cash compensation upon termination for "any" unused vacation. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-23.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, added all of the language of Subsection B(7) beginning with "unless" and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Exemption of elected official. — A person who was a contributing member of the retirement association at the time of taking office as an elected official has the right to exempt himself as an elected official. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-90.

An elected official who has been a member of the association for one elected term of office may choose to exempt himself from membership when he commences serving a successive term of that elective office. However, the official may not "retire," resume office under a successive term to which he has been re-elected, and attempt to invoke the "elected official" exception to membership and benefit suspension. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-25.

An elected official who is exempt from membership on June 30, 1987 must file an exemption from membership with respect to that official's successive term of office to remain exempt from membership. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-25.

Person appointed to fill unexpired term of elected official. — A person appointed to fill an unexpired term of an elected official may exempt himself from membership in the association for the remainder of that term. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-25.

An "appointee" to an elective office is an "elected official" for purposes of Subsection B's membership exemption option. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-25.

Employees exempted from membership. — Full-time city public school teacher who was a member of the educational retirement system, and who was simultaneously employed on a part-time basis by the city, was not required to be a member of the Public Employees Retirement Association. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-70. (decided prior to 1995 amendment).

Benefits under Volunteer Firefighters Act precluded. — A Public Employees Retirement Act member, having entitlement to PERA retirement benefits upon meeting the necessary age and service requirements, may not also participate in and receive benefits under the Volunteer Firefighters Act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-75.

Benefits suspended upon employment by entity covered by Educational Retirement Act. — A Public Employees Retirement Act retiree who returns to employment with a governmental entity whose employees are covered exclusively under the provisions of the Educational Retirement Act for retirement purposes may not continue to receive PERA benefits. Such retiree's benefits must be suspended. That retiree is employed by an affiliated public employer and his "membership," within the meaning of that term, is not provided for in the PERA. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-79. (decided prior to 1995 amendment).

10-11-4. Service credit; requirements for; forfeiture; reinstatement.

A. Personal service rendered an affiliated public employer by a member shall be credited to the member's service credit account in accordance with retirement board rules and regulations. Service shall be credited to the nearest month. In no case shall any member be credited with a year of service for less than twelve months of service in any calendar year or more than a month of service for all service in any calendar month or more than a year of service for all service in any calendar year. In no case shall any member be allowed to purchase service credit unless the purchase is authorized in the Public Employees Retirement Act.

B. Personal service rendered an affiliated public employer prior to August 1, 1947 shall be credited to a member if the member acquires one year of service credit for personal service rendered an affiliated public employer.

C. Personal service rendered an affiliated public employer after July 31, 1947 but prior to the date the public employer became an affiliated public employer is prior service and shall be credited to a member if:

(1) the member has the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement. As used in this paragraph, "service credit" means only the service credit earned by the member during periods of employment with an affiliated public employer; and

(2) the member pays the association the amount determined in accordance with Subsection D of this section.

D. The purchase cost for each month of service credit purchased under the provisions of this section is equal to the member's final average salary multiplied by the sum of the member contribution rate and employer contribution rate determined in accordance with the coverage plan applicable to the member at the time of the written election to purchase. Full payment shall be made in a single lump-sum amount in accordance with the procedures established by the retirement board. The portion of the purchase cost derived from the employer contribution rate shall be credited to the employers accumulation fund and shall not be refunded to the member in the event of cessation of membership. In no case shall any member be credited with a month of service for less than the purchase cost as defined in this section.

E. Service credit shall be forfeited if a member terminates employment with an affiliated public employer and withdraws the member's accumulated member contributions.

F. A member or former member who is a member of another state system or the educational retirement system and who has forfeited service credit by withdrawal of member contributions may reinstate the forfeited service credit by repaying the amount withdrawn plus compound interest from the date of withdrawal to the date of repayment at the rate set by the retirement board. Withdrawn member contributions may be repaid in increments of one year in accordance with the procedures established by the retirement board. Full payment of each one-year increment shall be made in a single lump-sum amount in accordance with procedures established by the retirement board.

History: Laws 1987, ch. 253, § 4; 1992, ch. 116, § 3; 1997, ch. 189, § 2; 2013, ch. 225, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1987, Chapter 253 repealed former 10-11-4 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1985, ch. 253, § 1, relating to retirement association and retirement board, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1987.

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, increased the vesting period; in Paragraph (1) of Subsection C, in the first sentence, after "the member", deleted "acquires five" and added "has the applicable minimum number of" and after "service credit", deleted "for personal service rendered an affiliate public employer" and added "required for normal retirement", and added the second sentence.

Severability. — Laws 2013, ch. 225, § 93 provided that if any part or application of Laws 2013, ch. 225 is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, added the third sentence in Subsection A and inserted "retirement" preceding "board" throughout the section.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, substituted "service credit" for "credited service" in the section catchline and several times throughout the section; deleted Subsection B, relating to service rendered as a judge; redesignated Subsections C and D as Subsections B and C; substituted "Subsection D" for "Subsection E" in Subsection C(2); and rewrote Subsections E to G and redesignated them as Subsections D to F.

Early retiree purchase of service credits. — Despite the clarity and precision of its formula for computing the cost of a retiring employee's additional purchased service credit, § 139 of Laws 1987, ch. 253 (uncompiled) was ambiguous; it was ambiguous because of its reference to the seventy-fifth fiscal year (the 12-month period ending June 30, 1987), which had already ended when § 139 became effective on July 1, 1987. The section provided that an employee could purchase up to five years of credited service "during the seventy-fifth or seventy-sixth fiscal year," subject to various conditions. Not only was the statute ambiguous by referring to both the seventy-fifth and seventy-sixth fiscal years at the same time, it was also internally inconsistent; the cost for an additional year of service credit had already been fixed by Section 3 of the 1986 amendment to this article (Chapter 89), and no one argues that § 139 was intended to change that cost, retroactively, to comport with the formula spelled out later in § 139. Thus, the early retirees in the seventy-sixth fiscal year under Laws 1987, Ch. 253, § 139 were required to pay an equivalent amount to purchase service credits as paid by early retirees under Laws 1986, ch. 89, § 3. State ex rel. Helman v. Gallegos, 1994-NMSC-023, 117 N.M. 346, 871 P.2d 1352.

Purchase of increased earnings. — Subsection D does not permit a member to purchase increased earnings, and a contract under a former law which resulted solely in increasing final average salary must be refunded together with the amount of interest paid. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-17.

10-11-4.1. Repealed.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals. — Laws 1987, ch. 253, § 140, repealed 10-11-4.1 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1977, ch. 247, § 48, relating to authorization to build and rent building, effective July 1, 1987.

10-11-4.2. Correction of errors and omissions; estoppel.

A. If an error or omission results in an overpayment to a member or beneficiary of a member, the association shall correct the error or omission and adjust all future payments accordingly. The association shall recover all overpayments made for a period of up to one year prior to the date the error or omission was discovered.

B. A person who is paid more than the amount that is lawfully due him as a result of fraudulent information provided by the member or beneficiary shall be liable for the repayment of that amount to the association plus interest on that amount at the rate set by the retirement board plus all costs of collection, including attorney fees if necessary. Recovery of such overpayments shall extend back to the date the first payment was made based on the fraudulent information.

C. Statements of fact or law made by retirement board members or employees of the retirement board or the association shall not estop the retirement board or the association from acting in accordance with the applicable statutes.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 239, § 1; 1997, ch. 189, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, inserted "retirement" preceding "board" throughout the section; deleted "in an application or its supporting documents" following "omission" in Subsection A; and made a stylistic change in Subsection B.

Constitutionality. — This section is not unconstitutional; it acts merely to bar the remedy of recovery of overpayments made to retirement pension beneficiaries upon the expiration of one year from the date of each overpayment. This section is not intended to, nor does it have the effect of, releasing obligations or liabilities held or owned by or owing to the state. State ex rel. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n v. Longacre, 2002-NMSC-033, 133 N.M. 20, 59 P.3d 500.

10-11-5. Credited service; municipal election to make employee contributions.

A municipal affiliated public employer may elect by resolution of its governing body or by execution of a collective bargaining agreement and in the manner prescribed by the retirement board to be responsible for making contributions of up to seventy-five percent of its employees' member contributions as follows:

A. the resolution or collective bargaining agreement shall be irrevocable; except that:

(1) if the resolution is passed or the collective bargaining agreement is executed on or before June 30, 2020, the percentage of the employee contributions that the municipal affiliated public employer elects to be responsible for making shall apply to the statutory employee contribution rate in effect on June 30, 2020 and shall not apply to any increase in the statutory employee contribution rate that may occur after that date; and

(2) if the resolution is passed or the collective bargaining agreement is executed on or after July 1, 2020, the percentage of the employee contributions that the municipal affiliated public employer elects to be responsible for making shall apply to the statutory employee contribution rate in effect on the date that the resolution is passed or the collective bargaining agreement is executed and shall not apply to any increases in the statutory employee contribution rate that may occur after that date; provided, however, that if the statutory employee contribution rate is decreased after the date that the resolution is passed or the collective bargaining agreement is executed, the percentage of the employee contributions that the municipal public affiliated employer is responsible for making shall apply to the decreased statutory employee contribution rate;

B. a municipal affiliated public employer may by subsequent resolution or collective bargaining agreement:

(1) elect to increase the percentage of employee member contributions for which it will be responsible;

(2) elect to be responsible for a percentage of any increase to the statutory employee contribution rate in effect after the passing of an earlier resolution or the execution of an earlier collective bargaining agreement; or

(3) at the time a new coverage plan is adopted, elect to be responsible under the new coverage plan for making a different percentage of employee member contributions than that which it elected under a previous coverage plan;

C. the resolution or executed collective bargaining agreement shall apply to all employees or else to specified employee divisions of the municipal affiliated public employer and shall be effective the first pay period of the month following the filing of the resolution with the retirement board;

D. the portion of the employee contributions made by the municipal affiliated public employer on behalf of a member shall be credited to the member's individual accumulated member contribution account in the member contribution fund. The member shall be responsible for the difference between the contributions the member would be required to make if the municipal affiliated public employer had not made the election provided for in this section and the amount contributed by the municipal affiliated public employer pursuant to the provisions of this section;

E. pensions payable to members whose municipal affiliated public employer makes the election provided for in this section shall be the same as if the member had made the entire member contribution; and

The 2010 amendment, effective July 1, 2010, in Subsection C, in the introductory sentence, after "Subsection D", deleted "or E"; after "of this section", added "on or after July 1, 2010"; and after "employed by an affiliated public employer", deleted "if the following conditions apply" and added "only pursuant to the following provisions"; in Applicability of elected official exception. — The former wording of the elected official exception clearly indicates that the legislature intended for there to be a difference between a person who "became" an elected official, and a person who was serving a successive term. Therefore, the only conclusion is that a person who begins a successive term has not become an elected official. The elected official exception, on its face, applies only to those who became an elected official after they were already an annuitant. Rainaldi v. Public Emps. Ret. Bd., 1993-NMSC-028, 115 N.M. 650, 857 P.2d 761 (decided under former 10-11-9E NMSA 1978).

Purpose of elected official exception. — The elected official exception serves the limited purpose of encouraging people who have accumulated expertise and wisdom in their years of service to run for elected office after retiring from their former positions. The legislature could not have intended to encourage those who have already been serving to simultaneously collect a salary and retirement benefits earned in that position. Rainaldi v. Public Emps. Ret. Bd., 1993-NMSC-028, 115 N.M. 650, 857 P.2d 761.

Applicability of chief of police exemption after 2010 amendment. — Where the city appointed plaintiff as chief of police in September 2006 without specifying the end date of plaintiff's term of office; at the time of the appointment, plaintiff was a PERA retiree and 10-11-8(D) NMSA 1978 contained a chief of police exemption that permitted plaintiff to receive both a pension and a salary; in 2010, 10-11-8 NMSA 1978 was amended to remove the exemption and require that the pension of a PERA retiree appointed as chief of police after July 1, 2010 be suspended; defendant sought to suspend plaintiff's pension after the city's March 2012 election; and plaintiff claimed that because plaintiff's appointment was for an indefinite term, the exemption remained in effect until plaintiff's term of office terminated, plaintiff's term of office commenced following the March 2010 municipal election and ended when the city held its organizational meeting following the March 2012 election, because municipal appointees serve definitive terms of two years subject to reappointment at the municipality's organizational meeting following each biennial municipal election. City of Artesia v. PERA of N.M., 2014-NMCA-009, cert. denied, 2013-NMCERT-011.

Effect of 1987 recodification. — The 1987 recodification of the public employees retirement act does not permit a normal or disability retirement pension to be made retroactive. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-15.

Written application for retirement. — The public employees retirement board may not excuse the statutory requirement that a member file a written application for retirement, even where a member alleges that he made verbal requests of the public employees retirement association for an application form but did not receive the form promptly, since strict compliance with the statutory requirements for receiving retirement benefits is required. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-33.

Death not treated as retirement. — An employee who dies during employment does not retire, and thus an employee's affidavit directing that his death be treated as his retirement is ineffectual. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-06.

The general rule under Subsection F (now Subsection D) is that a retiring member who has coverage under two different coverage plans will receive benefits calculated under the provisions of the better coverage plan if the member has three years of credited service under the better coverage plan. If not, the member will receive benefits calculated under the provisions of the lesser coverage plan. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-66.

The only exception to the general rule under Subsection F (now see Subsection D) is where the retiring member acquires credited service under two coverage plans "applied to the same affiliated public employer" This exception must be strictly construed, because it departs from the general rule, financially impacts the association as imminent retirees make little contribution toward the greater benefits, and envisions potential manipulation and abuse as demonstrated by the association's experience with the "loopholers" or "job jumpers". 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-66.

The object to the phrase "same affiliated public employer" in Subsection F (now Subsection D) is to prevent "job jumping" from a public employer covered under a lower benefit formula to a public employer covered under a higher benefit formula to retire at the higher formula from the second entity after working, if at all, for a brief period of time. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-66.

Reappointment after suspension of benefits. — County treasurer could not retire in June, 1988, and resume office as county treasurer without suspension of public employee retirement benefits, if the county commission reappointed him as county treasurer to serve the remainder of his unexpired term, ending December 31, 1988. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-80.

Suspension of benefits upon resumption of employment. — An employee of the department of finance and administration, retired pursuant to the provisions of Public Employee's Retirement Act, may not resume employment with the department of education without suspension of retirement benefits. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-37 (decided under former 10-11-22 NMSA 1978).

An employee of a public school system, retired pursuant to the provisions of the Educational Retirement Act, may not resume employment with the department of education without suspension of educational retirement benefits. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-38 (decided under former Section 10-11-8 NMSA 1978).

The suspension provisions of the disbursing system apply to the benefits granted pursuant to the reciprocity act to a member retired under the public employee retirement association and the educational retirement system who resumes employment. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-22.

Public Employee Retirement Act annuitants whom the department of education subsequently employs and who elect to participate in the educational retirement system by making contributions to that system do not "qualify for (retirement) coverage" under 22-11-17D NMSA 1978, since they are not considered as having acquired any service credit for purposes of educational retirement benefits. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-37 (decided under former Section 10-11-22 NMSA 1978).

Exception to 3-year credited service requirement. — Because a leave of absence without pay can be distinguished from a termination of employment, is not a complete separation of employment, and denotes continuity of employment status, members who take a bona fide leave of absence without pay are eligible for Subsection F's (now see Subsection D) exception to the three-year credited service requirement for coverage under state general member coverage plan 2. 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-19.

Reemployment as seasonal employees of legislature. — Retirees of the Public Employees Retirement Association who are reemployed as seasonal employees by the state legislature are subject to benefit suspension when they exceed the maximum earnings permitted by former Subsection C. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-15.

10-11-10.1. Disability retirement.

A. There is created a "disability review committee" of the retirement board. The disability review committee shall consist of at least three but not more than five retirement board members and at least one physician licensed in New Mexico appointed by the retirement board. The disability review committee shall review all applications for disability retirement, review reports required under this section and approve or deny applications for disability retirement.

B. The disability review committee may retire a member on account of disability before the time the member would otherwise be eligible for retirement if the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) the member applying for disability retirement was a member at the time the disability was incurred;

(2) a written application for disability retirement, in the form and containing the information prescribed by the association, has been filed with the association by the member or by the member's affiliated public employer;

(3) employment is terminated within forty-five days of the date of approval of the application for disability retirement;

(4) if:

(a) the member has the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "service credit" means only the service credit earned by the member during periods of employment with an affiliated public employer; or

(b) the disability review committee finds the disability to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer;

(5) the member submits to all medical examinations and tests and furnishes copies of all medical reports requested by the association or disability review committee; provided that if the disability review committee requires independent medical or other examinations, those examinations shall be performed at the association's expense; and

(6) the disability review committee makes the determination required under Subsection C of this section.

C. The disability review committee shall review applications for disability retirement to determine whether:

(1) if the member is a currently employed, contributing employee of an affiliated public employer:

(a) the member is mentally or physically totally incapacitated for continued employment with an affiliated public employer; and

(b) the incapacity is likely to be permanent; or

(2) if the member is not a currently employed, contributing employee of an affiliated public employer:

(a) the member is mentally or physically totally incapacitated for any gainful employment; and

(b) the incapacity is likely to be permanent.

D. The disability retirement pension shall be paid for a period of one year after approval of the initial application unless the disability review committee for good cause shown grants disability retirement for a longer period of time. After approval, payment shall be effective commencing the first of the month following submission of the initial application and termination of employment.

E. At the end of the first year that a disability retirement pension is paid, the disability retired member's condition shall be reevaluated to determine eligibility for continuation of payment of a disability retirement pension. If the disability retired member has applied for disability benefits under the federal social security program, the member shall submit copies of the member's application. The association shall continue payment of the state disability retirement pension if the disability retired member presents a written final determination from the federal social security administration that the disability retired member qualifies, based on the same conditions as presented in the application for a state disability retirement pension, for federal disability benefits.

F. If the disability retired member applied for federal disability benefits within thirty days of receiving approval for a state disability retirement pension but the federal social security administration has not made a written final determination of entitlement by the end of the first year that the disability retired member has received a state disability retirement pension, eligibility for continued payment of the state disability retirement pension shall be determined by the disability review committee. The state disability retirement pension shall be discontinued if the disability review committee finds that the disability retired member is capable of any gainful employment.

G. The disability retired member shall notify the association of the federal social security administration's final determination within fifteen working days of the date of issuance of the final written determination. If the federal social security administration denies federal disability benefits, the state disability retirement pension shall be discontinued effective the first of the month following the month in which the written final determination of the federal social security administration was issued. If the federal social security administration grants federal disability benefits, the state disability retirement pension shall be continued so long as the disability retired member provides annually, on or before the anniversary date of commencement of payment of the state disability retirement pension, written evidence of continuation of payment of federal disability benefits. If the disability review committee has denied continuation of payment of a state disability retirement pension and the disability retired member is later granted federal disability benefits, the state disability retirement pension shall be reinstated effective the first of the month following the month in which the state disability retirement pension was discontinued.

H. If, at the time of reevaluation under Subsection E of this section, the disability retired member has applied for and has qualified for federal disability benefits, but for a different condition than was reviewed by the disability review committee, the disability review committee shall review the disability retired member's condition as described by the application for federal disability benefits. The process set forth in Subsection I of this section shall be followed to determine whether payment of a state disability retirement pension should be continued.

I. If the disability retired member is not eligible to apply for federal disability benefits or is not a member of the federal social security program, the disability review committee annually shall determine eligibility for continuation of payment of a state disability retirement pension. To make its determination of continued entitlement, the disability review committee shall use the guidelines established by the federal social security administration for determination of eligibility for federal disability benefits. The determination shall be based on:

(1) the medical and all other information provided by the disability retired member;

(2) at least one independent medical or other examination performed at the association's expense if required by the disability review committee; and

(3) any medical, vocational or other information related to the disability compiled during the period of disability by any medical or other practitioner consulted by the disability retired member regarding the disability which was not paid for by the association.

J. Each disability retired member annually shall submit to the association, prior to July 1, a statement of earnings from gainful employment during the preceding calendar year. The statement of earnings shall be in the form prescribed by the association. Payment of the state disability retirement pension shall be discontinued if the amount of earnings from gainful employment is one hundred percent or more of the amount that causes a decrease or suspension of an old age benefit under the federal social security program, or fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), whichever is less. Payment of the state disability retirement pension shall be discontinued starting with the month of July if the statement of earnings is not received by the association prior to July 1.

K. Upon prior approval by the association, a disability retired member may return to employment with an affiliated public employer or other employer for a trial period not to exceed one hundred twenty calendar days without becoming a member or causing suspension or discontinuation of payment of a state disability retirement pension. If the trial period of employment is successfully completed, payment of the disability retirement pension shall be discontinued beginning the first of the month following the one hundred twentieth day of the trial period of employment. Trial periods of employment shall be limited to two in any five-year period following disability retirement.

L. If the disability retired member meets the minimum age and service credit requirements for normal retirement while receiving a disability retirement pension, the disability retirement pension shall be reclassified by the association as a normal retirement pension and no further determinations of eligibility for continuation of payment of the disability retirement pension shall be made. Upon reclassification as a normal retirement pension, all the provisions of the Public Employees Retirement Act regarding normal retirement shall be applicable.

M. If the disability review committee found the disability to be the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's employment with an affiliated public employer, service credit shall continue to accrue during the disability retirement period as though the disability retired member was actively employed.

N. The amount of a disability retirement pension shall be calculated according to the provisions of the coverage plan applicable to the member at the time of application, except that the service credit requirement shall be waived and the actual amount of service credit shall be used instead. If the disability is the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty for an affiliated public employer, the amount of disability retirement pension shall be calculated according to the provisions of the coverage plan applicable to the member, imputing the amount of service credit necessary to meet the minimum service credit requirements for normal retirement.

O. For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "continued employment with the affiliated public employer" means the ability of the member to fulfill the required duties of the position in which the member was last employed by an affiliated public employer;

(2) "gainful employment" means remunerative employment or self-employment that is commensurate with the applicant's background, age, education, experience and any new skills or training the applicant may have acquired after terminating public employment or incurring the disability;

(3) "state disability retirement pension" means the pension paid pursuant to the provisions of this section; and

(4) "federal disability benefits" means those benefits paid by the federal social security program.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 160, § 3; 2013, ch. 225, § 6.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, clarified how service credit will be calculated for disabled members; increased the vesting period; in Subparagraph (a) of Paragraph (4) of Subsection B, in the first sentence, after "the member has", deleted "five or more" and added "the applicable minimum number of", and after "service credit", added "required for normal retirement", and added the second sentence.

Severability. — Laws 2013, ch. 225, § 93 provided that if any part or application of Laws 2013, ch. 225 is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

Retirement due to disability. — The requirement that an employee have one and one-half years earned service credit to qualify for payment under coverage plan 3 supplements the service credit requirements for normal requirement and does not apply to employees who apply for early retirement due to a disability. Garcia-Montoya v. Pub. Emps. Ret. Bd., 2006-NMCA-094, 140 N.M. 175, 140 P.3d 1124.

The operative date for determining an applicant's membership status for purposes of disability retirement benefits is the date disability was incurred. Gonzales v. N.M. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n, 2009-NMCA-109, 147 N.M. 201, 218 P.3d 1249.

Membership status is determined as of the date disability was incurred. — Where petitioners were currently employed, contributing members at the time their disabilities were incurred, and petitioners were currently employed but not contributing members at the time they applied for disability retirement benefits, the operative date for determining petitioners' status for purposes of disability retirement benefits was the date disability was incurred and petitioners were required to demonstrate total physical and mental incapacity for continued employment with an affiliated public employer, but not total physical and mental incapacity for any gainful employment. Gonzales v. N.M. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n, 2009-NMCA-109, 147 N.M. 201, 218 P.3d 1249.

Public employee retirement board's decision denying duty-related benefits arbitrary and capricious. — In an appeal from the denial of disability retirement benefits where the parties did not dispute that petitioner was disabled and that her disability was solely and exclusively a result of her work, and where the hearing officer recommended finding that a preponderance of evidence supported a finding that no pre-existing condition was a significant contributing factor material to petitioner's disability, the public employee retirement board's (board) contrary finding that a pre-existing condition had not been resolved and decision denying duty-related disability benefits was arbitrary and capricious, because the board violated its own regulation by failing to review the record before the hearing officer prior to modifying a proposed finding of fact, failed to provide a reasoned basis for its new findings of fact, and failed to consider contrary evidence, and the board's new findings had no rational basis in light of the whole record. Vigil v. Public Emp. Ret. Bd., 2015-NMCA-079, cert. denied, 2015-NMCERT-008.

Meaning of "gainful employment" in regard to geographic area. — In order to be entitled to disability retirement benefits, an employee must establish that no "gainful employment" is attainable within the State of New Mexico, unless the employee presents substantial evidence that the application of this statewide standard to the employee is unreasonable. Talamante v. N.M. Pub. Emps. Ret. Bd., 2006-NMCA-032, 139 N.M. 226, 131 P.3d 76.

"Commensurate" employment. — The board failed to comply with the requirements of this section in evaluating claimant's application for disability benefits, because it failed to factually determine whether the work he was able to perform was substantially "commensurate", in terms of remuneration with the work he was performing at the time of his disability or would have been capable of performing, absent the disability. Johnson v. Pub. Emps. Ret. Bd., 1998-NMCA-174, 126 N.M. 282, 968 P.2d 793, cert. denied, 126 N.M. 532, 972 P.3d 351.

Return for "trial period". — A disability annuitant retired under the provisions of the Public Employees Retirement Act in effect before July 1, 1987, could return to employment for a "trial period" pursuant to Subsection D of former Section 10-11-11 NMSA 1978 (see now Subsection K). 1988 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 88-44.

Suspension of benefits when member capable of resuming gainful employment.

— To construe Subsection C of former 10-11-11 NMSA 1978 (see now Subsection F) as requiring the retirement board to continue disability benefits to a member who is capable of engaging in gainful employment is wholly foreign to the statutory scheme governing disability benefits, would be a radical departure from former law, is inconsistent, and would amount to reading into the statute significant obligations against the association's funds that the legislature has not contemplated. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-09.

Rule adopted by the retirement board, providing for suspension of disability benefits if a member is capable of resuming gainful employment, was consistent with the statutory scheme governing the grant and continuation of disability benefits and was a reasonable implementation of Subsection C of former 10-11-11 NMSA 1978 (see now Subsection F). 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-09.

Legislative intent, as to contributing service. — The five years of contributing service for each employee was placed in former 10-11-10 NMSA 1978 by the legislature, with the intent that it be a safeguard to protect the association and the board from retiring employees for nonduty disability when they enter the service of the state or any of its agencies, and who were already disabled and could work for the state or its agencies for a few weeks or months and then claim nonduty disability. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6449.

Retroactive award prohibited. — The Public Employees Retirement Association may not award disability benefits retroactive to the date on which the member's name last appeared on the payroll with pay. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-18.

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 160, § 9 repealed 10-11-11 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1987, ch. 253, § 11, concerning reevaluation of disability retired members and termination of disability pension, effective June 18, 1993. 10-11-12. Status of disability retired member upon termination of disability retirement.

A. The membership status of a disability retired member following termination of the disability retirement pension shall be governed by the membership provisions of the Public Employees Retirement Act. Upon reacquisition of membership, the credited service of the member at time of disability retirement shall be restored. Credited service shall not be granted for the period of disability retirement unless the retirement board has found the disability to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the disability retired member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer. In no case shall credited service be granted for disability retirement time incurred after the date the disability retired member meets an age and service requirement for normal retirement or after the date the disability retired member attains age sixty-five years.

B. A terminated disability retired member who does not reacquire membership shall have actual credited service at time of disability retirement restored and shall become a vested former member. The former disability retired member may retire upon meeting the requirements for normal retirement specified by the applicable coverage plan, except the service requirement for normal retirement at age sixty-five years or older shall be waived.

10-11-14.5. Death before retirement; survivor pensions.

A. A survivor pension may be paid to certain persons related to or designated by a member who dies before normal or disability retirement if a written application for the pension, in the form prescribed by the association, is filed with the association by the potential survivor beneficiary or beneficiaries within one year of the death of the member. Applications may be filed on behalf of the potential survivor beneficiary or beneficiaries or by a person legally authorized to represent them.

