the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; or

(D) if the lease is not a consumer lease, the lessor, before the lessee signs the lease contract, informs the lessee in writing (a) of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods from that person; (b) that the lessee is entitled under this article to the promises and warranties, including those of any third party, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; and (c) that the lessee may communicate with the person supplying the goods to the lessor and receive an accurate and complete statement of those promises and warranties, including any disclaimers and limitations of them or of remedies;

(k) "lease agreement" means the bargain, with respect to the lease, of the lessor and the lessee in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances, including course of dealing or usage or trade or course of performance as provided in this article; unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease agreement;

(v) "purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods;

(w) "sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease;

"55-2A-201. STATUTE OF FRAUDS.--

- (1) A lease contract is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:
  - (a) the total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, are less than one thousand dollars ($1,000); or
  - (b) there is a record, signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent, sufficient to indicate that a lease contract has been made between the parties and to describe the goods leased and the lease term.
- (2) Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies Paragraph (b) of Subsection (1) of this section, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.
- (3) A record is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under Paragraph (b) of Subsection (1) of this section beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the record.
- (4) A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of Subsection (1) of this section, but that is valid in other respects, is enforceable:
  - (a) if the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement;
  - (b) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a lease contract was made, but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or
  - (c) with respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.
- (5) The lease term under a lease contract referred to in Subsection (4) of this section is:

(a) if there is a record signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term so specified;

(b) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court a lease term, the term so admitted; or

(c) a reasonable lease term."

Chapter 142 Section 16 Laws 2023

SECTION 16. Section 55-2A-202 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 18) is amended to read:

"55-2A-202. FINAL EXPRESSION--PAROL OR EXTRINSIC EVIDENCE.--Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or that are otherwise set forth in a record intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented:

(a) by course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and

(b) by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the record to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement."

Chapter 142 Section 17 Laws 2023

SECTION 17. Section 55-2A-203 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 19) is amended to read:

"55-2A-203. SEALS INOPERATIVE.--The affixing of a seal to a record evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter into a lease contract does not render the record a sealed instrument, and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer."

Chapter 142 Section 18 Laws 2023

SECTION 18. Section 55-2A-205 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 21) is amended to read:

"55-2A-205. FIRM OFFERS.--An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed record that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or, if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed three months. Any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror."

Chapter 142 Section 19 Laws 2023

SECTION 19. Section 55-2A-208 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 24) is amended to read:

"55-2A-208. MODIFICATION, RESCISSION AND WAIVER.--

(1) An agreement modifying a lease contract needs no consideration to be binding.

(2) A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a signed record may not be otherwise modified or rescinded, but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

(3) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of Subsection (2) of this section, it may operate as a waiver.

(4) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of a lease contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver."

Chapter 142 Section 20 Laws 2023

SECTION 20. Section 55-3-104 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 91) is amended to read:

"55-3-104. NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT.--

(a) Except as provided in Subsections (c) and (d) of this section, "negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

(1) is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder;

(2) is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(3) does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, but the promise or order may contain (i) an undertaking or power to give, maintain or protect collateral to secure payment; (ii) an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral; (iii) a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of an obligor; (iv) a term that specifies the law that governs the promise or order; or (v) an undertaking to resolve in a specified forum a dispute concerning the promise or order.

(c) An order that meets all of the requirements of Subsection (a) of this section, except Paragraph (1) of that subsection, and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in Subsection (f) of this section is a negotiable instrument and a check.

(d) A promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not an instrument governed by this article.

(e) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft", a person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

(f) "Check" means (i) a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank or (ii) a cashier's check or teller's check. An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term, such as "money order".

(g) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.

(h) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank (i) on another bank or (ii) payable at or through a bank.

(i) "Traveler's check" means an instrument that (i) is payable on demand, (ii) is drawn on or payable at or through a bank, (iii) is designated by the term "traveler's check" or by a substantially similar term and (iv) requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.

(j) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank."

Chapter 142 Section 21 Laws 2023

SECTION 21. Section 55-3-105 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 92) is amended to read:

"55-3-105. ISSUE OF INSTRUMENT.--

(a) "Issue" means:

(1) the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person; or

(2) if agreed by the payee, the first transmission by the drawer to the payee of an image of an item and information derived from the item that enables the depository bank to collect the item by transferring or presenting under federal law an electronic check.

(b) An unissued instrument, or an unissued incomplete instrument that is completed, is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.

(c) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means a maker or drawer of an instrument."

Chapter 142 Section 22 Laws 2023

SECTION 22. Section 55-3-309 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 122) is amended to read:

"55-3-309. ENFORCEMENT OF LOST, DESTROYED OR STOLEN INSTRUMENT.--

(a) A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if:

(1) the person seeking to enforce the instrument:

(A) was entitled to enforce the instrument when loss of possession occurred; or

(B) has directly or indirectly acquired ownership of the instrument from a person who was entitled to enforce the instrument when loss of possession occurred;

(2) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the person or a lawful seizure; and

(3) the person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(b) A person seeking enforcement of an instrument under Subsection (a) of this section must prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, Section 55-3-308 NMSA 1978 applies to the case as if the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument. Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means."

Chapter 142 Section 23 Laws 2023

SECTION 23. Section 55-3-401 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 126) is amended to read:

"55-3-401. SIGNATURE.--A person is not liable on an instrument unless (i) the person signed the instrument or (ii) the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under Section 55-3-402 NMSA 1978."

Chapter 142 Section 24 Laws 2023

SECTION 24. Section 55-3-604 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 154, as amended) is amended to read:

"55-3-604. DISCHARGE BY CANCELLATION OR RENUNCIATION.--

(a) A person entitled to enforce an instrument, with or without consideration, may discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument: (i) by an intentional voluntary act, such as surrender of the instrument to the party; destruction, mutilation or cancellation of the instrument; cancellation or striking out of the party's signature; or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge; or (ii) by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed record. The obligation of a party to pay a check is not discharged solely by destruction of the check in connection with a process in which information is extracted from the check and an image of the check is made and, subsequently, the information and image are transmitted for payment.

(b) Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to Subsection (a) of this section does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement."