B. If there is no designated survivor beneficiary and the retirement board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer, a survivor pension shall be payable to the eligible surviving spouse. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the coverage plan applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

C. A survivor pension shall also be payable to eligible surviving children if there is no designated survivor beneficiary and the retirement board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer. The total amount of survivor pension payable for all eligible surviving children shall be either:

(1) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary if an eligible surviving spouse is not paid a pension; or

(2) twenty-five percent of the deceased member's final average salary if an eligible surviving spouse is paid a pension.

The total amount of survivor pension shall be divided equally among all eligible surviving children. If there is only one eligible child, the amount of pension shall be twenty-five percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

D. If the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement, but the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer and there is no designated survivor beneficiary, a survivor pension shall be payable to the eligible surviving spouse. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the coverage plan applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the total amount of actual service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

E. If the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement, but the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer and there is no designated survivor beneficiary, and if there is no eligible surviving spouse at the time of death, a survivor pension shall be payable to and divided equally among all eligible surviving children, if any. The total amount of survivor pension payable for all eligible surviving children shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the coverage plan applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B with the oldest eligible surviving child as the survivor beneficiary using the total amount of actual service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

F. An eligible surviving spouse is the spouse to whom the deceased member was married at the time of death. An eligible surviving child is a child under the age of eighteen years and who is an unmarried, natural or adopted child of the deceased member.

G. An eligible surviving spouse's pension shall terminate upon death. An eligible surviving child's pension shall terminate upon death or marriage or reaching age eighteen years, whichever comes first.

H. If there is no designated survivor beneficiary and there is no eligible surviving child, the eligible surviving spouse may elect to be refunded the deceased member's accumulated member contributions instead of receiving a survivor pension.

I. A member may designate a survivor beneficiary to receive a pre-retirement survivor pension, subject to the following conditions:

(1) a written designation, in the form prescribed by the association, is filed by the member with the association;

(2) if the member is married at the time of designation, the designation shall only be made with the consent of the member's spouse, in the form prescribed by the association;

(3) if the member is married subsequent to the time of designation, any prior designations shall automatically be revoked upon the date of the marriage;

(4) if the member is divorced subsequent to the time of designation, any prior designation of the former spouse as survivor beneficiary shall automatically be revoked upon the date of divorce; and

(5) a designation of survivor beneficiary may be changed, with the member's spouse's consent if the member is married, by the member at any time prior to the member's death.

J. If there is a designated survivor beneficiary and the retirement board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer, a survivor pension shall be payable to the designated survivor beneficiary. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the coverage plan applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the member at the time of death; or

(2) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

K. If there is a designated survivor beneficiary, if the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement and if the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty with an affiliated public employer, a survivor pension shall be payable to the designated survivor beneficiary. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the coverage plan applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary.

L. If all pension payments permanently terminate before there is paid an aggregate amount equal to the deceased member's accumulated member contributions at time of death, the difference between the amount of accumulated member contributions and the aggregate amount of pension paid shall be paid to the deceased member's refund beneficiary. If no refund beneficiary survives the survivor beneficiary, the difference shall be paid to the estate of the deceased member.

M. For purposes of this section, "service credit" means only the service credit earned by a member during periods of employment with an affiliated public employer.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, clarified how service credit will be calculated for survivors of members who die before retirement; increased the vesting period; in Subsection D, in the first sentence, after "If the member had", deleted "five or more" and added "the applicable minimum number of" and after "service credit", added "required for normal retirement"; in Subsection E, in the first sentence, after "if the member had", deleted "five or more" and added "the applicable minimum number of" and after "service credit", added "required for normal retirement"; in Subsection K, in the first sentence, after "If the member had", deleted "five or more" and added "the applicable minimum number of" and after the phrase "service credit", added "required for normal retirement"; and added Subsection M.

Severability. — Laws 2013, ch. 225, § 93 provided that if any part or application of Laws 2013, ch. 225 is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

Interest of surviving spouse. — The vested interest in the pension benefits of a deceased member of the public employees retirement association, who has not retired, does not pass to the deceased member's spouse upon the death of the deceased member. The interest of the surviving spouse is limited to the interest created by the Public Employees Retirement Act. Under the Act, the surviving spouse of a deceased member who had not retired has a property interest only in the survivor's benefit which is conditioned upon the fulfillment of statutory requirements. Martinez v. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n of N.M., 2012-NMCA-096, 286 P.3d 613, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-009.

One-year limitation to file an application for benefits does not violate due process. — The one-year limitation to file an application for pension benefits and the documentation requirements in Subsection A of Section 10-11-14.5 NMSA 1978 does not violate the substantive due process rights of a survivor beneficiary because they are rationally related to the legitimate government interests of promoting the fiduciary purpose of the Public Employees Retirement Act and preventing fraud. Martinez v. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n of N.M., 2012-NMCA-096, 286 P.3d 613, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-009.

Failure to comply with statutory requirements. — Where plaintiff's spouse, who had worked for the state for seven years and had contributed to the public employees retirement association, died; plaintiff had a property interest in survivor's benefits; plaintiff sent a letter and a copy of the death certificate to defendant in which plaintiff notified defendant of the death of plaintiff's spouse, requested that defendant send plaintiff any paperwork needed to receive a survivor pension, and asked defendant to conduct an audit of the decedent's file to determine the benefits due to plaintiff; defendant sent plaintiff the prescribed application form for survivor benefits and asked plaintiff to complete and return the application; defendant did not notify plaintiff that there was a deadline for submission of the application; and plaintiff sent the completed application to defendant more than two years after plaintiff's spouse died, plaintiff failed to substantially comply with the requirements of Section 10-11-14.5 NMSA 1978 which governed plaintiff's right to survivor benefits, plaintiff's claim for survivor benefits was barred, and plaintiff was not denied substantive due process. Martinez v. Pub. Emps. Ret. Ass'n of N.M., 2012-NMCA-096, 286 P.3d 613, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-009.

"Final average salary". — The "final average salary" figure may not include lump sum payments for annual leave, sick leave or sick leave converted to annual leave, because such payments are not "salary" within the meaning of the Public Employees' Retirement Act. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-06.

10-11-14.6. Calculation of final average salary.

Under the Public Employees Retirement Act:

A. for a member who was a member on June 30, 2013, the final average salary is one thirty-sixth of the greatest aggregate amount of salary paid a member for thirty-six consecutive, but not necessarily continuous, months of service credit; and

B. for a member who was not a member on June 30, 2013, the final average salary is one-sixtieth of the greatest aggregate amount of salary paid a member for sixty consecutive, but not necessarily continuous, months of service credit.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, changed the benefits for members initially employed after June 30, 2013 by reducing the multiplier and increasing the numbers of years used to calculate the final average salary; in the introductory sentence, after "Under", deleted "each coverage plan of"; in Subsection A, at the beginning of the sentence, added "for a member who was a member on June 30, 2013"; and added Subsection B.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1987, Chapter 253 repealed former 10-11-24 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1973, ch. 344, § 2, relating to employment without suspension of annuity, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1987.

Early retiree purchase of service credits. — Despite the clarity and precision of its formula for computing the cost of a retiring employee's additional purchased service credit, § 139 of Laws 1987, ch. 253 (uncompiled) was ambiguous; it was ambiguous because of its reference to the seventy-fifth fiscal year (the 12-month period ending June 30, 1987), which had already ended when § 139 became effective on July 1, 1987. The section provided that an employee could purchase up to five years of credited service "during the seventy-fifth or seventy-sixth fiscal year," subject to various conditions. Not only was the statute ambiguous by referring to both the seventy-fifth and seventy-sixth fiscal years at the same time, it was also internally inconsistent; the cost for an additional year of service credit had already been fixed by Section 3 of the 1986 amendment to this article (Chapter 89), and no one argues that § 139 was intended to change that cost, retroactively, to comport with the formula spelled out later in § 139. Thus, the early retirees in the seventy-sixth fiscal year under Laws 1987, ch. 253, § 139 were required to pay an equivalent amount to purchase service credits as paid by early retirees under Laws 1986, ch. 89, § 3. State ex rel. Helman v. Gallegos, 1994-NMSC-023, 117 N.M. 346, 871 P.2d 1352.

10-11-25. State general member coverage plan 2; member contribution rate.

A member under state general member coverage plan 2 shall contribute six and eighteen one-hundredths percent of salary starting with the first full pay period in the calendar month in which state general member coverage plan 2 becomes applicable to the member.

An adequate legal remedy precludes a claim for injunctive relief. — Where plaintiff husband, a retired member of the public employees retirement association, sought declaratory relief under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 44-6-1 to -15 NMSA 1978 (1975) after he executed and delivered a one-time irrevocable option to deselect his wife as his survivor beneficiary and designate his daughter as the new survivor beneficiary, but later claimed that the deselection of wife and designation of daughter was a mistake, and where the public employees retirement board (PERB) declined plaintiff's request to void the action, the district court properly dismissed plaintiff's claim for injunctive relief, because the PERB has authority under 10-11-120 NMSA 1978 to determine in the first instance whether 10-11-116(E) NMSA 1978 permits reversal of a member's mistaken deselection of a survivor beneficiary, because a court may not exercise an equitable remedy to accomplish a goal that a statute has foreclosed. Gzaskow v. Public Employees Ret. Bd., 2017-NMCA-064.

10-11-117. Forms of payment of a pension.

C. Life payment with one-half continuation to one survivor beneficiary is form of payment C. The retired member is paid a reduced pension for life under form of payment C. When the retired member dies, the designated survivor beneficiary is paid one-half the amount of the reduced pension until the death of the survivor beneficiary or the death of the beneficiary of a supplemental needs trust. If shares are not specified in writing and filed with the association, each declared eligible child is paid an equal share of the reduced pension. A redetermination of shares shall be made when the pension of any child terminates. An eligible child is a natural or adopted child of the retired member who is under age twenty-five years. A declared eligible child is an eligible child whose name has been declared in writing and filed with the association by the retired member at the time of election of form of payment D. The amount of pension shall be changed to the amount of pension that would have been payable had the retired member elected form of payment A upon there ceasing to be a declared eligible child during the lifetime of the retired member.

If all pension payments permanently terminate before there is paid an aggregate amount equal to the retired member's accumulated member contributions at the time of retirement, the difference between the amount of accumulated member contributions and the aggregate amount of pension paid shall be paid to the retired member's refund beneficiary. If no refund beneficiary survives the retired member, the difference shall be paid to the estate of the retired member.

(4) "smoothed investment rate of return" means a calculation made by spreading the difference between the expected actuarial value in investment income and the actual market value investment income over a smoothing period, as determined by the association's actuaries.

B. A qualified pension recipient is eligible for a cost-of-living pension adjustment. A qualified pension recipient is:

(1) a normal retired member who has been retired for at least two full calendar years from the effective date of the latest retirement prior to July 1 of the year in which the pension is being adjusted;

(2) a normal retired member who has attained the age of sixty-five years and has been retired for at least one full calendar year from the effective date of the member's latest retirement prior to July 1 of the year in which the pension is being adjusted;

C. Except as provided in Subsections F, G and H of this section, during fiscal years 2021, 2022 and 2023, a qualified pension recipient shall receive an annual, non-compounding, additional payment. The amount of the payment shall be determined by multiplying the amount of annual pension payments, inclusive of all cost-of-living adjustments prior to fiscal year 2021, by two percent.

D. Beginning May 1, 2023 and no later than each May 1 thereafter, the retirement board shall certify to the association the:

E. Except as provided in Subsections F, G and H of this section, beginning July 1, 2023 and each July 1 thereafter, immediately following the retirement board's certification of the funded ratio and smoothed investment rate of return, the cost-of-living adjustment to a qualified pension recipient payable pursuant to the Public Employees Retirement Act shall be determined as an amount equal to the smoothed investment rate of return on the actuarial value of assets on June 30 of the preceding calendar year less the cost-of-living adjustment hurdle rate, as determined by the association's actuaries, multiplied by the funded ratio on June 30 of the preceding calendar year or five-tenths percent, whichever is greater, and subject to the following conditions:

- (1) if the funded ratio of the fund is less than one hundred percent on June 30 of the preceding calendar year, the amount of the adjustment made pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed three percent;

- (2) if the funded ratio of the fund is equal to or greater than one hundred percent on June 30 of the preceding calendar year, the adjustment made pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed five percent;

- (3) notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, a qualified pension recipient shall receive a minimum annual cost-of-living adjustment of five-tenths percent; and

- (4) the amount of increase shall be determined by multiplying the amount of pension, inclusive of all prior adjustments, by the cost-of-living adjustment as determined by this subsection.

F. For a normal retired member who worked for at least twenty-five years under one or more applicable coverage plans and whose annual pension benefit, after all previous annual cost-of-living adjustments, is equal to an amount not greater than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the pension benefit shall be increased by two and one-half percent each July 1. The amount of the increase shall be determined by multiplying the amount of pension, inclusive of all prior adjustments, by two and one-half percent.

G. For a disability retired member whose annual pension benefit, after all previous annual cost-of-living adjustments, is equal to an amount not greater than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the pension benefit shall be increased by two and one-half percent each July 1. The amount of the increase shall be determined by multiplying the amount of pension, inclusive of all prior adjustments, by two and one-half percent.

H. For a normal retired member who has attained the age of seventy-five years prior to July 1, 2020, the pension benefit shall be increased by two and one-half percent each July 1. The amount of the increase shall be determined by multiplying the amount of pension, inclusive of all prior adjustments, by two and one-half percent.

I. A qualified pension recipient may decline an increase in a pension by giving the association written notice of the decision to decline the increase at least thirty days prior to the date the increase would take effect.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 2020, ch. 11, § 61 repealed 10-11-118 NMSA 1978 and enacted a new section effective July 1, 2020.

The 2013 amendment, effective July 1, 2013, reduced the cost-of-living adjustments for all retirees; delays the cost-of-living adjustment for certain future retirees; in the title, added "qualified pension recipient"; in Subsection B, deleted former language which provided for a three percent cost-of-living adjustment and added the current language of Subsection B; added Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection B; in Subparagraph (a) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection C, at the beginning of the sentence, added "retires on or before June 30, 2014"; and added Subparagraphs (b) through (d) of Paragraph (1) of Subsection C.

Severability. — Laws 2013, ch. 225, § 93 provided that if any part or application of Laws 2013, ch. 225 is held invalid, the remainder or its application to other situations or persons shall not be affected.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison would be impracticable.

10-11-118.1. Adjustment of benefits.

A. If payment of a pension or other retirement benefit causes a decrease in the amount of monetary payments or other needs-based benefits due to a payee from any other governmental agency, the pension or other retirement benefit shall be reduced for the period during which the pension or other retirement benefit prevents payment of another needs-based benefit to result in payment of the maximum amount possible by the association and the other governmental agency to the payee. Any amounts which would otherwise be paid out which are not paid in accordance with the provisions of this section shall not be recoverable by a payee at any later date.

B. If there is a change in the effect of a pension or other retirement benefit on any monetary payments or other needs-based benefits due to a payee from any other governmental agency, the pension or other retirement benefits shall be adjusted to result in the maximum total benefit to the payee. In no event shall any pension be increased in an amount greater than that authorized by the Public Employees Retirement Act.

C. The provisions of this section are mandatory and may not be waived or declined by a payee. Each payee shall provide the association with all information necessary for the association to carry out the requirements imposed by this section.

D. If the payee fails to provide all the facts necessary to comply with the requirements imposed by this section and payment of a pension or other retirement benefit is made without making the adjustment required by this section, neither the board, the executive director nor any officer or employee of the association or the board shall be liable to any third party because the adjustment was not made as required.

(4) "needs-based benefit" means monetary or other benefits for which a determination of eligibility is based upon the recipient's level of income and resources; and

(5) "payee" means a retired member or the refund beneficiary or survivor beneficiary of a retired member.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, in Subsection D, deleted "retirement" preceding "board" in two places and substituted "director" for "secretary".

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison would be impracticable.

The 1998 amendment, effective September 1, 1998, rewrote Subsection B.

Plaintiffs must exhaust their administrative remedies. — Where plaintiff husband, a retired member of the public employees retirement association, sought declaratory relief under the Declaratory Judgment Act, 44-6-1 to -15 NMSA 1978 (1975) after he executed and delivered a one-time irrevocable option to deselect his wife as his survivor beneficiary and designate his daughter as the new survivor beneficiary, but later claimed that the deselection of wife and designation of daughter was a mistake, and where the public employees retirement board declined plaintiff's request to void the action, the district court properly dismissed plaintiff's action for failure to exhaust his administrative remedies, because 10-11-120 NMSA 1978 provides the exclusive remedy for the denial of benefits under the Public Employees Retirement Act and the declaratory judgment exception for the exhaustion of administrative remedies was not available to plaintiff. *Gzaskow v. 10-11-124. Member contribution fund.

A. The member contribution fund is the accounting fund in which shall be accumulated contributions of members and from which shall be made refunds and transfers of accumulated member contributions as provided in the Public Employees Retirement Act. Each affiliated public employer shall cause the member contributions specified by the coverage plan applicable to each of that affiliated public employer's members to be deducted from the salary of each member. Each affiliated public employer shall remit the deducted member contributions to the association in accordance with the procedures and schedules established by the association. The association may assess an interest charge and a penalty charge on any remittance not made by its due date. Each member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for in this section by continuing employment with the affiliated public employer. Contributions by members shall be credited to the members' individual accounts in the member contribution fund.

B. A member's accumulated contributions shall be transferred to the retirement reserve fund if a pension becomes payable upon the retirement or death of the member. If a disability retirement pension is terminated for a reason other than the death of the disability retired member before an amount equal to the disability retired member's accumulated member contributions has been paid, the unexpended balance of the accumulated member contributions shall be transferred from the retirement reserve fund to the former disability retired member's individual account in the member contribution fund.

C. If a member terminates affiliated public employment or is on leave of absence from an affiliated public employer as a consequence of the entry into active duty with the armed forces of the United States, the member may, with the written consent of the member's spouse, if any, withdraw the member's accumulated member contributions, upon making written request in a form prescribed by the association. Upon written request of the member in the form prescribed by the association, a refund of member contributions may be made by a trustee-to-trustee transfer of the contributions from the member contribution fund directly to another qualified plan as allowed by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Withdrawal of member contributions shall result in forfeiture of the service credit accrued for the period during which the contributions were made.

D. A member shall, upon commencement of membership, designate a refund beneficiary who shall receive the refund of the member contributions, plus interest if any, if the member dies and no survivor pension is payable. If the member is married at the time of designation, written spousal consent shall be required if the designated refund beneficiary is other than the spouse or a supplemental needs trust to which the spouse is a beneficiary. Marriage subsequent to the designation shall automatically revoke a previous designation, and the spouse shall become the refund beneficiary unless or until another designation is filed with the association. Divorce subsequent to the designation shall automatically revoke designation of the former spouse as refund beneficiary, or the right of the former spouse to be refund beneficiary if no designation has been filed, and the refund shall be paid to the deceased member's estate unless the member filed a designation of refund beneficiary subsequent to the divorce. The refund shall be paid to the refund beneficiary named in the most recent designation of refund beneficiary on file with the association unless that beneficiary is deceased or otherwise terminated. If there is not a living or operating refund beneficiary named in the most recent designation of refund beneficiary on file with the association, the deceased member's accumulated member contributions shall be paid to the estate of the deceased member.

Upon implementation, each affiliated public employer shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, pick up, for the purposes specified in that section, member contributions required by the Public Employees Retirement Act for all salary earned by the member after implementation. Member contributions picked up under the provisions of this section shall be treated as affiliated public employer contributions for purposes of determining income tax obligations under the Internal Revenue Code; however, such picked up member contributions shall be included in the determination of the member's gross annual salary for all other purposes under federal and state laws. Members' contributions picked up under this section shall continue to be designated member contributions for all purposes of the Public Employees Retirement Act and shall be considered as part of the member's salary for purposes of determining the amount of the member's contribution. The provisions of this section are mandatory, and the member shall have no option concerning the pick up or to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having them paid by the affiliated public employer to the association. With respect to members employed by an affiliated public employer other than the state, implementation occurs upon the employer's filing of a resolution with the association stating the employer's intent to pick up member contributions as provided in this section. With respect to members employed by the state, implementation occurs upon authorization by the association. In no event may implementation occur other than at the beginning of a pay period.

(8) purchase, acquire or hold land adjacent to the state capitol grounds or other suitable location and build thereon a building to house the association and its employees and, in the event additional office space is available in the building after the retirement board and its employees have been housed, to rent or lease the additional space to any public agency or private person; provided that first priority for the rental or leasing shall be to public agencies; and further provided that for the purpose of purchasing, acquiring or holding the land and the building thereon, the retirement board may use funds from the income fund and any other funds controlled by the retirement board the use of which for such purposes is not prohibited by law;

(9) after the sale of the land and building acquired pursuant to Paragraph (8) of this subsection, acquire land and build thereon a new building to house the association and its employees and hold the building and land in fee simple in the name of the association. In order to acquire the land and plan, design and construct the building, the retirement board may expend the proceeds of the sale of the land and building acquired pursuant to Paragraph (8) of this subsection or any funds controlled by the board, the use of which for such purposes is not otherwise prohibited by law;

(10) make and adopt such reasonable rules as may be necessary or convenient to carry out the duties of the retirement board and activities of the association, including any rules necessary to preserve the status of the association as a qualified pension plan under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or under successor or related provisions of law;

(11) designate committees and designate committee members, including individuals who may not be members of the association; and

(12) select and contract for the services of one or more custodian banks for all funds under the retirement board's management. For the purpose of this paragraph, "custodian bank" means a financial institution with the general fiduciary duties to manage, control and collect the assets of an investment fund, including receiving all deposits and paying all disbursements as directed by staff, safekeeping of assets, coordination of asset transfers, timely settlement of securities transactions and accurate and timely reporting of the assets by individual account and in total.

B. The retirement board consists of:

(1) the secretary of state;

(2) the state treasurer;

(3) four members under a state coverage plan to be elected by the members under state coverage plans;

(4) four members under a municipal coverage plan to be elected by the members under municipal coverage plans, provided one member shall be a municipal member employed by a county; and

(5) two retired members to be elected by the retired members of the association.

C. The results of elections of elected members of the retirement board shall be certified at the annual meeting of the association. Elections shall be conducted according to rules the retirement board adopts from time to time.

D. The regular term of office of the elected members of the retirement board is four years. The term of one retirement board member under a state coverage plan expires annually on December 31. The terms of retirement board members under a municipal coverage plan expire on December 31 of noncoinciding years in the pattern set by the retirement board. Members of the retirement board serve until their successors have qualified.

E. A member elected to the retirement board who fails to attend four consecutively scheduled meetings of the retirement board, unless in each case excused for cause by the retirement board members in attendance, is considered to have resigned from the retirement board, and the retirement board shall by resolution declare the office vacated as of the date of adoption of the resolution. A vacancy occurring on the retirement board, except in the case of an elected official, shall be filled by the remaining retirement board members, without requirement that a quorum be present. The member appointed to fill the vacancy serves for the remainder of the vacated term.

F. Members of the retirement board serve without salary for their services as retirement board members, but they shall receive those amounts authorized under the Per Diem and Mileage Act [10-8-1 to 10-8-8 NMSA 1978].

G. The retirement board shall hold four regular meetings each year and shall designate in advance the time and place of the meetings. Special meetings and emergency meetings of the retirement board may be held upon call of the chair or any three members of the retirement board. Written notice of special meetings shall be sent to each member of the retirement board at least seventy-two hours in advance of the special meeting. Verbal notice of emergency meetings shall be given to as many members as is feasible at least eight hours before the emergency meeting, and the meeting shall commence with a statement of the nature of the emergency. The retirement board shall adopt its own rules of procedure and shall keep a record of its proceedings. All meetings of the retirement board shall comply with the Open Meetings Act [Chapter 10, Article 15 NMSA 1978]. A majority of retirement board members shall constitute a quorum. Each attending member of the retirement board is entitled to one vote on each question before the retirement board, and at least a majority of a quorum shall be necessary for a decision by the retirement board.

H. Annual meetings of the members of the association shall be held in Santa Fe at such time and place as the retirement board shall from time to time determine. Special meetings of the members of the association shall be held in Santa Fe upon call of any seven retirement board members. The retirement board shall send a written notice to the last known residence address of each member currently employed by an affiliated public employer at least ten days prior to any meeting of the members of the association. The notice shall contain the call of the meeting and the principal purpose of the meeting. All meetings of the association shall be public and shall be conducted according to procedures the retirement board shall from time to time adopt. The retirement board shall keep a record of the proceedings of each meeting of the association.

I. Neither the retirement board nor the association shall allow public inspection of, or disclosure of, information from any member or retiree file unless a prior release and consent, in the form prescribed by the association, has been executed by the member or retiree; except that applicable coverage plans, amounts of retirement plan contributions made by members and affiliated public employers, pension amounts paid and the names and addresses of public employees retirement association members or retirees requested for election purposes by candidates for election to the retirement board may be produced or disclosed without release or consent.

The 2011 amendment, effective June 17, 2011, authorized the board to select a custodian bank.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2011, ch. 178, § 14 provided:

A. No later than September 30, 2013, the retirement board of the public employees retirement association and the educational retirement board shall each cause an actuarial study to be conducted for each retirement system administered by the board. Each study shall analyze whether the higher employee contribution rates and lower employer contribution rates required by Laws 2011, Chapter 178 and Laws 2009, Chapter 127 have had or will have an adverse actuarial effect on the retirement system in violation of Article 20, Section 22 of the constitution of New Mexico. The results of each study shall be submitted to the legislative finance committee and the governor.

B. If a study concludes that a retirement system has had or will have an adverse actuarial effect as a result of the higher employee contribution rates and the lower employer contribution rates required by Laws 2011, Chapter 178 and Laws 2009, Chapter 127, the board that administers that retirement system shall submit a request for a supplemental appropriation to the second session of the fifty-first legislature in the amount that will rectify the adverse actuarial effect.

The 2005 amendment, effective April 5, 2005, added Subsection A(9) to grant the power to acquire land and build a new building on the land to house the public employees retirement association.

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, in Paragraph A(2), inserted "and notwithstanding any other provision of law", inserted "or contract with and compensate" and inserted "and litigation"; rewrote Subsection C; in Subsection E, separated the former last sentence into two sentences, deleted "until the next election of the association, at which time a successor shall be elected" following "present" and added "The member appointed to fill the vacancy shall serve" at the beginning of the last sentence; and added Subsection I.

The 1995 amendment, effective June 16, 1995, substituted "two retired members" for "one retired member" in Subsection B(5) and "retirement board members" for "retirement board member" in Subsection F.

The 1992 amendment, effective July 1, 1992, inserted "and the funds created by the state retirement system acts" and substituted "state retirement system acts" for "Public Employees Retirement Act" in the introductory paragraph of Subsection A; substituted "state retirement system acts" for "Public Employees Retirement Act" and "those acts" for "that act" in Subsection A(1); deleted "and, in the discretion of the retirement board" at the end of Subsection A(2); substituted "capitol" for "capital" and deleted "public employees retirement" preceding "association" near the beginning of Subsection A(8); substituted "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" for "Internal Revenue Code of the United States" in Subsection A(9); deleted "at least" following "provided" in Subsection B(4); and, in Subsection H, inserted "currently employed by an affiliated public employer" in the third sentence, while adding "of the members of the association" at the end of that sentence.

Effect of employment termination on board membership. — There is nothing in the [Public Employees] Retirement Act for the termination of membership on the retirement board upon termination of employment. 1959 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-191.

The public office of member of the Public Employees Retirement Board, a state agency, is a nonsalaried, policy-making position. Board members have no constitutionally protected property interest in the position. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-24.

Amendment to board rule concerning nominations to the board was legal, where the board complied with procedural rule-making requirements, the rule did not conflict with the board's statutory authority, and the amendment did not operate retroactively to divest any nominee of any vested right. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-24.

Rule limiting member composition to one member complies with subsection. — Subsection B(4) requires that "at least one" municipal member on the board be a county employee, but does not require that more than one be a county employee. Therefore, a board rule limiting the municipal member composition to only one county member complies with the subsection. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-24. (decided prior to 1992 amendment.)

The public employee retirement association possesses the legal authority to deduct union dues, and the administrative costs of such deductions, from pension benefits. — The Public Employees Retirement Act (act) does not address whether the public employees retirement association (PERA) may deduct union dues for its beneficiaries that are also union members, but it does appear that the policy purpose behind the act is to ensure that members benefit from a state-backed retirement plan that accounts for membership needs, including remittance or withholding of funds on behalf of its members, and therefore, where a subsection of PERA's beneficiaries sought dues deductions from their respective benefit amounts for union membership, PERA had the legal authority to deduct union dues from pension benefits of PERA members who are also members of unions. Furthermore, if this subsection of beneficiaries consent to absorbing the administrative costs that accompany the deductions and subsequent remittances to the unions, the subject beneficiaries are knowingly and willingly accepting those administrative costs, which would also appear to comply with the act. PERA Deduction of Dues from PERA Retirement Benefits for RPENM and AFSCME Members and Reimbursement of PERA's Administrative Costs for the Dues Deduction (8/25/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-09.