Chapter 142 Section 25 Laws 2023

SECTION 25. Section 55-4A-103 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 199) is amended to read:

"55-4A-103. PAYMENT ORDER--DEFINITIONS.--

(a) In this article:

(1) "payment order" means an instruction of a sender to a receiving bank, transmitted orally or in a record, to pay, or to cause another bank to pay, a fixed or determinable amount of money to a beneficiary if:

(i) the instruction does not state a condition to payment to the beneficiary other than time of payment,

(ii) the receiving bank is to be reimbursed by debiting an account of, or otherwise receiving payment from, the sender and

(iii) the instruction is transmitted by the sender directly to the receiving bank or to an agent, funds- transfer system or communication system for transmittal to the receiving bank;

(2) "beneficiary" means the person to be paid by the beneficiary's bank;

(3) "beneficiary's bank" means the bank identified in a payment order in which an account of the beneficiary is to be credited pursuant to the order or that otherwise is to make payment to the beneficiary if the order does not provide for payment to an account;

(4) "receiving bank" means the bank to which the sender's instruction is addressed; and

(5) "sender" means the person giving the instruction to the receiving bank.

(b) If an instruction complying with Paragraph (1) of Subsection (a) of this section is to make more than one payment to a beneficiary, the instruction is a separate payment order with respect to each payment.

(c) A payment order is issued when it is sent to the receiving bank."

Chapter 142 Section 26 Laws 2023

SECTION 26. Section 55-4A-201 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 205) is amended to read:

"55-4A-201. SECURITY PROCEDURE.--"Security procedure" means a procedure established by agreement of a customer and a receiving bank for the purpose of (i) verifying that a payment order or communication amending or canceling a payment order is that of the customer or (ii) detecting error in the transmission or the content of the payment order or communication. A security procedure may impose an obligation on the receiving bank or the customer and may require the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying words, numbers, symbols, sounds, biometrics, encryption, callback procedures or similar security devices. Comparison of a signature on a payment order or communication with an authorized specimen signature of the customer or requiring a payment order to be sent from a known email address, internet protocol address or telephone number is not by itself a security procedure."

Chapter 142 Section 27 Laws 2023

SECTION 27. Section 55-4A-202 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 206) is amended to read:

"55-4A-202. AUTHORIZED AND VERIFIED PAYMENT ORDERS.--

(a) A payment order received by the receiving bank is the authorized order of the person identified as sender if that person authorized the order or is otherwise bound by it under the law of agency.

(b) If a bank and its customer have agreed that the authenticity of payment orders issued to the bank in the name of the customer as sender will be verified pursuant to a security procedure, a payment order received by the receiving bank is effective as the order of the customer, whether or not authorized, if (i) the security procedure is a commercially reasonable method of providing security against unauthorized payment orders and (ii) the bank proves that it accepted the payment order in good faith and in compliance with the bank's obligations under the security procedure and any agreement or instruction of the customer, evidenced by a record, restricting acceptance of payment orders issued in the name of the customer. The bank is not required to follow an instruction that violates a written agreement with the customer or notice of which is not received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the payment order is accepted.

(c) Commercial reasonableness of a security procedure is a question of law to be determined by considering the wishes of the customer expressed to the bank, the circumstances of the customer known to the bank, including the size, type and frequency of payment orders normally issued by the customer to the bank, alternative security procedures offered to the customer and security procedures in general use by customers and receiving banks similarly situated. A security procedure is deemed to be commercially reasonable if (i) the security procedure was chosen by the customer after the bank offered, and the customer refused, a security procedure that was commercially reasonable for that customer and (ii) the customer expressly agreed in a record to be bound by any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in its name and accepted by the bank in compliance with the bank's obligations under the security procedure chosen by the customer.

(d) The term "sender" in this article includes the customer in whose name a payment order is issued if the order is the authorized order of the customer under Subsection (a) of this section, or it is effective as the orders of the customer under Subsection (b) of this section.

(e) This section applies to amendments and cancellations of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

(f) Except as provided in this section and in Paragraph (1) of Subsection (a) of Section 55-4A-203 NMSA 1978, rights and obligations arising under this section or Section 55-4A-203 NMSA 1978 may not be varied by agreement."

Chapter 142 Section 28 Laws 2023

SECTION 28. Section 55-4A-203 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 207) is amended to read:

"55-4A-203. UNENFORCEABILITY OF CERTAIN VERIFIED PAYMENT ORDERS.--

(a) If an accepted payment order is not, under Subsection (a) of Section 55-4A-202 NMSA 1978, an authorized order of a customer identified as sender, but is effective as an order of the customer pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 55-4A-202 NMSA 1978, the following rules apply:

(1) By express agreement evidenced by a record, the receiving bank may limit the extent to which it is entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order.

(2) The receiving bank is not entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order if the customer proves that the order was not caused, directly or indirectly, by a person (i) entrusted at any time with duties to act for the customer with respect to payment orders or the security procedure or (ii) who obtained access to transmitting facilities of the customer or who obtained, from a source controlled by the customer and without authority of the receiving bank, information facilitating breach of the security procedure, regardless of how the information was obtained or whether the customer was at fault. Information includes any access device, computer software or the like.

(b) This section applies to amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders."

Chapter 142 Section 29 Laws 2023

SECTION 29. Section 55-4A-207 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 211) is amended to read:

"55-4A-207. MISDESCRIPTION OF BENEFICIARY.--

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) of this section, if, in a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank, the name, bank account number or other identification of the beneficiary refers to a nonexistent or unidentifiable person or account, no person has rights as a beneficiary of the order and acceptance of the order cannot occur.

(b) If a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank identifies the beneficiary both by name and by an identifying or bank account number and the name and number identify different persons, the following rules apply:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (c) of this section, if the beneficiary's bank does not know that the name and number refer to different persons, it may rely on the number as the proper identification of the beneficiary of the order. The beneficiary's bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.

(2) If the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by name or knows that the name and number identify different persons, no person has rights as beneficiary except the person paid by the beneficiary's bank if that person was entitled to receive payment from the originator of the funds transfer. If no person has rights as beneficiary, acceptance of the order cannot occur.

(c) If (i) a payment order described in Subsection (b) of this section is accepted, (ii) the originator's payment order described the beneficiary inconsistently by name and number and (iii) the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by number as permitted by Paragraph (1) of Subsection (b) of this section, the following rules apply:

(1) If the originator is a bank, the originator is obliged to pay its order.

(2) If the originator is not a bank and proves that the person identified by number was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the originator is not obliged to pay its order unless the originator's bank proves that the originator, before acceptance of the originator's order, had notice that payment of a payment order issued by the originator might be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of an identifying or bank account number even if it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The originator's bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the originator, before the payment order was accepted, signed a record stating the information to which the notice relates.

(d) In a case governed by Paragraph (1) of Subsection (b) of this section, if the beneficiary's bank rightfully pays the person identified by number and that person was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the amount paid may be recovered from that person to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution as follows:

(1) if the originator is obliged to pay its payment order as stated in Subsection (c) of this section, the originator has the right to recover; or

(2) if the originator is not a bank and is not obliged to pay its payment order, the originator's bank has the right to recover."

Chapter 142 Section 30 Laws 2023

SECTION 30. Section 55-4A-208 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 212) is amended to read:

"55-4A-208. MISDESCRIPTION OF INTERMEDIARY BANK OR BENEFICIARY'S BANK.--

(a) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank only by an identifying number.

(1) The receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank and need not determine whether the number identifies a bank.

(2) The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

(b) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank both by name and an identifying number if the name and number identify different persons.

(1) If the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, when it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person or whether the number refers to a bank. The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

(2) If the sender is not a bank and the receiving bank proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, had notice that the receiving bank might rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank even if it identifies a person different from the bank identified by name, the rights and obligations of the sender and the receiving bank are governed by Paragraph (1) of this subsection as though the sender were a bank. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The receiving bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, signed a record stating the information to which the notice relates.

(3) Regardless of whether the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the name as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, at the time it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.

(4) If the receiving bank knows that the name and number identify different persons, reliance on either the name or the number in executing the sender's payment order is a breach of the obligation stated in Paragraph (1) of Subsection (a) of Section 55-4A-302 NMSA 1978."

Chapter 142 Section 31 Laws 2023

SECTION 31. Section 55-4A-210 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 214) is amended to read:

"55-4A-210. REJECTION OF PAYMENT ORDER.--

(a) A payment order is rejected by the receiving bank by a notice of rejection transmitted to the sender orally or in a record. A notice of rejection need not use any particular words and is sufficient if it indicates that the receiving bank is rejecting the order or will not execute or pay the order. Rejection is effective when the notice is given if transmission is by a means that is reasonable in the circumstances. If notice of rejection is given by a means that is not reasonable, rejection is effective when the notice is received. If an agreement of the sender and receiving bank establishes the means to be used to reject a payment order, (i) any means complying with the agreement is reasonable, and (ii) any means not complying is not reasonable unless no significant delay in receipt of the notice resulted from the use of the noncomplying means.

(b) This subsection applies if a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank fails to execute a payment order despite the existence on the execution date of a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender sufficient to cover the order. If the sender does not receive notice of rejection of the order on the execution date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the number of days elapsing after the execution date to the earlier of the day the order is canceled pursuant to Subsection (d) of Section 55-4A-211 NMSA 1978 or the day the sender receives notice or learns that the order was not executed, counting the final day of the period as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest is reduced accordingly.

(c) If a receiving bank suspends payments, all unaccepted payment orders issued to it are deemed rejected at the time the bank suspends payments.

(d) Acceptance of a payment order precludes a later rejection of the order. Rejection of a payment order precludes a later acceptance of the order."

Chapter 142 Section 32 Laws 2023

SECTION 32. Section 55-4A-211 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 215) is amended to read:

"55-4A-211. CANCELLATION AND AMENDMENT OF PAYMENT ORDER.--

(a) A communication of the sender of a payment order canceling or amending the order may be transmitted to the receiving bank orally or in a record. If a security procedure is in effect between the sender and the receiving bank, the communication is not effective to cancel or amend the order unless the communication is verified pursuant to the security procedure or the bank agrees to the cancellation or amendment.

(b) Subject to Subsection (a) of this section, a communication by the sender canceling or amending a payment order is effective to cancel or amend the order if notice of the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the receiving bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication before the bank accepts the payment order.

(c) After a payment order has been accepted, cancellation or amendment of the order is not effective unless the receiving bank agrees or a funds-transfer system rule allows cancellation or amendment without agreement of the bank.

(1) With respect to a payment order accepted by a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless a conforming cancellation or amendment of the payment order issued by the receiving bank is also made.

(2) With respect to a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless the order was issued in execution of an unauthorized payment order or because of a mistake by a sender in the funds transfer that resulted in the issuance of a payment order (i) that is a duplicate of a payment order previously issued by the sender, (ii) that orders payment to a beneficiary not entitled to receive payment from the originator or (iii) that orders payment in an amount greater than the amount the beneficiary was entitled to receive from the originator. If the payment order is canceled or amended, the beneficiary's bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(d) An unaccepted payment order is canceled by operation of law at the close of the fifth funds-transfer business day of the receiving bank after the execution date or payment date of the order.

(e) A canceled payment order cannot be accepted. If an accepted payment order is canceled, the acceptance is nullified and no person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance. Amendment of a payment order is deemed to be cancellation of the original order at the time of amendment and issue of a new payment order in the amended form at the same time.

(f) Unless otherwise provided in an agreement of the parties or in a funds-transfer system rule, if the receiving bank, after accepting a payment order, agrees to cancellation or amendment of the order by the sender or is bound by a funds-transfer system rule allowing cancellation or amendment without the bank's agreement, the sender, whether or not cancellation or amendment is effective, is liable to the bank for any loss and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by the bank as a result of the cancellation or amendment or attempted cancellation or amendment.

(g) A payment order is not revoked by the death or legal incapacity of the sender unless the receiving bank knows of the death or of an adjudication of incapacity by a court of competent jurisdiction and has reasonable opportunity to act before acceptance of the order.

(h) A funds-transfer system rule is not effective to the extent it conflicts with Paragraph (2) of Subsection (c) of this section."

Chapter 142 Section 33 Laws 2023

SECTION 33. Section 55-4A-305 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1992, Chapter 114, Section 221) is amended to read:

"55-4A-305. LIABILITY FOR LATE OR IMPROPER EXECUTION OR FAILURE TO EXECUTE PAYMENT ORDER.--

(a) If a funds transfer is completed but the execution of a payment order by the receiving bank in breach of Section 55-4A-302 NMSA 1978 results in delay in payment to the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to pay interest to either the originator or the beneficiary of the funds transfer for the period of delay caused by the improper execution. Except as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, additional damages are not recoverable.

(b) If execution of a payment order by a receiving bank in breach of Section 55-4A-302 NMSA 1978 results in (i) noncompletion of the funds transfer, (ii) failure to use an intermediary bank designated by the originator or (iii) issuance of a payment order that does not comply with the terms of the payment order of the originator, the bank is liable to the originator for its expenses in the funds transfer and for incidental expenses and interest losses, to the extent not covered by Subsection (a) of this section, resulting from the improper execution. Except as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, additional damages are not recoverable.