- (1) has a current contract with the retirement board or association;
- (2) is a potential bidder, offeror or contractor for the provision of services or personal property to the retirement board or association;
- (3) is authorized to invest public funds pursuant to state or federal law or is an employee or agent of such a person; or
- (4) is an organization, association or other entity having a membership that includes persons described in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of this subsection.

C. Within ten days after an election in which one or more board members are elected by some or all of the members of the association pursuant to the Public Employees Retirement Act, all persons who were candidates for board membership in that election shall file with the association a report disclosing all contributions to their respective campaigns whether made directly to the candidate, a political action committee or to some other entity supporting the candidate's election. The contributions shall be reported by amount and specific source. Within sixty days after the election, the association shall publish the reports required by this subsection.

Generally, as to salary of executive secretary. — The retirement board has the authority to fix the salary of the executive secretary of such board, and in the absence of any attempt of the state personnel board to classify the position and fix the salary of the executive secretary, no consent or approval from said board is required. 1955 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6070.

10-11-132. Investment of funds; prudent investor standard; indemnification of board members.

The funds created by the state retirement system acts are trust funds of which the retirement board is trustee. Members of the retirement board jointly and individually shall be indemnified by the state from the funds administered by the retirement board from all claims, demands, suits, actions, damages, judgments, costs, charges and expenses, including court costs and attorney fees and against all liability losses and damages of any nature that members shall or may sustain by reason of any decision made in the performance of their duties pursuant to the state retirement system acts. The retirement board may also employ the investment management services and related management services of a trust company or national bank exercising trust powers or of an investment counseling firm or brokers for the purchase and sale of securities, commission recapture and transitioning services and may pay reasonable compensation for such services from funds administered by the retirement board. The terms of any such investment management services contract shall incorporate the statutory requirements for investment of funds under the retirement board's jurisdiction.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2009 amendment, effective July 1, 2009, added Subsection F.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2009, ch. 288, § 19, effective April 10, 2009, created a retirement systems solvency task force to study the actuarial soundness and solvency of the retirement plans of the public employees retirement association, the educational retirement association and the health care plan of the retiree health care authority, and prepare a solvency plan for each entity.

The 2005 amendment, effective July 1, 2005, deleted the former provision in Subsection B, which provided that the prudent man rule applies to investment of money of the association; added Subsection B to provide that the retirement board invest and manage the fund in accordance with the Uniform Prudent Investor Act; added Subsection C to provide that the retirement board shall provide reports and investment policies to the legislative finance committee and the department of finance and administration; and provided in Subsection E that the retirement board may employ related management services in addition to investment management services of brokers for the purchase and sale of securities, commission recapture and transitioning services.

Repeal of tax exemption. — Because no private contractual rights were granted by the retirement plan, there was no impairment or breach of contract resulting from the 1990 repeal of the tax exemption provision and, although the plan conferred property rights that vested upon accumulating minimum earned service credits, those rights did not include the right to receive pension benefits exempt from tax. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Because the retirement plan provided no contractual or vested right to receive an irrevocable tax exemption, there was no constitutionally protected private interest in the tax exemption and there was no due process violation when the exemption was repealed. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Income tax exemptions may be properly denied. — The legislature may grant a special income tax exemption to one kind of public employee, teachers, yet deny the same exemption to other public employees. Vaughn v. State Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1982-NMCA-112, 98 N.M. 362, 648 P.2d 820.

Enactment reflects legislative recognition. — This enactment is simply a recognition by the legislature that for the most part persons drawing state retirement benefits are those of advanced age whose economic situation in living on a small fixed income in a period of rising prices is already perilous. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-13.

Effect of state income tax amendments. — The 1961 amendment of the statutes relative to state income tax did not have the effect of making annuities and benefits paid pursuant to the Public Employees' Retirement Act subject to state income tax. 1962 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-13.

"Trading" tax exemptions for health care. — Repeal of the state income tax exemptions for teacher pensions and public employee pensions does not remedy constitutional defects of the proposed retiree health care act under a theory that those exemptions would be "traded" for retiree health care. Those exemptions are not property rights, irrepealable contractual entitlements, or pension benefits. Hence, elimination of the favorable tax treatment for current retirees is not consideration for a multi-million dollar health care plan that the state proposes to provide them. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-03.

10-11-136. Division of funds as community property.

A court of competent jurisdiction, solely for the purposes of effecting a division of community property in a divorce or legal separation proceeding, may provide by appropriate order for a determination and division of a community interest in the pensions or other benefits provided for in the Public Employees Retirement Act. In so doing, the court shall fix the manner in which warrants shall be issued, may order direct payments to a person with a community interest in the pensions or other benefits, may require the election of a specific form of payment and designation of a specific survivor pension beneficiary, refund beneficiary or survivor pension beneficiary designated in accordance with Section 10-11-14.5 NMSA 1978 and may restrain the refund of accumulated member contributions. Payments made pursuant to such orders shall only be made when member contributions are refunded or a pension is payable in accordance with the provisions of the Public Employees Retirement Act. 10-11B-2. Findings; purpose.

The legislature finds that firefighters throughout the state risk their lives daily to protect the residents of New Mexico. The legislature further finds that when firefighters are killed in the line of duty, their immediate families can suffer grievously, both emotionally and economically. To recognize the substantial public safety benefits conferred by firefighters, and in consideration of the sacrifices undertaken by these individuals and their families for the residents of New Mexico, it is the purpose of the Firefighters' Survivors Supplemental Benefits Act to ensure that certain supplemental death benefits accrue to the spouses and surviving children, or parents if there are no surviving children or spouse, of firefighters killed in the line of duty.

Judicial Retirement

10-12B-1. Short title.

Chapter 10, Article 12B NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Judicial Retirement Act".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 111, § 1; 2011, ch. 178, § 7.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, changed the statutory reference to the act.

Impairment of contract and repeal of tax exemption. — Because no private contractual rights were granted by the retirement plan, there was no impairment or breach of contract resulting from the 1990 repeal of the tax exemption provision contained in former Section 10-12-18 NMSA 1978 and, although the plan conferred property rights that vested upon accumulating minimum earned service credits, those rights did not include the right to receive pension benefits exempt from tax. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Due process and repeal of tax exemption. — Because the retirement plan provided no contractual or vested right to receive an irrevocable tax exemption, there was no constitutionally protected private interest in the tax exemption and there was no due process violation when the exemption was repealed. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Interpretation of NMSA 1978, § 10-12B-9(C)(1). — In going beyond the plain language, and reading 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978 and (C)(2) together and in the context of the statutory scheme as a whole, "years of service" in 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978 refers to members' years of service credit earned between July 1, 2005 and June 30, 2014, and therefore a member is given credit for their service between July 1, 2005 and June 30, 2014, via 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978, given credit for their service from July 1, 2014 forward via 10-12B-9(C)(2) NMSA 1978, and not given double credit for any service. Butkus v. PERA, 2024-NMCA-041, cert. denied.

Where plaintiff, a retired judge under the Judicial Retirement Act, 10-12B-1 to 10-12B-19 NMSA 1978, retired with a total service credit of fifteen years and one month, which consisted of approximately eight years and seven months between June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2014, and six and one-half years after June 30, 2014, and, following the public employees retirement board's (board) calculation of plaintiff's pension, plaintiff argued that the board miscalculated his pension when it determined that "years of service" in 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978 refers to a member's years of service between June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2014, instead of the retiree's full tenure as a judge in the two pronged calculation required by 10-12B-9(C) NMSA 1978, and where plaintiff also claimed that he, and other members in his position, are entitled to a monthly pension that includes double payment for his service from July 1, 2014, onward, the board did not err in calculating plaintiff's pension, because plaintiff's interpretation of 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978 would significantly increase benefits contrary to the legislature's clear intent to increase the solvency of the judicial retirement fund, and is also contrary to the structure of the statute, which includes a calculation that separately addresses the time a relevant member has served between July 1, 2005 and June 30, 2014, in 10-12B-9(C)(1) NMSA 1978, and the time they have served July 1, 2014 and beyond, in 10-12B-9(C)(2) NMSA 1978. Butkus v. PERA, 2024-NMCA-041, cert. denied.

10-12B-10. Member contributions; tax treatment.

A. On and after July 1, 2014, members, while in office, shall contribute ten and one-half percent of salary to the member contribution fund.

B. Upon implementation, the state, acting as employer of members covered pursuant to the provisions of the Judicial Retirement Act, shall, solely for the purpose of compliance with Section 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, pick up, for the purposes specified in that section, member contributions required by this section for all annual salary earned by the member. Member contributions picked up pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be treated as employer contributions for purposes of determining income tax obligations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; however, such picked-up member contributions shall be included in the determination of the member's gross annual salary for all other purposes under federal and state laws. Member contributions picked up pursuant to the provisions of this section shall continue to be designated member contributions for all purposes of the Judicial Retirement Act and shall be considered as part of the member's annual salary for purposes of determining the amount of the member's contribution. The provisions of this section are mandatory, and the member shall have no option concerning the pickup or concerning the receipt of the contributed amounts directly instead of having the amounts paid by the employer to the retirement system. Implementation occurs upon authorization by the board. In no event may implementation occur other than at the beginning of a pay period applicable to the member.

(1) the amount of the pension under the form of payment selected shall be recalculated and have the same actuarial present value, computed on the effective date of the designation, as the amount of pension under form of payment A;

A redetermination of shares shall be made when the pension of any child terminates. An eligible child is a natural or adopted child of the retired member who is under age twenty-five years. A declared eligible child is an eligible child whose name has been declared in writing and filed with the association by the retired member at the time of election of form of payment D. The amount of pension shall be changed to the amount of pension that would have been payable had the retired member elected form of payment A upon there ceasing to be a declared eligible child during the lifetime of the retired member.

If all pension payments permanently terminate before there is paid an aggregate amount equal to the retired member's accumulated member contributions at the time of retirement, the difference between the amount of accumulated member contributions and the aggregate amount of pension paid shall be paid to the retired member's refund beneficiary. If no refund beneficiary survives the retired member, the difference shall be paid to the estate of the retired member.

10-12B-14.3. Death before retirement; survivor pension.

For a member whose initial term in office begins on or after July 1, 2014:

A. a survivor pension may be paid to certain persons related to or designated by a member who dies before normal or disability retirement if a written application for the pension, in the form prescribed by the association, is filed with the association by the potential survivor beneficiary or beneficiaries within one year of the death of the member. Applications may be filed on behalf of the potential survivor beneficiary or beneficiaries or by a person legally authorized to represent them;

B. if there is no designated survivor beneficiary and the board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office, a survivor pension shall be payable to the eligible surviving spouse. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated pursuant to the Judicial Retirement Act and applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

C. a survivor pension shall also be payable to eligible surviving children if there is no designated survivor beneficiary and the retirement board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office. The total amount of survivor pension payable for all eligible surviving children shall be either:

(1) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary if an eligible surviving spouse is not paid a pension; or

(2) twenty-five percent of the deceased member's final average salary if an eligible surviving spouse is paid a pension.

The total amount of survivor pension shall be divided equally among all eligible surviving children. If there is only one eligible child, the amount of pension shall be twenty-five percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

D. if the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement, but the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office and there is no designated survivor beneficiary, a survivor pension shall be payable to the eligible surviving spouse. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the Judicial Retirement Act applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the total amount of actual service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

E. if the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement, but the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office and there is no designated survivor beneficiary, and if there is no eligible surviving spouse at the time of death, a survivor pension shall be payable to and divided equally among all eligible surviving children, if any. The total amount of survivor pension payable for all eligible surviving children shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the Judicial Retirement Act applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B with the oldest eligible surviving child as the survivor beneficiary using the total amount of actual service credit attributable to the deceased member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

F. an eligible surviving spouse is the spouse to whom the deceased member was married at the time of death. An eligible surviving child is a child under the age of eighteen years and who is an unmarried, natural or adopted child of the deceased member;

G. an eligible surviving spouse's pension shall terminate upon death. An eligible surviving child's pension shall terminate upon death or marriage or reaching age eighteen years, whichever comes first;

H. if there is no designated survivor beneficiary and there is no eligible surviving child, the eligible surviving spouse may elect to be refunded the deceased member's accumulated member contributions instead of receiving a survivor pension;

I. a member may designate a survivor beneficiary to receive a pre-retirement survivor pension, subject to the following conditions:

(1) a written designation, in the form prescribed by the association, is filed by the member with the association;

(2) if the member is married at the time of designation, the designation shall only be made with the consent of the member's spouse, in the form prescribed by the association;

(3) if the member is married subsequent to the time of designation, any prior designations shall automatically be revoked upon the date of the marriage;

(4) if the member is divorced subsequent to the time of designation, any prior designation of the former spouse or a supplemental needs trust to which the spouse is a beneficiary as survivor beneficiary shall automatically be revoked upon the date of divorce; and

(5) a designation of survivor beneficiary may be changed, with the member's spouse's consent if the member is married, by the member at any time prior to the member's death;

J. if there is a designated survivor beneficiary and the board finds the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office, a survivor pension shall be payable to the designated survivor beneficiary. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the Judicial Retirement Act applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the member at the time of death; or

(2) fifty percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

K. if there is a designated survivor beneficiary, if the member had the applicable minimum number of years of service credit required for normal retirement and if the retirement board did not find the death to have been the natural and proximate result of causes arising solely and exclusively out of and in the course of the member's performance of duty while in office, a survivor pension shall be payable to the designated survivor beneficiary. The amount of the survivor pension shall be the greater of:

(1) the amount as calculated under the Judicial Retirement Act applicable to the deceased member at the time of death as though the deceased member had retired the day preceding death under form of payment B using the actual amount of service credit attributable to the member at the time of death; or

(2) thirty percent of the deceased member's final average salary;

L. if all pension payments permanently terminate before there is paid an aggregate amount equal to the deceased member's accumulated member contributions at time of death, the difference between the amount of accumulated member contributions and the aggregate amount of pension paid shall be paid to the deceased member's refund beneficiary. If no refund beneficiary survives the survivor beneficiary, the difference shall be paid to the estate of the deceased member; and

M. for purposes of this section, "service credit" means only the service credit earned by a member during periods in office as a judge or justice.

The amount of the increase shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the pension inclusive of all prior adjustments by two percent; and

Any amounts that would otherwise be paid out that are not paid in accordance with the provisions of this section shall not be recoverable by a payee at any later date.

B. If there is a change in the effect of pension or other retirement benefit on any monetary payments or other needs-based benefits due to a payee from any other governmental agency, the pension or other retirement benefits shall be adjusted to result in the maximum total benefit to the payee. ARTICLE 12C

Magistrate Retirement

10-12C-1. Short title.

Chapter 10, Article 12C NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Magistrate Retirement Act".

History: Laws 1992, ch. 118, § 1; 2011, ch. 178, § 10.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, changed the statutory reference to the act.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2011, ch. 178, § 15 provided that for the purposes of calculating employee and employer contributions due after June 30, 2011, in determining whether an employee has an annual salary greater or less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the employee's annual salary shall be the employee's base hourly rate at the time the contribution is made multiplied by the number of compensable hours for a full-time-equivalent in the employee's position at the time the contribution is made as determined by the employer; provided that the department of finance and administration shall determine the number of compensable hours for a full-time-equivalent in the employee's position for employees who are members in a retirement program provided for in the Public Employees Retirement Act, the Magistrate Retirement Act or the Judicial Retirement Act.

Laws 2011, ch. 178, § 16, provided that notwithstanding a provision of Laws 2011, Chapter 178 to the contrary, the employer and employee contribution rates required by this act for the period from July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012 shall continue for the period from July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013 if, after the last consensus revenue forecast before the beginning of the second session of the fiftieth legislature, the secretary of finance and administration certifies to the retirement board of the public employees retirement association, the educational retirement board and the legislative finance committee that, according to the consensus revenue forecast:

(1) general fund revenues in fiscal year 2012 will be less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) more than the general fund revenue forecast reflected in the fiscal year 2012 state budget; and

(2) at the end of fiscal year 2012, the total amount in the state reserve funds will be less than five percent of the total general fund appropriations for fiscal year 2012.

Impairment of contract and repeal of tax exemption. — Because no private contractual rights were granted by the retirement plan, there was no impairment or breach of contract resulting from the 1990 repeal of the tax exemption provision contained in former Section 10-12A-12 NMSA 1978 and, although the plan conferred property rights that vested upon accumulating minimum earned service credits, those rights did not include the right to receive pension benefits exempt from tax. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Due process and repeal of tax exemption. — Because the retirement plan provided no contractual or vested right to receive an irrevocable tax exemption, there was no constitutionally protected private interest in the tax exemption and there was no due process violation when the exemption was repealed. Pierce v. State, 1996-NMSC-001, 121 N.M. 212, 910 P.2d 288.

Social Security Coverage

10-14-1. Declaration of policy.

In order to extend to employees of the state and its political subdivisions and to the dependents and survivors of such employees, the basic protection accorded to others by the old-age and survivors' insurance system embodied in the Social Security Act, it is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature, subject to the limitations of this act [10-14-1 to 10-14-3, 10-14-5 to 10-14-10 NMSA 1978], that such steps be taken as to provide such protection to employees of the state and its political subdivisions on as broad [broad] a basis as is permitted under the Social Security Act. It is also the policy of the legislature that the protection afforded employees in positions covered by a retirement system on the date an agreement under this act is made applicable to service performed in such positions, or receiving periodic benefits under such retirement system at such time, will not be impaired as a result of making the agreement so applicable or as a result of legislative enactment in anticipation thereof.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-7-1, enacted by Laws 1955, ch. 172, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Cross references. — For the federal Social Security Act, see 42 U.S.C. § 301 et seq.

Legislative effect. — What in effect the legislature did by the passage of Laws 1955, ch. 172, was make an offer to all state employees covered by state retirement system that if they elected to come within the provisions of social security, the state would provide for the share required by the Social Security Act from the employer. 1957 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 57-61.

Effect of section on school for visually handicapped. — The New Mexico school for the visually handicapped is not legally separate and distinct; it is in fact a state educational institution. Most of its funds come from either state school lands or from appropriations from the legislature. This institution is actually a part of the state. Inasmuch as the school for the visually handicapped is not a political subdivision, it cannot be considered a separate retirement system for the purposes of holding a referendum relative to the coverage under the old-age and survivors insurance program. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6411.

Eligibility. — Under the social security laws, both state and federal, all members of the retirement system become eligible for social security upon a favorable vote of the referendum posing the questions of joining the social security system. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6416.

Compiler's notes. — Section 1400 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, referred to in Subsection H, has been repealed and superseded by § 3101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, also referred to in Subsection H, compiled as 26 U.S.C. § 3101.

Effect of section on sick leave payments. — Where the university of New Mexico did not make a social security contribution with respect to sick leave payments on the grounds that such payments were excluded from wages, the social security administration was justified in assessing $28.60 in respect to those payments and holding that they were not excluded from wages. New Mexico v. Weinberger, 517 F.2d 989 (10th Cir. 1975), cert. denied, 423 U.S. 1051, 96 S. Ct. 779, 46 L. Ed. 2d 640 (1976).

Exclusion construed differently. — In assessing contributions to be paid in by private employers the commissioner of internal revenue has construed the sick pay exclusion from wages differently than has the secretary of health, education and welfare in assessing public employers. N.M. v. Weinberger, 517 F.2d 989 (10th Cir. 1975), cert. denied, 423 U.S. 1051, 96 S. Ct. 779, 46 L. Ed. 2d 640 (1976).

Sick leave payments are wages. — Payments made to employees of the University of New Mexico during period of sickness are considered wages and therefore reportable for social security purposes. 1971 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 71-21.

Hospitals not political subdivisions. — Hospitals created jointly by counties and municipalities are not independent political subdivisions, but are an intricate part of the county and the municipality creating the same, and therefore they can come under the social security system only as the county and the municipality of which they are part come within the provisions of the Social Security Act. 1956 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 56-6437.

Mayordomo officer of political subdivision. — The mayordomo of a community ditch association is considered an officer of a political subdivision of the state for social security coverage purposes. 1970 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 70-46.

10-14-3. Federal-state agreement.

A. The state agency, with the approval of the governor, is hereby authorized to enter on behalf of the state into an agreement with the secretary of health, education and welfare, consistent with the terms and provisions of this act [10-14-1 to 10-14-3, 10-14-5 to 10-14-10 NMSA 1978], for the purpose of extending the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system to employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof with respect to services specified in such agreement which constitute "employment" as defined in Section 2 [10-14-2 NMSA 1978] of this act. Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration and other appropriate provisions as the state agency and secretary of health, education and welfare shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the Social Security Act as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

(1) benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of Title II of the Social Security Act;

(2) the state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the Social Security Act, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in Section 2 of this act), equal to the sum of the taxes which would be imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that act;

(3) such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement performed after a date specified therein in accordance with the Social Security Act;

(4) all services which constitute employment as defined in Section 2 and are performed in the employ of the state by employees of the state, shall be covered by the agreement;

(5) all services which (a) constitute employment as defined in Section 2, (b) are performed in the employ of a political subdivision of the state, and (c) are covered by a plan which is in conformity with the terms of the agreement and has been approved by the state agency under Section 5 [10-14-6 NMSA 1978], shall be covered by the agreement;

(6) as modified, the agreement shall include all services described in either Paragraph (4) or Paragraph (5) of this subsection and performed by individuals to whom Section 218(c)(3)(C) of the Social Security Act is applicable, and shall provide that the service of any such individual shall continue to be covered by the agreement in case he thereafter becomes eligible to be a member of a retirement system; and

(7) as modified, the agreement shall include all services described in either Paragraph (4) or Paragraph (5) of this subsection and performed by individuals in positions covered by a retirement system with respect to which the governor, or an officer of the state designated by the governor, has issued a certificate to the secretary of health, education and welfare pursuant to Section 9(b) [10-14-10B NMSA 1978] of this act.

B. Any instrumentality jointly created by this state and any other state or states is hereby authorized, upon the granting of like authority by such other state or states, (1) to enter into an agreement with the secretary of health, education and welfare whereby the benefits of the federal old-age and survivors' insurance system shall be extended to employees of such instrumentality, (2) to require its employees to pay (and for that purpose to deduct from their wages) contributions equal to the amounts which they would be required to pay under Section 4(a) [10-14-5A NMSA 1978] if they were covered by an agreement made pursuant to Subsection A of this section; and (3) to make payments to the secretary of the treasury in accordance with such agreement, including payments from its own funds, and otherwise to comply with such agreements. Such agreements, shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of Subsection A and other provisions of this act.

C. Pursuant to Section 218(d)(6)(B) of the Social Security Act, the retirement system covering the employees who are eligible to acquire or who have acquired retirement and emeritus status under Section 1 of Chapter 112, Laws of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to constitute a separate system for the employees of each institution of higher learning covered thereunder.

10-14-5. Contributions by state employees.

A. Every employee of the state whose services are covered by an agreement entered into under Section 3 [10-14-3 NMSA 1978] shall be required to pay for the period of such coverage, into the contribution fund established by Section 6 [10-14-7 NMSA 1978], contributions, with respect to wages (as defined in Section 2 [10-14-2 NMSA 1978]) of this act, equal to the amount of the employee tax which would be imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that act. Such liability shall arise in consideration of the employee's retention in the service of the state, or his entry upon such service, after the enactment of this act [10-14-1 to 10-14-3, 10-14-5 to 10-14-10 NMSA 1978.]

B. The contribution imposed by this section shall be collected by deducting the amount of the contribution from wages as and when paid, but failure to make such deduction shall not relieve the employee from liability for such contribution.

C. If more or less than the correct amount of the contribution imposed by this section is paid or reduced [deducted] with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe.

10-14-6. Plans for coverage of employees of political subdivisions.

A. Each political subdivision of the state is hereby authorized to submit for approval by the state agency a plan for extending the benefits of Title 2 [II] of the Social Security Act, in conformity with applicable provisions of such act, to employees of such political subdivision. Each such plan and any amendment thereof shall be approved by the state agency if it finds that such plan, or such plan as amended, is in conformity with such requirements as are provided in regulations of the state agency, except that no such plan shall be approved unless:

(1) it is in conformity with the requirements of the Social Security Act and with the agreement entered into under Section 10-14-3 NMSA 1978;

(2) it provides that all services which constitute employment as defined in Section 10-14-2 NMSA 1978 and are performed in the employ of the political subdivision by employees thereof, shall be covered by the plan, except that it may exclude services performed by individuals to whom Section 218(c)3(C) [Section 218(c)(3)(C)] of the Social Security Act is applicable;

(3) it specifies the source or sources from which the funds necessary to make the payments required by Paragraph (1) of Subsection C and by Subsection D of this section are expected to be derived and contains reasonable assurance that such sources will be adequate for such purpose;

(4) it provides for such methods of administration of the plan by the political subdivision as are found by the state agency to be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the plan;

(5) it provides that the political subdivision will make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the state agency may from time to time require, and comply with such provisions as the state agency or the secretary of health and human services may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and

(6) it authorizes the state agency to terminate the plan in its entirety, in the discretion of the state agency, if it finds that there has been a failure to comply substantially with any provision contained in such plan, such termination to take effect at the expiration of such notice and on such conditions as may be provided by regulations of the state agency, and may be consistent with the provisions of the Social Security Act.

B. The state agency shall not finally refuse to approve a plan submitted by a political subdivision under Subsection A of this section, and shall not terminate an approved plan, without reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the political subdivision affected thereby.

C. (1) Each political subdivision as to which a plan has been approved under this section shall pay into the contribution fund, with respect to wages, as defined in Section 10-14-2 NMSA 1978, at such time or times as the state agency may by regulation prescribe, contributions in the amounts and at the rates specified in the applicable agreement entered into by the state agency under Section 10-14-3 NMSA 1978.

(2) Each political subdivision required to make payments under Paragraph (1) of this subsection is authorized, in consideration of the employee's retention in, or entry upon, employment after enactment of Sections 10-14-1 through 10-14-3 and 10-14-5 through 10-14-10 NMSA 1978, to impose upon each of its employees, as to services which are covered by an approved plan, a contribution with respect to his wages, as defined in Section 10-14-2 NMSA 1978, not exceeding the amount of the employee tax which would be imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act if such services constituted employment within the meaning of that act, and to deduct the amount of such contribution from his wages as and when paid. Contributions so collected shall be paid into the contribution fund in partial discharge of the liability of such political subdivision or instrumentality under Paragraph (1) of this subsection. Failure to deduct such contribution shall not relieve the employee or employer of liability therefor.

D. Delinquent payments due under Paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this section with interest charged by the federal government, may be recovered by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the political subdivision liable therefor or may, at the request of the state agency, be deducted from any other money payable to such subdivision by any department or agency of the state.

10-14-7. Contribution fund.

A. There is hereby established a special fund to be known as the "contribution fund." Such fund shall consist of and there shall be deposited in such fund:

- (1) all contributions, interest, and penalties collected under Sections 10-14-5 and 10-14-6 NMSA 1978;

- (4) interest earned upon any moneys in the fund; and
- (5) all sums recovered upon the bond of the custodian or otherwise for losses sustained by the fund and all other moneys received for the fund from any other source. All moneys in the fund shall be mingled and undivided. Subject to the provisions of this act, the state agency is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all moneys and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this act.

B. The contribution fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or moneys of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this act. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for:

(1) payments of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 10-14-3 NMSA 1978;

(2) payment of refunds provided for in Subsection C of Section 10-14-5 NMSA 1978;

(5) transfers by the state treasurer, upon certification by the director of the social security division, to the state general fund of amounts not necessary to satisfy expenditures required by Paragraphs (1) through (4) of this subsection. Such transfers shall be made by July 30 of each fiscal year.

C. From the contribution fund the custodian of the fund shall pay to the secretary of the treasury such amounts and at such time or times as may be directed by the state agency in accordance with any agreement entered into under Section 10-14-3 NMSA 1978 and the Social Security Act.