(c) In addition to the amounts payable under Subsections (a) and (b) of this section, damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express agreement of the receiving bank, evidenced by a record.

(d) If a receiving bank fails to execute a payment order it was obliged by express agreement to execute, the receiving bank is liable to the sender for its expenses in the transaction and for incidental expenses and interest losses resulting from the failure to execute. Additional damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express agreement of the receiving bank, evidenced by a record, but are not otherwise recoverable.

(e) Reasonable attorney fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim. If a claim is made for breach of an agreement under Subsection (d) of this section and the agreement does not provide for damages, reasonable attorney fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under Subsection (d) of this section is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.

(f) Except as stated in this section, the liability of a receiving bank under Subsections (a) and (b) of this section may not be varied by agreement."

Chapter 142 Section 34 Laws 2023

SECTION 34. Section 55-5-104 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1997, Chapter 75, Section 6) is amended to read:

"55-5-104. FORMAL REQUIREMENTS.--A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment or cancellation may be issued in any form that is a signed record."

Chapter 142 Section 35 Laws 2023

SECTION 35. Section 55-5-116 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1997, Chapter 75, Section 18) is amended to read:

"55-5-116. CHOICE OF LAW AND FORUM.--

(a) The liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.

(b) Unless Subsection (a) of this section applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the person's undertaking was issued.

(c) For the purpose of jurisdiction, choice of law and recognition of interbranch letters of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are considered separate juridical entities, and a bank is considered to be located at the place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under Subsection (d) of this section.

(d) A branch of a bank is considered to be located at the address indicated in the branch's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the branch is considered to be located at the address from which the undertaking was issued.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If (i) this article would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person or adviser under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section; (ii) the relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice; and (iii) there is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in Subsection (c) of Section 55-5-103 NMSA 1978.

(f) If there is conflict between this article and Chapter 55, Article 3, 4, 4A or 9 NMSA 1978, this article governs.

(g) The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with Subsection (a) of this section."

(b) A system satisfies Subsection (a) of this section, and a person has control of an electronic document of title, if the document is created, stored and transferred in a manner that:

(1) a single authoritative copy of the document exists that is unique, identifiable and, except as otherwise provided in Paragraphs (4), (5) and (6) of this subsection, unalterable;

(f) A buyer, other than a secured party, of chattel paper takes free of a security interest if, without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected, the buyer gives value and:

(1) receives delivery of each authoritative tangible copy of the record evidencing the chattel paper; and

(2) pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

(c) Subsections (a) and (b) of this section do not apply to a security interest held by a secured party that is a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles or promissory notes or a consignor.

"55-9-324. PRIORITY OF PURCHASE-MONEY SECURITY INTERESTS.--

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (g) of this section, a perfected purchase-money security interest in goods other than inventory or livestock has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same goods, and, except as otherwise provided in Section 55-9-327 NMSA 1978, a perfected security interest in its identifiable proceeds also has priority if the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty days thereafter.

(1) the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the inventory;

(2) the purchase-money secured party sends a signed notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;

(3) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(4) the notification states that the person sending the notification has or expects to acquire a purchase-money security interest in inventory of the debtor and describes the inventory.

(c) Paragraphs (2) through (4) of Subsection (b) of this section apply only if the holder of the conflicting security interest had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory:

"55-9-330. PRIORITY OF PURCHASER OF CHATTEL PAPER OR INSTRUMENT.--

(a) A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if:

(1) in good faith and in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business, the purchaser gives new value, takes possession of each authoritative tangible copy of the record evidencing the chattel paper and obtains control under Section 55-9-105 NMSA 1978 of each authoritative electronic copy of the record evidencing the chattel paper; and

(2) the authoritative copies of the record evidencing the chattel paper do not indicate that the chattel paper has been assigned to an identified assignee other than the purchaser.

(b) A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed other than merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if the purchaser gives new value, takes possession of each authoritative tangible copy of the record evidencing the chattel paper and obtains control under Section 55-9-105 NMSA 1978 of each authoritative electronic copy of the record evidencing the chattel paper in good faith, in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 55-9-327 NMSA 1978, a purchaser having priority in chattel paper under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section also has priority in proceeds of the chattel paper to the extent that:

(1) Section 55-9-322 NMSA 1978 provides for priority in the proceeds;

(f) For purposes of Subsections (b) and (d) of this section, if the authoritative copies of the record evidencing chattel paper or an instrument indicate that the chattel paper or instrument has been assigned to an identified secured party other than the purchaser, a purchaser of the chattel paper or instrument has knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party."

Chapter 142 Section 72 Laws 2023

SECTION 72. Section 55-9-331 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 51, as amended) is amended to read:

(a) Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 does not limit the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated or a protected purchaser of a security or a qualifying purchaser of a controllable account, controllable electronic record or controllable payment intangible. These holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest, even if perfected, to the extent provided in Chapter 55, Articles 3, 7, 8 and 12 NMSA 1978.

(b) Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 does not limit the rights of or impose liability on a person to the extent that the person is protected against the assertion of a claim under Chapter 55, Articles 8 and 12 NMSA 1978.

(c) Filing under Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 does not constitute notice of a claim or defense to the holders, or purchasers, or persons described in Subsections (a) and (b) of this section."

Chapter 142 Section 73 Laws 2023

SECTION 73. Section 55-9-332 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 52) is amended to read:

Chapter 142 Section 74 Laws 2023

SECTION 74. Section 55-9-334 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 54) is amended to read:

"55-9-334. PRIORITY OF SECURITY INTERESTS IN FIXTURES.--

(a) A security interest under Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures. A security interest does not exist under this article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(b) Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.

(c) In cases not governed by Subsections (d) through (h) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (h) of this section, a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:

(1) the security interest is a purchase-money security interest;

(2) the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and

(3) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within twenty days thereafter.

(e) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(1) the debtor has an interest of record in the real property or is in possession of the real property and the security interest:

(A) is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record; and

(B) has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner;

(2) before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978, and the fixtures are readily removable:

(A) factory or office machines;

(B) equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real property; or

(C) replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;

(3) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real property obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this article; or

(4) the security interest is:

(A) created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction; and

(B) perfected pursuant to a statute described in Paragraph (2) of Subsection (a) of Section 55-9-311 NMSA 1978.

(f) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(1) the encumbrancer or owner has, in a signed record, consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(2) the debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner.

(g) The priority of the security interest under Paragraph (2) of Subsection (f) of this section continues for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner terminates.

(h) A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so indicates. Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (e) and (f) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage."

Chapter 142 Section 75 Laws 2023

"55-9-341. BANK'S RIGHTS AND DUTIES WITH RESPECT TO DEPOSIT ACCOUNT.--Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (c) of Section 55-9-340 NMSA 1978, and unless the bank otherwise agrees in a signed record, a bank's rights and duties with respect to a deposit account maintained with the bank are not terminated, suspended or modified by:

- (1) the creation, attachment or perfection of a security interest in the deposit account;
- (2) the bank's knowledge of the security interest; or
- (3) the bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party."

Chapter 142 Section 76 Laws 2023

SECTION 76. Section 55-9-404 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 66) is amended to read:

"55-9-404. RIGHTS ACQUIRED BY ASSIGNEE--CLAIMS AND DEFENSES AGAINST ASSIGNEE.--

(a) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to Subsections (b) through (e) of this section, the rights of an assignee are subject to:

(1) all terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and

(2) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment signed by the assignor or the assignee.

(b) Subject to Subsection (c) of this section and except as otherwise provided in Subsection (d) of this section, the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under Subsection (a) of this section only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

(c) This section is subject to law other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

(d) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and if the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.

(e) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable."

Chapter 142 Section 77 Laws 2023

SECTION 77. Section 55-9-406 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 68, as amended) is amended to read:

"55-9-406. DISCHARGE OF ACCOUNT DEBTOR--NOTIFICATION OF ASSIGNMENT--IDENTIFICATION AND PROOF OF ASSIGNMENT--RESTRICTIONS ON ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNTS, CHATTEL PAPER, PAYMENT INTANGIBLES AND PROMISSORY NOTES INEFFECTIVE.--

(a) Subject to Subsections (b) through (i) and (l) of this section, an account debtor on an account, chattel paper or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, signed by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(b) Subject to Subsections (h) and (l) of this section, notification is ineffective under Subsection (a) of this section:

(1) if it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

(2) to the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978; or

(3) at the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

(A) only a portion of the account, chattel paper or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;

(B) a portion has been assigned to another assignee; or

(C) the account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(c) Subject to Subsections (h) and (l) of this section, if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under Subsection (a) of this section.

(d) In this subsection, "promissory note" includes a negotiable instrument that evidences chattel paper. Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (e) and (k) of this section and Sections 55-2A-303 and 55-9-407 NMSA 1978, and subject to Subsection (h) of this section, a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) prohibits, restricts or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible or promissory note; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible or promissory note.

(e) Subsection (d) of this section does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under Section 55-9-610 NMSA 1978 or an acceptance of collateral under Section 55-9-620 NMSA 1978.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (k) of this section and Sections 55-2A-303 and 55-9-407 NMSA 1978 and subject to Subsections (h) and (i) of this section, a rule of law, statute or regulation that prohibits, restricts or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute or regulation:

(1) prohibits, restricts or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(g) Subject to Subsections (h) and (l) of this section, an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under Paragraph (3) of Subsection (b) of this section.

(h) This section is subject to law other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 that establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

(i) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

(j) This section is subject to laws other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 to the extent that those laws prohibit or restrict the assignment, transfer of or creation of a security interest in benefits, compensation, any other account or chattel paper.

(k) Subsections (d), (f) and (j) of this section do not apply to a security interest in an ownership interest in a general partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership or limited liability company.

(l) Subsections (a), (b), (c) and (g) of this section do not apply to a controllable account or controllable payment intangible."

Chapter 142 Section 78 Laws 2023

SECTION 78. Section 55-9-408 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 70, as amended) is amended to read:

"55-9-408. RESTRICTIONS ON ASSIGNMENT OF PROMISSORY NOTES, HEALTH-CARE-INSURANCE RECEIVABLES AND CERTAIN GENERAL INTANGIBLES INEFFECTIVE.--

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (b) and (e) of this section, a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor that relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license or franchise, and that prohibits, restricts or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under Section 55-9-610 NMSA 1978 or an acceptance of collateral under Section 55-9-620 NMSA 1978.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (e) of this section, a rule of law, statute or regulation that prohibits, restricts or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute or regulation:

(1) would impair the creation, attachment or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible.

(d) To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor that relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute or regulation described in Subsection (c) of this section would be effective under law other than Chapter 55, Article 9 NMSA 1978 but is ineffective under Subsection (a) or (c) of this section, the creation, attachment or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible:

(1) is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(2) does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(3) does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(4) does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible;

(5) does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(6) does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible. The provisions of this section shall prevail over an inconsistent provision of an existing or future statute or rule of this state, unless the inconsistent provision is set forth in a statute of this state that refers expressly to this section and states that the inconsistent provision shall prevail over the provisions of this section.

(e) This section does not apply to a security interest in an ownership interest in a general partnership, limited liability partnership, limited partnership, limited liability limited partnership or limited liability company.

(f) In this section, "promissory note" includes a negotiable instrument that evidences chattel paper."

(e) If there is more than one secured party of record for a financing statement, each secured party of record may authorize the filing of an amendment under Subsection (d) of this section."

Chapter 142 Section 80 Laws 2023

SECTION 80. Section 55-9-513 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 84) is amended to read:

"55-9-513. TERMINATION STATEMENT.--

(a) A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

(2) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(b) To comply with Subsection (a) of this section, a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:

(1) within one month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation or otherwise give value; or

(2) if earlier, within twenty days after the secured party receives a signed demand from a debtor.

(c) In cases not governed by Subsection (a) of this section, within twenty days after a secured party receives a signed demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:

(1) except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation or otherwise give value;

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 55-9-510 NMSA 1978, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in Section 55-9-510 NMSA 1978, for purposes of Subsection (c) of Section 55-9-519, Subsection (a) of Section 55-9-522 and Subsection (b) of Section 55-9-523 NMSA 1978, the filing with the filing office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse."

Chapter 142 Section 81 Laws 2023

SECTION 81. Section 55-9-515 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 2001, Chapter 139, Section 86, as amended) is amended to read:

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (e), (f) and (g) of this section, an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of thirty years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.