D. The state treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer. The secretary of finance and administration shall be custodian of the contribution fund and shall administer such funds in accordance with the provisions of this act and the directions of the state agency and shall pay all warrants drawn upon it in accordance with the provisions of this section and with such regulations as the state agency may prescribe pursuant thereto.

E. (1) There are hereby authorized to be appropriated annually to the contribution fund, in addition to the contributions collected and paid into the contribution fund under Sections 10-14-5 and 10-14-6 NMSA 1978 to be available for the purposes of Subsections B and C of Section 10-14-7 NMSA 1978 [this section] until expended, such additional sums as are found to be necessary in order to make the payments to the secretary of the treasury which the state is obligated to make pursuant to an agreement entered into under Section 10-14-3 NMSA 1978.

(2) The state agency shall submit to each regular session of the state legislature, at least ninety days in advance of the beginning of such session, an estimate of the amounts authorized to be appropriated to the contribution fund by Paragraph (1) of this subsection for the next appropriation period.

10-14-10. Referenda and certification.

A. The governor is empowered to authorize a referendum, and to designate any agency or individual to supervise its conduct, in accordance with the requirements of Section 218(d)(3) of the Social Security Act, on the question of whether service in positions covered by a retirement system established by the state or by a political subdivision thereof should be excluded from or included under an agreement under this act [10-14-1 to 10-14-3, 10-14-5 to 10-14-10 NMSA 1978]. The notice of referendum required by Section 218(d)(3)(C) of the Social Security Act to be given to employees shall contain or shall be accompanied by a statement, in such form and such detail as the agency or individual designated to supervise the referendum shall deem necessary and sufficient, to inform the employees of the rights which will accrue to them and their dependents and survivors, and the liabilities to which they will be subject, if their services are included under an agreement under this act.

B. Upon receiving evidence satisfactory to him that with respect to any such referendum the conditions specified in Section 218(d)(3) of the Social Security Act have been met, the governor or an officer of the state designated by the governor, shall so certify to the secretary of health, education and welfare.

Cross references. — For Section 218 of the federal Social Security Act, see 42 U.S.C. § 418.

Legislative intent. — The legislature intends, so far as the political subdivisions are concerned, that the initial step for coverage is to be made by the political subdivision by submitting a plan. If the plan is proper, and the political subdivision has its own retirement system or was a part of the state system, the governor is to call for a referendum for such political subdivision. If there happens to be a number of such divisions with proper plans, they can, of course, be grouped together for the purpose of the referendum. No political subdivision would work out a plan for coverage without first determining that the employees were for such plan. 1955 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6333.

Scope of gubernatorial powers as to referendums. — The governor can, within the provisions of the Social Security Act, designate what shall constitute a retirement system for the purpose of a referendum. The governor can designate each political subdivision as a separate retirement system for the purpose of this referendum. 1955 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6333.

Open Meetings

10-15-1. Formation of public policy; procedures for open meetings; exceptions and procedures for closed meetings.

A. In recognition of the fact that a representative government is dependent upon an informed electorate, it is declared to be public policy of this state that all persons are entitled to the greatest possible information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of those officers and employees who represent them. The formation of public policy or the conduct of business by vote shall not be conducted in closed meeting. All meetings of any public body except the legislature and the courts shall be public meetings, and all persons so desiring shall be permitted to attend and listen to the deliberations and proceedings. Reasonable efforts shall be made to accommodate the use of audio and video recording devices.

B. All meetings of a quorum of members of any board, commission, administrative adjudicatory body or other policymaking body of any state agency or any agency or authority of any county, municipality, district or political subdivision, held for the purpose of formulating public policy, including the development of personnel policy, rules, regulations or ordinances, discussing public business or taking any action within the authority of or the delegated authority of any board, commission or other policymaking body are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times, except as otherwise provided in the constitution of New Mexico or the Open Meetings Act. No public meeting once convened that is otherwise required to be open pursuant to the Open Meetings Act shall be closed or dissolved into small groups or committees for the purpose of permitting the closing of the meeting.

C. If otherwise allowed by law or rule of the public body, a member of a public body may participate in a meeting of the public body by means of a conference telephone or other similar communications equipment when it is otherwise difficult or impossible for the member to attend the meeting in person, provided that each member participating by conference telephone can be identified when speaking, all participants are able to hear each other at the same time and members of the public attending the meeting are able to hear any member of the public body who speaks during the meeting.

D. Any meetings at which the discussion or adoption of any proposed resolution, rule, regulation or formal action occurs and at which a majority or quorum of the body is in attendance, and any closed meetings, shall be held only after reasonable notice to the public. The affected body shall determine at least annually in a public meeting what notice for a public meeting is reasonable when applied to that body. That notice shall include broadcast stations licensed by the federal communications commission and newspapers of general circulation that have provided a written request for such notice.

E. A public body may recess and reconvene a meeting to a day subsequent to that stated in the meeting notice if, prior to recessing, the public body specifies the date, time and place for continuation of the meeting and, immediately following the recessed meeting, posts notice of the date, time and place for the reconvened meeting on or near the door of the place where the original meeting was held and in at least one other location appropriate to provide public notice of the continuation of the meeting. Only matters appearing on the agenda of the original meeting may be discussed at the reconvened meeting.

F. Meeting notices shall include an agenda containing a list of specific items of business to be discussed or transacted at the meeting or information on how the public may obtain a copy of such an agenda. Except in the case of an emergency or in the case of a public body that ordinarily meets more frequently than once per week, at least seventy-two hours prior to the meeting, the agenda shall be available to the public and posted on the public body's web site, if one is maintained. A public body that ordinarily meets more frequently than once per week shall post a draft agenda at least seventy-two hours prior to the meeting and a final agenda at least thirty-six hours prior to the meeting. Except for emergency matters, a public body shall take action only on items appearing on the agenda. For purposes of this subsection, "emergency" refers to unforeseen circumstances that, if not addressed immediately by the public body, will likely result in injury or damage to persons or property or substantial financial loss to the public body. Within ten days of taking action on an emergency matter, the public body shall report to the attorney general's office the action taken and the circumstances creating the emergency; provided that the requirement to report to the attorney general is waived upon the declaration of a state or national emergency.

G. The board, commission or other policymaking body shall keep written minutes of all its meetings. The minutes shall include at a minimum the date, time and place of the meeting, the names of members in attendance and those absent, the substance of the proposals considered and a record of any decisions and votes taken that show how each member voted. All minutes are open to public inspection. Draft minutes shall be prepared within ten working days after the meeting and shall be approved, amended or disapproved at the next meeting where a quorum is present. Minutes shall not become official until approved by the policymaking body.

H. The provisions of Subsections A, B and G of this section do not apply to:

(1) meetings pertaining to issuance, suspension, renewal or revocation of a license, except that a hearing at which evidence is offered or rebutted shall be open. All final actions on the issuance, suspension, renewal or revocation of a license shall be taken at an open meeting;

(2) limited personnel matters; provided that for purposes of the Open Meetings Act, "limited personnel matters" means the discussion of hiring, promotion, demotion, dismissal, assignment or resignation of or the investigation or consideration of complaints or charges against any individual public employee; provided further that this paragraph is not to be construed as to exempt final actions on personnel from being taken at open public meetings, nor does it preclude an aggrieved public employee from demanding a public hearing. Judicial candidates interviewed by any commission shall have the right to demand an open interview;

(3) deliberations by a public body in connection with an administrative adjudicatory proceeding. For purposes of this paragraph, "administrative adjudicatory proceeding" means a proceeding brought by or against a person before a public body in which individual legal rights, duties or privileges are required by law to be determined by the public body after an opportunity for a trial-type hearing. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the actual administrative adjudicatory proceeding at which evidence is offered or rebutted and any final action taken as a result of the proceeding shall occur in an open meeting;

(4) the discussion of personally identifiable information about any individual student, unless the student or the student's parent or guardian requests otherwise;

(5) meetings for the discussion of bargaining strategy preliminary to collective bargaining negotiations between the policymaking body and a bargaining unit representing the employees of that policymaking body and collective bargaining sessions at which the policymaking body and the representatives of the collective bargaining unit are present;

(6) that portion of meetings at which a decision concerning purchases in an amount exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) that can be made only from one source is discussed and that portion of meetings at which the contents of competitive sealed proposals solicited pursuant to the Procurement Code are discussed during the contract negotiation process. The actual approval of purchase of the item or final action regarding the selection of a contractor shall be made in an open meeting;

(7) meetings subject to the attorney-client privilege pertaining to threatened or pending litigation in which the public body is or may become a participant;

(8) meetings for the discussion of the purchase, acquisition or disposal of real property or water rights by the public body;

(9) those portions of meetings of committees or boards of public hospitals where strategic and long-range business plans or trade secrets are discussed; and

(10) that portion of a meeting of the gaming control board dealing with information made confidential pursuant to the provisions of the Gaming Control Act [Chapter 60, Article 2E NMSA 1978].

I. If any meeting is closed pursuant to the exclusions contained in Subsection H of this section:

(1) the closure, if made in an open meeting, shall be approved by a majority vote of a quorum of the policymaking body; the authority for the closure and the subject to be discussed shall be stated with reasonable specificity in the motion calling for the vote on a closed meeting; the vote shall be taken in an open meeting; and the vote of each individual member shall be recorded in the minutes. Only those subjects announced or voted upon prior to closure by the policymaking body may be discussed in a closed meeting; or

(2) if a closure is called for when the policymaking body is not in an open meeting, the closed meeting shall not be held until public notice, appropriate under the circumstances, stating the specific provision of the law authorizing the closed meeting and stating with reasonable specificity the subject to be discussed is given to the members and to the general public.

J. Following completion of any closed meeting, the minutes of the open meeting that was closed or the minutes of the next open meeting if the closed meeting was separately scheduled shall state that the matters discussed in the closed meeting were limited only to those specified in the motion for closure or in the notice of the separate closed meeting. This statement shall be approved by the public body under Subsection G of this section as part of the minutes.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-6-23, enacted by Laws 1974, ch. 91, § 1; 1979, ch. 366, § 1; 1989, ch. 299, § 1; 1993, ch. 262, § 1; 1997, ch. 190, § 65; 1999, ch. 157, § 1; 2013, ch. 42, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, required agendas to be available to the public seventy-two hours prior to a public meeting; required the attorney general to review a public body's action on emergency matters; in Subsection F, in the second sentence, after "emergency", added "or in the case of a public body that ordinarily meets more frequently than once per week, at least seventy-two hours prior to the meeting" and after "available to the public", deleted "at least twenty-four hours prior to the meeting" and added "and posted on the public body's web site, if one is maintained", and added the third and fifth sentences; in Paragraph (6) of Subsection H, after "from one source", added "is discussed"; in Paragraph (1) of Subsection I, at the beginning of the first sentence, added "the closure"; and in Paragraph (2) of Subsection I, at the beginning of the sentence, after "if", added "a closure is" and after "in an open meeting", added "the closed meeting".

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, rewrote Paragraph H(9) which read: "those portions of meetings of committees or boards of public hospitals that receive less than fifty percent of their operating budget from direct public funds and appropriations where strategic and long-range business plans are discussed; and".

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, in Subsection H, added Paragraph (10) and made minor stylistic changes at the end of Paragraphs (8) and (9).

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, in Subsection B, inserted "administrative adjudicatory body" near the beginning of the first sentence; added Subsections C, E, F, and J, redesignating the remaining subsections accordingly and making a related reference change in present Subsections H and I; added Paragraphs (3) and (4) to Subsection H, redesignating the remaining paragraphs accordingly; added the language beginning "and that portion of meetings" to the end of the first sentence of present Paragraph (6) and substituted "or final action regarding the selection of a contractor shall" for "is to" in the second sentence of that paragraph; in Subsection I, inserted "and the subject to be discussed" and "with reasonable specificity" in Paragraph (1) and deleted "the closed meetings" following "in an open meeting" and inserted "and stating with reasonable specificity the subject to be discussed" in Paragraph (2); and made stylistic changes in Subsection B and Subsections D, G, H, and I.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Purpose of the Open Meetings Act is to open the meetings of governmental bodies to public scrutiny by allowing public attendance at such meetings, not to unduly burden the appropriate exercise of governmental decision-making and ability to act. Gutierrez v. City of Albuquerque, 1981-NMSC-061, 96 N.M. 398, 631 P.2d 304.

The doctrine of res judicata applies to claimed violations of the Open Meetings Act. Anaya v. City of Albuquerque, 1996-NMCA-092, 122 N.M. 326, 924 P.2d 735, cert. denied, 122 N.M. 194, 922 P.2d 576.

Record of meeting. — Duly approved, written minutes of a policy making body can be sufficient to constitute an official transcript for review and duly approved and executed resolutions of a policy-making body can appropriately serve as a statement of the legal and factual basis for the body's decision. Village of Angel Fire v. Wheeler, 2003-NMCA-041, 133 N.M. 421, 63 P.3d 524, cert. denied, 133 N.M. 413, 63 P.3d 516.

Election of officers did not require a record of how voters voted. — Where defendants installed a new headgate on the association's acequia system without obtaining the approval of the association or the mayordomo; the mayordomo and a commissioner, on behalf of the association, obtained a temporary restraining order prohibiting defendants from continuing work on the ditch; defendants claimed that the association's meeting to elect officers violated the Open Meeting Act, Chapter 10, Article 15 NMSA 1978, because the minutes of the meeting did not record how each member voted as required by 10-15-1(G) NMSA 1978 and that consequently, the commissioner and the mayordomo were not properly elected as officers and lacked standing to file the petition for injunction on behalf of the association; in the association's practice, each person meeting the voter requirements of 73-2-14 NMSA 1978 was accorded one vote; and the voters did not represent others, they represented their own interests in the ditch, the election of the commissioner and the mayordomo was not void because the purpose of recording the "yeas and nay's" of votes as required by 10-15-1(G) NMSA 1978 was not relevant where the recording of the votes would not serve the purpose of greater accountability. Parkview Cmty. Ditch Ass'n v. Peper, 2014-NMCA-049.

To "attend and listen," as used in Subsection A, means that persons desiring to attend shall have the opportunity to do so, that no one will be systematically excluded or arbitrarily refused admittance, and that the meeting will not be "closed" to the public. Gutierrez v. City of Albuquerque, 1981-NMSC-061, 96 N.M. 398, 631 P.2d 304.

II. APPLICABILITY.

City-owned utility. — A city-owned electric utility corporation is a governmental board within a statute that requires the governing bodies of municipalities, etc., and all other governmental boards and commissions of state or its subdivisions that are supported by public funds to make all final decisions at meetings open to the public. Raton Pub. Serv. Co. v. Hobbes, 1966-NMSC-150, 76 N.M. 535, 417 P.2d 32 (decided under prior law).

City board of education. — A city board of education is a policymaking body covered by the public meeting law. State v. Hernandez, 1976-NMSC-081, 89 N.M. 698, 556 P.2d 1174.

Litigation committee of the New Mexico state investment council. — A litigation committee, acting under the delegated authority of the New Mexico state investment council (NMSIC) to settle legal matters, was subject to the Open Meetings Act because the committee was intended to be a policy-making body and its meetings were for the purpose of taking an action within the authority of the NMSIC. N.M. State Inv. Council v. Weinstein, 2016-NMCA-069, cert. denied.

Working group authorized to negotiate development agreement not subject to the Open Meetings Act. — In consolidated appeals arising from petitioners' collective opposition to the development of the proposed Santolina planned community on Albuquerque's west side mesa in Bernalillo county, where the Bernalillo county board of county commissioners (board) approved a master plan for the development of the Santolina community, a zone map amendment which rezoned the land from rural agricultural to planned community zoning, and a development agreement between Bernalillo county and the owners of the land at issue, and where petitioners claimed the development agreement was negotiated and approved in violation of the Open Meetings Act, the district court did not err in dismissing petitioners' claim on the grounds that the development agreement was not subject to the Open Meetings Act, because the working group that drafted the development agreement had no authority to act in a way that could bind the board to any action or decision it negotiated or developed; rather, the working group drafted the development agreement in order for it to be handed off to the board, and it was subsequently the Board, not the working group, that heard public comments on the draft prior to its vote to approve the development agreement. Benavidez v. Bernalillo Cnty. Bd. of Comm'rs, 2021-NMCA-029, cert. denied.

Tribal libraries and nonprofit libraries are not state agencies or political subdivisions of the state and are therefore not subject to the Open Meetings Act.

— The Open Meetings Act applies to all meetings of a quorum of members of any board, commission, administrative adjudicatory body or other policymaking body of any state agency or any agency or authority of any county, municipality, district or political subdivision, and therefore tribal libraries, which are not state agencies or political subdivisions of the state or of a county, municipality, or district but are strictly under the control and management of the tribal government, and nonprofit libraries, which are also not state agencies or public bodies but are generally charitable organizations, are not subject to the Open Meetings Act. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 25-06.

The child protective services task force is not a public body subject to the Open Meetings Act. — The Open Meetings Act applies to any "public body" and this section provides that the Open Meetings Act applies to all meetings of a quorum of members of any board, commission, administrative adjudicatory body or other policymaking body of any state agency or any agency or authority of any county, municipality, district or political subdivision. The child protective services task force, which was created by a house joint memorial during the 2019 legislative session for the purpose of making recommendations to generally improve the safety and well-being of children in the care of the child protective services system, is not subject to the Open Meetings Act, because it is not a policymaking entity as it holds a purely advisory role and exists only to make recommendations to real policymakers. Applicability of Open Meetings Act to Child Protective Services Task Force (1/30/20), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2020-01.

Applicability of the Open Meetings Act to volunteer nursing board advisory committees. — The Open Meetings Act, 10-15-1 to 10-15-4 NMSA 1978, applies to a quorum of members of any board or commission or other policy making body of any state agency held for the purpose of formulating public policy or taking any action within the authority of, or the delegated authority of, any board or commission or other policymaking body, and therefore, meetings of a volunteer advisory committee appointed by the nursing board to provide advice and recommendations to the nursing board on various topics would not implicate the Open Meetings Act, unless the advisory committee includes among its members a quorum of the nursing board, in which case the committee meeting would need to be noticed as a public meeting and the minutes would need to be taken, and any minutes that are taken must be open to public access. Use of Volunteers at the New Mexico State Board of Nursing (11/26/18), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2018-09.

III. EXCEPTIONS.

Meetings with attorney. — Subsection H(7) does not apply only when a public body has already become involved in litigation or has been informed it will likely become involved. Also, it does not require that a decision regarding litigation be made in an open meeting. Board of Cnty. Comm'rs v. Ogden, 1994-NMCA-010, 117 N.M. 181, 870 P.2d 143, cert. denied, 117 N.M. 215, 870 P.2d 753.

Settlement agreements entered into between parties are outside the attorney-client privilege, and therefore Paragraph (7) of Subsection H of this section has no bearing on their disclosure. Board of Comm'rs v. Las Cruces Sun-News, 2003-NMCA-102, 134 N.M. 283, 76 P.3d 36.

Decisions to settle litigation may be made in a closed meeting. — A litigation committee, acting under the delegated authority of the New Mexico State Investment Council to settle legal matters, did not violate the Open Meetings Act (OMA) when it approved settlement agreements under the Fraud Against Taxpayers Act, 44-9-1 to 44-9-14 NMSA 1978, in private meetings, but because the litigation committee failed to comply with the notice provisions of the OMA, the litigation committee's approval of the settlement agreements was invalid. N.M. State Inv. Council v. Weinstein, 2016-NMCA-069, cert. denied.

Communications regarding limited personnel matters. — In an underlying enforcement action under the New Mexico Inspection of Public Records Act, 14-2-1 to -12 NMSA 1978, where plaintiffs made a combined seven written requests of the Albuquerque public schools (APS) to inspect documents referencing complaints or allegations of misconduct regarding the former superintendent of APS, the district court did not err in ordering the non-party appellant to answer plaintiffs' deposition questions, because appellant failed to identify any privilege, either adopted by the New Mexico supreme court or recognized under the New Mexico constitution, on which to base her argument that communications regarding "limited personnel matters" that occur during a closed public meeting are immune from discovery, and failed to meet her burden of establishing the essential elements necessary to prove the applicability of the attorney-client privilege, based on a claimed common interest, to her communications with APS attorneys. Albuquerque Journal v. Board of Educ., 2019-NMCA-012, cert. granted.

County hospital physician's contract. — The Open Meetings Act was not applicable to a county hospital's contract with a physician since the board's bylaws gave authority to the CEO to enter into employment contracts with his subordinates, the contract was discussed at a closed-door meeting of the board conducted by the hospital's attorney, which was proper under the personnel exclusion of the Open Meetings Act. Also, since it did not appear that any "final actions" were taken by the board on the employment contracts, there was no action taken, and the Open Meetings Act did not apply. The contract did not have to be adopted by either the hospital's board or the county commission in order to be valid. Treloar v. County of Chavez, 2001-NMCA-074, 130 N.M. 794, 32 P.3d 803.

Quorum not required. — Where livestock board's executive director's largely unilateral action in negotiating with the Forest Service and executing a memorandum of understanding did not involve a meeting of a quorum of the Board members, the Open Meetings Act did not apply. Paragon Found., Inc. v. N.M. Livestock Bd., 2006-NMCA-004, 138 N.M. 761, 126 P.3d 577, cert. denied, 2006-NMCERT-001, 139 N.M.272, 131 P.3d 659.

IV. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.

Reasonable public access required. — A governmental entity must allow reasonable public access for those who wish to attend and listen to its proceedings. Gutierrez v. City of Albuquerque, 1981-NMSC-061, 96 N.M. 398, 631 P.2d 304.

Meeting with overflow crowd qualifies as open and public. — When the size of a crowd exceeds the capacity of the meeting place and every effort is made to allow those who cannot gain entrance to listen to the proceedings, the requirements of this article are satisfied and the meeting qualifies as both open and public. Gutierrez v. City of Albuquerque, 1981-NMSC-061, 96 N.M. 398, 631 P.2d 304.

Restrictions on public's right to speak at open meetings. — The Open Meetings Act does not require a county commission to allow the public to speak at its meetings. However, the commission in this case had an intentional practice and tradition of allowing public comment at its meetings, and it failed to identify a significant government interest justifying the prohibition of plaintiff's speech at a commission meeting. Therefore, the district courts order of summary judgment in favor of the commissioners was reversed. Mesa v. White, 197 F.3d 1041 (10th Cir. 1999).

V. NOTICE.

Notice reasonable. — Where notice of the meeting at which a board adopted regulations under the Environmental Improvement Act was mailed at least 10 days prior to the scheduled date to 64 individuals, committees and organizations (including the appellant who had and exercised the opportunity to appear at two preliminary meetings at which evidence was taken regarding the proposed regulations), the notice of these preliminary meetings was published in nine newspapers, a news release was issued on April 16, 1974, giving the time and place of the April 19 meeting and stating that the board would take action on proposed regulations for solid waste and New Mexico's ambient air standard for sulfur dioxide, notice of the meeting, citing a U.P.I. release, appeared in two other papers on April 18, 1974, and April 17, 1974, respectively, and moreover, April 19 was the regular monthly meeting date for the board, it was held that all of these efforts by the board constituted reasonable notice to the public within the meaning of this subsection. N.M. Mun. League, Inc. v. N.M. Env'tl. Imp. Bd., 1975-NMCA-083, 88 N.M. 201, 539 P.2d 221, cert. denied, 88 N.M. 318, 540 P.2d 248.

The "reasonable specificity" requirement for meeting agendas does not necessarily require the state ethics commission to name the target of an ethics investigation when considering the initiation of a civil action. — The State Ethics Commission Act, 10-16G-1 to 10-16G-16 NMSA 1978, provides that in situations where the state ethics commission is considering initiating an enforcement action but has not yet found probable cause, records of the alleged ethics violations shall not be disclosed and the matter shall remain confidential until the commission makes its decision, and therefore the "reasonable specificity" requirement for meeting agendas set forth in Subsection I of this section does not necessarily require the state ethics commission to name the target of the ethics investigation in an agenda or notice of meeting. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 25-01.

VI. CORRECTION OF ERRORS.

Reinstatement of termination proceedings after initial ones defective. — Where the original termination proceedings against a teacher were reversed based upon a procedural defect (failure to comply with this article), the school board was entitled to reinstate terminational proceedings, correct the procedural defect, and rely upon the same alleged acts of misconduct that had been relied upon in the original proceedings. Board of Educ. v. Sullivan, 1987-NMSC-062, 106 N.M. 125, 740 P.2d 119.

Correction of procedural error. — A local school board's procedural error in, following private deliberations, issuing its written decision affirming a teacher's dismissal without convening an open meeting and without a public announcement of the vote, may be corrected by holding a prompt public meeting, affording the teacher an opportunity to be present, and publicly voting on and ratifying its decision. Kleinberg v. Board of Educ., 1988-NMCA-014, 107 N.M. 38, 751 P.2d 722.

Corrective action taken thirty months after procedural error was valid. — Where the New Mexico State Investment Council (NMSIC) ratified settlement agreements approved by a litigation committee, which violated the Open Meetings Act when acting under the delegated authority of the NMSIC, the NMSIC's ratification of the settlements in a properly-noticed public meeting, which included a public agenda, was open to the public, was publicly voted on by a quorum of the NMSIC, and the minutes of which were published online, was sufficient to remedy the litigation committee's improper action, because the legislature did not intend to unduly burden the appropriate exercise of governmental decision-making and ability to act. N.M. State Inv. Council v. Weinstein, 2016-NMCA-069.

Moot claim not vacated. — Although the drug-testing policy in issue was replaced, making the claim under this act moot on appeal, the city is not entitled to vacate the trial court's judgment on that claim. 19 Solid Waste Dep't Mechanics v. City of Albuquerque, 76 F.3d 1142 (10th Cir. 1996).

Mutual domestic water association is a public body and must comply with the Open Meetings Act. 2006 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 06-02.

Dental hygiene committee must comply fully with the Open Meetings Act. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-82.

Intercommunity water supply association. — An association composed solely of two incorporated villages for purposes of securing an adequate and economic supply of water for the residents of the villages was a public body subject to the Open Meetings Act, particularly in light of the considerable public authority the association had over the creation, maintenance and distribution of the water to the two villages. 1991 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 91-07.

Denial to citizen of right to address board. — A local school board president has authority to deny citizens the right to address the local school board during a meeting of the board, if he is authorized to do so by rules promulgated by the board and he does not exercise that authority arbitrarily or capriciously. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-26.

All stages to be open. — All stages of the meetings must be open to the public because if the body were allowed to conduct a closed meeting in the determination of a matter, and then merely open the meeting to the public and announce its decision, the clear intent of the legislature would be defeated. 1959 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-105 (decided under prior law).

Decisions made by telephone, etc. — Final decisions made by telephone, mail or telegraph are not made at a meeting open to the public within the meaning of the act. A clear intention of the words "meeting open to the public" is to provide a situation where all of the attending members of the board or commission assembled together arrive at final decisions and determinations in such a manner as to allow the press and the general public to be present. Any other interpretation would defeat the legislative intent of the statute. 1959 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-105 (decided under prior law).

A county commission may not, consistently with this article, approve purchases by telephone. When it approves purchases, a county commission is conducting public business and taking official action. Therefore, to be valid, this action must be taken by the commissioners acting as a body at a meeting open to the public and according to the requirements of the Open Meetings Act. 1991 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 91-12.

Recording and broadcasting of meetings. — News reporters may record public meetings and may later broadcast those recordings, if the recording process does not effectively interfere with certain legitimate governmental interests such as the need to provide for order, decorum, etc. 1973 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 73-10 (decided under prior law).

Notice of meetings. — Notice must be posted in a timely manner prior to the anticipated meeting. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-29.

The reasonable notice standard contained in the Open Meetings Act involves an analysis of its substance and procedure, and no hard and fast rule can be applied to what constitutes "reasonable notice" under the Act. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-29.

Procedurally, it is acceptable to post notice in a prominent location like city hall or in the county courthouse. However, where notice has been posted in a prominent location but the public is denied access, such notice is defective and therefore not reasonable. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-29.

It is recommended that public policy-making bodies post notice at least 10 days prior to regular meetings, three days prior to special meetings and as practicable for emergency meetings. However, emergency meetings called with little or no notice must involve issues which, if not addressed immediately by a policy-making body, will threaten the health, safety or property of its citizens. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-29.

A violation of the Open Meeting Act's notice provisions must be considered to be substantial because the act's policy goals and intent cannot be achieved without sufficient notice. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-29.

Publication in New Mexico register. — A notice of proposed rulemaking in the New Mexico Register probably would not constitute reasonable notice under the Open Meetings Act, Sections 10-15-1 to 10-15-4 NMSA 1978, because the register is not widely circulated and is not readily available to the general public. 1993 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 93-02.