(c) The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless before the lapse a continuation statement is filed pursuant to Subsection (d) of this section. Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(d) A continuation statement may be filed only within six months before the expiration of the five-year period specified in Subsection (a) of this section or the thirty-year period specified in Subsection (b) of this section, whichever is applicable.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in Section 55-9-510 NMSA 1978, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five-year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in Subsection (c) of this section, unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to Subsection (d) of this section. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.

(f) If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed initial financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed. The filing officer may require proof of the debtor's authority to operate as a transmitting utility as a condition of filing the financing statement or an amendment.

(g) A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under Subsection (c) of Section 55-9-502 NMSA 1978 remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property."

Unless the person complies with the request, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying a person that formerly had control, even if the account debtor has received a notification pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section.

(f) A person furnishes reasonable proof pursuant to Subsection (e) of this section that control has been transferred if the person demonstrates, using the method in the agreement referred to in Paragraph (1) of Subsection (d) of this section, that the transferee has the power to:

Chapter 142 Section 102 Laws 2023

SECTION 102. A new section of the Uniform Commercial Code, Section 55-12-107 NMSA 1978, is enacted to read:

"55-12-107. GOVERNING LAW.--

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, the local law of a controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by Sections 55-12-101 through 55-12-106 NMSA 1978.

(b) For a controllable electronic record that evidences a controllable account or controllable payment intangible, the local law of the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by Section 55-12-106 NMSA 1978 unless an effective agreement determines that the local law of another jurisdiction governs.

(c) The following rules determine a controllable electronic record's jurisdiction pursuant to this section:

(1) if the controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically associated with the controllable electronic record and readily available for review, expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of Sections 55-12-101 through 55-12-106 NMSA 1978 or the Uniform Commercial Code, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction;

(2) if Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply and the rules of the system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are readily available for review and expressly provide that a particular jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of Sections 55-12-101 through 55-12-106 NMSA 1978 or the Uniform Commercial Code, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction;

(3) if Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection do not apply and the controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically associated with the controllable electronic record and readily available for review, expressly provides that the controllable electronic record is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction;

(4) if Paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this subsection do not apply and the rules of the system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are readily available for review and expressly provide that the controllable electronic record or the system is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction; and

(5) if Paragraphs (1) through (4) of this subsection do not apply, the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction is the District of Columbia.

(d) If Paragraph (5) of Subsection (c) of this section applies and Article 12 is not in effect in the District of Columbia without material modification, the governing law for a matter covered by Sections 55-12-101 through 55-12-106 NMSA 1978 is the law of the District of Columbia as though those sections were in effect in the District of Columbia without material modification. In this subsection, "Article 12" means Article 12 of Uniform Commercial Code Amendments (2022).

(e) To the extent Subsections (a) and (b) of this section provide that the local law of the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by Sections 55-12-101 through 55-12-106 NMSA 1978, that law governs even if the matter or a transaction to which the matter relates does not bear any relation to the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.

(f) The rights acquired pursuant to Section 55-12-104 NMSA 1978 by a purchaser or qualifying purchaser are governed by the law applicable pursuant to this section at the time of purchase."

(b) submit its plans to the local zoning and land use authority for comment. The local authority shall communicate its recommendations and comments in writing to the department and private entity within thirty days of receiving the plans. The department, commission and private entity shall take no action on the project in reliance on those plans until they have received the local authority's recommendations and comments or until the thirty-day comment period has expired, whichever comes first; provided that the local authority's approval is not required under this section, and this section does not delegate to the local authority power that it does not otherwise have; and

If the member is married at the time of designation, written spousal consent shall be required if the designated refund beneficiary is other than the spouse or a supplemental needs trust to which the spouse is a beneficiary. "32A-4-4. COMPLAINTS--REFERRAL--PRELIMINARY INQUIRY.--

A. Reports alleging neglect or abuse shall be referred to the department, which shall conduct an investigation to determine the best interests of the child with regard to any action to be taken. The name and information regarding the person making the report shall not be disclosed absent the consent of the informant or a court order.

B. If a report alleging neglect or abuse meets the criteria established pursuant to Section 32A-4-4.1 NMSA 1978, the department may assign the case to the multilevel response system.

C. During the investigation of a report alleging neglect or abuse, the matter may be referred to another appropriate agency and conferences may be conducted for the purpose of effecting adjustments or agreements that will obviate the necessity for filing a petition. A representative of the department shall, at the initial time of contact with the party subject to the investigation, advise the party of the reports or allegations made, in a manner that is consistent with laws protecting the rights of the informant. The parties shall be advised of their basic rights and no party may be compelled to appear at any conference, to produce any papers or to visit any place. The investigation shall be completed within a reasonable period of time from the date the report was made.

D. After completion of the investigation on a neglect or abuse report, the department shall either recommend or refuse to recommend the filing of a petition.

E. When a child is taken into custody, the department shall file a petition within three days, unless the provisions of Subsection F of Section 32A-4-7 NMSA 1978 apply, in which case the petition shall be filed within five days.

Chapter 172 Section 2 Laws 2023

SECTION 2. Section 32A-4-7 NMSA 1978 (being Laws 1993, Chapter 77, Section 101, as amended) is amended to read:

requires prompt treatment or diagnosis, deliver the child to a medical facility. If a law enforcement officer delivers a child to a medical facility, the officer shall immediately notify the department that the child has been placed in the department's legal custody.

B. When an alleged neglected or abused child is delivered to the department, a department caseworker shall review the need for placing the child in custody and shall release the child from custody unless custody is appropriate or has been ordered by the court. When a child is delivered to a medical facility, a department caseworker shall review the need for retention of custody within a reasonable time after delivery of the child to the facility and shall release the child from custody unless custody is appropriate or has been ordered by the court.

C. If a child is placed in the legal custody of the department and is not released to the child's parent, guardian or custodian, the department shall give written notice thereof as soon as possible, and in no case later than twenty-four hours, to the child's parent, guardian or custodian together with a statement of the reason for taking the child into custody.

D. Reasonable efforts shall be made to prevent or eliminate the need for removing the child from the child's home, with the paramount concern being the child's health and safety. E. The department may release the child at any time within the three-day period after the child was taken into custody if it is determined by the department that release is appropriate or if release has been ordered by the court.