"Limited personnel matters" exception. — If a public policy-making body desires to meet in executive session to discuss an individual employee's dismissal, promotion, resignation, complaint or shortcomings, then such a meeting could properly be closed pursuant to the "limited personnel matters" exception set forth in Subsection H(2). Conversely, budgetary discussions and the like, while sometimes tangentially related to personnel matters, are not to be held behind closed doors. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-28.

Use of proxy votes is not permitted. — The Open Meetings Act does not allow a member of the New Mexico sentencing commission to use a designee to cast the member's vote at a meeting. 2010 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 10-02.

Official acts. — An "official act" for purposes of the Open Meetings Act broadly encompasses any activity related to an agency's official business, authority and responsibilities. 2010 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 10-02.

Sanctions for violations. — Sanctions for violating the Open Meetings Act include invalidation of agency action, award of attorney fees and costs to plaintiffs who prevail in a court action to enforce the Open Meetings Act, and criminal penalties. 2010 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 10-02.

No general right of public sector collective bargaining. — It would be incorrect to infer that by including a provision allowing closed meetings to discuss strategy preliminary to collective bargaining negotiations, Paragraph H(5) of this section, the legislature recognized the general right of public sector collective bargaining. To the contrary, that provision was enacted only because the legislature specifically had authorized cities to bargain collectively with transit workers in 3-52-14 to 3-52-16 NMSA 1978. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-41.

The Las Cruces Selection Advisory Committee is a policy-making body for purposes of the Open Meetings Act. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-27.

History: 1978 Comp., § 10-15-1.1, enacted by Laws 1979, ch. 366, § 2; 1989, ch. 299, § 2.

10-15-2. State legislature; meetings.

A. Unless otherwise provided by joint house and senate rule, all meetings of any committee or policy-making body of the legislature held for the purpose of discussing public business or for the purpose of taking any action within the authority of or the delegated authority of the committee or body are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times. Reasonable notice of meetings shall be given to the public by publication or by the presiding officer of each house prior to the time the meeting is scheduled.

B. The provisions of Subsection A of this section do not apply to matters relating to personnel or matters adjudicatory in nature or to investigative or quasi-judicial proceedings relating to ethics and conduct or to a caucus of a political party.

C. For the purposes of this section, "meeting" means a gathering of a quorum of the members of a standing committee or conference committee held for the purpose of taking any action within the authority of the committee or body.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-6-24, enacted by Laws 1974, ch. 91, § 2; 2009, ch. 105, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2009 amendment, effective June 19, 2009, in Subsection A, added "unless otherwise provided by joint house and senate rule" at the beginning of the sentence; after "all meetings of", deleted "a quorum of members of" and added the last sentence; in Subsection B, deleted the language after "adjudicatory in nature", deleted "or any bill, resolution or other legislative matter not yet presented to either house of the legislature or general appropriation bills" and added the remainder of the sentence; in Subsection C, after "gathering of", added "a quorum of"; after "members", deleted "called by the presiding officer" and after "standing committee", added the remainder of the sentence.

Open meetings not required. — The open meetings requirement as defined in this section does not apply to a caucus of the majority party of the house of representatives. 1976 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 76-21.

10-15-3. Invalid actions; standing.

A. No resolution, rule, regulation, ordinance or action of any board, commission, committee or other policymaking body shall be valid unless taken or made at a meeting held in accordance with the requirements of Section 10-15-1 NMSA 1978. Every resolution, rule, regulation, ordinance or action of any board, commission, committee or other policymaking body shall be presumed to have been taken or made at a meeting held in accordance with the requirements of Section 10-15-1 NMSA 1978.

B. All provisions of the Open Meetings Act shall be enforced by the attorney general or by the district attorney in the county of jurisdiction. However, nothing in that act shall prevent an individual from independently applying for enforcement through the district courts, provided that the individual first provides written notice of the claimed violation to the public body and that the public body has denied or not acted on the claim within fifteen days of receiving it. A public meeting held to address a claimed violation of the Open Meetings Act shall include a summary of comments made at the meeting at which the claimed violation occurred.

C. The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction, upon the application of any person to enforce the purpose of the Open Meetings Act, by injunction, mandamus or other appropriate order. The court shall award costs and reasonable attorney fees to any person who is successful in bringing a court action to enforce the provisions of the Open Meetings Act. If the prevailing party in a legal action brought under this section is a public body defendant, it shall be awarded court costs. A public body defendant that prevails in a court action brought under this section shall be awarded its reasonable attorney fees from the plaintiff if the plaintiff brought the action without sufficient information and belief that good grounds supported it.

D. No section of the Open Meetings Act shall be construed to preclude other remedies or rights not relating to the question of open meetings.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1997 amendment, effective June 20, 1997, added the proviso in the second sentence of Subsection B and rewrote Subsection C.

The 1993 amendment, effective June 18, 1993, purported to amend this section but made no change.

Memorandum of understanding entered into by regional forester of the forest service and the executive director of the livestock board was not a proper action under this section, and thus there was no Open Meetings Act violation. Paragon Found., Inc. v. N.M. Livestock Bd., 2006-NMCA-004, 138 N.M. 761, 126 P.3d 577, cert. denied, 2006-NMCERT-001, 139 N.M.272, 131 P.3d 659.

Recall of school board members. — Violation of the Open Meetings Act provides a sufficient basis for a petition to recall school board members. Dona Ana Cnty. Clerk v. Martinez, 2005-NMSC-037, 138 N.M. 575, 124 P.3d 210.

Employment offer from two commissioners. — The action of two county commissioners orally extending an offer of a two-year employment was without statutory authority because it was not made at a duly constituted meeting of the board and, thus, it was not a valid act capable of binding the county. Trujillo v. Gonzales, 1987-NMSC-119, 106 N.M. 620, 747 P.2d 915.

Retroactive cure of invalid action. — When a public entity acts to cure an employment termination action that was taken in violation of the Open Meetings Act by taking a later action, the later action cannot be applied retroactively to make the prior action valid and effective as of the date it was taken. Palenick v. City of Rio Rancho, 2012-NMCA-018, 270 P.3d 1281, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-002.

Where a municipality terminated plaintiff as city manager in violation of the Open Meeting Act and in a meeting eleven months after the termination, the municipality passed a resolution ratifying and approving the prior action, the later attempt to ratify and approve the invalid action and make the termination retroactively effective as of the date of the prior action was not effective. Palenick v. City of Rio Rancho, 2012-NMCA-018, 270 P.3d 1281, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-002.

Waiver of breach of employment agreement based on a violation of the act. —

Where defendant's city council terminated plaintiff's employment agreement; even though plaintiff believed that the city council had violated the Open Meetings Act and that plaintiff was still an employee of defendant, plaintiff demanded the severance benefits provided in the agreement; the correspondence between plaintiff and defendant concerning plaintiff's demand for severance benefits did not mention the circumstances surrounding plaintiff's termination; plaintiff did not object to defendant's letter informing plaintiff that plaintiff was no longer an employee of defendant; defendant paid plaintiff the severance package; the attorney general determined that plaintiff's termination violated the Open Meetings Act and that the violation invalidated plaintiff's termination; and plaintiff sued defendant for violation of the Open Meeting Act and for breach of contract, plaintiff's demand and acceptance of the severance package from defendant constituted a waiver of plaintiff's right to pursue claims against defendant for violation of the Open Meetings Act and for breach of contract. Palenick v. City of Rio Rancho, 2013-NMSC-029, rev'g 2012-NMCA-018, 270 P.3d 1281.

Breach of employment agreement based on a violation of the act. — Where a municipality terminated plaintiff as city manager in violation of the Open Meeting Act, plaintiff's acceptance of severance benefits did not constitute a waiver of plaintiff's right to salary and benefits pursuant to plaintiff's employment agreement. Palenick v. City of Rio Rancho, 2012-NMCA-018, 270 P.3d 1281, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-002.

Attorney's fees. — Where a municipality terminated plaintiff as city manager in violation of the Open Meeting Act, plaintiff filed an action for enforcement of the act and for breach of contract to recover money due under plaintiff's employment agreement; and plaintiff's claim to enforce the act was dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, the court could not enforce the act in the breach of contract action by awarding attorney fees and costs under the act. Palenick v. City of Rio Rancho, 2012-NMCA-018, 270 P.3d 1281, cert. granted, 2012-NMCERT-002.

10-15-4. Penalty.

Any person violating any of the provisions of Section 10-15-1 or 10-15-2 NMSA 1978 is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-1, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 1; 1993, ch. 46, § 26.

ANNOTATIONS

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote this section, which read "This act may be cited as the 'Conflict of Interest Act'".

Disclosure of disciplinary proceedings based on alleged violation of act. — An attorney's revelation to the secretary of state of the outcome of disciplinary proceedings against another attorney who had been a staff attorney for the New Mexico public utilities commission, which disciplinary proceedings were based on the disclosing attorney's letter to the secretary of state alleging a violation by the other attorney of the Governmental Conduct Act was not actionable as a public disclosure of private facts. Fernandez-Wells v. Beuvois, 1999-NMCA-071, 127 N.M. 487, 983 P.2d 1006.

Scope of act. — This article applies only to state agencies and that term would not include a county commission. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-135.

As a state agency, the retiree health care authority is subject to those provisions of this article that apply to state agencies. 1991 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 91-06.

Effect on school districts. — It would not have been necessary to enact Section 22-21-1 NMSA 1978 of the public school code if this article applied to school districts. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-19.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, added definitions of "contract" and "local government agency" and included officials and employees of local governmental agencies within the definition of "public officer or employee".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added Subsection D, defining "family"; deleted the definition of "person"; and added Subsection I, defining "state agency".

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, substituted "Governmental Conduct Act" for "Conflict of Interest Act" in the introductory paragraph and in Subsection H; deleted Subsections C and D, defining "controlling interest" and "employee"; redesignated Subsections E through G as Subsections C through E; inserted "dependent" preceding "minor" in Subsection D; deleted "except the term does not mean an act of the legislature or an act of general applicability" at the end of Subsection E; added Subsections F, G, and I; and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

Judges excluded. — The legislature expressly chose to exclude judges from application of the Governmental Conduct Act. State v. Maestas, 2007-NMSC-001, 140 N.M. 836, 149 P.3d 933.

Self-dealing by non-state-employed council members does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit members of the New Mexico council for purchasing from persons with disabilities (council) from voting to approve a contract subject to the State Use Act, 13-1C-1 to 13-1C-7 NMSA 1978, between a state agency or local public body and a council member or a company in which the council member has a financial interest. Most of the members of the council do not receive compensation or cost reimbursements from the state, and therefore are not subject to the Governmental Conduct Act's conflict-of-interest provisions, and although the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits a state agency from entering into a contract with a business in which a public officer or employee has a substantial interest, it is the designated central nonprofit agency that holds contracts under the State Use Act, not the council itself. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-07.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not generally prohibit a public employee from accepting another job. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not generally prohibit a public employee from having a second paying job as long as the employee discloses the job to the employee's employer, the employee is not being paid for work already performed as a public employee, and there is no conflict between the employee's public employment and secondary employment such that the positions are otherwise incompatible. 2025 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2025-02.

A district legislative aide may hold another state job that is not incompatible with the performance of the legislative aide's duties. — A district legislative aide is permitted to hold full time employment with another state agency so long as the legislative aide meets the requirements of each position, discloses the position in writing, and does not take any official acts in one position that would affect the other. 2025 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2025-03.

Scope of section limited. — This article did not apply to employees of school districts or other similar political subdivisions of the state. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-19.

Employees of school districts do not hold a "state office". 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-19.

Members of racing commission are within purview of conflict laws as employees. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-15.

New Mexico municipal self-insurers' fund. — The New Mexico municipal self insurers' fund, formed under the provisions of 11-1-3 NMSA 1978, authorizing governing bodies to exercise joint powers, and Article 62, Chapter 3 NMSA 1978, governing municipal insurance, is a state agency and is, therefore, subject to audit by the state auditor under 12-6-3 NMSA 1978. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-65.

10-16-3. Ethical principles of public service; certain official acts prohibited; penalty.

A. A legislator or public officer or employee shall treat the legislator's or public officer's or employee's government position as a public trust. The legislator or public officer or employee shall use the powers and resources of public office only to advance the public interest and not to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests.

B. Legislators and public officers and employees shall conduct themselves in a manner that justifies the confidence placed in them by the people, at all times maintaining the integrity and discharging ethically the high responsibilities of public service.

C. Full disclosure of real or potential conflicts of interest shall be a guiding principle for determining appropriate conduct. At all times, reasonable efforts shall be made to avoid undue influence and abuse of office in public service.

D. No legislator or public officer or employee may request or receive, and no person may offer a legislator or public officer or employee, any money, thing of value or promise thereof that is conditioned upon or given in exchange for promised performance of an official act. Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the provisions of this subsection is guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

History: 1978 Comp., § 10-16-3, enacted by Laws 1993, ch. 46, § 28; 2007, ch. 362, § 2; 2011, ch. 138, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1993, ch. 46, § 28 repealed former 10-16-3 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 3, relating to gifts, and enacted a new section, effective July 1, 1993.

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, in Subsection A, eliminated the qualification that prohibited personal benefits and private interests must be incompatible with the public interest.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, made grammatical changes.

Judge's conviction invalid. — The legislature expressly chose to exclude judges from application of the Governmental Conduct Act. Therefore, a judge could not be convicted of violating official acts prohibited under 10-16-3(D) NMSA 1978, and violating official acts prohibited by that section could not be used as the predicate felony to support the defendant's conviction of criminal sexual penetration during the commission of a felony. State v. Maestas, 2007-NMSC-001, 140 N.M. 836, 149 P.3d 933.

The New Mexico legislature intended Subsections A through C of this section be applied as ethical principles rather than as criminal statutes. — In consolidated cases, where petitioners were each charged under two or three subsections of the Governmental Conduct Act, and where the district court dismissed the charges in all four cases on different grounds, the district courts did not err in dismissing charges under 10-16-3(A) through 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978, because the plain language of Subsections (A) through (C) demonstrate a legislative intent that these subsections be applied as ethical principles rather than as criminal statutes within the scope of 10-16-17 NMSA 1978. Each relevant subsection communicates a general goal or proscription without specifying a wrongful deed or forbidden act. State v. Gutierrez, 2023-NMSC-002, rev'g 2020-NMCA-045, 472 P.3d 1260.

Legislative intent for willful and knowing violations. — The plain meaning of § 10-16-3 NMSA 1978 and § 10-16-17 NMSA 1978 indicates a legislative intent to provide for a misdemeanor penalty for a knowing and willful violation of the provisions of §§ 10-16-3(A) through § 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

Void for vagueness analysis of Subsection A. — Section 10-16-3(A) NMSA 1978 mandates the use of the powers and resources of a legislator's, public officer's, or public employee's public office only for the benefit of the people of New Mexico, and prohibits legislators, public officers, and public employees from exploiting their powers and resources for private gain, and to the extent the application of Subsection A requires a qualitative determination of what constitutes a public versus private interest, as a general rule, the application of a qualitative standard to real-world conduct does not render a statute unconstitutionally vague. Subsection A provides a fair opportunity for persons of ordinary intelligence to determine whether his or her conduct is prohibited, as well as sufficient guidance for enforcement of the law such that it neither permits nor encourages subjective or ad hoc application. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

Subsection B is unconstitutionally vague. — Although § 10-16-3(B) NMSA 1978 describes behavior to which the listed officials should aspire, it does not follow with a definition or clarification of the conduct that is required to comply. To the extent the phrases "conduct themselves in a manner that justifies the confidence placed in them by the people," "maintaining the integrity," and "discharging ethically" were intended to require or prohibit certain conduct, the court is unable to ascertain with any reasonable degree of certainty the conduct the legislature intended to prohibit. Subsection B not only fails to provide persons of ordinary intelligence a fair opportunity to determine whether their conduct is prohibited, but also fails to provide minimum guidance that would preclude subjective and ad hoc application of the law; Subsection B is vague and cannot form the basis for criminal charges under § 10-16-17 NMSA 1978. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

Subsection C is unconstitutionally vague. — Section 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978 does not provide adequate guidance as to whom its requirements apply. The lack of any minimum guidance with regard to the class of persons whose conduct is governed by Subsection C renders it unconstitutionally vague because it fails to give people of ordinary intelligence a reasonable opportunity to know whether their conduct is prohibited because they have no notice as to whether they are a member of the class of persons contemplated under Subsection C, and it invites subjective and ad hoc application of the law because law enforcement officials have no guidance as to the class of persons subject to the requirements of the subsection. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

In four separate cases, consolidated for appeal, where each case arose from an allegation of misconduct by a government official, and where the district court in each case dismissed the charges against the defendants, finding that violations of §§ 10-16-3(A) through § 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978 were not crimes but ethical considerations and therefore the indictments failed to allege the commission of a criminal offense, or that even if Subsections A through C provided for criminal offenses, they were nevertheless void for vagueness, the district courts' dismissals of the counts charging defendants under Subsection A were improper because the plain meaning of § 10-16-3 NMSA 1978 and § 10-16-17 NMSA 1978 indicates a legislative intent to provide for a misdemeanor penalty for a knowing and willful violation of Subsection A, but the dismissals of the counts charging defendants under Subsections B through C were proper because those subsections fail to provide persons of ordinary intelligence a fair opportunity to determine whether their conduct is prohibited. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a legislator from sitting on the board of a nonprofit organization that receives state contracts. — Although a legislator's unpaid membership on the board of directors of a nonprofit organization is not a financial interest subject to disclosure or regulation under the Governmental Conduct Act, a legislator who serves as a volunteer member on the board of directors of a nonprofit organization that assists victims of sexual assault and advocates on their behalf may not use the powers and resources of public office to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests, must make full disclosure of real or potential conflicts of interest, may be required to recuse from votes that might impact the nonprofit organization and, when dealing with state agencies on behalf of the nonprofit organization, should avoid making reference to the legislator's official status, except as to matters related to scheduling, avoid communications on legislative stationery, and avoid threats or implications relating to legislative actions. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-02.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a business significantly owned by a legislator from applying for and receiving federal CARES relief funds. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a business significantly owned by a legislator from applying for and receiving federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES) relief funds, because a legislator is not directly responsible for the New Mexico department of finance and administration's and the New Mexico finance authority's distribution of CARES relief grants; the decision to award grant money to a business owned by the legislator has no direct connection with an exercise of the powers and responsibilities of the legislator's public office. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-03.

An oversight agency does not violate the public trust by publicizing concerns about the operation of a state agency. — The New Mexico state auditor, in releasing to the public his concerns about the operation of the Martin Luther King, Jr. commission, does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act, because it is not a violation of the public trust to publicize the findings of an audit that contained numerous findings of material weaknesses and material noncompliance. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-04.

A legislator or public officer does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act by submitting records requests to other state agencies. — The New Mexico state treasurer, who is a statutorily designated member of the Martin Luther King, Jr. commission (MLK commission), did not violate the Governmental Conduct Act in submitting numerous records requests to the MLK commission pursuant to the Inspection of Public Records Act, 14-2-1 to 14-2-12 NMSA 1978, given that the New Mexico legislature has declared that it is the public policy of this state that all persons are entitled to the greatest possible information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts of public officers and employees, and that to provide persons with such information is an essential function of a representative government and an integral part of the routine duties of public officers and employees. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-04.

This section does not require recusal on any vote affecting a legislator's interests. — Under this section, a legislator may not use the powers and resources of their legislative office to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests, but this section does not require recusal on any vote affecting a legislator's interests, and therefore a legislator who is a respondent in administrative complaints pending in the state ethics commission is not prohibited by this section from voting on proposed legislation that affects the state ethics commission. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-07.

A legislator's official acts affecting a financial interest are prohibited. — Section 10-16-3(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act provides that a legislator may not use the powers and resources of their legislative office to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests, and therefore a newly elected legislator who owns, and was previously employed by, a corporation that currently provides services to the state pursuant to contracts and grant agreements would be prohibited from taking any official act for the purpose of benefitting either the legislator's ownership or employment interests in the corporation. A legislator may voluntarily recuse from participation in a matter that affects, or has the appearance of affecting, their interest. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-01.

Duty to disclose real or potential conflicts of interest. — Section 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act requires a legislator to disclose real or potential conflicts of interest, and therefore a newly elected legislator who owns, and was previously employed by, a corporation that currently provides services to the state pursuant to contracts and grant agreements has a duty to disclose the legislator's interest in the corporation. If the legislator has disclosed ownership of and employment by the corporation on an annual financial disclosure statement, that statement would be sufficient to meet the disclosure required by Section 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-01.

A legislator's duty to disclose potential conflicts of interest and duty to treat position as a public trust. — Under the Governmental Conduct Act, a legislator may not use the powers and resources of their legislative office to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests, and must disclose any real or potential conflicts of interest, and therefore a legislator, whose children own and operate a company that has service contracts with state agencies, which were awarded through a competitive process, and whose only financial interest in his children's company is a rental agreement for storage space, would be prohibited from taking any official act for the purpose of benefitting their children's company and would be required to disclose the legislator's interest in the storage-rental contract on their annual financial disclosure statement. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-02.

Self-dealing by non-state-employed council members does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit members of the New Mexico council for purchasing from persons with disabilities (council) from voting to approve a contract subject to the State Use Act, 13-1C-1 to 13-1C-7 NMSA 1978, between a state agency or local public body and a council member or a company in which the council member has a financial interest. Most of the members of the council do not receive compensation or cost reimbursements from the state, and therefore are not subject to the Governmental Conduct Act's conflict-of-interest provisions, and although the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits a state agency from entering into a contract with a business in which a public officer or employee has a substantial interest, it is the designated central nonprofit agency that holds contracts under the State Use Act, not the council itself. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-07.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not limit communications between a legislator and a lobbyist. — The Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-1 to 10-16-18 NMSA 1978, regulates the conduct of legislators in limited circumstances, requires legislators to disclose any conflict of interest, and requires legislators to use the powers of their legislative office only to advance the public interest, but the Governmental Conduct Act does not constrain any communications between a legislator and a lobbyist employed by an entity that contracts with or employs the legislator, nor does it constrain communications between a legislator and the board members or employees of an entity that employs or contracts with the legislator. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-06.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a district legislative aide from assisting a legislator in a nonpartisan "get-out-the-vote" campaign. — A district legislative aide (DLA) is specifically authorized by policy to assist a legislator in activities that include providing support for correspondence and constituent services at the local level, and therefore a DLA would be permitted to provide support to a legislator in sending out mailers informing local constituents how to register to vote and providing logistical information concerning election day, so long as those mailers do not constitute electioneering or otherwise violate applicable policies, because such support is clearly within the scope of 10-16-3(A) NMSA 1978, which provides that a public employee shall use the "powers and resources of public office only to advance the public interest and not to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests". 2024 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2024-05.

Bond attorneys. — The provision of the Governmental Conduct Act that limits contributions to state officers and employees by businesses that provide financial services does not apply to lawyers who perform bond work for the state. 2007 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 07-04.

Holding a cabinet office and a university position. — The concurrent holding of a cabinet office and a position with a university regulated, to any degree, by the cabinet office raises the conflict of interest issues addressed by the Governmental Conduct Act and may require the cabinet officer to relinquish the officer's university position. 2007 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 07-06.

Free passes for racing commissioners disallowed. — When the members of the racing commission distribute free passes which the tracks must honor they are requesting a benefit for themselves or for those upon whom they wish to confer a benefit from persons who are directly affected by their official acts, which is the kind of activity this article is intended to prevent. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-15.

Public employees retirement board members could not accept expense-paid trip. — Public employees retirement board members could not accept an offer of an expense-paid trip to Columbus, Ohio to be hosted by public employees benefit services corporation. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-21.

District attorney's office may accept unconditional gifts or donations of goods, services or other in-kind benefits. — Public officers and employees are prohibited from knowingly requesting or receiving any money or thing of value that is conditioned upon or given in exchange for the promised performance of an official act, and the rules of professional conduct for lawyers prohibit a lawyer from accepting compensation from third parties unless there is no interference with the lawyer's independence of professional judgment in rendering legal services, and therefore, under these provisions, a state agency such as a district attorney's office may accept donations of goods and services for official purposes if the donations are made voluntarily and unconditionally and do not affect the office's independent and unbiased provision of prosecutorial and other legal services. Use of Funds and Services Received from Third Parties (1/14/19), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2019-01.

A state employee who also receives a monthly salary from a political campaign committee does not necessarily violate state ethics laws. — Although the Gift Act, 10-16B-1 to 10-16B-4 NMSA 1978, the Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-1 to 10-16-18 NMSA 1978, the Financial Disclosure Act, 10-16A-1 to 10-16A-8 NMSA 1978, the Campaign Reporting Act, 1-19-25 to 1-19-36 NMSA 1978, and the State Ethics Commission Act, Chapter 10, Article 16G NMSA 1978, impose certain duties on state employees and regulate certain state employees' conduct, the limited set of facts presented in this request, that a state employee, while employed and performing regular public duties, is also receiving a monthly salary from a political campaign committee or political organization, do not establish a violation of any of the foregoing statutes. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-01.

Cabinet secretary's teleworking accommodations do not violate the Governmental Conduct Act. — The Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-3(A) NMSA 1978, prohibits an out-of-state telework accommodation that either inhibits a state employee's performance of statutorily defined duties or otherwise obstructs the advancement of the public interest, but the fact that that the New Mexico secretary of education has worked from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for several months during the 2020 public health crisis, without any information that the secretary of education's performance is inhibited in any way, does not establish a violation of the Governmental Conduct Act. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-06.

Paid leave for a teacher also serving as a legislator does not create an impermissible conflict of interest. — A school district's provision of compensation, including paid leave, to a school teacher or administrator serving as a legislator does not, by itself, create an impermissible conflict of interest. A disqualifying conflict would exist only if it was established that a school district provided paid leave to a school employee not as compensation for services, but to influence the employee's decisions and official actions as a legislator. Provision of Paid Leave to Teacher Serving as Legislator (5/31/17), [Att'y Gen. A district legislative aide may hold another state job that is not incompatible with the performance of the legislative aide's duties. — A district legislative aide is permitted to hold full time employment with another state agency so long as the legislative aide meets the requirements of each position, discloses the position in writing, and does not take any official acts in one position that would affect the other. 2025 Op. 10-16-3.1. Prohibited political activities.

A public officer or employee is prohibited from:

A. directly or indirectly coercing or attempting to coerce another public officer or employee to pay, lend or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency or person for a political purpose;

B. threatening to deny a promotion or pay increase to an employee who does or does not vote for certain candidates, requiring an employee to contribute a percentage of the employee's pay to a political fund, influencing a subordinate employee to purchase a ticket to a political fundraising dinner or similar event, advising an employee to take part in political activity or similar activities; or

C. violating the officer's or employee's duty not to use property belonging to a state agency or local government agency, or allow its use, for other than authorized purposes.

History: Laws 2007, ch. 362, § 9; 2011, ch. 138, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, prohibited a public officer or employee from violating another office's or employee's duty not to use property of local governmental agencies.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a district legislative aide from engaging in non-partisan townhalls or non-partisan rallies. — A district legislative aide (DLA) is specifically authorized by policy to provide support to a legislator with activities that include the organization of nonpartisan town halls, and therefore a DLA would not engage in an unauthorized use of state property or resources, including their time, by organizing a nonpartisan town hall or a nonpartisan rally, which is sufficiently similar to a town hall to be permitted under the DLA authority, and would not violate 10-16-3.1(C) NMSA 1978, because these activities are not conducted for a political purpose and are specifically authorized uses of state resources. 2024 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2024-05.

10-16-4. Official act for personal financial interest prohibited; disqualification from official act; providing a penalty.

A. It is unlawful for a public officer or employee to take an official act for the primary purpose of directly enhancing the public officer's or employee's financial interest or financial position. Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the provisions of this subsection is guilty of a fourth degree felony and shall be sentenced pursuant to the provisions of Section 31-18-15 NMSA 1978.

B. A public officer or employee shall be disqualified from engaging in any official act directly affecting the public officer's or employee's financial interest, except a public officer or employee shall not be disqualified from engaging in an official act if the financial benefit of the financial interest to the public officer or employee is proportionately less than the benefit to the general public.