F. If a child that has been taken into custody and released to the child's parent, guardian or custodian is taken into custody again within one year of having been taken into custody, the child shall not be released from custody until a department review is conducted, in consultation with the children's court managing attorney, to review the child's case and documents and determine whether the child should be released to the child's parent, guardian or custodian or if it is in the best interest of the child to file a petition alleging neglect or abuse. The department's review shall be conducted by a person above the level of supervisor who has been authorized by the secretary of children, youth and families to review such cases. If the secretary has not authorized anyone to review such cases, the department's review shall be conducted by the director of the protective services division of the department. F. Records and related information shall be privileged and shall not be disclosed to a person not directly involved in the employment, volunteering or contracting decision affecting the specific applicant, school volunteer, contractor or contractor's employee who has been offered employment, a school volunteer position or a contract and will have unsupervised contact with children or students on school premises. No agreement between a departing school employee and the governing authority or superintendent shall diminish or eliminate the responsibility of investigating and reporting the alleged ethical misconduct to the department or, if legally mandated, to law enforcement, and any such agreement to the contrary is void.

I. Unless the department has commenced its own investigation of a licensed school employee prior to receipt of the form, the department shall serve the licensed school employee with a notice of investigation and a notice of contemplated action pursuant to the Uniform Licensing Act within sixty days of receipt of the form.

If the injunction is granted, the board shall hold an expedited hearing for the suspension of the license or probation of the licensee. The board shall follow the hearing procedures of the Uniform Licensing Act, but times shall be shortened in accordance with the injunction or at the request of the licensee.

B. A board may summarily suspend a license issued by the board or place a licensee on probation without a hearing, simultaneously with or at any time after the initiation of proceedings for a hearing provided pursuant to the Uniform Licensing Act, if the board finds that evidence in its possession indicates that the licensee:

B. By December 31, 2021, each board shall promulgate and post on the board's website rules relating to licensing requirements to list the specific criminal convictions that could disqualify an applicant from receiving a license on the basis of a previous felony conviction. Rules relating to licensing requirements promulgated by a board shall not use the terms "moral turpitude" or "good character". A board shall only list potentially disqualifying criminal convictions.

C. In an administrative hearing or agency appeal, a board shall carry the burden of proof on the question of whether the exclusion from occupational or professional licensure is based upon a potentially disqualifying criminal conviction.

D. No later than October 31 of each year, while ensuring the confidentiality of individual applicants, a board shall make available to the public an annual report for the prior fiscal year containing the following information:

RELATING TO HEALTH CARE COVERAGE; ENACTING NEW SECTIONS OF THE HEALTH CARE PURCHASING ACT AND THE NEW MEXICO INSURANCE CODE TO REQUIRE COVERAGE FOR EXPENSES RELATED TO PROSTHETICS AND CUSTOM ORTHOTIC DEVICES; PROHIBITING UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE ON THE BASIS OF DISABILITY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Chapter 196 Section 1 Laws 2023

SECTION 1. A new section of the Health Care Purchasing Act is enacted to read:

"PROSTHETIC DEVICES--CUSTOM ORTHOTIC DEVICES--MINIMUM COVERAGE.--

A. Group health coverage, including any form of self-insurance, offered, issued or renewed under the Health Care Purchasing Act shall provide coverage for prosthetics and custom orthotics that is at least equivalent to that coverage currently provided by the federal medicare program and no less favorable than the terms and conditions that the group health plan offers for medical and surgical benefits.

B. A group health plan shall cover the most appropriate prosthetic or custom orthotic device determined to be medically necessary by the enrollee's treating physician and associated medical providers to restore or maintain the ability to complete activities of daily living or essential job-related activities and that is not solely for the comfort or convenience of the enrollee. This coverage shall include all services and supplies necessary for the effective use of a prosthetic or custom orthotic device, including:

- (1) formulation of its design, fabrication, material and component selection, measurements, fittings and static and dynamic alignments;
- (2) all materials and components necessary to use it;
- (3) instructing the enrollee in the use of it; and

F. Prosthetic and custom orthotic device coverage shall not be subject to separate financial requirements that are applicable only with respect to that coverage. A group health plan may impose cost sharing on prosthetic or custom orthotic devices; provided that any cost-sharing requirements shall not be more restrictive than the cost-sharing requirements applicable to the plan's medical and surgical benefits, including those for internal devices.

G. A group health plan may limit the coverage for, or alter the cost-sharing requirements for, out-of-network coverage of prosthetic and custom orthotic devices; provided that the restrictions and cost-sharing requirements applicable to prosthetic or custom orthotic devices shall not be more restrictive than the restrictions and requirements applicable to the out-of-network coverage for a group health plan's medical and surgical coverage.

H. In the event that medically necessary covered orthotics and prosthetics are not available from an in-network provider, the insurer shall provide processes to refer a member to an out-of-network provider and shall fully reimburse the out-of-network provider at a mutually agreed upon rate less member cost sharing determined on an in-network basis.

I. A group health plan shall not impose any annual or lifetime dollar maximum on coverage for prosthetic or custom orthotic devices, other than an annual or lifetime dollar maximum that applies in the aggregate to all terms and services covered under the group health plan.

L. If coverage for prosthetic or custom orthotic devices is provided, payment shall be made for the replacement of a prosthetic or custom orthotic device or for the replacement of any part of such devices, without regard to continuous use or useful lifetime restrictions, if an ordering health care provider determines that the provision of a replacement device, or a replacement part of such a device, is necessary because of any of the following:

(3) the condition of the device, or the part of the device, requires repairs and the cost of such repairs would be more than sixty percent of the cost of a replacement device or of the part being replaced.

Approved April 6, 2023

AN ACT

RELATING TO CONSTRUCTION; ENACTING THE RIGHT TO REPAIR ACT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

Chapter 200 Section 1 Laws 2023

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.--This act may be cited as the "Right to Repair Act".

Chapter 200 Section 2 Laws 2023

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS.--As used in the Right to Repair Act:

A. "construction defect" means a deficiency in the construction of a dwelling that is the result of a failure to exercise that degree of skill a reasonably prudent person skilled in such work would exercise in such circumstances;

B. "construction professional" means a contractor or subcontractor performing the construction of a dwelling;

C. "dwelling" means a newly constructed single family housing unit designed for residential use. "Dwelling" includes the systems and other components and improvements that are part of a single family housing unit at the time of construction;

D. "dwelling action" means a complaint in court or the mechanism for dispute resolution in the construction contract between the purchaser and seller involving an alleged construction defect brought by a purchaser against the seller of a dwelling arising out of or related to the construction of the dwelling;

E. "purchaser" means a person or entity who was the original purchaser or subsequent owner of a dwelling;

F. "reasonable detail" includes all of the following:

- (1) an itemized list that describes each alleged construction defect; and
  - (2) the street address of the dwelling where the alleged construction defect is observed and the location in the dwelling that is the subject of the notice; and
- G. "seller" means the party responsible for construction of the dwelling.