C. No public officer during the term for which elected and no public employee during the period of employment shall acquire a financial interest when the public officer or employee believes or should have reason to believe that the new financial interest will be directly affected by the officer's or employee's official act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-4, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 4; 1993, ch. 46, § 29; 2007, ch. 362, § 3; 2011, ch. 138, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, in Subsection B, permitted public officers and employees to engage in official acts if the financial benefit of their financial interest is proportionally less than the benefit to the general public; and added Subsection C to prohibit public officers and employees from acquiring a financial interest when the interest will affect the officer's or employee's official act.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, deleted Subsection C, which permitted the governor to make an exception to the requirement that a public officer or employee be disqualified from engaging in an official act.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote the catchline, which read "Disqualification"; added current Subsection A; redesignated Subsections A and B as Subsections B and C; rewrote Subsection B, which read "An employee shall disqualify himself from participating in any official act directly affecting a business in which he has a financial interest"; and, in, Subsection C, substituted "to Subsection B of this section" for "from this section", inserted "public officer or" in two places, and made minor stylistic changes.

A public official is prohibited from participating in an official act that would increase the wages paid to the official's spouse. — The Governmental Conduct Act prohibits a public official from taking an official action that directly benefits a financial interest held by the public official or the public official's family, and therefore, a public official employed by or serving on the governing board of a public post-secondary educational institution that is considering a decision to approve a contract that would increase wages paid to the institution's employees, one of whom is the public official's spouse, would be prohibited from participating in the review and approval of the contract. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-09.

The disqualification provision of this section does not apply to legislators. — Legislators are expressly excluded from the definition of a "public officer or employee" and therefore a legislator who is a respondent in administrative complaints pending in the state ethics commission is not prohibited by this section from voting on proposed legislation that affects the state ethics commission. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-07.

State transportation authority member should recuse himself when a conflict arises between the authority's official acts and his own financial interests. 10-16-4.1. Honoraria prohibited.

No legislator, public officer or employee may request or receive an honorarium for a speech or service rendered that relates to the performance of public duties. For the purposes of this section, "honorarium" means payment of money, or any other thing of value in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), but does not include reasonable reimbursement for meals, lodging or actual travel expenses incurred in making the speech or rendering the service, or payment or compensation for services rendered in the normal course of a private business pursuit.

10-16-6. Confidential information.

No legislator or public officer or employee shall use or disclose confidential information acquired by virtue of the legislator's or public officer's or employee's position with a state agency or local government agency for the legislator's, public officer's or employee's or another's private gain.

10-16-7. Contracts involving public officers or employees.

A. A state agency shall not enter into a contract with a public officer or employee of the state, with the family of the public officer or employee or with a business in which the public officer or employee or the family of the public officer or employee has a substantial interest unless the public officer or employee has disclosed through public notice the public officer's or employee's substantial interest and unless the contract is awarded pursuant to a competitive process; provided that this section does not apply to a contract of official employment with the state. A person negotiating or executing a contract on behalf of a state agency shall exercise due diligence to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section.

B. Unless a public officer or employee has disclosed the public officer's or employee's substantial interest through public notice and unless a contract is awarded pursuant to a competitive process, a local government agency shall not enter into a contract with a public officer or employee of that local government agency, with the family of the public officer or employee or with a business in which the public officer or employee or the family of the public officer or employee has a substantial interest.

C. Subsection B of this section does not apply to a contract of official employment with a political subdivision. A person negotiating or executing a contract on behalf of a local government agency shall exercise due diligence to ensure compliance with the provisions of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-7, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 7; 1983, ch. 90, § 1; 1989, ch. 264, § 26; 1993, ch. 46, § 31; 2007, ch. 362, § 5; 2009, ch. 66, § 11; 2011, ch. 138, § 8.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, in Subsection A, required public notice of a public officer's or employee's substantial interest in a contract with a state agency and eliminated the exemption for contracts made under the University Research and Economic Development Act and the New Mexico Research Applications Act; added Subsection B to prohibit local government agencies from entering into a contract with a public officer or employee or their family unless the officer or employee has disclosed their substantial interest in the contract and the contract is awarded through competitive bidding; and added Subsection C to exempt contracts of official employment with political subdivisions from the prohibition of Subsection B.

The 2009 amendment, effective April 2, 2009, added "and Economic Development Act" after "University Research Park" and added "or the New Mexico Research Applications Act".

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, prohibited contracts with the family of a public officer or employee or with a business in which the family of a public officer or employee has a substantial interest unless the interest has been disclosed; provided that public officers and employees and their families are not eligible for sole source or small purchase contracts; and required persons who negotiate contracts for a state agency to use due diligence to ensure compliance with this section.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "public officers or" in the section heading and inserted "public officer or" in three places; substituted the language beginning "substantial interest unless" and ending at the beginning of the proviso for "controlling interests involving services or property of a value in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) when the employee has disclosed his controlling interest unless the contract is made after public notice and competitive bidding"; and made a minor stylistic change.

Public notice and a competitive process are required before a local government agency may enter into a contract with a public officer. —

Where a village trustee owns an RV park, adjacent to which is a piece of property owned by the village, and where, for many years, the RV park has used the parcel of village property as an extension of the RV park, and where the trustee has expressed an interest in purchasing the parcel, this section does not prohibit the sale or lease of the village property to the trustee as long as the public has notice of the trustee's interest in a transaction between the village and the RV park and the village conducts the sale or lease through a competitive process. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-05.

Self-dealing by non-state-employed council members does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act. —

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit members of the New Mexico council for purchasing from persons with disabilities (council) from voting to approve a contract subject to the State Use Act, 13-1C-1 to 13-1C-7 NMSA 1978, between a state agency or local public body and a council member or a company in which the council member has a financial interest. Most of the members of the council do not receive compensation or cost reimbursements from the state, and therefore are not subject to the Governmental Conduct Act's conflict-of-interest provisions, and although the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits a state agency from entering into a contract with a business in which a public officer or employee has a substantial interest, it is the designated central nonprofit agency that holds contracts under the State Use Act, not the council itself. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-07.

10-16-8. Contracts involving former public officers or employees; representation of clients after government service.

A. A state agency shall not enter into a contract with, or take any action favorably affecting, any person or business that is:

(1) represented personally in the matter by a person who has been a public officer or employee of the state within the preceding year if the value of the contract or action is in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and the contract is a direct result of an official act by the public officer or employee; or

(2) assisted in the transaction by a former public officer or employee of the state whose official act, while in state employment, directly resulted in the agency's making that contract or taking that action.

B. A former public officer or employee shall not represent a person in the person's dealings with the government on a matter in which the former public officer or employee participated personally and substantially while a public officer or employee.

C. A local government agency shall not enter into a contract with, or take any action favorably affecting, any person or business that is:

(1) represented personally in the matter by a person who has been a public officer or employee of that local government agency within the preceding year if the value of the contract or action is in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and the contract is a direct result of an official act by the public officer or employee; or

(2) assisted in the transaction by a former public officer or employee of that political subdivision of the state whose official act, while in employment with that political subdivision of the state, directly resulted in the agency's making that contract or taking that action.

D. For a period of one year after leaving government service or employment, a former public officer or employee shall not represent for pay a person before the state agency or local government agency at which the former public officer or employee served or worked.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-8, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 8; 1983, ch. 90, § 2; 1993, ch. 46, § 32; 2011, ch. 138, § 9.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2011 amendment, effective July 1, 2011, added a new Subsection C to provide limitations on contracting by local government agencies with former public officers and employees; and relettered the succeeding subsection.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote the section heading, which read "Contracts involving former employees"; inserted the subsection designation "A" at the beginning, redesignated Subsections A and B as Paragraphs (1) and (2), and added Subsections B and C; and, in Subsection A, inserted "public officer or" in three places and made minor stylistic changes.

Subsection C [now Subsection D] not unconstitutional regulation of law practice.

— The application of Subsection C [D] to former executive branch attorneys is not an attempt by the legislature to regulate the practice of law and the provision does not violate separation of powers. Ortiz v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1998-NMCA-027, 124 N.M. 677, 954 P.2d 109.

Construction with Rule 16-111 NMRA. — Subsection C [now Subsection D] and Rule 16-111 NMRA, prohibiting an attorney in private practice from representing a client in a matter in which the attorney participated personally and substantially while a public officer or employee, prohibit different types of conduct and are not in conflict. Ortiz v. Taxation & Revenue Dep't, 1998-NMCA-027, 124 N.M. 677, 954 P.2d 109.

Restrictions on former public lawyer's representation of a third-party in dealings with the government. — It is a violation of the Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-1 to 10-16-8 NMSA 1978, for a lawyer, formerly employed with the New Mexico environment department (NMED), to represent a third party seeking to enforce a consent order that he had a personal and substantial role in negotiating, drafting, executing and enforcing while employed with the NMED, and where NMED is an adverse party in the litigation, because 10-16-8(B) NMSA 1978 prohibits a former public officer or employee from representing a person in the person's dealings with the government on a matter in which the former public officer or employee participated personally and substantially while a public officer or employee. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-02.

Former government employee's contractual arrangement does not violate the Governmental Conduct Act. — The Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-1 to 10-16-18 NMSA 1978, provides that a former government employee shall not represent a person or corporation in dealings with the government on a matter in which the employee personally and substantially participated while a public officer or employee, and also provides that "for a period of one year after leaving service or employment, a former public officer or employee shall not represent for pay a person before the state agency or local government agency at which the former public officer or employee served or worked." The prohibitions set out in 10-16-8(B) and (D) NMSA 1978 are not triggered where a former deputy secretary of a state agency is contemplating working as a contractor for a healthcare corporation during the year after she separated from state government and where, after that initial year, the former deputy secretary may work for the corporation as an employee, because under the facts presented, the former deputy secretary will not "represent" the healthcare corporation before any state agency, whether on a matter the former deputy secretary previously participated in personally and substantially or otherwise. Also under the facts presented, the former deputy secretary did not interact or have communication with the agencies involved in the procurements during her tenure in state government, and therefore the agency's duty not to enter into a contract or take other favorable action affecting any person or business, as provided in 10-16-8(A)(2) NMSA 1978, is not violated. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-10.

Former mayor not prohibited from representing union in new collective bargaining agreement. — Where, in 2021, the city entered into a collective bargaining agreement with the police officers association (POA), and where, in 2023, the POA requested to reopen collective bargaining negotiations per its 2021 agreement, and where a former mayor, in office at the time of the 2021 agreement, is currently serving as a negotiator on behalf of the POA in its negotiations with the city, NMSA 1978, § 10-16-8(C)(2) does not prohibit the city from entering into a new contract with the POA simply because it is represented by the former mayor; the purpose of § 10-16-8(C)(2) is to prevent government officials from using the powers and resources of their public office with a purpose to secure a benefit for themselves after they separate from government services, and there is no indication that the former mayor took official acts with respect to the 2021 collective bargaining agreement with a purpose to secure a benefit for himself or the POA after he separated from the city. The contract at issue is a future collective bargaining agreement between the city and the POA, presumably negotiated pursuant to the city's collective bargaining ordinance, under which both the city and its employees benefit. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-06.

10-16-9. Contracts involving legislators; representation before state agencies.

A. A state agency shall not enter into a contract for services, construction or items of tangible personal property with a legislator, the legislator's family or with a business in which the legislator or the legislator's family has a substantial interest unless the legislator has disclosed the legislator's substantial interest and unless the contract is awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code [13-1-28 to 13-1-199 NMSA 1978], except the potential contractor shall not be eligible for a sole source or small purchase contract. A person negotiating or executing a contract on behalf of a state agency shall exercise due diligence to ensure compliance with the provisions of this subsection.

B. Except as provided in Subsection C of this section, a legislator shall not appear for, represent or assist another person in a matter before a state agency, unless that appearance, representation or assistance is provided without compensation.

C. A legislator may appear for, represent or assist another person in a matter before a state agency when the legislator is an attorney or other professional who is making that appearance or providing that representation or assistance while engaged in the conduct of that legislator's profession. That legislator shall not:

(1) make references to the legislator's legislative capacity except as to matters of scheduling; or

(2) use legislative stationery, legislative email or any other indicia of the legislator's legislative capacity.

D. A legislator shall not make direct or indirect threats related to legislative actions in any instance in which the legislator appears for, represents or assists another person in a matter before a state agency.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-9, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 9; 1989, ch. 143, § 1; 1993, ch. 46, § 33; 2007, ch. 362, § 6; 2023, ch. 3, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective February 20, 2023, provided an exception to existing law which prohibits a legislator from appearing for, representing or assisting another person in a matter before a state agency, and prohibited legislators from making direct or indirect threats related to legislative actions in any instance in which the legislator appears for, represents or assists another in a matter before a state agency; in Subsection B, added "Except as provided in Subsection C of this section", after "unless", added "that appearance, representation or assistance is provided"; after "without compensation", deleted "or for the benefit of a constituent, except for legislators who are attorneys or other professional persons engaged in the conduct of their professions and, in those instances, the"; in Subsection C, added "A legislator may appear for, represent or assist another person in a matter before a state agency when the legislator is an attorney or other professional who is making that appearance or providing that representation or assistance while engaged in the conduct of that legislator's profession. That", after "legislator shall", deleted "refrain from" and added "not", in Paragraph C(1), added "make", and after "scheduling", deleted "from communications on", in Paragraph C(2), added "use", and after "stationery", deleted "and from threats or implications relating to legislative actions" and added "legislative email or any other indicia of the legislator's legislative capacity."; and added Subsection D.

The 2007 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, prohibited contracts with a legislator's family or a business in which the legislator's family has a substantial interest; provided that legislators and their families are not eligible for sole source or small purchase contracts; and required persons who negotiate contracts for a state agency to use due diligence to ensure compliance with this section.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, inserted "Representation Before State Agencies" in the section heading; designated the undesignated provisions as Subsection A and added Subsection B; and, in Subsection A, substituted the language beginning "has a substantial interest" for "has controlling interest in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) where the legislator has disclosed his controlling interest unless the contract is made after public notice and competitive sealed bidding or competitive sealed proposal in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code."

School districts are "state agencies" covered by the Conflict of Interest Act [now Governmental Conduct Act]. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-34.

Contracts with nonprofit organizations. — The Conflict of Interest Act [now Governmental Conduct Act] does not disqualify or restrict a nonprofit organization's ability to enter into contracts with state agencies managed by a board of directors having as one of its members a state legislator. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-17.

Contracts with nonprofit organizations. — New Mexico Const., art. IV, § 28 precludes a nonprofit organization from entering into a contract with the state or a state agency if the organization, within one year of entering the contract, had as a director a member of the legislature and the contract was authorized during that member's term. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-17.

Legislator is subject to restrictions when he sells products. — A legislator can sell products to a state agency on an open account or collect-on-delivery basis only under contracts of less than $1,000.00. In addition, a legislator would remain subject to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 28, so that he could not make any sales during his term or one year afterwards if the sales were authorized by law during his term. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-34.

Legislator may bid on state contracts, if there was public notice of the bid and the bidding was competitive. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-133.

Exceptions to provision prohibiting a state agency from entering into a contract with a legislator. — Section 10-16-9(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act operates to prohibit a state agency from entering into a contract with a legislator or a business owned by a legislator unless the legislator's ownership interest is disclosed, the contract is awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, and the contract is not a sole source or small purchase contract, and therefore a newly elected legislator who owns, and was previously employed by, a corporation that currently provides services to the state pursuant to contracts and grant agreements would be prohibited from entering into any contract with a state agency unless the legislator discloses the ownership interest, the contract is awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, and the contract is not a sole source or small purchase contract. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-01.

Exceptions to provision prohibiting a legislator from appearing, representing or assisting another person in a matter before a state agency. — Section 10-16-9(B) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits a legislator from appearing for, representing, or assisting another person in a matter before a state agency unless the legislator is not receiving compensation, the legislator is acting for the benefit of a constituent, or the legislator is an attorney or another professional person engaged in the conduct of his or her profession, and therefore a newly elected legislator who owns, and was previously employed by, a corporation that currently provides services to the state pursuant to contracts and grant agreements would be prohibited from appearing for, representing, or assisting the corporation before a state agency, because the corporation is not a constituent, any representation or assistance on behalf of the corporation would not be unpaid, and an appearance on behalf of the corporation in a matter before a state agency would not be in the capacity of a professional person engaged in the conduct of their profession. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-01.

Contracts between a state agency and a company owned by a legislator's family. — Under Section 10-16-9(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act, a state agency can enter into a contract with a legislator's business or a business owned by a legislator's family so long as the legislator has disclosed his or her substantial interest, the state agency awards the contract in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, and the state agency does not award the contract as either a sole source or small purchase contract, and therefore a legislator, whose children own and operate a company that has service contracts with state agencies, which were awarded through a competitive process, and whose only financial interest in his children's company is a rental agreement for storage space, does not have a disclosure requirement, because a rental agreement for storage space is not a “substantial interest” of which the Governmental Conduct Act requires disclosure before a state agency could enter a contract with the company. Additionally, the contracts between the state agencies and the company owned and operated by the legislator’s children are not prohibited, because they were entered into pursuant to a competitive process and consistent with the Procurement Code’s requirements. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm’n No. 2023-02.

Company owned by legislator may bid on state contracts. — Unless otherwise prohibited by N.M. Const., art. IV, § 28, a company owned by a legislator may bid on contracts to supply state agencies with materials and supplies under the competitive bid process set forth in the Procurement Code. 1989 Op. Att’y Gen. No. 89-34.

A legislator's company can bid as general contractor on state construction projects only if the project was not authorized during, or within one year of, his service in the legislature. If the contract on which the legislator's company bids is one authorized by statutes enacted more than one year before his service in the legislature and is worth more than $1,000, then he must give public notice of his bid, and the state agency must comply with the special procedures contained in the Conflict of Interest Act [now Governmental Conduct Act]. 1989 Op. Att’y Gen. No. 89-34.

When business owned by legislator acts as subcontractor. — If a business owned by a legislator bids on a contract with the state as a subcontractor and is a party to the contract, then the business is subject to the same limitations that apply when it acts as general contractor. If, however, the business only contracts with the general contractor and does not enter into any contract with the state, then the restrictions of this section no longer control. However, even though a subcontractor may not be subject to the Conflict of Interest Act [now Governmental Conduct Act], it still may be indirectly interested in a state contract and subject to the prohibition contained in N.M. Const., art. IV, § 28. 1989 Op. Att’y Gen. No. 89-34.

A legislator must disclose ownership interest when contracting with state agencies under a purchase agreement. — Under the Governmental Conduct Act, a state agency may procure services from a construction company that is owned by a legislator and that has been awarded a statewide purchase agreement by the state purchasing agent, provided the legislator discloses the legislator's ownership interest in the construction company. Likewise, the state purchasing agent may award a subsequent price agreement to the legislator's construction company, provided that the legislator discloses the legislator's ownership interest in the construction company to the state purchasing agent when the company submits its bid or proposal. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-01.

A legislator must disclose the legislator's interest when contracting with an independent subdivision of the state, even if the contract is federally funded. — Subsection 10-16-9(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits state agencies from entering into a contract for services, construction or items of tangible personal property with a legislator, the legislator's family or with a business in which the legislator or the legislator's family has a substantial interest unless the legislator has disclosed the legislator's substantial interest and unless the contract is awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, except the potential contractor shall not be eligible for a sole source or small purchase contract, and therefore a member of the New Mexico house of representatives who has contracted to do federally funded project work through his local soil and water conservation district (SWCD), an independent subdivision of the state authorized by the Soil and Water Conservation District Act, §§ 73-20-25 to 73-20-48 NMSA 1978, and as such, a "state agency" under the Governmental Conduct Act, must disclose his interest in the contract to the SWCD, and the SWCD must award the contract pursuant to the requirements of the Procurement Code, without resorting to the Procurement Code provisions allowing for the award of sole-source or small-purchase contracts. This subsection's requirements apply even where the SWCD's contract is funded with federal dollars. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-01.

The department of transportation may contract with a legislator's family member as long as the legislator discloses the legislator's interest and otherwise complies with the Governmental Conduct Act. — Subsection 10-16-9(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act prohibits state agencies from entering into contracts for services, construction or items of tangible personal property with a legislator, the legislator's family or with a business in which the legislator or the legislator's family has a substantial interest unless the legislator has disclosed the legislator's substantial interest, the contract is awarded in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, and the contract is not a sole source or small purchase contract, and therefore the department of transportation may enter into a contract for right-of-way fencing with the son of a member of the New Mexico house of representatives, or a fencing and welding business in which the legislator's son has a substantial interest, as long as the legislator has disclosed any substantial interest that the legislator might have in the family member's business, the state agency awards the contract in accordance with the provisions of the Procurement Code, and the state agency does not award the contract to the legislator's son or the son's business as either a sole source or a small purchase contract. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-03.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a legislator's family member from bidding on government projects offered by local government agencies. — Subsection 10-16-9(A) NMSA 1978 of the Governmental Conduct Act imposes constraints on contracts between a legislator, the legislator's family or with a business in which the legislator or the legislator's family has a substantial interest, but does not impose constraints on contracts between a legislator or the legislator's family members and local government agencies, and therefore the son of a legislator's spouse may bid on projects issued by political subdivisions such as counties, school districts, or other local governments. 2022 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2022-03.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a legislator from sitting on the board of a nonprofit organization that receives state contracts. — Although a legislator's unpaid membership on the board of directors of a nonprofit organization is not a financial interest subject to disclosure or regulation under the Governmental Conduct Act, a legislator who serves as a volunteer member on the board of directors of a nonprofit organization that assists victims of sexual assault and advocates on their behalf may not use the powers and resources of public office to obtain personal benefits or pursue private interests, must make full disclosure of real or potential conflicts of interest, may be required to recuse from votes that might impact the nonprofit organization and, when dealing with state agencies on behalf of the nonprofit organization, should avoid making reference to the legislator's official status, except as to matters related to scheduling, avoid communications on legislative stationery, and avoid threats or implications relating to legislative actions. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-02.

The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a business significantly owned by a legislator from applying for and receiving federal CARES relief funds. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not prohibit a business significantly owned by a legislator from applying for and receiving federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES) relief funds, because the limitations that this section imposes, does not apply to CARES relief grant awards; a CARES relief grant, a payment of an allocation of federal funds to New Mexico businesses to lessen the impact from the public health orders issued by the secretary of health and related to the coronavirus disease 2019 public health emergency, is not a contract for services, construction, or items of tangible personal property. Subsection B of this section, however, prohibits a legislator from appearing on behalf of a business or otherwise assisting a business in a matter before a state agency, and therefore the application for the CARES relief grant may not be accomplished by a legislator, but may be accomplished by someone other than the legislator who has an interest in the business. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-03.

This section does not prohibit a business owned by a legislator or a legislator's family from applying for "recovery grant" funds. — This section does not prohibit a business owned by a legislator or a legislator's family from applying for or receiving a recovery grant authorized by the Local Economic Development Act (LEDA) to help New Mexico businesses weather the economic hardship due to the COVID-19 pandemic, because the limitations regarding a legislator's interest in contracts with state agencies do not apply to recovery grants authorized by the LEDA. Recovery grants under the LEDA are not loan contracts, nor are they contracts for services, construction, or items of tangible personal property; rather, they are grant payments by a state agency of an allocation of an appropriation of general fund dollars to private businesses. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-08.

State legislator as employee of private contractor. — A private entity, either for-profit or nonprofit, that has a state legislator within its organization may enter into a contract with the state provided that the contracting process is conducted in accordance with constitutional and statutory requirements. 2003 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 03-01.

A legislator who complies with legislative rules is entitled to receive his legislative per diem. His private sector employer is free to determine whether it should also compensate him for that day's work. 2003 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 03-01.

Public defenders. — New Mexico Const., art. IV, § 28 would prohibit contract between public defender department and legislator if the legislator was in office in 1968 when the original Indigent Defense Act was passed, regardless of whether public notice and competitive bidding are used. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-23.

Public defenders. — The public defender's office may not award state representatives professional service contracts unless solicitation for competitive bids is done, in accordance with the Procurement Code. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-67.

Legislator is not prevented from serving as member of peanut commission by this section. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-34.

Conflict of interest is not affected if bond proceeds involved. — Any potential conflict of interest is not affected if a contract or project is funded with local bond proceeds rather than state money. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-34.

Damages. — A legislator and other directors of a nonprofit organization may be found liable for damages for breach of fiduciary duty if they intentionally enter into a contract which is invalid under N.M. Const., art. IV, § 28. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-17.

Propriety of vote or abstention. — A legislator should follow Chapter 10, Article 16 NMSA 1978 and his legislative body's code of ethics in deciding when it is proper to vote or abstain on a matter in front of the body. 2003 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 03-01.

10-16-11. Codes of conduct.

A. Each elected statewide executive branch public officer shall adopt a general code of conduct for employees subject to the officer's control. The New Mexico legislative council shall adopt a general code of conduct for all legislative branch employees. The general codes of conduct shall be based on the principles set forth in the Governmental Conduct Act.

B. Within thirty days after the general codes of conduct are adopted, they shall be given to and reviewed with all executive and legislative branch officers and employees. All new public officers and employees of the executive and legislative branches shall review the employees' general code of conduct prior to or at the time of being hired.

C. The head of every executive and legislative agency and institution of the state may draft a separate code of conduct for all public officers and employees in that agency or institution. The separate agency code of conduct shall prescribe standards, in addition to those set forth in the Governmental Conduct Act and the general codes of conduct for all executive and legislative branch public officers and employees, that are peculiar and appropriate to the function and purpose for which the agency or institution was created or exists. The separate codes, upon approval of the responsible executive branch public officer for executive branch public officers and employees or the New Mexico legislative council for legislative branch employees, govern the conduct of the public officers and employees of that agency or institution and, except for those public officers and employees removable only by impeachment, shall, if violated, constitute cause for dismissal, demotion or suspension. The head of each executive and legislative branch agency shall adopt ongoing education programs to advise public officers and employees about the codes of conduct. All codes shall be filed with the state ethics commission and are open to public inspection.

D. Codes of conduct shall be reviewed at least once every four years. An amended code shall be filed as provided in Subsection C of this section.

E. ANNOTATIONS

The 2003 amendment, effective June 20, 2003, in Subsection E, substituted "two hours" for "one hour" following "attend a minimum of" near the middle and substituted "biennially" for "annually" at the end.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, rewrote this section to the extent that a detailed comparison is impracticable.

A person accepting a bid or proposal on behalf of a state agency or local government agency shall exercise due diligence to ensure compliance with this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-13, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 13; 2007, ch. 362, § 7; 2011, ch. 138, § 10.

Village trustee must recuse herself from transactions between the village and the business owned by the trustee. — Where a village trustee owns an RV park, adjacent to which is a piece of property owned by the village, and where, for many years, the RV park has used the parcel of village property as an extension of the RV park, and where the trustee has expressed an interest in purchasing the parcel, this section would require the trustee to recuse herself from all aspects of the land sale or lease transaction, including board of trustee discussions regarding the sale or lease of the property and any vote to direct or to approve a land sale or lease transaction between the village and the trustee. 2023 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2023-05.

School district not state agency. — "State agency" as used in the Conflict of Interest Act [now Governmental Conduct Act] does not apply to school districts. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-19.

B. The state ethics commission shall seek first to ensure voluntary compliance with the provisions of the Governmental Conduct Act. A person who violates that act unintentionally or for good cause shall be given ten days' notice to correct the matter. Referrals for civil enforcement of that act shall be pursued only after efforts to secure voluntary compliance with that act have failed.

10-16-13.2. Certain business sales to the employees of state agencies and local government agencies prohibited.

A. A public officer or employee shall not sell, offer to sell, coerce the sale of or be a party to a transaction to sell goods, services, construction or items of tangible personal property directly or indirectly through the public officer's or employee's family or a business in which the public officer or employee has a substantial interest, to an employee supervised by the public officer or employee. A public officer or employee shall not receive a commission or shall not profit from the sale or a transaction to sell goods, services, construction or items of tangible personal property to an employee supervised by the public officer or employee. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the supervised employee initiates the sale. The Governmental Conduct Act does not generally prohibit a public employee from accepting another job. — The Governmental Conduct Act does not generally prohibit a public employee from having a second paying job as long as the employee discloses the job to the employee's employer, the employee is not being paid for work already performed as a public employee, and there is no conflict between the employee's public employment and secondary employment such that the positions are otherwise incompatible. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 07-04.

10-16-14. Enforcement procedures.

A. The state ethics commission may investigate suspected violations of the Governmental Conduct Act and forward its findings and evidence to the attorney general, district attorney or appropriate state agency or legislative body for enforcement. If a suspected violation involves the office of the state ethics commission, the attorney general may enforce that act. If a suspected violation involves the office of the attorney general, a district attorney may enforce that act.

B. Violation of the provisions of the Governmental Conduct Act by any legislator is grounds for discipline by the appropriate legislative body.

C. If the state ethics commission determines that there is sufficient cause to file a complaint to remove from office a public officer removable only by impeachment, the commission shall refer the matter to the house of representatives of the legislature. If within thirty days after the referral the house of representatives has neither formally declared that the charges contained in the complaint are not substantial nor instituted hearings on the complaint, the state ethics commission shall make public the nature of the charges but shall make clear that the merits of the charges have never been determined. Days during which the legislature is not in session shall not be included in determining the thirty-day period.

D. Violation of the provisions of the Governmental Conduct Act by any public officer or employee, other than those covered by Subsection C of this section, is grounds for discipline, including dismissal, demotion or suspension. Complaints against executive branch employees may be filed with the agency head and reviewed pursuant to the procedures provided in the Personnel Act. Complaints against legislative branch employees may be filed with and reviewed pursuant to procedures adopted by the New Mexico legislative council. Complaints against judicial branch employees may be filed and reviewed pursuant to the procedures provided in the judicial personnel rules. Complaints against employees subject to the State Ethics Commission Act [Chapter 10, Article 16G NMSA 1978] may also be filed with the state ethics commission, which shall determine whether to forward a complaint to the appropriate state agency or investigate the complaint on its own.

E. Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of the Governmental Conduct Act may be enforced by the state ethics commission. Except as regards legislators, state employees or statewide elected officials, a district attorney in the county where a person who allegedly violated the provisions resides or where an alleged violation occurred may also enforce that act. Enforcement actions may include seeking civil injunctive or other appropriate orders.

History: 1953 Comp., § 5-12-14, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 306, § 14; 1993, ch. 46, § 36; 2019, ch. 86, § 25.

10-16-16. Recompiled.

ANNOTATIONS

Recompilations. — Laws 1997, ch. 112, § 10 recompiled 10-16-16 NMSA 1978, relating to medicaid and department of human services employees, as 27-2-12.7 NMSA 1978, effective June 20, 1997.

10-16-17. Criminal penalties.

Unless specified otherwise in the Governmental Conduct Act, any person who knowingly and willfully violates any of the provisions of that act is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both. Nothing in the Governmental Conduct Act shall preclude criminal prosecution for bribery or other provisions of law set forth in the constitution of New Mexico or by statute.

History: Laws 1993, ch. 46, § 37.

ANNOTATIONS

The legislature intended NMSA 1978, § 10-16-3(A)-(C) to be applied as ethical principles excepted from the scope of this section. — In consolidated cases, where petitioners were each charged under two or three subsections of the Governmental Conduct Act, and where the district court dismissed the charges in all four cases on different grounds, the district courts did not err in dismissing charges under 10-16-3 NMSA 1978, Subsections (A) through (C), because the plain language of Subsections (A) through (C) demonstrate a legislative intent that these subsections be applied as ethical principles rather than as criminal statutes within the scope of 10-16-17 NMSA 1978. Each relevant subsection communicates a general goal or proscription without specifying a wrongful deed or forbidden act. State v. Gutierrez, 2023-NMSC-002, rev'g 2020-NMCA-045, 472 P.3d 1260.

Legislative intent for willful and knowing violations. — The plain meaning of § 10-16-3 NMSA 1978 and § 10-16-17 NMSA 1978 indicates a legislative intent to provide for a misdemeanor penalty for a knowing and willful violation of the provisions of §§ 10-16-3(A) through § 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

In four separate cases, consolidated for appeal, where each case arose from an allegation of misconduct by a government official, and where the district court in each case dismissed the charges against the defendants, finding that violations of §§ 10-16-3(A) through § 10-16-3(C) NMSA 1978 were not crimes but ethical considerations and therefore the indictments failed to allege the commission of a criminal offense, or that even if Subsections A through C provided for criminal offenses, they were nevertheless void for vagueness, the district courts' dismissals of the counts charging defendants under Subsection A were improper because the plain meaning of § 10-16-3 NMSA 1978 and § 10-16-17 NMSA 1978 indicates a legislative intent to provide for a misdemeanor penalty for a knowing and willful violation of Subsection A, but the dismissals of the counts charging defendants under Subsections B through C were proper because those subsections fail to provide persons of ordinary intelligence a fair opportunity to determine whether their conduct is prohibited. State v. Gutierrez, 2020-NMCA-045, cert. granted.

10-16-18. Enforcement; civil penalties.

A. If the state ethics commission reasonably believes that a person committed, or is about to commit, a violation of the Governmental Conduct Act, the state ethics commission may refer the matter to the attorney general or a district attorney for enforcement.

B. The state ethics commission may institute a civil action in district court or refer a matter to the attorney general or a district attorney to institute a civil action in district court if a violation has occurred or to prevent a violation of any provision of the Governmental Conduct Act. Relief may include a permanent or temporary injunction, a restraining order or any other appropriate order, including an order for a civil penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each violation not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

History: Laws 1995, ch. 153, § 23; 2019, ch. 86, § 26.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2019 amendment, effective January 1, 2020, authorized the state ethics commission to refer violations of the Governmental Conduct Act to the attorney general or a district attorney for enforcement; and provided the state ethics commission with the authority to institute a civil action in district court regarding violations of the Governmental Conduct Act; in Subsection A, after "If the", deleted "secretary of", after "state", added "ethics commission", after "Governmental Conduct Act, the", deleted "secretary of", and after "state", deleted "shall" and added "ethics commission may"; and in Subsection B, after "The", added "state ethics commission may institute a civil action in district court or refer a matter to the".

Payment of reasonable expenses incidental to an educational tour for legislators is not subject to the Gift Act's limitation on gifts. — An energy company, proposing to build a nuclear waste storage facility in southeastern New Mexico and planning to conduct a series of two-day educational programs for members of the New Mexico legislature at the company's Missouri nuclear generating station, is not subject to the Gift Act's limitation on gifts for its donation of reasonable expenses for flights, meals, refreshments, and lodging incidental to the educational tour, because under the Gift Act's educational program exception, 10-16B-2(B)(9) NMSA 1978, a donor can pay the reasonable expenses for a bona fide educational program that is directly related to the state officer's or employee's official duties. 2020 Op. ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2007, ch. 226 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 15, 2007, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Legislators are not prohibited from using their legislative email to promote charitable events, but they may not use official resources to solicit charitable donations. — The Gift Act, §10-16B-3(C) NMSA 1978, provides that a state officer shall not solicit donations for a charity in such a manner that it appears that the purposes of the donor in making the gift is to influence the state officer in the performance of an official duty, and therefore a legislator is not prohibited from using his or her legislative email address to email contacts about a fundraising event, but the legislator's use of a legislative email address to contact sponsors for the purpose of soliciting donations to a charity is likely prohibited by the Gift Act, because the recipient of the email may reasonably conclude that the legislator is making that request in connection with legislative duties, or in a way that might affect the legislator's performance of legislative duties. 2024 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2024-03.

A state employee who also receives a monthly salary from a political campaign committee does not necessarily violate state ethics laws. — Although the Gift Act, 10-16B-1 to 10-16B-4 NMSA 1978, the Governmental Conduct Act, 10-16-1 to 10-16-18 NMSA 1978, the Financial Disclosure Act, 10-16A-1 to 10-16A-8 NMSA 1978, the Campaign Reporting Act, 1-19-25 to 1-19-36 NMSA 1978, and the State Ethics Commission Act, Chapter 10, Article 16G NMSA 1978, impose certain duties on state employees and regulate certain state employees' conduct, the limited set of facts presented in this request, that a state employee, while employed and performing regular public duties, is also receiving a monthly salary from a political campaign committee or political organization, do not establish a violation of any of the foregoing statutes. 2020 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2020-01.

Educational program exception to the New Mexico Gift Act. — Educational programs that an energy company hopes to provide to members of the New Mexico legislature regarding its proposed nuclear waste storage facility in southeastern New Mexico falls within the educational program exception to the New Mexico Gift Act, 10-16B-1 to 10-16B-5 NMSA 1978, because the programs are designed to educate the legislators about the nuclear waste storage facilities and are therefore directly related to a legislator's official duties. Educational Program Exception under the New Mexico Gift Act (4/22/20), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2020-04.

10-16B-4. Penalties.

A person who violates the provisions of the Gift Act is guilty of a petty misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced in accordance with the provisions of Section 31-19-1 NMSA 1978.

ARTICLE 16C

Whistleblower Protection

10-16C-1. Short title.

This act [10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978] may be cited as the "Whistleblower Protection Act".

History: Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 1.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010, ch. 12 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 19, 2010, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 7 provided that the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act apply only to civil actions for damages resulting from retaliatory action that occurred on or after July 1, 2008.

10-16C-2. Definitions.

As used in the Whistleblower Protection Act:

A. "good faith" means that a reasonable basis exists in fact as evidenced by the facts available to the public employee;

B. "public employee" means a person who works for or contracts with a public employer;

C. "public employer" means:

(1) any department, agency, office, institution, board, commission, committee, branch or district of state government;

(2) any political subdivision of the state, created under either general or special act, that receives or expends public money from whatever source derived;

(3) any entity or instrumentality of the state specifically provided for by law; and

(4) every office or officer of any entity listed in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of this subsection;

D. "retaliatory action" means taking any discriminatory or adverse employment action against a public employee in the terms and conditions of public employment; and

E. "unlawful or improper act" means a practice, procedure, action or failure to act on the part of a public employer that:

- (1) violates a federal law, a federal regulation, a state law, a state administrative rule or a law of any political subdivision of the state;
- (2) constitutes malfeasance in public office; or
- (3) constitutes gross mismanagement, a waste of funds, an abuse of authority or a substantial and specific danger to the public.

History: Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010, ch. 12 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 19, 2010, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 7 provided that the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act apply only to civil actions for damages resulting from retaliatory action that occurred on or after July 1, 2008.

Mid-level supervisors were not "public employers". — Where plaintiff, who was a transport officer of a detention center, reported information to the chief probation officer that a fellow transport officer's friend, who was on probation, was not being drug-tested by a probation officer and had used drugs in front of the colleague's child, appellees separately forwarded the information to officials at the detention center; plaintiff was subsequently fired; one appellee was a program manager for metropolitan court and supervised probation officers; the other appellee was programs division director of the background investigations division at metropolitan court and liaison between the court and the detention center; appellees were heads of offices within the judicial branch of government, with supervisory duties and the power to direct the work environment of employees they supervised; they worked under administrative direction, were not autonomous and independent in their duties and decision making, and were not free from the ultimate decision-making authority of their superiors; and their positions were not created by statute, as a matter of law, appellees were not "public employers" because they were not "officers" of the judicial branch. Janet v. Marshall, 2013-NMCA-037, 296 P.3d 1253, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

"Contract employees" enjoy the same protection against retaliatory action that at-will employees enjoy. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6, NMSA 1978 and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito, New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, and where the jury concluded that NNMC violated the WPA and found by special verdict form that plaintiff had communicated to defendant about the occurrence of an improper act, that there was a reasonable basis in fact for the improper act, and that defendant retaliated against plaintiff because of a communication about that improper act, the trial court did not err in ordering backpay for retaliatory refusal to renew plaintiff's contract, because the WPA expressly authorizes an award when, as the jury found in this case, an employer retaliates by refusing to renew an employee's contract. Nothing in the WPA suggests that whether the employment relationship is contractual has any bearing on the statute's application, and the fact that contract employees are included in the WPA's definition of "public employee" suggests that the legislature intended for contract employees to enjoy the same protection against retaliatory action that at-will employees enjoy. Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Summary judgment improper where genuine issue of material fact as to retaliatory action remained. — Where plaintiff filed a complaint for damages under the New Mexico Whistleblowers Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978 (NMWPA), alleging that he had communicated to the New Mexico department of corrections (DOC) his good faith belief that unethical and illegal conduct was occurring, and that as a result of those communications, the DOC retaliated by not allowing him to receive overtime or other benefits, and where the DOC moved for summary judgment on the grounds that DOC did not take any adverse employment action against plaintiff, the district court erred in granting DOC's motion for summary judgment, because a genuine issue of material fact as to whether DOC took adverse employment action against plaintiff remained where plaintiff claimed that DOC changed his employment duties, restricted plaintiff's movement in the prison, and the reassignment reduced the amount of overtime income plaintiff earned. Lerma v. N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 2024-NMCA-011, cert. granted.

Summary judgment improper where a reasonable jury could conclude that retaliation was a motivating factor. — Where plaintiff filed a complaint for damages under the New Mexico Whistleblowers Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978 (NMWPA), alleging that he had communicated to the New Mexico department of corrections (DOC) his good faith belief that unethical and illegal conduct was occurring, and that as a result of those communications, the DOC retaliated by not allowing him to receive overtime or other benefits, and where the DOC moved for summary judgment on the grounds that DOC did not act with a retaliatory motive and that DOC had a legitimate business purpose for acting as it did after receiving plaintiff's communications, the district court erred in granting DOC's motion for summary judgment, because a reasonable jury could conclude that DOC's reassignment of plaintiff and the restriction it placed on his movement were motivated, at least in part, by retaliation for the communications that plaintiff alleges were protected by the NMWPA. Lerma v. N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 2024-NMCA-011, cert. granted.

10-16C-3. Public employer retaliatory action prohibited.

A public employer shall not take any retaliatory action against a public employee because the public employee:

A. communicates to the public employer or a third party information about an action or a failure to act that the public employee believes in good faith constitutes an unlawful or improper act;

B. provides information to, or testifies before, a public body as part of an investigation, hearing or inquiry into an unlawful or improper act; or

C. objects to or refuses to participate in an activity, policy or practice that constitutes an unlawful or improper act.

History: Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010, ch. 12 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 19, 2010, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 7 provided that the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act apply only to civil actions for damages resulting from retaliatory action that occurred on or after July 1, 2008.

Scope of protected conduct. — Where plaintiff filed a complaint for damages under the New Mexico Whistleblowers Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978 (NMWPA), alleging that he had communicated to the New Mexico department of corrections (DOC) his good faith belief that unethical and illegal conduct was occurring, and that as a result of those communications, the DOC retaliated by not allowing him to receive overtime or other benefits, and where the DOC moved for summary judgment, claiming that plaintiff's communications were not protected, the district court erred in granting DOC's motion for summary judgment, because the NMWPA broadly protects communications to a public employer or a third party, does not exclude communications made through normal channels or as part of the employee's ordinary duties, does not create a motive or intent requirement for the communication, and whether a communication is protected under the NMWPA does not hinge on whether the communication pertains to a matter of public concern or on whether the communication furthers a public interest rather than a private one. Lerma v. N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 2024-NMCA-011, cert. granted.

Summary judgment improper where genuine issue of material fact as to retaliatory action remained. — Where plaintiff filed a complaint for damages under the New Mexico Whistleblowers Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978 (NMWPA), alleging that he had communicated to the New Mexico department of corrections (DOC) his good faith belief that unethical and illegal conduct was occurring, and that as a result of those communications, the DOC retaliated by not allowing him to receive overtime or other benefits, and where the DOC moved for summary judgment on the grounds that DOC did not take any adverse employment action against plaintiff, the district court erred in granting DOC's motion for summary judgment, because a genuine issue of material fact as to whether DOC took adverse employment action against plaintiff remained where plaintiff claimed that DOC changed his employment duties, restricted plaintiff's movement in the prison, and the reassignment reduced the amount of overtime income plaintiff earned. Lerma v. N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 2024-NMCA-011, cert. granted.

Summary judgment improper where a reasonable jury could conclude that retaliation was a motivating factor. — Where plaintiff filed a complaint for damages under the New Mexico Whistleblowers Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978 (NMWPA), alleging that he had communicated to the New Mexico department of corrections (DOC) his good faith belief that unethical and illegal conduct was occurring, and that as a result of those communications, the DOC retaliated by not allowing him to receive overtime or other benefits, and where the DOC moved for summary judgment on the grounds that DOC did not act with a retaliatory motive and that DOC had a legitimate business purpose for acting as it did after receiving plaintiff's communications, the district court erred in granting DOC's motion for summary judgment, because a reasonable jury could conclude that DOC's reassignment of plaintiff and the restriction it placed on his movement were motivated, at least in part, by retaliation for the communications that plaintiff alleges were protected by the NMWPA. Lerma v. N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 2024-NMCA-011, cert. granted.

Dismissal of claim was proper where asserted claim was legally deficient. — Where doctor sued his employer, the board of regents of the university of New Mexico and the university of New Mexico health sciences center for violation of the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), 10-16C-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., on the ground that employer terminated doctor's employment in retaliation for a previously filed lawsuit, the district court did not err in dismissing doctor's case for failure to state a claim pursuant to 1-012(B)(6) NMRA, where plaintiff alleged only the act of retaliation, that is, the termination of his employment, but failed to allege that employer retaliated against him because he communicated about "an unlawful or improper act," as that term is defined in the WPA. Wills v. Board of Regents of the Univ. of N.M., 2015-NMCA-105, cert. denied, 2015-NMCERT-009.

Whistleblower protection laws are designed to benefit the public. — Where doctor sued his employer, the board of regents of the university of New Mexico and the university of New Mexico health sciences center, for violation of the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), 10-16C-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., on the ground that employer terminated doctor's employment in retaliation for a previously filed lawsuit in which doctor alleged that employer was abusing its authority by withholding doctor's contractually agreed-upon pay, the district court did not err in dismissing doctor's claim, because the WPA was designed to protect communications that benefit the public by exposing unlawful and improper actions by government employees, not communications regarding personal personnel grievances that primarily benefit the individual employee. Wills v. Board of Regents of the Univ. of N.M., 2015-NMCA-105, cert. denied, 2015-NMCERT-009.

Sufficient evidence supported the jury's verdict. — Where plaintiff brought a claim under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), claiming that defendants were in violation of state law by failing to promptly and immediately investigate reports of child abuse and neglect referred to the Farmington police department (FPD) from the New Mexico children, youth and families department (CYFD), evidence presented at trial that plaintiff in good faith believed that defendants were in violation of 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978, in failing to immediately and promptly investigate CYFD referrals, that plaintiff engaged in protected activity by communicating to his superiors his belief that defendants were violating state law by failing its duty, that after plaintiff reported potential negligence on the part of the FPD, defendants removed plaintiff from the cyber crime task force (CCTF), made humiliating comments about him to his colleagues, issued him a substandard work vehicle, and required him to surrender his key to the forensic lab and cease investigating his caseload of crimes against children, and that plaintiff suffered depression, rage, and fear that he would be terminated before he reached eligibility for retirement that caused him to seek counseling, as well as the loss of detective and CCTF overtime pay, provided a substantial evidentiary basis to support the jury's decision that plaintiff established his WPA claim. Dart v. Westall, 2018-NMCA-061.

Evidence sufficed to prove that plaintiff engaged in conduct the WPA protects. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito, New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, there was sufficient evidence to support the jury's determination that NNMC retaliated against plaintiff for engaging in conduct protected by the WPA and that plaintiff's communications pertained to what plaintiff believed in good faith was gross mismanagement, where the evidence established that plaintiff was communicating in good faith with NNMC about a waste of funds when she alerted the president of the college and other officials the importance of making requested expenditures for the revitalization of the El Rito campus; the facts available to plaintiff gave her a reasonable basis to believe that the potential for a waste of funds was real and immediate and the refusal to approve the expenditures posed a substantial risk of a significant adverse impact on NNMC's ability to revitalize the El Rito campus. Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Sufficient evidence of retaliation. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), §§ 10-16C-1 to 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito,

New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, there was sufficient evidence to support the jury's determination that NNMC retaliated against plaintiff for engaging in conduct protected by the WPA by removing plaintiff from her position as director of the El Rito campus and later by terminating her employment, where the evidence established that NNMC removed plaintiff from the campus director position just a few weeks after she communicated her concerns to NNMC's administrators and that plaintiff received positive performance evaluations before she communicated her concerns, but received negative evaluations after her communications. Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Pornographic images relevant to affirmative defense of justifiable termination. —

Where plaintiff brought a suit under the Whistleblower Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 through 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, alleging that the town of Taos (town) terminated his employment in retaliation for complaints he made about mismanagement and waste, the district court did not abuse its discretion in allowing the town to introduce thirty pornographic images, although 5000 pornographic images were found on plaintiff's work computer, in support of its affirmative defense that it terminated plaintiff's employment for viewing pornography at work, not for retaliation. The evidence was probative of the town's defense that the termination was reasonable and was due to the extensive and improper use of plaintiff's work computer during work hours. Maestas v. Town of Taos, 2020-NMCA-027, cert. granted.

Plaintiff not entitled to equitable relief. — Where plaintiff brought a suit under the Whistleblower Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 through 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, alleging that the town of Taos (town) terminated his employment in retaliation for complaints he made about mismanagement and waste, the district court did not abuse its discretion in denying plaintiff's equitable request for front pay as an alternative remedy to reinstatement, because plaintiff did not request reinstatement and front pay is only available if the court finds that reinstatement is inappropriate. Maestas v. Town of Taos, 2020-NMCA-027, cert. granted.

Plaintiff failed to establish a prima facie case under the Whistleblower Protection Act. —

Where plaintiff, an elementary school teacher, brought an action against the Bernalillo public schools and several of its employees, alleging that she engaged in protected activity under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), §§10-16C-1 through 10-16C-4 NMSA 1978, and in retaliation, her employment was constructively terminated, summary judgment was granted in defendants' favor, because plaintiff's actions, filing a complaint with the superintendent of schools opposing workplace discrimination, harassment, and bullying, filing a grievance with her union because of unfair treatment from her supervisor, and opposing efforts to suspend or revoke her license, did not constitute protected activity within the meaning of the WPA. plaintiff's purported activities for which she complained related to defendants' treatment of her, not matters invoking public interest or public concern to which the WPA is directed. DeLopez v. Bernalillo Pub. Schs., 558 F. Supp. 3d 1129 (D. N.M. 2021).

10-16C-4. Right to civil action for damages; affirmative defenses; remedy not exclusive.

A. A public employer that violates the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act shall be liable to the public employee for actual damages, reinstatement with the same seniority status that the employee would have had but for the violation, two times the amount of back pay with interest on the back pay and compensation for any special damage sustained as a result of the violation. In addition, an employer shall be required to pay the litigation costs and reasonable attorney fees of the employee. An employee may bring an action pursuant to this section in any court of competent jurisdiction.

B. It shall be an affirmative defense to a civil action brought pursuant to this section that the action taken by a public employer against a public employee was due to the employee's misconduct, the employee's poor job performance, a reduction in work force or other legitimate business purpose unrelated to conduct prohibited pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act and that retaliatory action was not a motivating factor.

C. The remedies provided for in the Whistleblower Protection Act are not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies provided for in any other law or available under common law.

D. Nothing in the Whistleblower Protection Act precludes civil actions or criminal sanctions for libel, slander or other civil or criminal claims against a person who files a false claim under that act.

History: Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 4.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2010, ch. 12 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective May 19, 2010, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

Applicability. — Laws 2010, ch. 12, § 7 provided that the provisions of the Whistleblower Protection Act apply only to civil actions for damages resulting from retaliatory action that occurred on or after July 1, 2008.

Remedies are not exclusive. — The Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), 10-16C-1 through -6 NMSA 1978, and the New Mexico Human Rights Act (HRA), 28-1-1 through -15 NMSA 1978, are not in irreconcilable conflict; a plaintiff may state a WPA claim alongside a claim under the HRA. Herald v. Board of Regents of the Univ. of N.M., 2015-NMCA-104, cert. denied, 2015-NMCERT-009.

Where plaintiff, a resident physician at the university of New Mexico school of medicine, was dismissed from the residency program and brought suit against the board of regents of the university of New Mexico claiming that her termination was driven by discrimination and retaliation in violation of the New Mexico Human Rights Act (HRA), 28-1-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., and the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), 10-16C-1 NMSA 1978 et seq., the district court erred in dismissing plaintiff's WPA claims on the grounds that the WPA and the HRA are irreconcilably conflicting and in concluding that plaintiff could therefore only proceed under the HRA. Herald v. Board of Regents of the Univ. of N.M., 2015-NMCA-104, cert. denied, 2015-NMCERT-009.

The Whistleblower Protection Act does not permit a public employee to assert a claim against a state officer in his or her individual capacity. — Where plaintiffs brought actions pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), claiming that defendant, the former New Mexico secretary of state, terminated plaintiffs' employment in retaliation for plaintiffs' allegations of defendant's misconduct in office, plaintiffs were without authorization to assert a claim against defendant in her personal capacity, because the WPA does not create a right of action against a current or former state officer in his or her individual capacity. Flores v. Herrera, 2016-NMSC-033, rev'g 2015-NMCA-072, 352 P.3d 695.

Public officer's departure from public office does not preclude relief. — Where plaintiffs brought actions pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), claiming that defendant, the former New Mexico secretary of state, terminated plaintiffs' employment in retaliation for plaintiffs' allegations of defendant's misconduct in office, defendant's departure from public office did not preclude plaintiffs' claims, because if a state officer who is named as a defendant in a WPA suit dies or leaves office pending the final resolution of the action, the defendant's departure from public office would merely result in an automatic substitution of his or her successor in office, and the suit would proceed against the current officer. Flores v. Herrera, 2016-NMSC-033, rev'g 2015-NMCA-072, 352 P.3d 695.

The Whistleblower Protection Act does not exclude former officers from the purview of the act. — The act does not limit actions against officers to those officers who are presently in office at the time the action is filed. Flores v. Herrera, 2015-NMCA-072, cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-006.

Where plaintiffs brought actions pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act claiming that defendant, the former New Mexico secretary of state, terminated plaintiffs' employment in retaliation for their whistleblowing activities, the fact that defendant was no longer secretary of state did not mandate dismissal of the action; where the alleged retaliatory action that prompted the lawsuit occurred when defendant was an "officer", as that term is defined in 10-16C-2 NMSA 1978, an action pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act may proceed even if the "officer" is no longer in office. Flores v. Herrera, 2015-NMCA-072, cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-006.

The Whistleblower Protection Act permits lawsuits against officers in their individual capacity. — When a state official is sued for his or her own misconduct in office, the defendant is the individual, not the office, and when the state official leaves office, his or her successor is not substituted as the defendant in the litigation. Flores v. Herrera, 2015-NMCA-072, cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-006.

Where plaintiffs brought actions pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act claiming that defendant, the former New Mexico secretary of state, terminated plaintiffs' employment in violation of the act, defendant was properly named individually as a defendant and sued in her personal capacity because the claims were based on defendant's alleged misconduct while in office, namely terminating plaintiffs' employment in retaliation for their whistleblowing activities. Flores v. Herrera, 2015-NMCA-072, cert. granted, 2015-NMCERT-006.

Sufficient evidence supported the jury's verdict. — Where plaintiff brought a claim under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), claiming that defendants were in violation of state law by failing to promptly and immediately investigate reports of child abuse and neglect referred to the Farmington police department (FPD) from the New Mexico children, youth and families department (CYFD), evidence presented at trial that plaintiff in good faith believed that defendants were in violation of 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978, in failing to immediately and promptly investigate CYFD referrals, that plaintiff engaged in protected activity by communicating to his superiors his belief that defendants were violating state law by failing its duty, that after plaintiff reported potential negligence on the part of the FPD, defendants removed plaintiff from the cyber crime task force (CCTF), made humiliating comments about him to his colleagues, issued him a substandard work vehicle, and required him to surrender his key to the forensic lab and cease investigating his caseload of crimes against children, and that plaintiff suffered depression, rage, and fear that he would be terminated before he reached eligibility for retirement that caused him to seek counseling, as well as the loss of detective and CCTF overtime pay, provided a substantial evidentiary basis to support the jury's decision that plaintiff established his WPA claim. Dart v. Westall, 2018-NMCA-061.

Appropriate method for determining a reasonable attorney fee. — The appropriate method for determining a reasonable attorney fee under the Whistleblower Protection Act, §§ 10-16C-1 through 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, is by applying the lodestar criteria, which include the time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved and skill required, the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar services, the amount involved and the results obtained, the time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances, and the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services. Maestas v. Town of Taos, 2020-NMCA-027, cert. granted.

Plaintiff was entitled to an award of attorney fees and costs. — Where plaintiff brought a suit under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA §§ 10-16C-1 through § 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, alleging that the town of Taos (town) terminated his employment in retaliation for complaints he made about mismanagement and waste, and where the jury returned a verdict finding that the town violated the WPA but did not award any damages to plaintiff, the district court erred in denying plaintiff an award of attorney fees and costs because the plain language of this section mandates an award of attorney fees and costs when a public employer is found to have violated the provisions of the WPA. Maestas v. Town of Taos, 2020-NMCA-027, cert. granted.