Chapter 200 Section 3 Laws 2023

SECTION 3. NOTICE AND RIGHT TO REPAIR.--

A. Except with respect to claims for alleged construction defects involving an immediate threat to the life or safety of persons occupying a dwelling, rendering a dwelling uninhabitable or in which the seller, after notice from the purchaser pursuant to this subsection, refused to make a repair under any applicable express warranty, a purchaser shall first comply with the provisions of this section before filing a dwelling action. A purchaser shall give written notice by the United States postal service with delivery confirmation or electronic means, to the seller specifying the reasonable detail of each alleged defect. A seller who receives notice pursuant to this subsection shall promptly forward a copy of the notice to the last known address of each construction professional that the seller reasonably believes is responsible for an alleged defect specified in the notice. The seller's notice to each construction professional may be delivered by electronic means.

B. Once a seller receives notice pursuant to this section, the notice does not constitute notice of a claim or occurrence as defined by the New Mexico Insurance Code or an insurance policy to trigger notice requirements to the seller's liability carrier, as the notice is intended to allow the purchaser and seller an opportunity to amicably resolve any claimed defect issues without the need for formal arbitration or legal proceedings.

C. After receipt of the notice described in Subsection A of this section, the seller and the seller's construction professional may inspect the dwelling to determine the nature and cause of each alleged construction defect and the nature and extent of any repairs or replacements necessary to remedy each alleged construction defect. The purchaser shall ensure the dwelling is made available for inspection during normal working hours not later than ten days after the purchaser receives the seller's and the seller's construction professional's request for an inspection. The seller and the seller's construction professional shall provide reasonable notice to the purchaser before conducting the inspection. The inspection shall be conducted at a reasonable time. The seller and the seller's construction professional may use reasonable measures, including testing, to determine the nature and cause of each alleged construction defect and the nature and extent of any repairs or replacements necessary to remedy each alleged construction defect. The seller's construction professional shall restore the dwelling within sixty days of the testing.

D. Within sixty days after receipt of the notice provided for in Subsection A of this section, the seller shall send to the purchaser, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a written response to the purchaser's notice. The response may:

(1) offer to repair or replace each alleged construction defect or to have each alleged construction defect repaired or replaced by another construction professional chosen by the seller at the seller's or seller's construction professional's expense;

(2) offer to provide monetary compensation to the purchaser; or

(3) invoke any remedies provided in the construction contract between the seller and the purchaser.

E. A written offer to repair or replace pursuant to Paragraph (1) of Subsection D of this section shall describe in reasonable detail all repairs or replacements that the seller and the seller's construction professional intend to make or provide to the dwelling and a reasonable estimate of the date by which the repairs or replacements will be made. This subsection does not prohibit the seller from offering monetary compensation or other consideration instead of or in addition to a repair or replacement.

F. The purchaser shall allow the seller or the seller's construction professional the opportunity to make repairs or replacements of each alleged construction defect unless the purchaser has rejected in writing or by electronic means the seller's offer to repair or replace. If the purchaser reasonably rejects the seller's offer, the purchaser has complied with the requirements of this section and may initiate a dwelling action.

G. The purchaser and seller may negotiate for a release of claims regarding the noticed construction defect if an offer involving monetary compensation or other consideration is accepted or the purchaser is satisfied with the repairs or replacements.

H. If the response provided pursuant to Subsection D of this section includes a notice of intent to repair or replace each alleged construction defect, and such offer to repair or replace has not been rejected by the purchaser, the purchaser shall allow the seller and the seller's construction professional a reasonable opportunity to repair or replace each alleged construction defect or cause each alleged construction defect to be repaired or replaced as follows:

(1) the purchaser and the seller or the seller's construction professional shall coordinate repairs or replacements within thirty days after the seller's notice of intent to repair or replace was sent pursuant to Subsection D of this section. A construction professional that was not involved in the construction of the dwelling resulting in each alleged construction defect and that performs any repair or replacement of the alleged construction defect pursuant to this section is liable to the seller or purchaser who contracted for the contractor's or subcontractor's services only for that construction professional's scope of work;

(2) repairs or replacements shall begin as agreed by the purchaser and the seller or the seller's construction professional, with reasonable efforts to begin repairs or replacements within thirty days after the seller's notice of intent to repair or replace was sent pursuant to Subsection D of this section. If a permit is required to perform the repair or replacement, reasonable efforts shall be made to begin repairs or replacements within ten days after receipt of the permit or thirty days after the seller's notice of intent to repair or replace was sent pursuant to Subsection D of this section, whichever is later;

(3) all repairs or replacements shall be completed using reasonable care under the circumstances and within a commercially reasonable time frame considering the nature of the repair or replacement, any access issues or unforeseen events that are not caused by the seller or the seller's construction professional;

(4) the purchaser shall provide reasonable access during normal working hours for the repairs or replacements;

(5) the purchaser and seller may negotiate a release or waiver upon the satisfaction of the purchaser or in exchange for monetary compensation or other consideration in lieu of repair; and

(6) at the conclusion of any repairs or replacements, the purchaser may reinstate the process set forth in this section regarding any claim for inadequate repair or replacement.

I. A purchaser may send a new notice pursuant to Subsection A of this section to include each alleged construction defect identified after submission of the original notice. The seller and the seller's construction professional shall have a reasonable period of time to conduct an inspection, if requested, and thereafter the parties shall comply with the requirements of Subsections B through H of this section for each additional alleged construction defect identified in reasonable detail in the notice.

J. The time periods provided for in this section shall be reasonably extended for delays that are beyond the control of seller and otherwise by written agreement of the seller and purchaser.

K. If the seller does not comply with the requirements of this section and the failure is not due to any fault of the purchaser or a result of delays that are beyond the control of seller, including weather conditions or government delay, the purchaser shall follow any remedy provided for in the construction contract or file a complaint in court if no dispute resolution mechanism is provided for in the contract with the seller.

L. Nothing in the Right to Repair Act negates or supersedes the existence of any remedy provided for in the construction contract.

M. The statute of repose pursuant to Section 37-1-27 NMSA 1978 or other applicable statute of limitation shall be tolled during the repair and replacement process for items specified in the notice.