The district court did not err in awarding costs in whistleblower lawsuit. — Where plaintiff brought a suit under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), §§ 10-16C-1 through § 10-16C-6 NMSA 1978, alleging that the town of Taos (town) terminated his employment in retaliation for complaints he made about mismanagement and waste, and where prior to trial, the town tendered a $10,000 offer of settlement, which plaintiff did not accept, and where the jury returned a verdict finding that the town violated the WPA but did not award any damages to plaintiff, the district court did not err in awarding litigation costs to the town because plaintiff rejected the town's offer of settlement, which exceeded plaintiff's award of zero damages. Maestas v. Town of Taos, 2020-NMCA-027, cert. granted.

When discharge resulted from unlawful motives, plaintiff is presumed to be entitled to reinstatement. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), NMSA 1978, §§ 10-16C-1 to -6, and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito, New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, and where the jury concluded that NNMC violated the WPA and found by special verdict form that plaintiff had communicated to defendant about the occurrence of an improper act, that there was a reasonable basis in fact for the improper act, and that defendant retaliated against plaintiff because of a communication about that improper act, the trial court did not err by ordering NNMC to reinstate plaintiff, because reinstatement offers the most likely means of making a plaintiff whole by allowing her to continue her career as if the employer's unlawful action had not occurred. Moreover, reinstatement deters violations of the WPA. Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Plaintiff was entitled to back pay for defendant's retaliatory refusal to renew her contract. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), NMSA 1978, §§ 10-16C-1 to -6, and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito, New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, and where the jury concluded that NNMC violated the WPA and found by special verdict form that plaintiff had communicated to defendant about the occurrence of an improper act, that there was a reasonable basis in fact for the improper act, and that defendant retaliated against plaintiff because of a communication about that improper act, the trial court did not err in ordering backpay for retaliatory refusal to renew plaintiff's contract, because the WPA expressly authorizes an award when, as the jury found in this case, an employer retaliates by refusing to renew an employee's contract. Nothing in the WPA suggests that whether the employment relationship is contractual has any bearing on the statute's application, and the fact that contract employees are included in the WPA's definition of "public employee" suggests that the legislature intended for contract employees to enjoy the same protection against retaliatory action that at-will employees enjoy. Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

Legislature waived sovereign immunity for post-judgment interest. — Where plaintiff sued defendant Northern New Mexico College (NNMC) pursuant to the New Mexico Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), NMSA 1978, §§ 10-16C-1 to -6, and where plaintiff offered evidence at trial that NNMC removed her from her position as director of NNMC's campus in El Rito, New Mexico, transferred her to another position, and then terminated her employment in retaliation for her communications to NNMC's administrators about NNMC's failure to approve expenditures necessary for the successful implementation of a plan to revitalize the El Rito campus, and where the jury concluded that NNMC violated the WPA and found by special verdict form that plaintiff had communicated to defendant about the occurrence of an improper act, that there was a reasonable basis in fact for the improper act, and that defendant retaliated against plaintiff because of a communication about that improper act, and where the jury awarded plaintiff $239,000 in backpay and $180,000 to compensate her for emotional distress, the trial court erred in denying plaintiff's motion for post-judgment interest, because by explicitly making public employers liable for interest on back pay in this section, the legislature waived sovereign immunity for post-judgment interest pursuant to NMSA 1978, § 56-8-4(D). Velasquez v. Regents of Northern N.M. Coll., 2021-NMCA-007, cert. denied.

(2) voluntarily agrees to destroy the information upon the expiration or rescindment of the court order.

K. If a government entity obtains electronic information because of an emergency that involves danger of death or serious physical injury to a natural person and that requires access to the electronic information without delay, the government entity shall file with the appropriate court within three days after obtaining the electronic information:

(1) an application for a warrant or order authorizing the production of electronic information and, if applicable, a request supported by a sworn affidavit for an order delaying notification as provided in Subsection B of Section 10-16F-4 NMSA 1978; or

(2) a motion seeking approval of the emergency disclosures that sets forth the facts giving rise to the emergency and, if applicable, a request supported by a sworn affidavit for an order delaying notification as provided in Subsection B of Section 10-16F-4 NMSA 1978.

L. A court that receives an application or motion as provided in Subsection K of this section shall promptly rule on the application or motion. If the court finds that the facts did not give rise to an emergency or if the court rejects the application for a warrant or order on any other ground, the court shall order:

(1) the immediate sealing of all information obtained, which shall not be subject to further review, use or disclosure except pursuant to a court order upon a

(2) the immediate notification provided in Subsection A of Section 10-16F-4 NMSA 1978 if that notice has not already been given.

M. This section does not limit the authority of a government entity to use an administrative, grand jury, trial or civil discovery subpoena to require:

(1) an originator, addressee or intended recipient of an electronic communication to disclose any electronic communication information associated with that communication;

(2) when a person that provides electronic communications services to its officers, directors, employees or agents for those officers, directors, employees or agents to carry out their duties, the person to disclose the electronic communication information associated with an electronic communication to or from the officer, director, employee or agent; or

(3) a service provider to provide subscriber information.

N. This section does not prohibit the intended recipient of an electronic communication from voluntarily disclosing electronic communication information concerning that communication to a government entity.

O. Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand any authority under New Mexico law to compel the production of or access to electronic information.

P. This section shall not be construed to alter the authority of a government entity that owns an electronic device to compel an employee who is authorized to possess the device to return the device to the government entity's possession.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 39, § 3; 2020, ch. 41, § 1.

The 2020 amendment, effective March 4, 2020, placed additional requirements on government entities when obtaining warrants for the search and seizure of electronic information, and clarified that government entities have the authority to require an employee to return any electronic device owned by the government entity; in Subsection D, deleted the language in Paragraph D(2), which related to the destruction of information obtained through the execution of a search warrant and that is unrelated to the objective of the search warrant, and rewrote the paragraph; added a new Subsection G and redesignated former Subsections G through N as Subsections H through O, respectively; in Subsection H, in the introductory clause, after "entity shall", deleted "destroy" and added "seal", and after "that information", added "which shall not be subject to further review, use or disclosure except pursuant to a court order upon a finding that there is probable cause to believe that the information is relevant to an active investigation or review, use or disclosure is required by state or federal law or to comply with discovery as required", and in Paragraph H(2), after "Subsection", deleted "H" and added "I"; in Subjection J, in the introductory clause, after "Subsection", deleted "H" and added "I"; in Subsection K, Paragraphs K(1) and K(2), changed "Section 4 of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act" to "10-16F-4 NMSA 1978"; in Subsection L, Paragraph L(1), after "immediate", deleted "destruction" and added "sealing", and after "information obtained", added "which shall not be subject to further review, use or disclosure except pursuant to a court order upon a finding that there is probable cause to believe that the information is relevant to an active investigation or review, use or disclosure is required by state or federal law or to comply with discovery as required", and in Paragraph L(2), after "Section", deleted "4 of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act" and added "10-16F-4 NMSA 1978"; and added Subsection P.

The Electronic Communications Privacy Act is not an exception to disclosure of public records through the Inspection of Public Records Act. — Where the state ethics commission (commission) sent a public records request to the New Mexico human services department [health care authority department] (department), asking the department to provide copies of certain emails from several named employees, and where the department denied the request claiming that the Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA), NMSA 1978, § 10-16F-1 to -6, operates as an exception to disclosure through the Inspection of Public Records Act (IPRA), NMSA 1978, §§ 14-2-1 to -12, because the commission may obtain the requested records through a subpoena, the department erred in denying the commission's public records request, because the commission's ability to obtain public records through a subpoena does not mean that it is unable to seek the same records through IPRA, and nothing in the ECPA's text suggests that the legislature intended the statute to operate as an exception to disclosure through IPRA. Public Records Requests Made by the State Ethics Comm'n (10/27/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-12.

10-16F-4. Warrant; emergency; government duties; notification.

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a government entity that executes a warrant or obtains electronic information in an emergency as provided in Section 10-16F-3 NMSA 1978 shall:

(1) serve upon or deliver, by registered or first-class mail, electronic mail or other means reasonably calculated to be effective, to the identified targets of the warrant or emergency request, a notice that informs the recipient that information about the recipient has been compelled or requested and that states with reasonable specificity the nature of the government investigation under which the information is sought;

(2) serve or deliver the notice:

- (a) contemporaneously with the execution of a warrant; or
- (b) in the case of an emergency, within three days after obtaining the electronic information; and

(3) include with the notice:

- (a) a copy of the warrant; or
- (b) a written statement setting forth the facts giving rise to the emergency.

B. When a government entity seeks a warrant or obtains electronic information in an emergency as provided in Section 10-16F-3 NMSA 1978, the government entity may request from a court an order delaying notification and prohibiting any party providing information from notifying any other party that information has been sought. The government entity shall support the request with a sworn affidavit. The court:

(1) shall issue the order if the court determines that there is reason to believe that notification may have an adverse result, but for no more than ninety days and only for the period that the court finds there is reason to believe that the notification may have that adverse result; and

(2) may grant one or more extensions of the delay of up to ninety days each on the grounds provided in Paragraph (1) of this subsection.

C. When the period of delay of a notification ordered by a court as provided in Subsection B of this section expires, the government entity that requested the order shall serve upon or deliver, by registered or first-class mail, electronic mail or other means reasonably calculated to be effective, as specified by the court issuing the order, to the identified targets of the warrant:

(1) a document that includes the information described in Subsection A of this section; and

(2) a copy of all electronic information obtained or a summary of that information, including, at a minimum:

(a) the number and types of records disclosed; and

(b) a statement of the grounds for the court's determination to grant a delay in notifying the targeted person.

D. If there is no identified target of a warrant or emergency request at the time of the warrant's or request's issuance, the government entity shall submit to the attorney general within three days after the execution of the warrant or request issuance the information described in Paragraph (1) of Subsection A of this section. If an order delaying notice is obtained under Subsection B of this section, the government entity shall submit to the attorney general when the period of delay of the notification expires the information described in Paragraph (2) of Subsection C of this section and the information required by this subsection. The attorney general shall publish all those reports on the attorney general's website as provided in Section 10-16F-6 NMSA 1978.

E. Except as otherwise provided in this section, nothing in the Electronic Communications Privacy Act prohibits or limits a service provider or any other party from disclosing information about a request or demand for electronic information.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 39, § 4; 2020, ch. 41, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective March 4, 2020, modified certain notification requirements for government entities that have obtained electronic information through the execution of a search warrant or in an emergency as provided by law, removed the requirement that the New Mexico attorney general publish reports related to emergency requests and warrants within ninety days, and made certain technical amendments; in Subsections A and B, changed "Section 3 of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act" to "10-16F-3 NMSA 1978"; in Subsection C, Paragraph (2), deleted "Subparagraph C(2)(b)" and redesignated former Subparagraph C(2)(c) as Subparagraph C(2)(b); and in Subsection D, after the first occurrence of "information described in", added "Paragraph (1) of", after the second occurrence of "information described in", added "Paragraph (2) of", after "Subsection C of this section", added "and the information required by this subsection", and after "attorney general's website", deleted "within ninety days after receipt. The attorney general shall redact names and other personal identifying information from the reports" and added "as provided in Section 10-16F-6 NMSA 1978".

10-16F-5. Violations of law.

A. A person in a trial, hearing or proceeding may move to suppress any electronic information obtained or retained in violation of the United States constitution, the constitution of New Mexico or the Electronic Communications Privacy Act. The motion shall be made, determined and subject to review in accordance with the procedures provided in law.

B. The attorney general may commence a civil action to compel a government entity to comply with the Electronic Communications Privacy Act.

C. A natural person, service provider or other recipient of a warrant, order or other legal process obtained in violation of the United States constitution, the constitution of New Mexico or the Electronic Communications Privacy Act may petition the court that issued the warrant, order or process to void or modify it or order the destruction of any information obtained in violation of those sources of law.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 39, § 5.

ANNOTATIONS

Effective dates. — Laws 2019, ch. 39 contained no effective date provision, but, pursuant to N.M. Const., art. IV, § 23, was effective June 14, 2019, 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature.

10-16F-6. Annual reporting.

A. A government entity that obtains electronic communication information under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act shall report to the attorney general beginning in 2021 and every year thereafter on or before February 1. The report shall include, to the extent it reasonably can be determined:

(1) the number of times electronic information was sought or obtained under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act;

(2) the number of times each of the following were sought and, for each, the number of records obtained:

(a) electronic communication content;

(b) location information;

(c) electronic device information, excluding location information; and

(d) other electronic communication information; and

(3) for each type of information listed in Paragraph (2) of this subsection:

(a) the number of times that type of information was sought or obtained under: 1) a wiretap order issued under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act; 2) a search warrant issued under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act; and 3) an emergency request as provided in Subsection K of Section 10-16F-3 NMSA 1978;

(b) the number of instances in which information sought or obtained did not specify a target natural person; and

(c) the number of times notice to targeted persons was delayed.

B. Beginning in 2021 and every year thereafter, on or before April 1, the attorney general shall publish on the attorney general's website a summary aggregating each of the items in Subsection A of this section.

C. Nothing in the Electronic Communications Privacy Act prohibits or restricts a service provider from producing an annual report summarizing the demands or requests it receives under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 39, § 6; 2020, ch. 41, § 3.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2020 amendment, effective March 4, 2020, effective March 4, 2020, modified the information required in annual reports submitted by government entities to the New Mexico attorney general, removed the requirement that the New Mexico attorney general publish on its website individual reports received from each government entity, and changed the start date for annual reporting requirements and publication on the New Mexico attorney general's website to 2021; in Subsection A, in the introductory paragraph, after "beginning in", deleted "2020" and added "2021", in Paragraph A(3), in the introductory paragraph, after "Subsection", deleted "J" and added "K", and after "Section", deleted "3 of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act" and added "10-16F-3 NMSA 1978", deleted former Subparagraph A(3)(b) and redesignated former Subparagraph A(3)(c) as Subparagraph A(3)(b), deleted former Subparagraph A(3)(d) and redesignated former Subparagraph A(3)(e) as Subparagraph A(3)(c), and deleted former Subparagraphs A(3)(f) through A(3)(h); and in Subsection B, in the introductory clause, after "Beginning in", deleted "2020" and added "2021", and deleted former Paragraph B(1) and paragraph designation "(2)".

Meaning of the word "sought". — This section requires each government entity to report, among other data, "the number of times electronic information was sought or obtained under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act (act)"; the word "sought" should be interpreted broadly to include all instances in which a government entity attempted to access electronic information in the manner set forth by the act, including unsuccessful attempts to request a warrant or wiretap order from a court. Electronic Communications Privacy Act (8/19/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-07.

"Number of times" construed. — This section requires each government entity to report, among other data, "the number of times electronic information was sought or obtained under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act"; the legislature clearly intended to require government entities to report the number of occasions in which they either obtained or attempted to obtain electronic information. Each warrant, wiretap, or emergency request constitutes its own "time" for purposes of annual data reporting. Electronic Communications Privacy Act (8/19/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-07.

"Other electronic communication information" construed. — This section requires each government entity to report, among other data, the number of times it sought or obtained electronic communication content, location information, "electronic device information, excluding location information," and "other electronic communication information"; in light of the definition provided in 10-16F-2(D) NMSA 1978, the phrase "other electronic communication information" means any electronic communications information other than the content of an electronic communication or the location of the sender or recipient, which may include the time or date of the communication, an internet protocol address, or the identity of the sender or recipient. Electronic Communications Privacy Act (8/19/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-07.

"Number of records" construed. — This section requires each government entity to report, among other data, "the number of times electronic information was sought or obtained under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act (act)" and, for each, the "number of records" obtained: electronic communication content; location information; electronic device information, excluding location information; and other electronic communication information"; in the absence of a clear statutory definition of the word "record" in the act, the best interpretation of the phrase "number of records" is the number of electronic files originally obtained by the government entity containing the requisite information. Moreover, because the act does not require a government entity to report the number of electronic communications received, reporting the number of electronic files obtained appears to be consistent with the legislature's intent. Electronic Communications Privacy Act (8/19/21), Att'y Gen. Adv. Ltr. 2021-07.

A. A commissioner may recuse from a particular matter.

B. A commissioner shall recuse from any matter in which the commissioner is unable to make a fair and impartial decision or in which there is a reasonable doubt about whether the commissioner can make a fair and impartial decision, including:

(3) when in previous employment the commissioner served as an attorney, adviser, consultant or witness in the matter in controversy.

C. A party to the proceeding may request the recusal of a commissioner and shall provide the commission with the grounds for the request. If the commissioner declines to recuse upon request of a party to the proceeding, the commissioner shall provide a full explanation in support of the refusal to recuse.

D. A party may appeal a commissioner's refusal to recuse, or if the propriety of a commissioner's participation in a particular matter is otherwise questioned, the issue shall be decided by a majority of the other commissioners present and voting.

E. A disqualified commissioner shall not participate in any proceedings with reference to the matter from which the commissioner is disqualified or recused, and the commissioner shall be excused from that portion of any meeting at which the matter is discussed.

F. Minutes of commission meetings shall record the name of any commissioner not voting on a matter by reason of disqualification or recusal.

G. If two or more commissioners have recused themselves or are disqualified from participating in a proceeding, the remaining commissioners shall appoint temporary

ANNOTATIONS

2021 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2021, ch. 21, § 33, effective January 1, 2022, and Laws 2021, ch. 109, § 16, effective July 1, 2021, enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2021, ch. 109, § 16, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2021, ch. 21, § 33 and Laws 2021, ch. 109, § 16 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2021 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The nature of the difference between the amendments is that Laws 2021, ch. 21, § 33, included the Revised Uniform Law on Notarial Acts in the list of acts over which the state ethics commission has jurisdiction to enforce, and Laws 2021, ch. 109, § 16, required that court actions filed pursuant to this section be filed in the district court in the county where the defendant resides.

Laws 2021, ch. 21, § 33, effective January 1, 2022, included the Revised Uniform Law on Notarial Acts in the list of acts over which the state ethics commission has jurisdiction to enforce, and made a technical amendment; in Subsection A, added a new Paragraph A(9) and redesignated former Paragraph A(9) as Paragraph A(10); and in Subsection D, after "Subsection H of Section", deleted "10 of the State Ethics Commission Act" and added "10-16G-10 NMSA 1978".

Laws 2021, ch. 109, § 16, effective July 1, 2021, required that court actions filed pursuant to this section be filed in the district court in the county where the defendant resides; and in Subsection F, after "in the county where the", deleted "respondent" and added "defendant".

Applicability. — Laws 2019, ch. 86, § 40 provided that the provisions of the State Ethics Commission Act apply only to conduct occurring on or after July 1, 2019.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2019, ch. 86, § 37 provided that:

A. By October 1, 2021, the state ethics commission shall submit a report to the legislature and the office of the governor regarding whether to extend commission jurisdiction.

B. If the report recommends extension of the state ethics commission's jurisdiction, the report shall address:

- (1) a detailed plan for implementation of an extension of the commission's jurisdiction and a proposed timeline for the implementation;
- (2) the estimated number of additional employees and other resources needed by the commission to perform its expanded duties;
- (3) estimated budget increases needed for the commission to perform its expanded duties; and
- (4) recommended changes to existing law.

10-16G-10. Complaints; investigations; subpoenas.

A. A complaint of an alleged ethics violation committed by a public official, public employee, candidate, person subject to the Campaign Reporting Act [1-19-25 to 1-19-36 NMSA 1978], government contractor, lobbyist, lobbyist's employer or a restricted donor subject to the Gift Act [Chapter 10, Article 16B NMSA] may be filed with the commission by a person who has actual knowledge of the alleged ethics violation.

B. The complainant shall set forth in detail the specific charges against the respondent and the factual allegations that support the charges and shall sign the complaint under penalty of false statement. The complainant shall submit any evidence the complainant has that supports the complaint. Evidence may include documents, records and names of witnesses. The commission shall prescribe the forms on which complaints are to be filed. The complaint form shall be signed under oath by the complainant.

C. Except as provided in Subsection H of this section, the respondent shall be notified within seven days of the filing of the complaint and offered an opportunity to file a response on the merits of the complaint.

D. The director shall determine if the complaint is subject to referral to another state agency pursuant to an agreement or outside the jurisdiction of the commission, and if so, promptly refer the complaint to the appropriate agency. If the director determines that the complaint is within the commission's jurisdiction, the director shall have the general counsel initiate an investigation.

E. The general counsel shall conduct an investigation to determine whether the complaint is frivolous or unsubstantiated. If the general counsel determines that the complaint is frivolous or unsubstantiated, the complaint shall be dismissed, and the complainant and respondent shall be notified in writing of the decision and reasons for the dismissal. The commission shall not make public a complaint that has been dismissed pursuant to this subsection or the reasons for the dismissal.

F. If the general counsel and the respondent reach a settlement on the matters of the complaint, the settlement shall be submitted to the commission for its approval, and if the matter has been resolved to the satisfaction of the commission, the complaint and terms of the settlement shall be subject to public disclosure.

G. If an independent hearing officer determines that there is probable cause, the director shall promptly notify the respondent of the finding of probable cause and of the specific allegations in the complaint that are being investigated and that a public hearing will be set. If the finding of probable cause involves a discriminatory practice or actions by the respondent against the complainant, no settlement agreement shall be reached without prior consultation with the complainant. In any case, the notification, complaint, specific allegations being investigated and any response to the complaint shall be made public thirty days following notice to the respondent. The hearing officer chosen to consider probable cause shall not participate in the adjudication of the complaint.

H. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsections C and G of this section, the director may delay notifying a respondent and complainant and releasing to the public the complaint and related information required by Subsection G of this section if it is deemed necessary to protect the integrity of a criminal investigation. A decision whether to delay notifying a respondent shall be taken by a majority vote of the commission and shall be documented in writing with reasonable specificity.

I. As part of an investigation, the general counsel may administer oaths, interview witnesses and examine books, records, documents and other evidence reasonably related to the complaint. All testimony in an investigation shall be under oath, and the respondent may be represented by legal counsel. If the general counsel determines that a subpoena is necessary to obtain the testimony of a person or the production of books, records, documents or other evidence, the director shall request that the commission petition a district court to issue a subpoena.

J. The commission may petition the court for a subpoena for the attendance and examination of witnesses or for the production of books, records, documents or other evidence reasonably related to an investigation. If a person neglects or refuses to comply with a subpoena, the commission may apply to a district court for an order enforcing the subpoena and compelling compliance. All proceedings in the district court prior to the complaint being made public pursuant to Subsection G of this section, or upon entry of a settlement agreement, shall be sealed. A case is automatically unsealed upon notice by the commission to the court that the commission has made the complaint public. No later than July 1 of each even-numbered year, the chief justice of the supreme court shall appoint an active or pro tempore district judge to consider the issuance and enforcement of subpoenas provided for in this section. The appointment shall end on June 30 of the next even-numbered year after appointment.

K. A public official or state public employee who is a respondent who is subject to a complaint alleging a violation made in the performance of the respondent's duties shall be entitled to representation by the risk management division of the general services department.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 86, § 10; 2021, ch. 109, § 17; 2023, ch. 164, § 2.

ANNOTATIONS

The 2023 amendment, effective June 16, 2023, provided that probable cause determinations are to be made by an independent hearing officer, and provided that the hearing officer chosen to consider probable cause shall not participate in the adjudication of the complaint; and in Subsection G, after "If", deleted "the general counsel determines" and added "an independent hearing officer determines", and added "The hearing officer chosen to consider probable cause shall not participate in the adjudication of the complaint.".

The 2021 amendment, effective July 1, 2021, removed the notarization requirement from a complaint of an alleged ethics violation; and in Subsection B, after "shall be signed", deleted "and sworn" and added "under oath", and after "complainant", deleted "and notarized".

Applicability. — Laws 2019, ch. 86, § 40 provided that the provisions of the State Ethics Commission Act apply only to conduct occurring on or after July 1, 2019.

State Ethics Commission lacks jurisdiction to adjudicate an administrative complaint against a member of the legislature for claims predicated on legislative acts. — N.M. Const., Art. IV, § 13's speech and debate clause provides members of the legislature with immunity from administrative, civil, and criminal actions, whether brought by private individuals or an executive branch agency, for legislative acts taken in the course of the members' official responsibilities, and therefore when claims alleged against a legislator are predicated on that legislator's legislative acts, Art. IV, § 13 operates as a jurisdictional bar to both judicial and administrative proceedings. The State Ethics Commission, therefore, lacks jurisdiction to adjudicate an administrative complaint that alleges a member of the New Mexico legislature violated the Governmental Conduct Act by introducing a bill, making comments related to a bill in a legislative committee or on the member's respective floor, or voting on the bill. 2021 Op. Ethics Comm'n No. 2021-12.

10-16G-11. Status of investigation; reports to commission.

A. If a hearing has not been scheduled concerning the disposition of a complaint within ninety days after the complaint is received, the director shall report to the commission on the status of the investigation. The commission may dismiss the complaint or instruct the director to continue the investigation of the complaint. Unless the commission dismisses the complaint, the director shall report to the commission every ninety days thereafter on the status of the investigation.

B. Upon dismissal of a complaint or a decision to continue an investigation of a complaint, the commission shall notify the complainant and respondent in writing of its action. If the commission has not notified a respondent pursuant to the provisions of Subsection G of Section 10 [10-16G-10 NMSA 1978] of the State Ethics Commission Act, the commission shall vote on whether to notify the respondent. A decision whether to continue to delay notifying the respondent shall be taken by a majority vote of a quorum of the commission and shall be documented in writing with reasonable specificity.

If the hearing officer finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent's conduct constituted a violation, the decision may include recommendations for disciplinary action against the respondent, and the hearing officer may impose any fines provided for by law. A finding of fraudulent or willful misconduct shall require clear and convincing evidence.

E. The complainant or respondent may appeal a decision of the hearing officer within thirty days of the decision to the full commission, which shall hear the matter within sixty days of notice of the appeal and issue its decision within 180 days.

F. The commission shall publicly disclose a decision, including a dismissal following a finding of probable cause or the terms of a settlement, issued pursuant to this section. The commission shall provide the decision to the complainant, the respondent and the:

(1) house of representatives if the respondent is a public official who is subject to impeachment;

(2) appropriate legislative body if the respondent is a member of the legislature;

(3) respondent's appointing authority if the respondent is an appointed public official;

B. If a complaint is determined to be frivolous, unsubstantiated or outside the jurisdiction of the commission, the complaint shall not be made public by the commission; provided that the commission shall not prohibit the complainant or respondent from releasing the commission's decision or other information concerning the complaint.

C. Except as otherwise provided in the acts listed in Section 9 of the State Ethics Commission Act, all complaints, reports, files, records and communications collected or generated by the commission, hearing officer, general counsel or director that pertain to alleged violations shall not be disclosed by the commission or any commissioner, agent or employee of the commission, unless:

The "reasonable specificity" requirement for meeting agendas does not necessarily require the state ethics commission to name the target of an ethics investigation when considering the initiation of a civil action. — The State Ethics Commission Act, 10-16G-1 to 10-16G-16 NMSA 1978, provides that in situations where the state ethics commission is considering initiating an enforcement action but has not yet found probable cause, records of the alleged ethics violations shall not be disclosed and the matter shall remain confidential until the commission makes its decision, and therefore the "reasonable specificity" requirement for notice of meetings, set forth in 10-15-1(l) NMSA 1978 of the Open Meetings Act, does not necessarily require the state ethics commission to name the target of the ethics investigation in an agenda or notice of meeting. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 25-01.

This section does not represent an exception to the Open Meetings Act's "reasonable specificity" requirement for meeting agendas. — This section does not represent an exception to the "reasonable specificity" requirement for meeting agendas set forth in the Open Meetings Act, 10-15-1 to 10-15-4 NMSA 1978, but is nevertheless relevant to the question of what level of specificity is "reasonable" for the purposes of meeting agendas. 2025 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 25-01.

10-16G-14. Criminal violations; referral.

If the commission finds at any time that a respondent's conduct amounts to a criminal violation, the director shall consult with the attorney general or an appropriate district attorney, and the commission may refer the matter to the attorney general or an appropriate district attorney. The commission may provide the attorney general or district attorney with all evidence collected during the commission's investigation. A. The commission shall not accept or consider a complaint unless the complaint is filed with the commission within the later of two years from the date:
